Kids' place

February 2015

We keep busy here in Kids'Place. Between regular programming, special events and working on Summer Reading details, let's just say there is no reason Kids' Place isn't popping! Even with the nasty winter weather, we've had decent attendance at our various programs and presentations. So as you peruse the following pages, realize there is a good reason that staff often looks in need of a nap.

Coming Soon!

Black History Celebration with Soul Food & Music.
All things Suessical! Special Storytime &
Appearance of Cat in the Hat!
March is Reading Month Kick-off & Reading Logs.
Special Guest Readers

Our Summer Reading Sponsors to date: Meijers ($367!!), H.C. Starck Mfging ($75) & Branch County 4-H Fair (parking pass, ride & amphitheater tickets)

Special Events since last time... We've had so much fun, as you can see on the pages following. Bedtime math, Wii, Room Size Checkers, Walkin' on the Wild Side (with birds, snakes and other Michigan wildlife), Puppet show and puppet making with Lego night and movies too!

SPECIAL THANKS

Presentations: Kathy Mock: Line Dancing
William Odisher: Puppetry
Diane Lutz: Michigan Mammals & Birds

Don't you love what we did with our hair?

I love helping!

How often do we see math & pj's?

Amir & Alison help lay out our checker grid

Room size checkers!

Shakin' what our mommas gave us!?

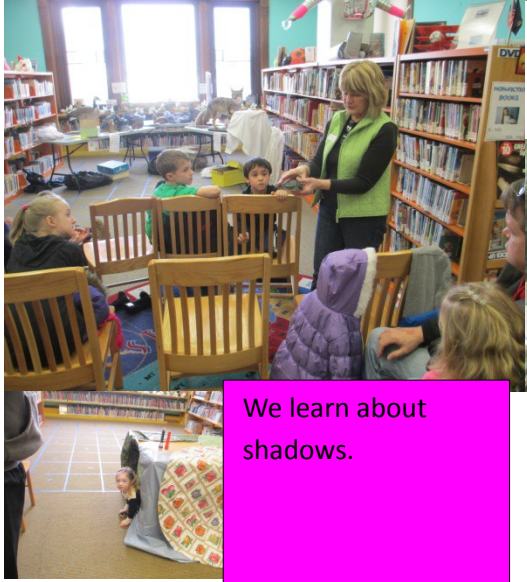

Checkers or Twister?

What's up with Miss Linda & her camera?

Diane Lutz helps us "Walk on the Wild Side!"

We learn about shadows.

We didn't see our shadow! No more Winter!

FYI: Rick Fisher of Fab-Magic will be coming in June to offer two weeks of cool magic classes to our young and not so young patrons!

With the success of our Thursday afternoon knitting classes, Shea Heminger is planning to teach evening classes sometime beginning in March!

Here or there, there or here, fun times at the library are everywhere!
