COLDWATER IN HISTORY

JUST WHO were the earliest inhabitants of this locality no one assumes to say, although there appears to be evidence that the Mound Builders, perhaps descendants of the Aztecs, preceded the "noble red men." Be that as it may, it seems certain that the fierce and warlike Pottowattomie Indians were, as early as 1721, undisputed lords of the St. Joseph valley, which included Branch County and Coldwater Prairie.

Previous to that, Fr. Marquette, the zealous French priest, had discovered the mouth of the St. Joseph River in 1673, and in 1679 LaSalle built a fort there—only 75 miles from Coldwater, as the crow flies.

Until 1763 France had nominal rule over all the region from Quebec to New Orleans, but in that year, when a treaty of peace terminated a war between that country and England the latter was given Canada and Michigan. It was in this year that the Pottowattomies massacred the garrison at St. Joseph.

At the close of the revolutionary war England yielded Michigan to the United States, and in 1787 it became a part of the Northwest Territory, which extended from the Ohio River to the St. Lawrence and from the Mississippi to Pennsylvania.

In 1796 the British surrendered Detroit and other posts to the United States, and Gov. St. Clair proclaimed the County of Wayne, which extended from the Cuyahoga River in Ohio to the Mississippi and northwest to Lake Superior, including of course the present County of Branch (then called the Township of Green) and the entire St. Joseph valley. In 1800 this locality became a part of Indiana, but in 1805 the Territory of Michigan was formed, with Gen. Wm. Hull as governor.

In 1812 England again came into control of Michigan and secured the help of the Pottowattomies, who massacred the garrison at Fort Dearborn (now Chicago) and killed every American possible, helped by Tecumseh and his Shawnee braves, but at the close of the war the British of course abdicated.

Our predecessors here, the Pottowattomies, lost heart after the death of Tecumseh in 1813, concluding that it was a hopeless task to attempt to stem the tide of the coming whites, and never again gave serious trouble, though their presence here retarded settlement and caused pioneers to hasten on to localities less populous with Indians.

A very old geography, published in 1814, in possession of the publisher of this Directory, gives the population of the entire state of Michigan as 4,762 at that time.

It was in 1821 that Chief Topinabee and his people sold to the whites what is now Branch County and a vast area besides, though they still continued to occupy it as before, on reservations, one of which was six miles square, called Mikkasawbee, in Coldwater and Quincy Townships. However, they roamed everywhere, to hunt and fish as they chose, in a veritable red man's paradise; the woods abounded in deer, wild turkeys, pigeons, squirrels, and other game, while the lakes and streams swarmed with fish. The deed was signed by Topinabee, followed by Wawenickemack, Mayoncheemon, Aichwemuckquee, and many others.

The present city of Coldwater occupies part of what was then a beautiful prairie, some three miles long from east to west and a mile or more wide. It was dotted with oaks, with an occasional elm, while bordering it were magnificent forests of beech, maple, walnut, whitewood, elm, oak and other trees, interspersed with many streams and 69 lakes, large and small, in what is now Branch County.

The following abstract of the noteworthy events of the past ninety-two years will be found valuable as a matter of reference.

1822—Joseph Godfrey established a trading post to barter with the Coldwater Prairie Indians; a little later one Marantette conducted another where Oak Grove Cemetery is now located.

1825—The government ordered a 100-foot road made from Detroit to Chicago, but it proved far too expensive and was abandoned in favor of the old Indian trail, which explains the tortuous windings of that highway today, even though it has been considerably straightened during the 90 years that have passed.

COLDWATER IN 1830

1829—Oct. 29, Branch County was laid out and so named by the Territorial Legislature; it was first attached to Lenawee County and later to St. Joseph. During this year A. F. Bolton bought a tract of land where Masonville afterward was located, east of the present cemetery bridge.

1830—Hugh Campbell erected the first (log) house on the present site of the Masonic Temple. The county had 50 whites at this time. Two-horse stages began running between Chicago and Detroit. Entire county tax, $7.36.

1831—Allen Tibbits and Joseph Hanchett platted a village here, calling it Lyons; according to present streets it ran from Jefferson to Monroe and from Church to Washington. In July Mr. Tibbits preached the first sermon here. A. F. Bolton built the first frame building in the county, a hotel at Masonville; landlord, Harvey Warner. Branch was made the county seat in place of Masonville, which held that honor a few weeks; Branch then had one log hut. Coldwater postoffice was at Masonville.

1832—Chicago road built. Oriental Hotel erected by John Morse. Peter Martin built a sawmill at the junction of Division and Clay streets. Cynthia Gloyd taught the first school, with 9 pupils; Silas A. Holbrook established the first store here. M. E. Church founded by Rev. E. H. Pilcher, circuit rider, with five members—Allen Tibbits and wife, Joseph Hanchett and wife and Amelia Harrison.

