YEARBOOK STAFF

To many people, a yearbook is just a book that holds the pictures of your friends. But many people spend long, hard hours working on the yearbook. The one person who works the hardest is our advisor, Mrs. Joanne Finley. We are pleased that we had the chance to work with her. I would also like to thank Mr. Chard for his help in making the yearbook special for the seniors. Over the years your yearbook will become a priceless treasure, reminding you of all your valuable high school days that pass so quickly by. I present to you a memory filled yearbook, the 1984 Oriole.

Karen Hosek, Editor

As another year comes to a close, it's nice to have a yearbook to look back on the fun we had. I would like to thank all the staff members who sold ads. Without their help the yearbook would cost a lot more. Also, I would like to thank Mrs. Finley for all her hard work, because if it wasn't for her the yearbook would not be published.

We would like to thank Lee Zimmerman from the Taylor Publishing Company for all his help. We would also like to thank Ron Philbrick from The Carousel for all his help and for developing all our pictures.

YEARBOOK SALES ASSEMBLY

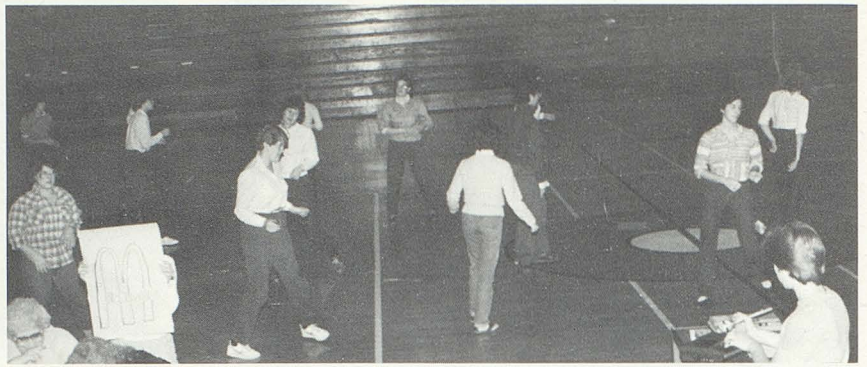

The Yearbook Staff had fun preenting several skits for their Yearbook Assembly. They were trying to get the point across that high school days fly by so fast that soon all they would have left would be memories and their yearbook. The skit that was the most fun to present was when some of the staff members pretended to be bushes and trees and other members of the staff toilet papered them.

"Remember how funny Julie Davis was?"

Paula, Jennifer and Nedra reminisce about their high school days.

"Remember all the fun we had at our high school dances?"

"Remember all the fun students had this year T.P.'ing each others houses and yards?"

Dawn cries because her high school days are over and Tim says "Aren't you glad you bought a yearbook?"

