THE ECHO
UNION CITY HIGH SCHOOL
Union City, Michigan

Table of Contents

Dedication to Mr. Dyer	4
Mr. Dyer is retiring after 26 years as Superintendent of Union City Community Schools.
Administration	5
Mr. Adams and the School Board work with the parents, teachers, and students for a smooth running school system.
Faculty	7
Our teachers are the life blood of the school and the basis of all learning.
Grads	13
Four memorable years come to a close as 64 graduating Seniors leave their high school days behind them.
Undergrads	25
The 464 seventh through eleventh graders have gathered many new experiences through class work and club activities.
Activities	43
F.T.A. begin their scholarship program, the Pep Club built school spirit, Varsity Club traveled to a college football game, the Senior Band played host to the Massed Band Festival. These were just a few of the many activities carried on by the clubs at U.C.H.S. this year.
Sports	67
Winning the Little Brown Jug climaxed the football season for Union City's avid fans.
Acknowledgements	80
A big thank you to our sponsors whose help we appreciate.

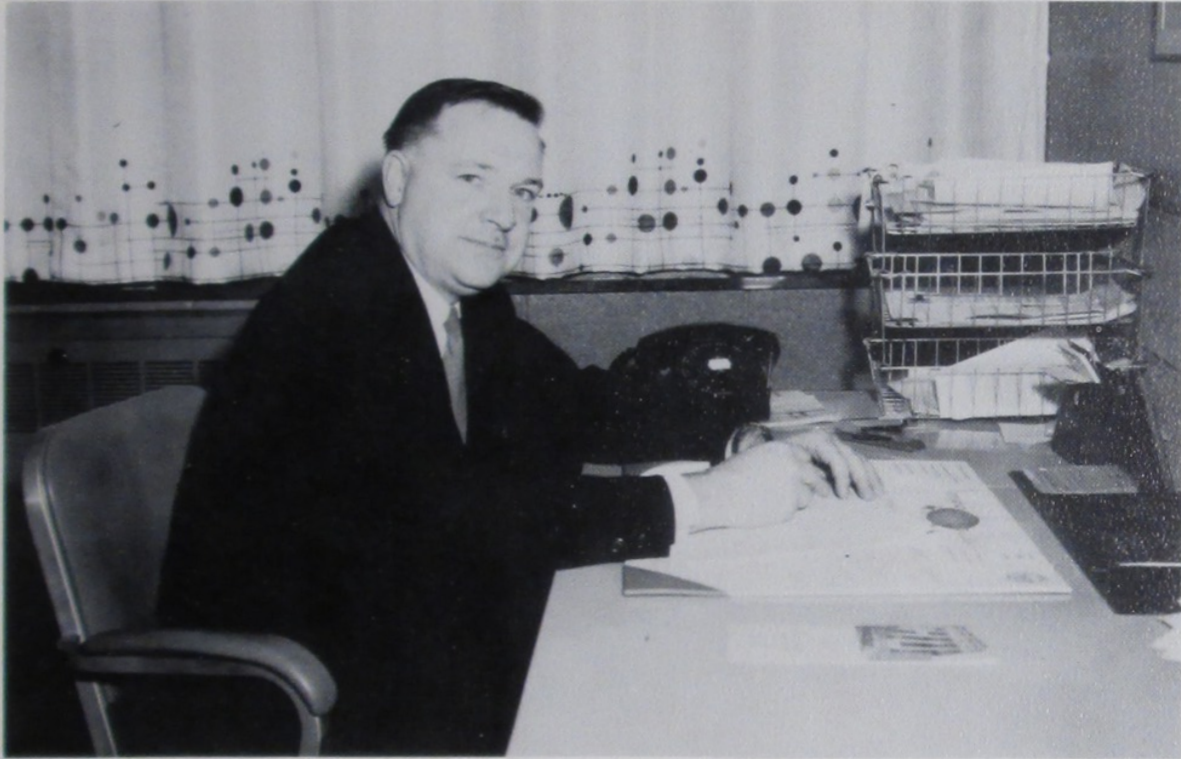

This year, the 1963 annual staff is proud to dedicate their annual to Mr. William A. Dyer, who is retiring this year. He has been Superintendent of the Union City Community School District for 26 years. Under Mr. Dyer's guidance, much progress has been made in improving the educational program of our district.

