QUINCY, MICHIGAN
OUR 100th YEAR

HISTORY

Although Quincy was incorporated as a village in 1858, the first school was opened many years earlier in the summer of 1836 in the log cabin home of Mrs. Hannah Newberry. In 1837, the school was located in a one-room log house owned by John Broughton and located where the American Legion post is presently situated.

The log schoolhouse was torn down and a frame structure erected in its place between 1841 and 1842. By 1844 enrollment increased so much that all pupils could not be accommodated; therefore, a private school was organized.

In 1850 the schoolhouse was moved to the present site of the Methodist Church on West Chicago Street. When the Methodist Church obtained this land, the school was to be moved to Jefferson Street, but this was no easy task since it could not be decided whether the school should be located east or west of Main Street. A contest was set up to decide the question. The people on the west side of Main Street hitched their oxen to the west side of the building while those from the east side did the same thing with the east side of the building. The spectators then watched to see the teams of oxen pull and the building moved slightly to the east, thus deciding the question.

In 1856 the district decided to build another structure and in 1858 the first brick building was completed on the corners of East Jefferson and Fulton Streets, the site of the present middle school building. The old frame building was sold to be used as a store and was moved away. It also served as a home on Bond Street before it was moved to village land on the south side of Quincy where it is to be restored as a school building museum.

The school facility once again became inadequate in 1903 so the part that had stood since 1858 was torn down and, in 1904, was replaced by a large addition which cost $10,000.

In 1930 a new building was again voted due to increasing enrollments. The old brick building was demolished and the building, which presently houses the middle school, was built in 1932.

Between 1946 and 1956, 22 schools were consolidated with Quincy. In 1954-55, the building was remodeled and an addition for high school vocational classes was built on the south side. Land was also purchased at the end of Fulton Street for a new elementary building which was completed in 1955 and dedicated as the Edward Jennings Elementary School.

In 1960 the decision was made to construct a million dollar building for use as a high school. The building was dedicated on February 4, 1962. The elementary school also received a six-room addition. The most recent construction was in 1968 when an addition was added to the elementary school and a new athletic field complex was built.