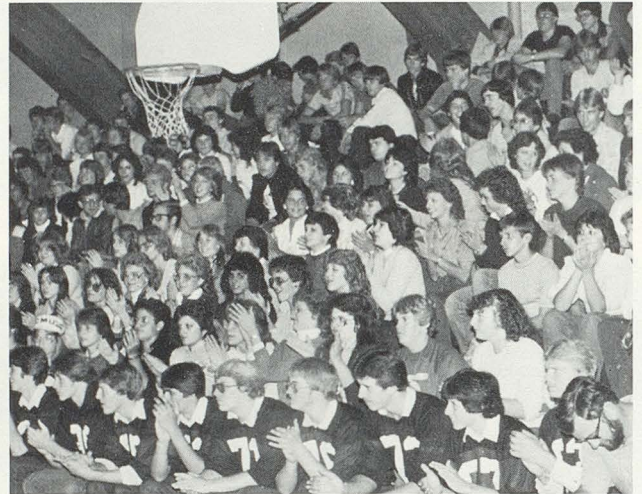

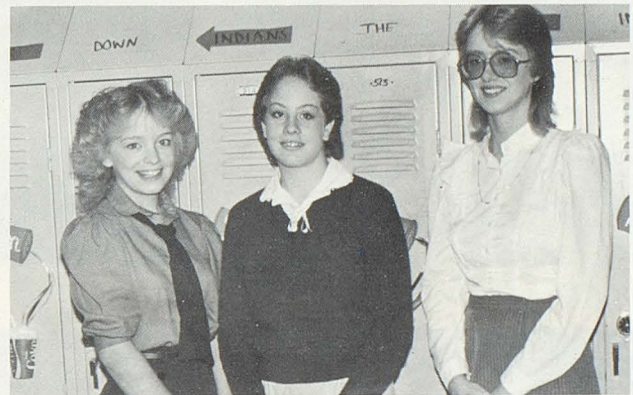

The Yearbook Staff pauses for a picture after doing a super job presenting the Yearbook Assembly.

SO MUCH

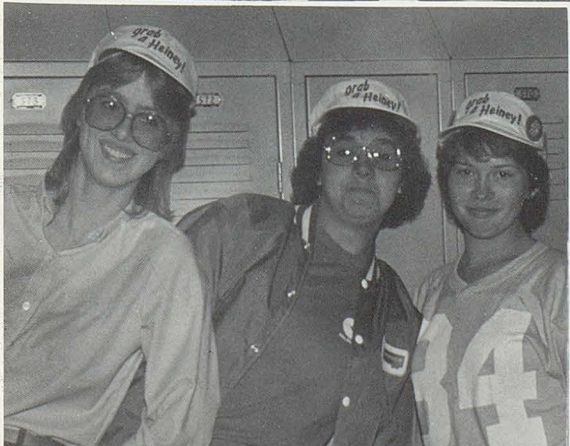

As I sit here thinking,
 I realize how important
 You are to me . . .
 Without You,
 I am nothing.
 I was young when I came to know You,
 So I didn't realize
 how great You are.
 I've drifted off through the years
 But You were always there,
 waiting for me to come
 to my senses.
 So now, my senior year,
 I'm back on the road
 with You at my side.
 With a Friend like You,
 I have no worries.
 And now I want to thank You
 for everything You've done.
 You've given me life and so much more —
 patience, gratitude, faith, understanding,
 hope . . .
 I owe You so much,
 and all I have to offer is my life.
 So now, to You, I dedicate my life.

Song: "The Best Was Yet To Come" by Bryan Adams

Motto: In learning, we have shared.

In sharing, we have found friendship.

In friendship, we have found ourselves.

"TOMORROW"

Our days of high school are growing short
 as graduation nears.

The time is coming closer,
 when we will all have to face our fears.