Because the student enrollment has risen from approximately 300 to 1264, several new buildings have been added. New elementary schools were built in Sherwood, Burlington, and Union City. A new high school was constructed in Union City in 1960.

Many new subjects have been added to the curriculum, including: French, trigonometry, mechanical drawing, additional shop and commercial classes in the Senior High School, and shop and home economics classes in the Junior High.

To Mr. Dyer, who has helped so much to raise the standards of education in our district, we sincerely dedicate the 1963 annual.

Mr. Adams looks up from one of his daily reports.

As principal of the Junior and Senior High Schools for Union City, Mr. Adams does more than the routine duties of a principal. He acts as a counselor to all students on their choice of courses during registration. He acts as manager for the business affairs of the yearbook. He is also athletic director for all the sports our students participate in. In addition to this, he is the advisor to both Junior and Senior High student councils. With all of these duties, he still finds time to fulfill the many demands of his position.

"After fifteen years in our system, Mr. Adams is leaving this year. Under his guidance, standards of scholarship and school citizenship have consistently risen. He has set a high example of personal integrity and devotion to duty."

Our secretaries, Janice Philson from the Junior high, Eunice Mergl and Mary Hobday from the senior high, work together in the offices.

School Board and P.T.S.A. work for the betterment of the school

ACTIVITIES

Student Life is Active

Ken and Mike ponder over a mechanical drawing problem.

The projects in wood are varied.

Gracanne reports to Library Club.

Candidates for Chapter Farmers listen to the ritual of initiation.

Students in typing class work seriously.

Sports Encourage School Spirit

Everyone stands to salute the flag as the national anthem is played.

Union City makes a touchdown.

Bob leaps to escape his opponent.

The Reserve Cheerleaders lead the crowd with pep.

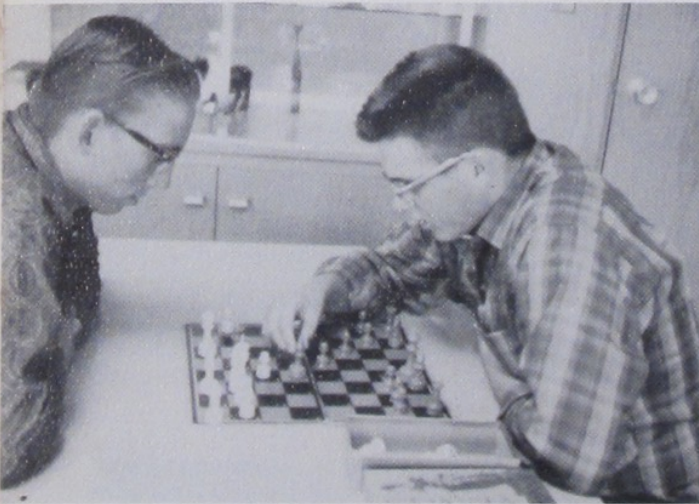

This is a Typical Noon at U.C.H.S.

Students are about to enjoy a well balanced meal.

Everyone wishes to find a place at the crowded tables.

Tom and Jim concentrate on a game of chess during a quiet noon hour.

Noon hour provides time for listening to records and talking.