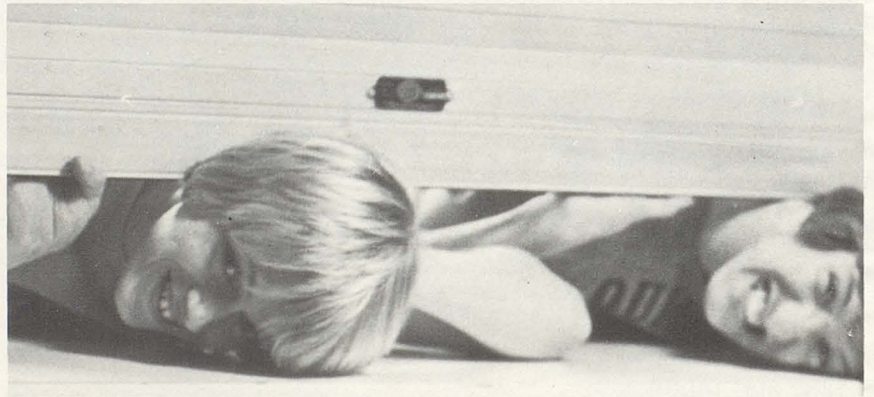

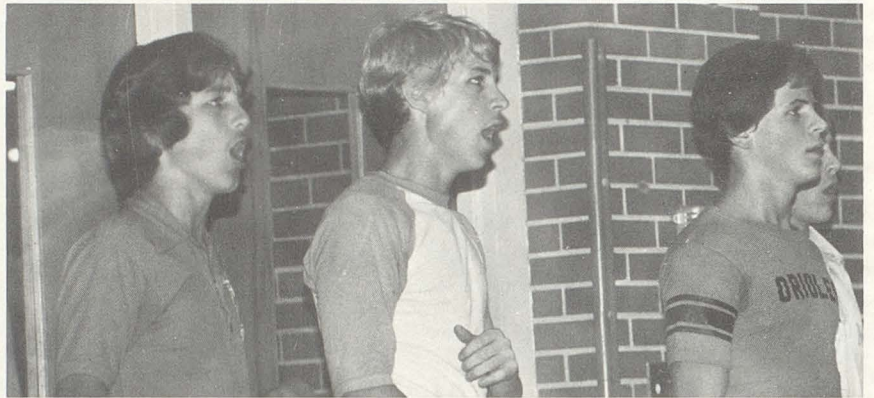

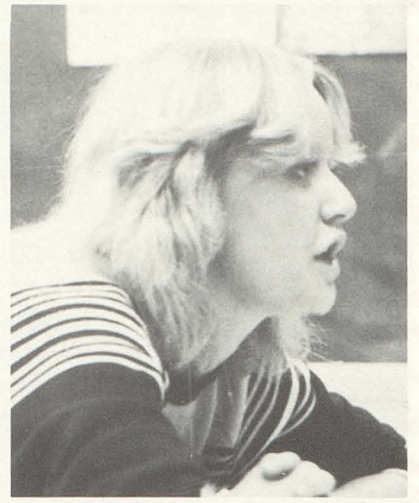

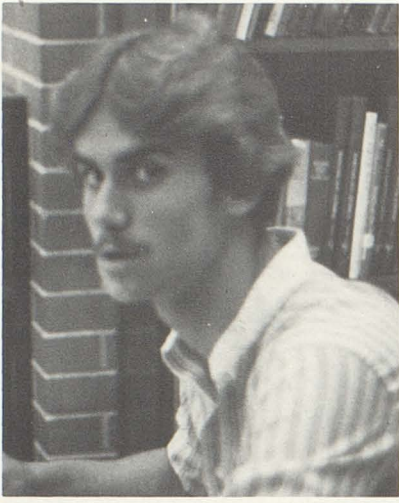

In 1874 a class of two boys and three girls was the first to complete the prescribed course of study. In observance of this, a program of orations and essays was given by these five students.

The first official commencement was held in 1876 when three boys were awarded certificates to show their achievement. The Class of 1880 is the centennial class because no classes graduated in 1877, 1878, 1879, 1881 and 1890.

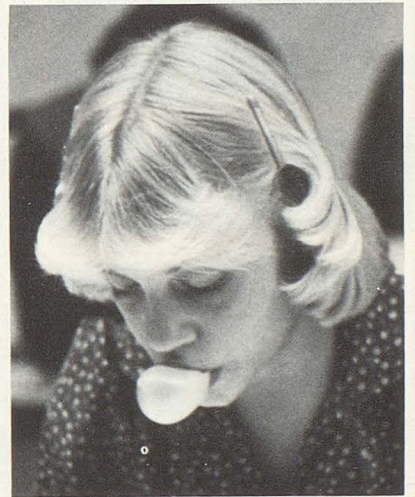

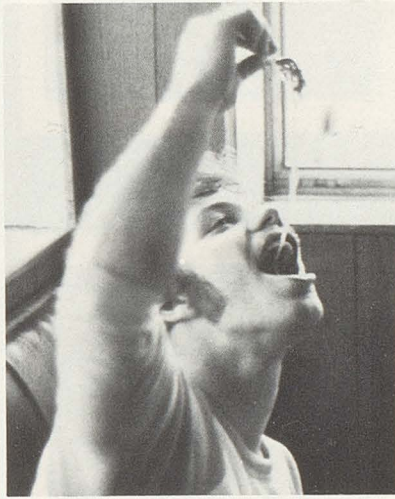

The Class of 1910 issued the first yearbook, while the custom of passing the cane from the senior class to the junior class originated in 1897. The cane represents the bond of friendship and good will existing between the classes and symbolizes the new life of the graduates.

The Quincy School System has had continuing accreditation by the University of Michigan since 1916. Accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools began in 1937, exactly 100 years after the first schoolhouse was built, and continues through the present.

It's Time to Start

We were freshmen
Young, eager, full of life,
Ready to start the final
Stage of schooling before
We made our future.

Then as sophomores
We were beginning,
Trying to understand life
And ourselves so we Could fully achieve our goals.

As juniors we were Almost ready for the Final stage. We were
Busy setting the scene
Hoping and wishing for
The best to come.

Now as seniors
We aren't sure if the Setting is right; if we Fully know ourselves to be able to Make that final step.

For when we're through the Graduation ceremony
It's time to start.

What will make the difference
For the rest of our lives,
Our future as men and Women of the world.

EVENTS

PHIL AND CATHY REIGN . . .