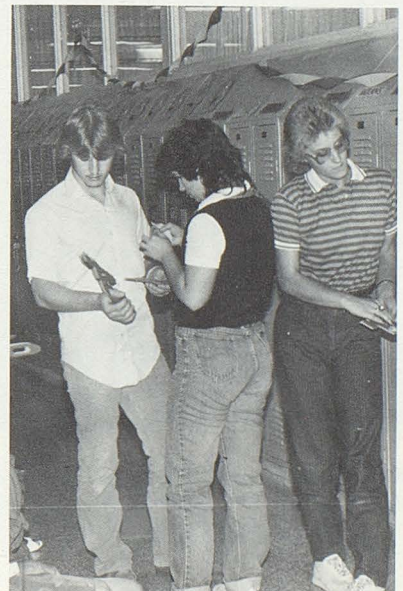

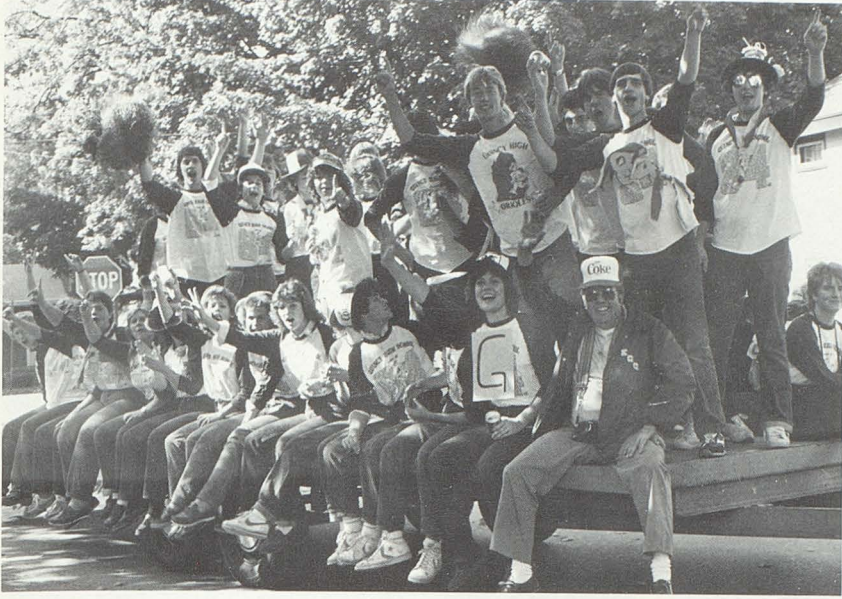

We will hold the memories in our heart,
 the fun times, the joys, and tears.
 And these times will become precious to us,
 as we recall them over the years.

All of us are busy,
 making plans and goals that we hope to achieve.
 And we know in our hearts that they can happen,
 if we only remember to dream and believe.

We wish all of our friends the best of luck,
 as we go our separate ways.
 Knowing that our decisions in life
 will affect us the rest of our days.

We should consider graduation a happy time,
 not one of grief and sorrow.
 For we are no longer the children of yesterday,
 but the men and women of tomorrow.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Quincy High School Student Council was active this year sponsoring Homecoming, Oriole Week and the Trike Race and Tug of War. They also sponsored a magic show, hypnotist assembly, Hillsdale College Jazz Assembly and Computer Dating.

The council purchased a new portable video camera and recorder which will be of great benefit for classroom use, athletic events, etc. The Student Council also donated money toward a new sound system for the gym. Other projects included appropriating money for Girls' State, Boys' State, bowling trophies, drafting contest entry fees and buying new tricycles for the trike race.

The team comprised of 3 Seniors and 8 Juniors finished the season with a Conference Record of 7-7 good for a tie for 4th place. The Overall Record was a fine 13-8. The tournament as always was a big part of the season. Quincy beat Union City and Bronson but lost to Jonesville by 5 points in the District Finals. The season was a total team effort. When the starters were down or off they had a great bench support to replace them. Leading scorers: Tim Wilkinson — 271 points, David Spalding — 209 points. Leading the team in assists for the 2nd year: Tim Wilkinson —

76. Most Valuable Playuer — Tim Wilkinson. Most Improved Player — David Karney. All Conference Honorable Mention: David Spalding, Tim Wilkinson, John Woods. CONFERENCE CHAMPS!

The 1983-84 wrestling squad finished its most gratifying season in ten years, winning nine dual meets out of 13 and placing third in the 16-team Napoleon Invitational. The highlight of the season was the recapturing of the Big 8 Conference Championship. The Orioles were 5-1 in league meets and won the league tournament with 154 points.

The team was led by senior captains Bruce Pohl and Lance Wiser (pictured above). These senior wrestlers finished the season with identical records of 28-11. Bruce led the team in takedowns and was elected the "Most Valuable Wrestler" by his teammates. Lance, a two-time state qualifier and Big 8 Conference Champion, was elected our "Spark Plug." Other seniors who contributed to the team's success were Tim Delaney, Ron Coco and Dan Morris.

Representing the underclassmen, Brent Wygant led the team in falls with 18, was a state qualifier, a Big 8 Champion, and earned the most team points with 65. Brent had the best overall record of 33-9. Gordon Bassage, injured during the last half of the season, was 14-4 and earned our "Hard Nose Award." George Jenkot was our "Most Improved Wrestler" going from last year's record of 1-22 to 16-15. Freshman Jeff Hawes was chosen the "Rookie of the Year."

