wind caught my hood and flung it into the windshield."

The car has fine upholstery consisting of a blue, green, and red blanket draped over the front seat. The contents of the car seat are; 1 golf bag containing five golf clubs, 2 nearly white head rests, 5 tennis shoes, and 2 persons.

Wayne's comment on his car is, "It'll eat anything in its path, including Larry's Studebaker." The QHS Gazette "Heap of the Week" reporter is Leonard Arker.)

The '71 Oriole is intended to bring you back into time to relive the days of when colored socks were in, when you could get your drivers license at the age of 16, and all you had to worry about was inflation. The prices were outrageous, 1 loaf of bread for 43¢, 1/2 gallon of milk for 56¢, and 69¢ per pound for hamburger. Ah yes, THOSE WERE THE DAYS!

When you look through this book you will probably relive the days of youth. If these pages of memories only brought one moment of happiness then the task of putting this book together has been more than worthwhile. So go ahead. Don't be afraid to look back for only a moment, to look at the 1971 history book of memorable pictures at good old Quincy High School.

A Graduation That Will Be Remembered

Senior Poem

We stand right now between two worlds
Uncertain of what is to come.
One world is the future the other the past.
A new life has now begun.

Our feelings may vary from optimism to doubt.
Many questions arise in our minds.
What will happen? Can I make it? Have I learned well enough?
The answers are ours to find.

Right now we'll undoubtedly fail sometime in our life,
But all we can do is our best

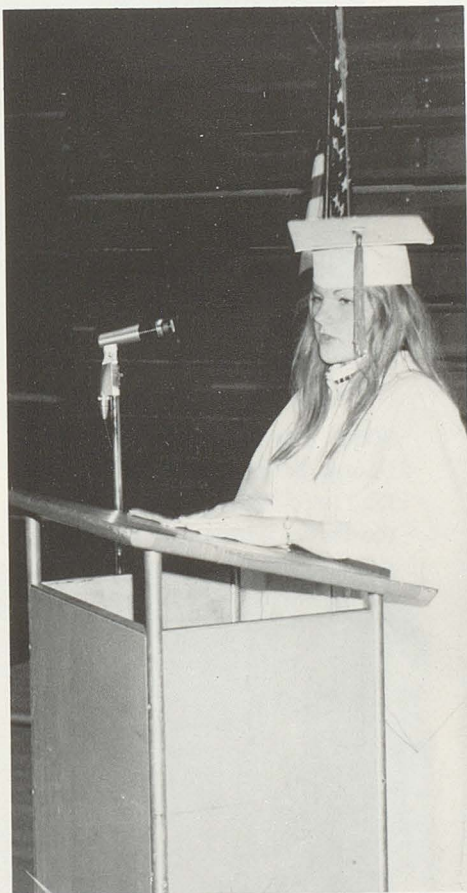

The future is still dark, but the outline is there.
And the past grows dimmer each day.
We'll remember that past and learn from our mistakes,
But we won't let the past block our way

We'll each try to make our own place in the world,
And we'll try to fit into that place.

We'll try to remember that ours is a life
Not a contest, not a fight, not a race

We'll try to finish as much as we can
Of all that has been left undone
This won't be the last you'll be hearing of the Class of '71"

1969 Homecoming Queen, Sue Perry Vanlandingham, crowns a very happy Connie.

Are Still The Same . . .

The 1970 HOME-COMING COURT:
(L to r.) Ruth Ann Tuckey, Sandi Gallop, Queen Connie Kempton, Vikki Vanlandingham, and Tonia Knapp.

A small fraction of our heroes!

The senior's "Victory Cruise" took a first place rating, helping them to go on and win the pep jug.

"Catchin' me off guard, huh?"

La, la, la
la-la-la
la . . .

LEFT: "The Promise" helped to express the young generation's moods at the Homecoming Dance after the game.

RIGHT: Taming of the shrew? The 10th grade take first place honors.

The Guys (fathers) and the Dolls.

Homecoming: Q.H.S. Style

One of the Homecoming revisions this year was the abolishment of a King. But literally, Carl Baldauf (Hunchback) and Fred Cortright reigned as the Kings of the afternoon class skits.

ABOVE: Connie Kempton, our 1970 Homecoming Queen.

Social: Birth Of A New Happening

Sez Sally, "No Mr. Eich, I don't wanta dance!"

Peace Chick!

December 11 marked the beginning of a new tradition at Q. H. S. "The Snowflake Social", sponsored by the yearbook staff, was a dance decorated in the festive Christmas theme. The Christmas tree graced the telephone booth corner, and all the goodies and refreshments were enjoyed by all. Some even managed to find mistletoe. Anyway, like the song goes, "we sang and danced forever and a day".

Meanwhile, back at the Christmas tree ...

The Yearbook Staff has done it again. For two consecutive years the club has produced two "Miss Orioles"! Yet they can not take all the credit. Sally Fosdick, our vivacious 1971 Miss Oriole, has all the spirit-filled qualifications to capture her crown. The student body must have realized her spirit, or they would not have selected her to represent their definitions of a dedicated sports' spectator.