This year's Homecoming proved highly successful as the Birds ousted the Athens Indians 19-7 as the highlight of the week. Song titles was the theme for Homecoming '79. Once again the Seniors proved their strength, by copping all events except the skit to win the coveted Pep Jug by a landslide margin. This year's festivities were observed by King Phil and Queen Cathy. The victorious evening was capped off by the annual dance, which featured the band "Saturn."

1) The Homecoming court in an undignified moment during the pep assembly; 2) Joe tells Theresa a story during the senior skit; 3) Randy and Sarah in the roles of Mickey and Minnie Mouse; 4) Council President Rich Bean presents the Pep Jug to senior class president Carl Albright. What a smug expression!

WHAT A WEEK!

The 1980 Miss Oriole title was won by Nancy Bowerman. Her court included Cathy Johnson, Linne Gordon, Lynn DuBay, JoAnn McClellan, Chris Johnson, Pam Loose and Gail Condra.

The week was full of activities with each day having its own meaning. The days were: Dress up Day, Bum Day, Crazy Wardrobe Day, '50's Day and Masquerade Day.

Competition was stiff in the annual saucer pull with the juniors emerging as the victors. The seniors and sophomores tied for second while the freshmen finished fourth. An unplanned snowball battle commenced afterwards between the juniors and seniors. No winner declared!

Senior Lieve DePaep and sophomore Steve Clark ate their way through cherry pies to win the pie-eating contest for their respective classes.

New events of interest were a "Prettiest Hairy Legs Contest" for male faculty members. Mr. Jack Adams won the honors. There was also a wheelchair basketball game between the faculty and students. The students wheeled themselves to a 5-0 victory.

Ginna Named Miss Tip-Up

February 2 was the date of the annual Tip-Up Pageant and Talent Show. Ginna Rice was chosen as the 1980 Tip-Up Queen. She performed a dramatic reading. Nan Rupp was selected as first runner-up and Miss Congeniality while Brenda Keeton was second runner-up.

Contestants: front: Brenda Keeton, Nan Rupp, Dawn Strong, Deb Burlew, Debbie Nave, Sarah Kaufman, Tammy Mast; back: Jenni Stempien, Angie Strang, Karen Andrews, Denise Howell, Lori Wilson, Ginna Rice, Lena Arnett and Penny Hagaman.

Students Pump Iron — Earn Medals

After school muscles were bulging, sweat was dripping from foreheads and sweaty hands and straining faces were commonplace in the gym from pulling or pushing weights.

Coach Nowicki set up a weight-lifting program to build up muscles for upcoming seasons and it caught on not only with students but also with some faculty members.

GRIDDERS VICTORIOUS

After a disastrous campaign in 1978, the Orioles improved to a 4-5 season. Although our Birds' record was not a winning one. Quincy seemed to have a better season than what was indicated, Quincy lost three games by a total of nine points, two of which were one point losses. Quincy finished in a tie for third place in the Big 8 Conference with Homer with a record of 4-3. Quincy gave their fans plenty to cheer about and the fans rewarded the team by giving them support throughout the entire season. Following the season, Quincy placed six people on the first team all conference squad. These people were Brian Ludlow, running back; Phil Cutler, tight end; Kamal Cariuty, kicker; Bill Smith, offensive tackle; Tim Brewer, defensive lineman; and John Burge, linebacker. Keith Teachout earned a spot on the second team as a defensive end. Mark Ludlow earned a berth on the honor squad by receiving honorable mention as a defensive back. Five of these players were also placed on the all area team: Ludlow, Cutler, Smith, Brewer and Burge. Cariuty was the only Oriole griddier that earned all state honors earning a spot on the honorable mention squad.

4 SHUT OUTS FOR JV'S

The Quincy JV football team compiled a 6-2 win-loss record. This was good enough for third place in the Big 6 standings.

The young Orioles were led offensively by freshman back Jim Supianoski. The defense was anchored by sophomore linebacker Brent Whitney.

The junior Birds started the season on a winning note by shutting out arch rival Bronson. They continued to roll, recording three more shutouts throughout the season.

The Oriole duffers posted a dual match record of 7-7. Jim Kessler was voted outstanding golfer by his teammates. Most improved golfer on the team was Darin Friend. Honors went to sophomore Todd Schmidt who finished third on the all conference team.