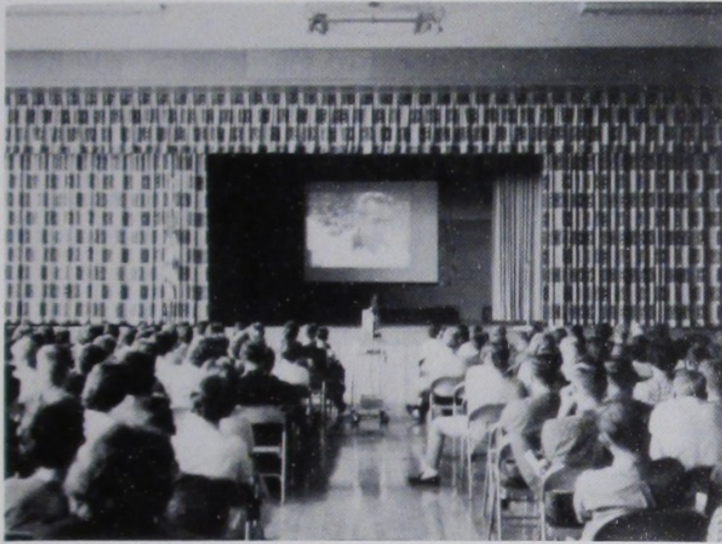

Student center provides a place for meeting with friends.

The hungry boys eagerly await a good lunch.

A School Day Has Many Phases

At the first assembly students learn about auto safety.

Carole runs the duplicator for a typing project.

Bill, Warren, John, and Arthur relax during Varsity Club Initiation Dance.

Our Student Council Starts a Record Library.

Pearson, Valerie Adams, Jean Lewis, Gary Smith, Roger Smith.

Barbara, Janet, Roger, and Thera enjoy decorating the tree.

"Meeting called to order" was the phrase used to call the student council together many times throughout the school year. Planning the Homecoming was again a very important project for the council. They have also had the community chest drive and handed out underclassmen pictures. The council has started a record library for the whole school to enjoy for a nominal fee and has booked assemblies for the 63-64 school year.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS: Sharon Musselman, Sec.; Carol Scharf, Treas.; Anna Belle Tule, Pres.; Janet Funk, V-Pres.

Debaters Argue About Value of Joining Common Market

SEATED: Maurice Sholes, Susan Allen, Seaman Knapp, Jerry Mack. STANDING: David Hasty, Warren Johnson, Mrs. Arey, Bob Brewer.

The icy roads and judges who didn't appear added to the problems of the debaters this year. Although two debates were canceled, one because of bad weather and the other by non-appearance of the judge, the debaters gained valuable experience against Leslie and Jackson Saint John's.

They also presented the topic this year, "Resolved: The United States should join in forming a common market among the nations of the Western hemisphere," at the March meeting of the P.T.S.A.

Five members of this year's squad will benefit next year's squad with their experience.

Skp, Susan, and Warren, with Mrs. Arey's help, are working towards the big day.

After all that work, the big day is here.

Knowledge Leads to Understanding

Processing of books, filing and cataloging, along with keeping the library itself in order, give just a glimpse of the many tasks performed by student librarians. In the spring, several members go to a Student Librarian Assistants Association of Michigan (SLAAM) convention in Ann Arbor where ideas are exchanged. Gracanne Smith attended a Student Librarian Assistants Workshop at Western Michigan University as a result of this.

Visual aids have been playing an increasingly vital role in classroom instruction, thus offering the opportunity to student librarians to become familiar with such materials.

Because of the untiring efforts of Mrs. Evert, head librarian, our library is fast becoming an outstanding example of what student cooperation and unique leadership can accomplish.

Guidance and Counseling Aid Students

Mrs. Warke counsels with students concerning occupational and educational goals, employment opportunities, and personal and school adjustments. She also administers the program of standardized testing of the senior high school.

Janet asks Mrs. Warke for advice in planning her studies for college.

Carol and Martha enjoy counseling with Mrs. Hooker.

Mrs. Hooker does a different type of counseling. She offers training in how to study effectively to those students who need this help. She aids the students with their social and personal problems by helping them to see and understand where their difficulties lie.

The varied questions about courses to take, which college to enter, where to look for a job, as well as many others, bother a good many students of Union City High School. As a counselor, Mr. Adams is always ready to offer information, advice, and experience to help our students find the answers to their problems.