1833—The name of the town was changed to Coldwater, from the Indian "chuck-sey-ya-bish" or cold water. Branch County, as such, began its separate existence, March 1; it had previously been attached to St. Joseph County. First sheriff, Wm. McCarty; clerk, Wales Adams; treasurer and register of deeds, Seth Dunham; probate judge, Peter Martin.

THE OLD METHODIST CHURCH

1834—The "old red schoolhouse" was erected at the corner of Pearl and Hudson Streets.

1835—The village of Masonville was platted on the east bank of the Coldwater River and aspired to be the county seat again. Here Roland Root and Wabaskoee Marsh bartered with the Indians. Coldwater Baptist Church organized with sixteen members.

1836—Methodists built a church.

1837—The village was incorporated; population of entire township, 960. Branch County had 4,016 people. Francis Smith, Thos. Daugherty and Wm. B. Sprague erected a mill on the present site of the "A" mill; it was burned in 1858 and rebuilt in 1859. Dr. Alger at this time found 33 taverns between Quincy and Sturgis. A terrible year for malarial troubles. One historian says that 32 out of 140 people of the little village died that fall. The cause was said to be the Clay Street milldam, built in 1832. A body of angry citizens destroyed it. July 18, Coldwater's first newspaper, the Observer, was issued. It became the News, then the Democrat, whose existence ended when as the outcome of a row among the owners the office was "pied." Presbyterian Church organized with sixteen members. Log court house and jail (30 feet square) built at Branch, the county seat.

1838—Extremely hard times, caused by "wildest" inflation. Bounty on wolves, $5 each.

1839—Schoolhouse erected at the corner of Pearl and Clay Streets. A county poor-farm was purchased at Branch; present poor-farm purchased April 1, 1861. Kakotomo murdered Sauauquett, the Pottowattomie chief.

1840—The last of the Pottowattomie Indians, except a few stragglers, were removed to the far west.

OUR FIRST COURTHOUSE

1841—Albert Chandler founded the Coldwater Sentinel. Total county vote, 1,015.

1842—March 1, Coldwater became the permanent county seat, supplanting the village of Branch and ending Masonville's hopes. July 4, Grand double celebration, Sunday-school and "old way."

1844—January, Mr. Sweet organized Coldwater's first band. The Baptists and Presbyterians built churches, the former where the Old Bank building now stands, the latter on the present site of the Farmers' Mutual building; it is now the Lutheran Church, the other is the Gage building on South Monroe Street. Benj. H. Parker of Batavia was killed by John White, who mistook him for a deer, those animals, with wolves, bears, etc., being still plentiful. The mill-race was dug.

1845—One Robinson was robbed of $1,500 in silver and gold in a Coldwater tavern.

1846—The first jail was erected. Spring election voted against licensing liquor selling. November 30, American Hotel burned. Henry Lambert, a machinist, fell heir to $670,000.

1847—County vote decided to build a courthouse; majority, 27, the exact figure by which the proposition to build a new one was carried 40 years later. In this year (1847) a Masonic lodge was established here and the Coldwater Guards were organized with S.T.F. Bullard captain, also the Branch County Agricultural Society, with L. D. Crippen president, Wm. B. Sprague vice-president, F. V. Smith secretary, Geo. A. Coe treasurer. The "old white schoolhouse" was erected, on the present site of the Washington school, also a steam flouring-mill on the corner of Jefferson and Pearl Streets.

1853—Dr. J. B. Gully opened "water cure" sanitarium at the present location of the Coldwater Cooperage Co.

Ebenezer Butterworth and 145 of his Zouave Cadets left for war; the Coldwater Light Artillery (afterward called Loomis' Battery) left April 30 with six brass cannon and 120 men, only 49 whom returned three years later. CONFIDENCE

 YOU turn with confidence to the pages of this Directory for reliable information; and there is a certain satisfaction—in fact, a great deal of it—in making purchases where you have perfect confidence that everything is exactly as represented and that you will receive full value for every dollar expended.

HILTON'S salesmen are instructed to tell the exact truth about every item of goods sold, from a necktie to a fur overcoat in the Clothing and Men's Furnishing Department, and from a shoestring to the finest shoe in the Shoe Department.

Not only this, but if by any mischance goods prove unsatisfactory, we always stand ready to make it right. That old saying, "A satisfied customer is the best advertisement," is not worn out, and over forty years' experience in the Coldwater retail trade, with a square deal forever in mind, has given HILTON thousands of living advertisements all over Branch County. If you are not one of them, why not?

Don't Wait to be Cranked, Be a Self Starter

The Mutual Benefit
Life Insurance Company
NEWARK, N. J.

For almost every necessity you buy you are a "self starter."

You don't need "cranking" to get to your grocer, your tailor, or even your fire insurance agent.

Next to food, clothes and shelter, "protection" (life insurance) is a real necessity.

Don't wait to be "cranked." "Self start" now to my office for a model contract in the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J.