The Team: front: Todd Schmidt, Rob Smith, Erin Sawdey, Kurt Spalding, Todd Strane; back: Coach Bob Mitchell, Chuck Rubley, Mike Vozar, Darin Friend, Tori Budd, Bill Swallow and Jim Kessler.

State meet qualifiers included Rich Bean and Greg Miller. Hard work paid off for these two Orioles who placed fifth and twenty-first respectively. The Team: front: Todd Cochrane, Dave Finley, Guy Creager, Greg Miller, Tom Bean; back: Lieve DePaep, Rich Bean, Coach Bob Bell, Dan Richards and Terry Dull.

Second Spot for Oriole Cagers

The 1979-80 version of Quincy High Basketball brought fun and excitement to the Oriole hardwood. Under the tutelage of new coach Doug Johnson, the Birds finished the season at 14-7, good enough for a second place finish in the rugged Big 8 Conference. The Orioles' conference record was 10-4.

All conference selections included first teamers Phil Cutler and Jim Keeslar. Loran Fickle earned a berth at Honorable Mention. Cutler was also selected to the Battle Creek All Area team for Class C.

Next year's hoopsters will lose the likes of Cutler, Keeslar, Rich Bean, Darin Friend, Kamal Cariuty and Scott Smith.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN

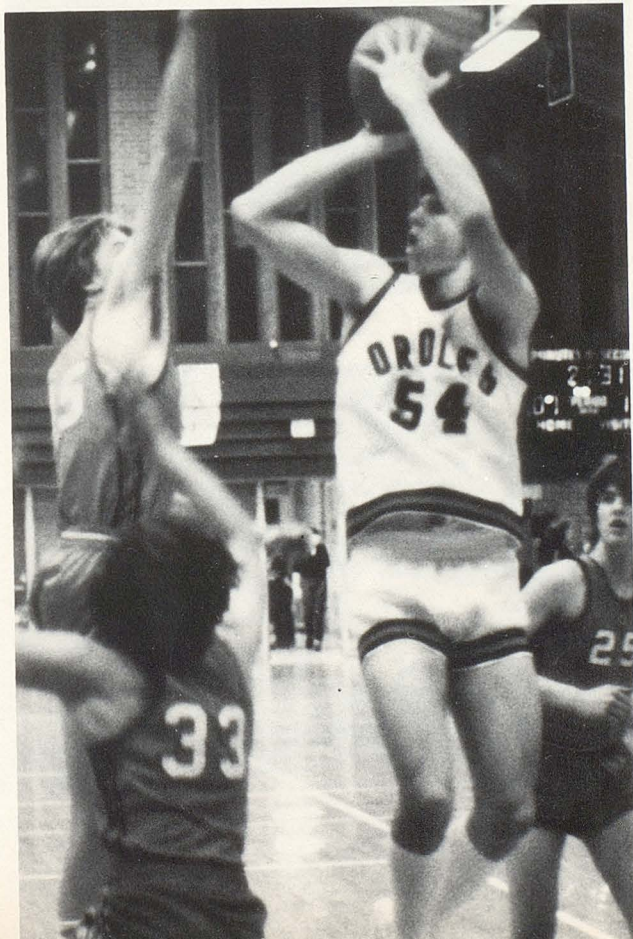

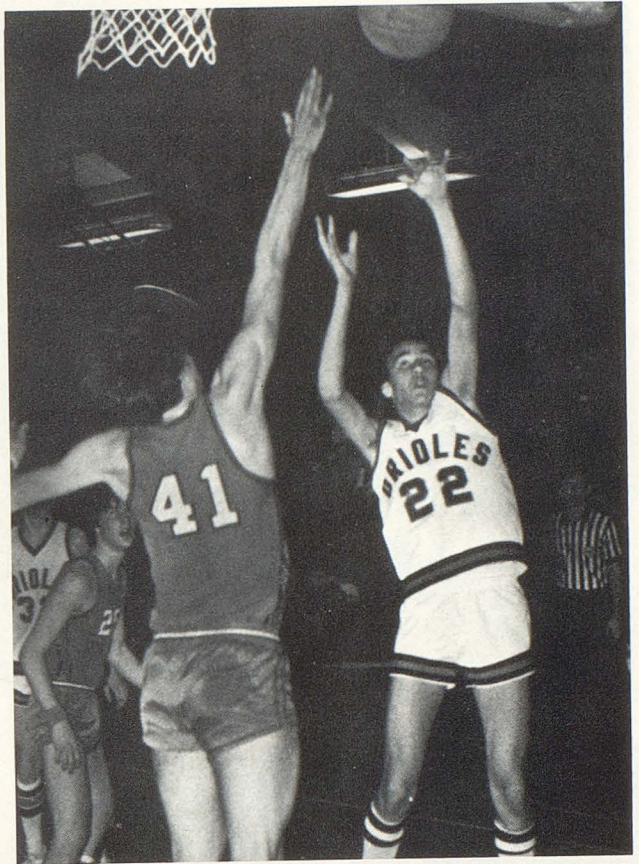

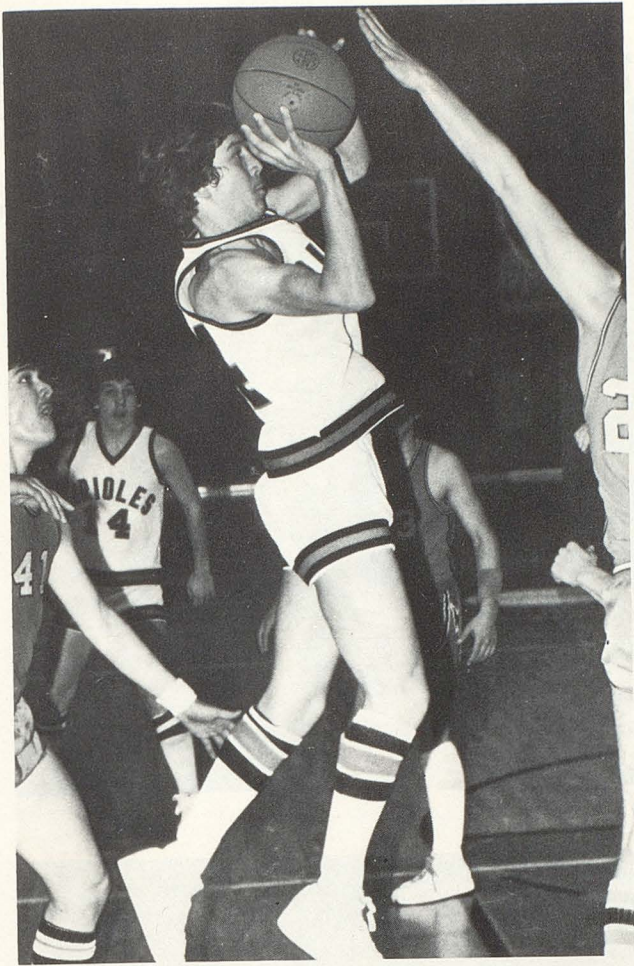

This year's squad, under the guidance of Coach Bob Bell, had a rough going of it. Because there wasn't a freshman team, many of the team members were inexperienced freshmen. However, through hard work and dedication, they gained much experience and valuable confidence.

Although the Junior Birds posted only 3 wins against 15 losses, many bright spots were evident. John Taylor and Steve Hinds led the team in scoring while Steve led in rebounds along with Eric Rice. Tom Bean acted as the floor leader.

Even though the squad lost more games than they won, the coach and team exemplified sportsmanship and character throughout their rocky climb.

Matmen Rebuilding

The Oriole matmen of 1979-1980 have experienced a solid season of growth. One highlight of the season was when the Quincy wrestlers placed third at the Dan Taylor Memorial Wrestling Tournament at Hillsdale. The team captured second place at the Big 8 Conference Meet.