Sal's Page

BELOW: Dorothy Felts, 1970 Miss Oriole, happily bestows the title of 1971 Miss Oriole on Sally Fosdick.

Band Bust:

The 1971 Band Bust, "Our Humorous Heritage," proved to be very hilarious, yet a fine display of singing, musical accompaniments, and a patriotic reading were also equally enjoyable. Skits dominated the show, such as: The Hamburger Honey's, Grunchsmoke, Twitch Itch, The Upset Stomach, and Last Fox Hole in Siberia. The climax of the variety show was the crowning of the Melody Queen, Debbie Johnson. The Grapes of Wrath, a musical combo composed of a select group of musicians, played many entertaining selections.

Our Humorous Heritage

Our revels now are ended. These our actors,
 As I foretold you, were all spirits, and
 Are melted into air, into thin air:
 And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
 The cloud-capped towers, the gorgeous palaces,
 The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
 Yea, all which it inherit, shall dissolve,
 And, like this insubstantial pageant faded,
 Leave not a rack behind. We are such stuff
 As dreams are made on, and our little life
 Is rounded with a sleep.

The senior class of Q.H.S. presented the comedy, YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU, in December. Many underclassmen, especially juniors, helped to make this play more complete by painting scenery, executing props, along with a dozen other accidentals.

As Dreams

Are Made On

SENIOR PLAY CAST: (Left to right) Front row: Sandi Gallop, John Grove, Bob Beemer, Randy Shoemaker, Roy Krymis, Bob McCurley. Second row: Rick Keith, Jack DeLine, Randy Trana, Wayne Riley. Standing: Jim DeLine, Connie Kempton, Rosetta Young, Chris Osborn, Debbie Burritt, Mr. Walczak, Marcia Brown, and Kim Cockrell. Missing from the picture is Heidi Rawson, Ralph Cole, and Don Johnson.

LEFT: Karleen busily fulfills her job as assistant director; little did she realize that in an hour and a half's time before performance, she would be known as "emergency Madge".

RIGHT: Here we see a side of Terry's shrewdness.

Junior Play . . .

Mass disorganization, cooling tempers, a flashing smile, beads of perspiration, and mumbled side comments. Shouts of direction, pleas for memorization, and a moment of panic. Tears of relief, dedicated time, the pounding of a hammer, the shuffling of props, and injured egos. Words of encouragement, a helping hand, and a troubled heart. Working with others, making quick excuses, and missing a practice. Cries of dismay, gales of laughter, a torn script, and green and brown paint. Smoke from cigars, and an unsteady ladder. The audience's applause, and lingering and deathly pauses. The whisk of the velvet curtain, the warmth from the lights, and a sigh of satisfaction. Thus, was the junior play, presented in April. And as the poem goes, "it bid pretty fair."

George Washington Slept Here

The Play seems out for an almost indefinite run.
 Don't mind a little thing like the actors fighting.
 The only thing I worry about is the sun.
 We'll be all right if nothing goes wrong with the lighting.

- Robert Frost

RIGHT: A moment of tenderness between Mr. and Mrs. Fuller.

Tantalizing Tidbits

Happy days are here again for the 1971 Tip-Up Carnival and its festivities. Each year Tip-Up gets bigger and better. Maybe one day our winter carnival will draw world acclaim ...

Of Tip-Up

"Caught me single-handed!"

ABOVE: Quincy's juniors and seniors seem to have the dominant grasp. A few pulls later, Quincy proved victorious over Coldwater in the annual Tip-Up tug-of-war.

LEFT: One sheep, two sheep, three sheep ...