Gordon gets help in planning for college entrance.

Future Teachers' Club Offers Experience in Teaching

Janet Funk, Sue Bingley, Elaine Alwardt, Betty Strong, Mary Mench, Joyce Fairchild, Kathy Johnson, Barbara Rathbun, Rose Marie Bavin.

This year, the Future Teachers of America have carried through their past plans of sponsoring an award for one or more seniors who definitely plan on going into the field of teaching. A committee was set up, consisting of one member from each grade, to make a list of qualifications and to set up a system of selecting the recipient. This award will be carried on through the years if it's successful this year.

Twelve club members, acting as cadet teachers, assisted in the elementary school and one assisted in junior high. This program, which has been operating fourteen years, has started many students toward their teaching careers.

F.T.A. OFFICERS: Jeannie Johnson, Historian; Nancy Watkins, Treasurer; Sharon Musselman, Secretary; Sharon Wart, Parliamentarian; Carol Scharf, Songleader; Martha Case, President; Mrs. Hooker, Advisor; Kathleen Donovan, V-President.

French Culture is Learned Through

THIRD ROW: Tom Wilson, Daniel Jones, Bob Smith, Orrin Johnson, Calvin Crandall, David Hanna, Gary Mack, David Hasty.

Mr. Weirich looks on while Emil Martin and son, Duard, replace the twine in their hay baler.

Using the soil profiles, Mr. Weirich points out some good soil characteristics.