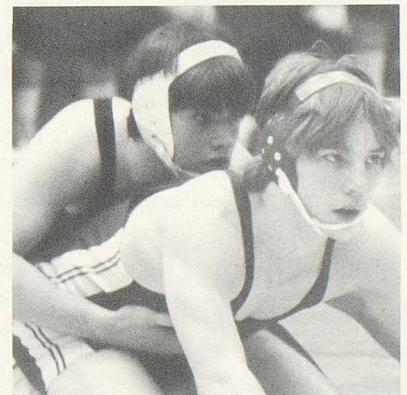

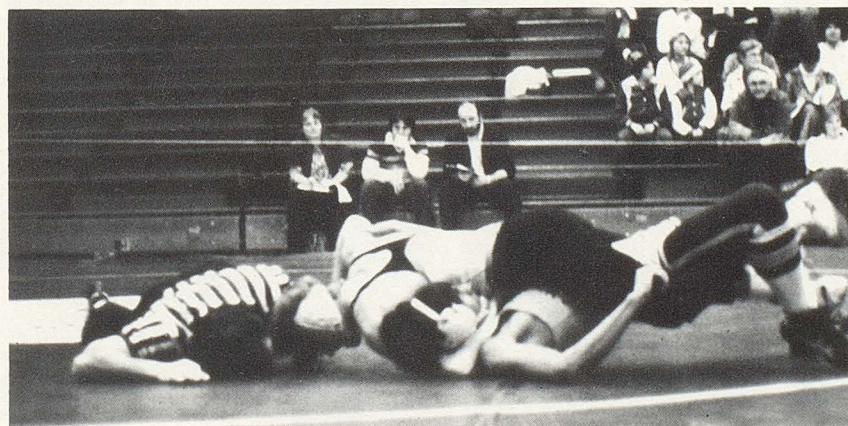

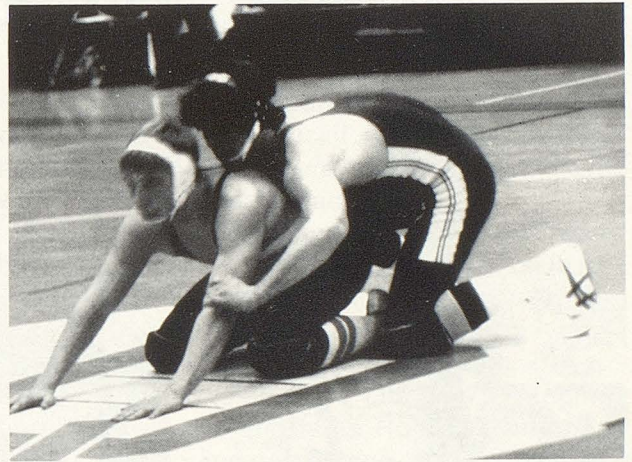

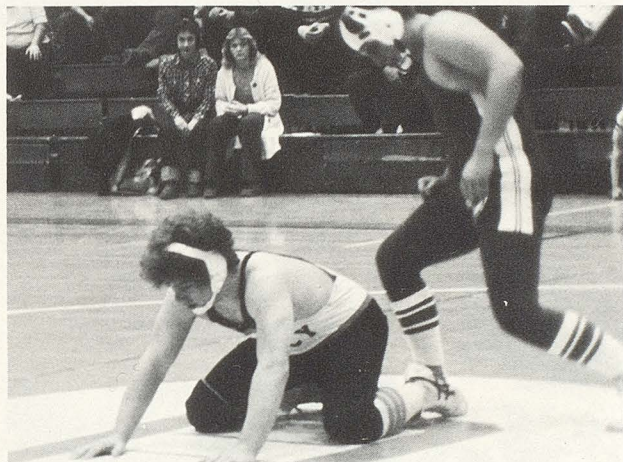

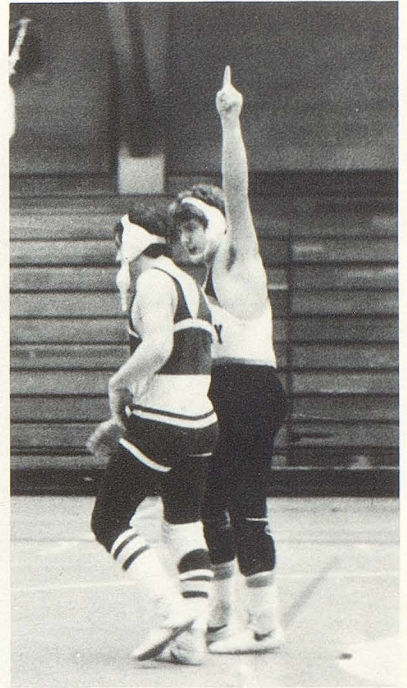

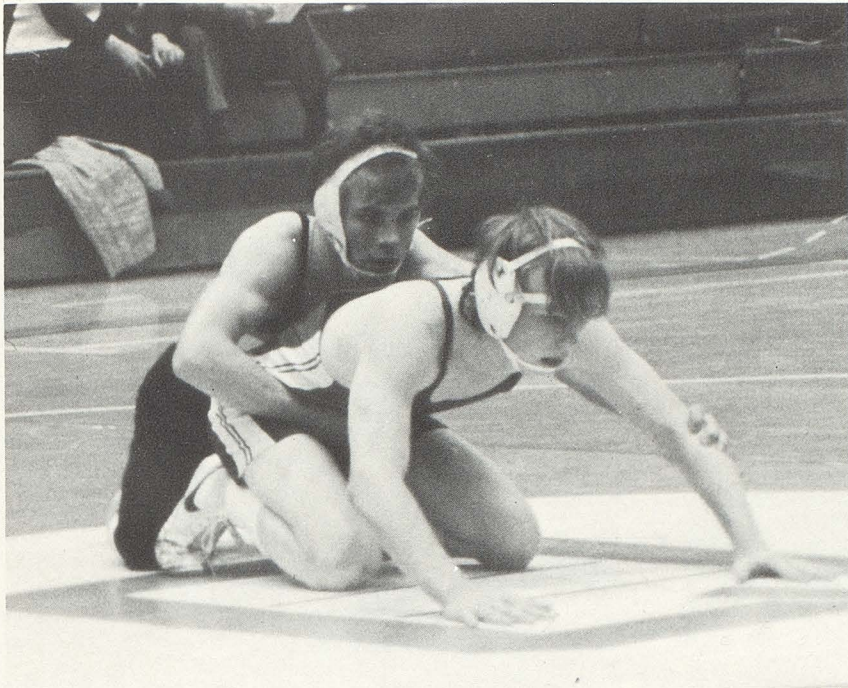

At the State Contest Tim Brewer, most outstanding wrestler of 1979-80 and co-captain of the team, placed fourth at the 138 pound weight class.

Although the season was a tough struggle, the Oriole wrestlers have grown and started to rebuild a strong foundation for the future of the Quincy wrestling program.

High in Stats

But . . .

The Orioles compiled a 3-10 conference record and a 6-12 overall record but all they needed were 10 more runs and they would have won 9 of 13 conference games.

The Orioles were second in the league in team batting average with .306 and they were first in triples, second in doubles and fifth in singles.

Bryan Harmon and Scott Rodesiler were named to the first All Conference team. Designated hitter Harmon hit .409 with a .579 slugging percentage while shortstop Rodesiler hit .435 with a .761 slugging percentage.

Brian Ludlow was named as a member of the second All Conference team. Ludlow was also a designated hitter who hit .341.

Six team members scored at least 100 points: Keith Teachout, Mark Ludlow, Greg Miller, Jim Kessler, Rich Bean and Tyler Baldwin.

Teachout set school records in the shot put of 51'7" and in the discus with 139'9½". Bean set a mile record of 4:29.2 while Kessler tied the 880 record with a time of 58.6. A new record of 41.0 was set by Baldwin in the 330-yd. low hurdles

TRYING SEASON