VARSITY BASEBALL 1984

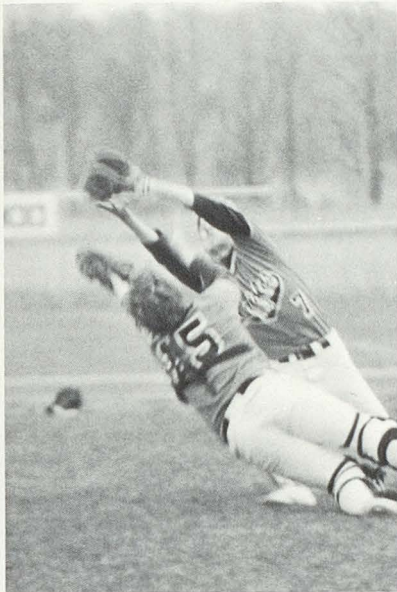

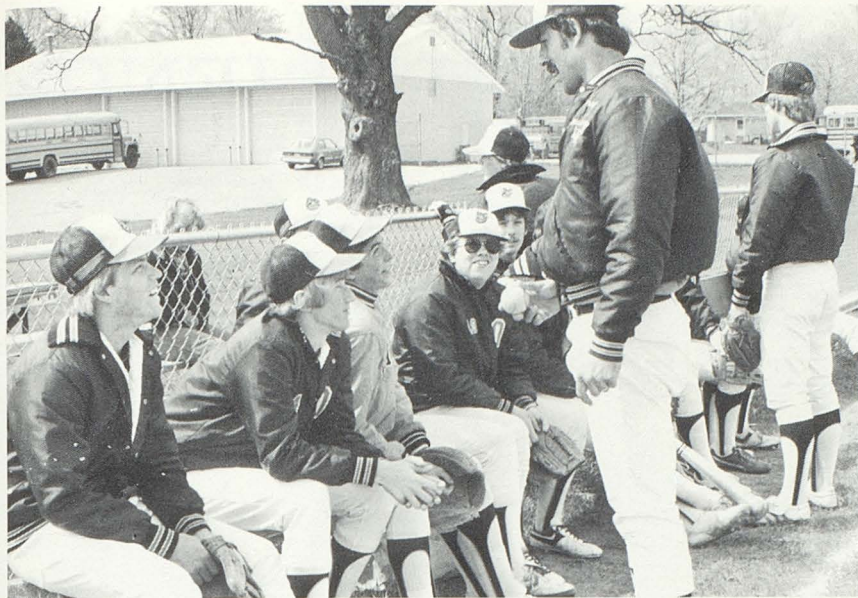

The 1984 Varsity Baseball season saw some very positive improvements take place within the program. The diamond itself saw remarkable improvement in becoming the best in the area, mostly because of it becoming enclosed with an extremely attractive looking fence. Also, the baseball team's fundraisers included the beginning of construction for "in the ground dugouts."

The talent and capabilities of the team itself also were quite prevalent. An increased schedule saw Quincy go undefeated outside of the conference in regular season games. The highlight being impressive tournament wins over Bronson (8-0) and Battle Creek Springfield (22-8) in gaining the championship at the Bronson Invitational.

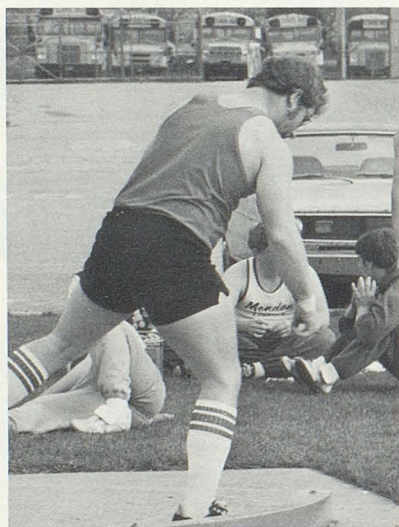

A Junior dominated team ended the season at 10-10 overall and at 6-8 in the conference, which gave Quincy 5th place. One sign of improvement was the games that were lost were close, four of them were one run games. This "should" change with the maturity of next year's team.