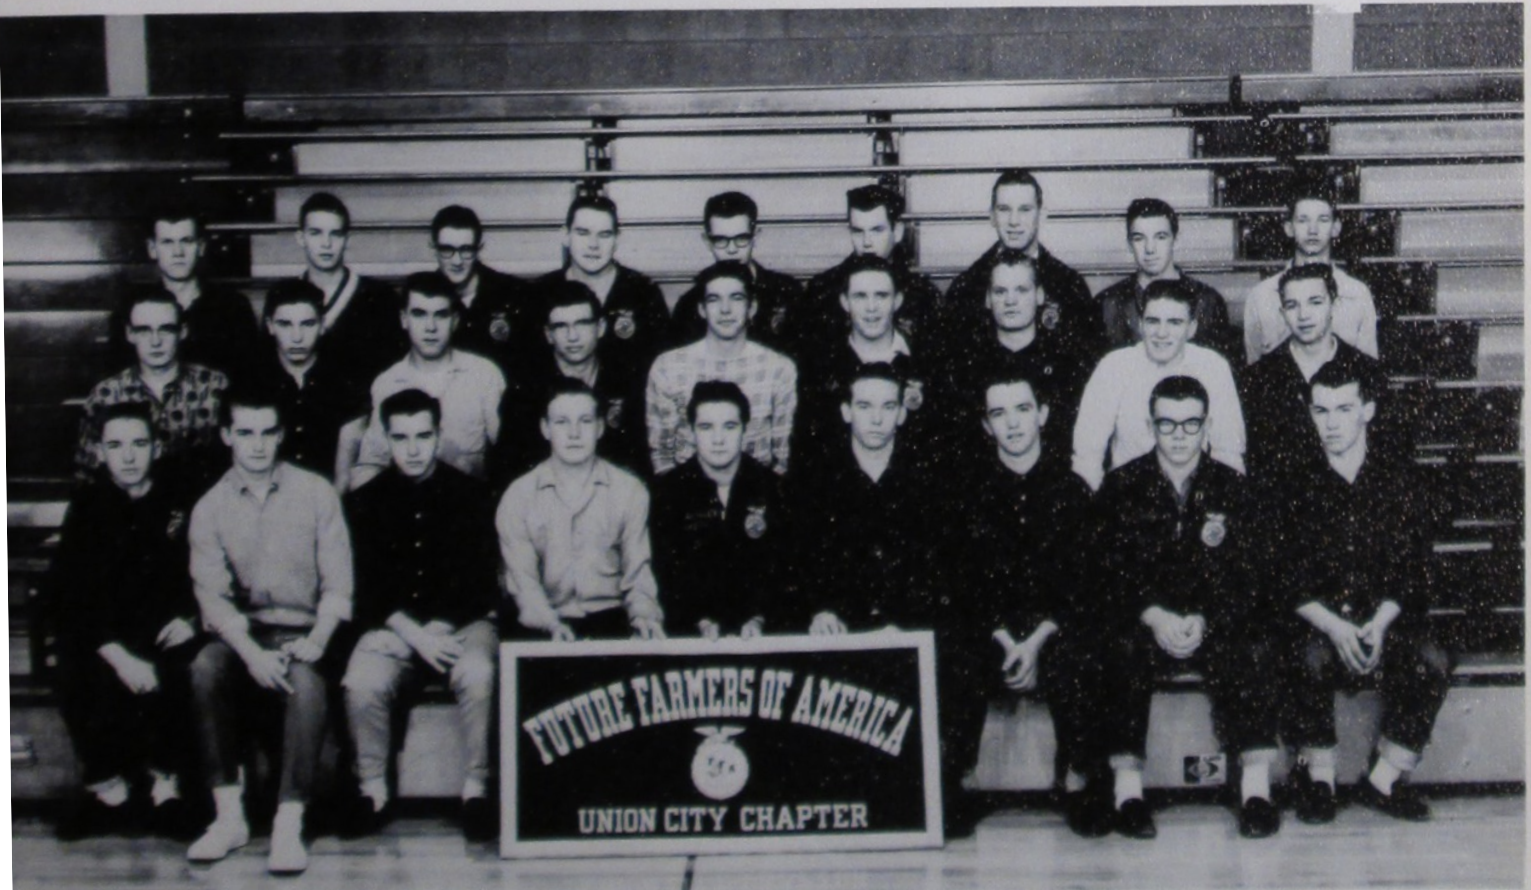

nto Farming and Related Occupations

One of the most active groups in school is the Future Farmers of America, commonly known as F.F.A. Ten students received seeds, planted corn, and kept records for the DeKalb Corn Achievement Program. Several entered the leadership training contests which include speech, farm forum, and parliamentary procedure. This year Union City won both public speaking and farm demonstration. For the second year in a row, our team won the land judging contest which provides training for the most efficient use of the land. There are four ranks or degrees, Green Hand, Chapter Farmer, State Farmer, and American Farmer. Awards are made on the point system on the basis of grades, outside class participation, personal savings and supervised farming, and are made to one boy in each class. In the spring the club plans to do more seeding of the high school lawns and to plant more pine tree seedlings on the plantation.

Paper Staff Offers Experience in Journalism

MAROON AND GREY STAFF: Carol Baumeister, Martha Case, Co-editor; Sue Bingley, Co-editor; Roberta Howell, Mrs. Pendill, Advisor; Marsha Cline, Carla Bush, Cindy Clark, Adele Fischer, Karen Knapp, Exchange Editor.

Many nights the Paper Staff members have hurried to meet a deadline for the paper. After each edition they all hoped that this one would be better than the last. Only the staff realize the work that goes into a paper. When all the articles are collected they must be dummied and retyped on the stencil and finally they can be mimeographed.

This year an art editor has been added to the staff. Other additions or improvements have been a regular exchange page, sports page, editorials, and better headlines.

Many hours are spent in organizing the school paper.

Martha, Sue, Karen, and Carol are busily at work on the final stages of the paper.

Why all the excitement? It's 12:10 and the Maroon and Grey is on sale.

The Annual Staff Works Hard to Meet Its Deadline

"Click!" There goes that camera again, bringing more and more pictures for the members of the annual staff to work on. Guided by their editor, the members follow a carefully planned layout in preparing the annual for publication.