The accomplishments of the 1979 team were numerous. Besides breaking seven team records, the varsity played in the district championship game. Even though QHS lost to Jonesville 33-35, it was the first time in girls' basketball history that a Quincy team advanced so far in tournament play.

After a slow start, the team's skills, attitude and teamwork improved greatly as the season progressed.

Kris Condra was selected by the league coaches as a member of the Big Eight all conference team and Karice Loveberry was given honorable mention.

JV LADY CAGERS DISPLAY WINNING EFFORT

The 1979 junior varsity girls' basketball team played with toughness and determination. This young team, composed mainly of freshmen, practiced hard and played with a tremendous team effort. Using an effective offense, the Orioles achieved a 9-5 conference record and a 10-5 record overall.

Jensen Volleyball MVP

Sandy Jensen was accorded all conference volleyball honors along with being selected as the most valuable player.

to 10-4 Record

41 CONSECUTIVE WINS AND NO OPPOSITION!

Forty-one consecutive dual meet wins in four years is the record of the girls' track team, not to mention first place victories in relays, invitationals, the conference meet and the regional.

As if all that isn't a record in itself, Tori Budd set a discus record of 101'6½", Ginna Rice a shot put record of 37'11½", Kris Condra a high jump record of 5'0", and Karice Loveberry achieved the highest point total ever in QHS girls' track. Karice set records in the 110-yd. hurdles (15.0), the 220-yd. dash (25.9), and she went on to set a state record of 29.4 in the 220-yd. hurdles.