Post season awards were given as follows: Tim Brockway received 1st Team All Conference Honors and Scott Lutterbeck and Tim Wilkinson made the 2nd Team. Craig Fish, Kenny Kurtz, Shaun Massey and David Wilson received Honorable Mention. Tim Brockway and Tim Wilkinson received the Most Valuable Player Award and Scott Lutterbeck received the Most Improved Award from their teammates.

THINCLADS GAIN EXPERIENCE

The 1984 track season was a rewarding one for Coach Ludlow because even though his team was young and inexperienced (17 out of 25 members were Freshmen or Sophomores), they managed to improve tremendously throughout the season. Hard work and determination paid off because this young team finished with a 4-3 conference record and a 4-7 overall record. Quincy finished 5th in the conference meet with an overall final track standing of 4th place.

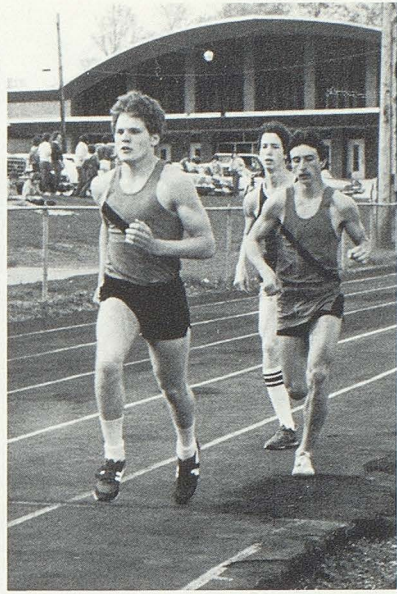

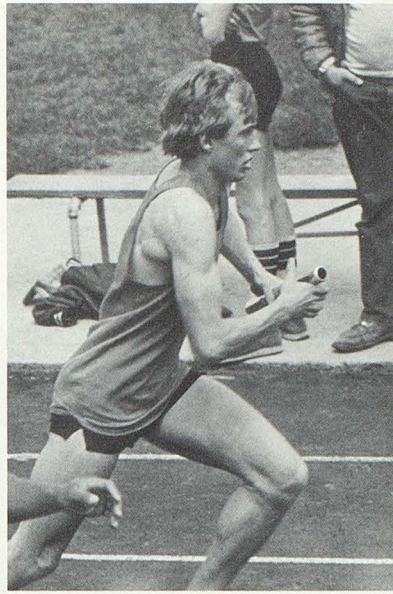

Quincy qualified 13 people for 12 events in the Branch County Meet.

Tim Finley tied the pole vault record that Randy Houtz set in 1978 at 11'10".

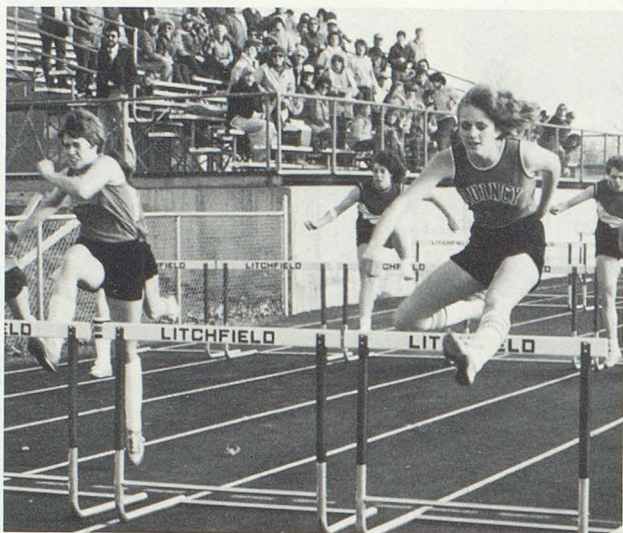

David Spalding qualified for the State Meet in the high jump.

Two boys joined the Century Club: Tim Finley with 160 7/8 points and David Spalding with 195 3/8 points.

Todd Thibideau led the team in scoring and rebounding, with Joel Mitchell adding many key baskets throughout the year. Scott Sobiech and Ed Cariuty were solid performers for the season contributing with their rebounding and scoring. Scott Withington led all Freshmen contributing consistently to the team effort.