or

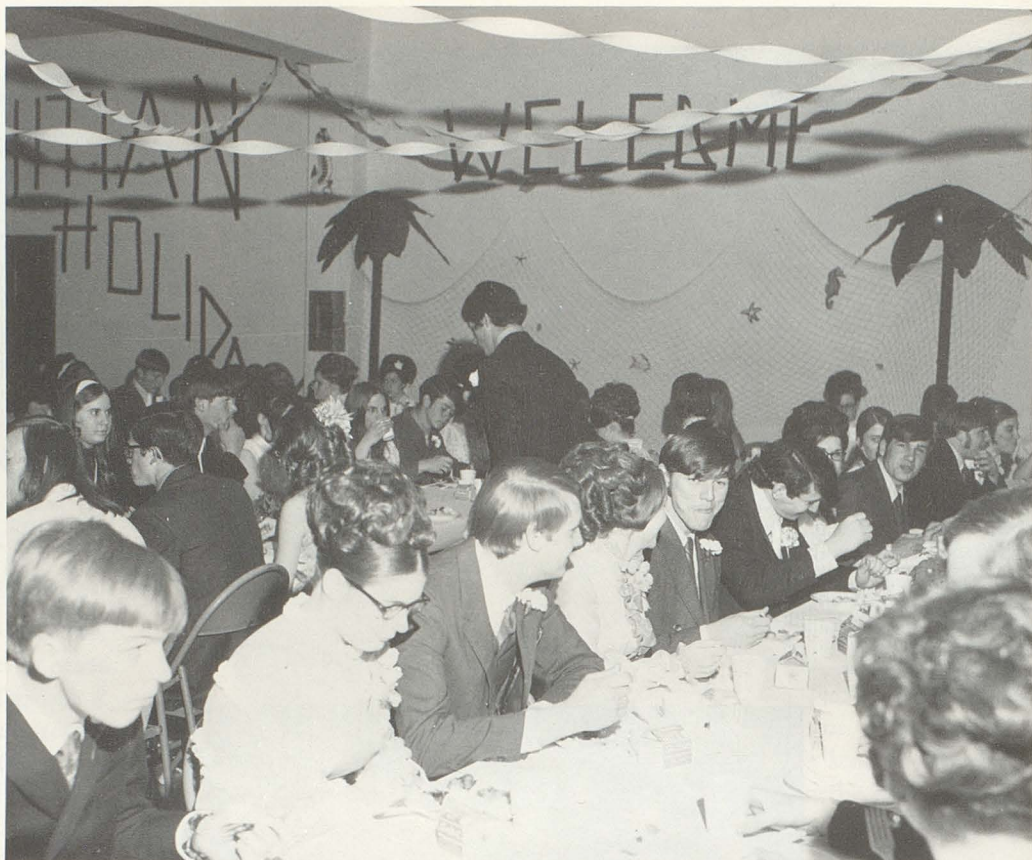

"My suntan needs revitalizing."

RIGHT: Karen Morrell reigned over the two days of fun. In the picture, Laura McMillan, 1970 Tip-Up Queen, crowns a very happy contestant number five.

"Tahitian Holiday" was the theme for the spring junior-senior prom and banquet. The juniors worked very hard to make the evening one in which many will always remember.

Tahitian Holiday

ABOVE: "What is that! We never had it in Chile," exclaims Ricardo.

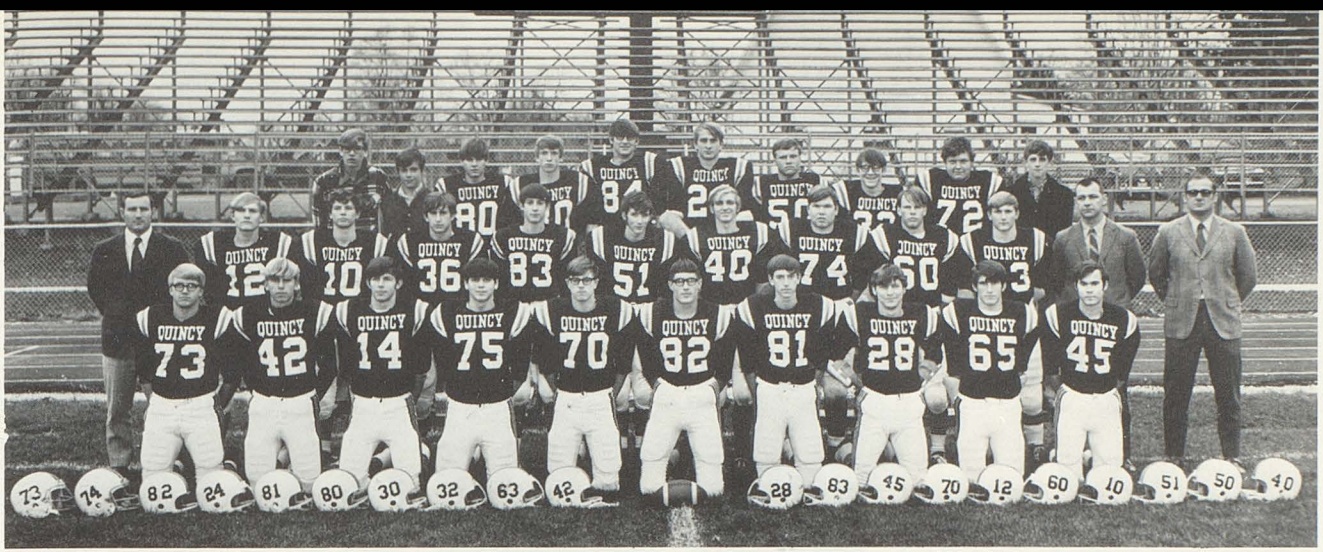

The evening of May 8th was composed of: palm trees, senior song and poem, "Andrew's Lab," fragrant flowers, graceful motions of dance, a catered banquet, pineapples, scented candles, the flashing of cameras, the rustle of gowns, savage natives, an oceanside view, tired feet, laughing and gaiety, feminine blushes of excitement, and spiked punch.

The students who composed the Paper Staff put a lot of hard work and effort to put out a paper that would staisfy the student body. ## Bus Drivers Drive To The Point

It used to be such a trifle thing when there was a woman bus driver. Now most all of our bus drivers are "women drivers". "Women's Liberation" has overthrown the men again. But we are quite sure there is still a cheery atmosphere around the bus barn if not more.

Back, left to right: Chester Lampman, Leonard Marquart, Walter Miller, Kenneth Johnson, Earl Hildeband.