A lot of work goes into the annual to get it out before the deadline. Pictures have to be selected, cut to the right size, pasted on the pages, and students identified. Captions have to be written for some pictures and headlines thought up for the pages. Copy must be written, typed, and pasted. These various activities give the members an idea of what goes on in the field of journalism.

The members of the Annual Staff take over Mrs. Johnson's room every seventh hour.

FIRST ROW: Ernest Foster, Myra Jones, Kathleen Donovan, Editor; Mary Burns, Assistant Business Manager; and Carol Scharf. SECOND ROW: Linda Rarick, Marsha Cline, Janice Bray, Carol Baumeister, Karen Knapp, Steve Harvey, Sports Editor; Martha

Case, Lucette Wells, Larry Greuter, Linda Stevens, Nan Lee Piper, and Carla Austin. THIRD ROW: Janet Goshcoff, Carole Lower, Kathy Johnson, and Gracanne Smith.

Seniors Cast "Tattletale"

How would you feel if your secret diary got published in the town paper under a pen name and you heard everyone wondering who that awful girl could be? The diary shakes the town like a major explosion, for Patty tells all. In the end it does the town good, for everyone sees himself as he really is.

The high school chorus numbered thirty-one girls this year. It meets twice a week and is open to anyone who likes to sing. Training is given in note reading, and a wide selection of music is sung.

The chorus has new risers this year which they used at an assembly Christmas concert.

The Harmonaires were chosen from the senior high chorus and have enlivened many of our community and school programs.

Six more girls were added to the Harmonaires to form the Triple Trio. They also have brought pleasant sounds of music to school and community events.

The seventh and eighth grade choruses each meet twice a week. Besides singing, they study note reading, three-part harmony, music theory, and music appreciation from recordings.

The combined junior high chorus sings for an assembly program, as does a girls' sextet selected from the eighth grade.

The Senior Band Represents Our c

The band started off the 1962-63 season by attending the Centerville Fair on September 22. On the 29th of September, they traveled to Ann Arbor to attend the University of Michigan's football game and annual Band Day. Union City, along with many other bands, participated in the half time ceremony.

Next in line was the annual Winter Concert held this year on December 18. Union City was host for the second Massed Band Festival on January 29. Four other bands, plus Union City gave an evening concert, under the direction of a guest conductor, Stanley Shoemaker of Jackson High School.

The district band contest was held in Sturgis in March.

The band finished the season by giving a spring concert.

All the homecoming activities were planned by the Student Council.

Couples danced beneath soft lights to the dreamy music of John Clayton's Band at the annual coronation ball which was held in the gymnasium as a climax to the suspense which had been building up through the week. Linda AcMoody reigned over the gala event after being crowned by last year's queen, Anna Belle Tule.

New Yells and Cheers Build School Spirit

VARSITY: Dorla Lux, Anna Belle Tule, Betty Strong, Patsy McRae, Ruth Zarmstorf.

RESERVE: Pat Adams, Sandi Eldred, Terri Sue Smith, Marcia Brown, Rose Ann Knapp.

The 10 cheerleaders for Union City were chosen last May for the 1962-63 season. During the summer, three of the Varsity cheerleaders went to a special cheerleading camp. There, they learned new cheers, better techniques, essentials of good sportsmanship, and leadership. Both the Reserve and Varsity cheerleaders sparked the pep meetings with skits and yells to boost school spirit.

Admission to Varsity Club Adds Prestige

The aim of every red-blooded, Union City boy, is to be a member of the Varsity Club. And the aim of the Varsity Club is to improve sportsmanship and the quality of athletics. To be a member of the club, you must have participated in a varsity sport. This club tries to fulfill its aims by raising money and observing more experienced sportsmen. They have sponsored three dances, one of which was an initiation dance. Through their advisor, Mr. Wheeler, they secured tickets for the Purdue-Michigan State football game on November 10. With their money, they bought the new floor mats for the gymnasium. A new award system was inaugurated this year, also.

ade This Year a Success

Our Maroons spoil a Trojan's try for yardage.

The referees signal another Maroon Touchdown!

Seventy sunburned faces reported for practice late in August. All were anxiously working for one goal, to make Varsity. After three weeks of vigorous training, the Varsity squad felt they were ready to test their skill. Over the weeks, after suffering defeats, injuries, and enjoying victories, they went to Athens. And their determination brought back the "Little Brown Jug."

The Little "C" All-Conference team this year had one Maroon on it. Bob Cline was named to both the Offensive and Defensive teams. In addition, Roger Smith, Marty Chard, and Steve Harvey received Honorable Mention.

Our boys gather around to have a look at the "Little Brown Jug" after winning it from arch-rival, Athens.

Competition is Rough in Little C

Doug leaps high in an effort to tip the ball to his teammates.

BASKETBALL MANAGERS: Dennis Pepper, Tim Bunday, Tom Metzler, Larry Cuyler.

All through the cold winter months, one finds the gym bustling with activity after school. For this is when our varsity members practice for their Tuesday and Friday night games. Contrary to what many people may think, a player doesn't just dribble the ball and throw it around. After the players get dressed, they go out onto the gym floor and warm up. Then the team goes through lay-up drills, where base-line lay-ups, down-the-middle lay-ups, and left-handed lay-ups are run. After these, other drills such as fast break, two-on-one, and two-on-two drills are run. In these drills, each player has either a zone to be in, a man to be on, or a lane to run down. All this practice prepares the players for the close competition in the Little C Conference.

Tom attempts another of his famous long shots.

Coach Wade and team plan their second half attack.

The starting eleven at the left provided the backbone, but everyone on the squad was always ready to give his best. Although the reserves failed to win a game this year, they all felt that they had improved. Every game was hard played and fought to the end. At the end of the season, they all felt ready to become varsity candidates.

Reserves Have Ability and Spirit

Coach calls a time-out to talk over some new strategy.

But Lack Experience.

Track and Field Events Keep Our Boys

Physically Fit

Two of our top track men, Terry and Marty, practice running the hurdles.

Five lettermen will be returning to our track team again this year. Forty-six boys, the largest group we have ever had, have signed up. Union City holds the conference record of the 880-yard relay. It was run by Ron Swain, Bud Adams, Mike Swarhout, (past graduates) and Terry Brown in 1:36.3 time. Terry Brown holds the record in the 440-yard dash with a time of 53.3.

FIRST ROW: Tom Metzler, Barney Brauker, Rick Robinson, Leon Bennett, Roland Blowers, Ted Moore, Alfred Sebo, Coach Wheeler. SECOND ROW: Arthur Preston, Terry

Brown, Dave Hanna, Marty Chard, Bill Parks, Tom Lenon, Roger Enyart, Warren Johnson.

Spring Brings Baseball Season

FIRST ROW: Barry Philips, Doc Rosenberry, Bob Pearson, Ted Moore, Lynn Robbins, Kenneth Cuyler, Larry Bennett, Alfred Sebo, Coach Wade. SECOND ROW: Bradley Baker, Kyle Thayer, Andy Baumeister, Warren Johnson, Richard

Fraker, Bob Smith, Tom Adams, Kyle Converse, Steve Kent. THIRD ROW: Ken Edgell, Bob Rosenberry, Bryce Adolph, Richard Adolph, Bill Adolph, John Brewer, Marty Chard, Dennie Miller, David Hanna.

Last year the Maroons tied with Homer as Co-Champions in the Little C Conference with a 6-1 record. From last year's winning squad about 10 lettermen will return. Competition will be keen for positions left vacant from last year. The Maroons are experienced in pitching, catching, and some positions in the infield and outfield. Approximately 40 candidates turned out, and the forecast for this year is that the team will be one of the top teams in the conference.

Bob, Tom, and Kyle admire the baseball trophy they helped to win.
