

1945
CARDINAL

The CARDINAL 1945

AROUND THE WORLD

From Turkistan to Timbuktoo
From Alaska to Australia . . .
The Cardinal Follows Old Glory

TO HONOR THE PAST . . . MIRROR THE PRESENT . . . AND BUILD FOR A BETTER FUTURE IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS, THE CARDINAL OF 1945.

MAY WE BE WORTHY OF THE PEACE FOR WHICH OUR FIGHTING FRIENDS AND FORMER STUDENTS HAVE THIS YEAR . . . MORE THAN EVER . . . STRUGGLED TO OBTAIN. MAY WE TURN OUR FACES TO A WORLD OF LIGHT AND TRUST.

O, thus be it ever, when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation,
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the power that has made and preserved us a nation.
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our trust";
And the star spangled banner in triumph shall wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

In grateful appreciation of the CHS students who have already gone . . . and of those who have yet to give their last full measure of devotion to our country . . .

EUROPEAN THEATER

February 2, 1945

Dear Mom:

. . . I was in a town called Luxembourg, which is a big town. Some of the people speak English. The town is like ones in America. You find all kinds of goods in the stores, even the store fronts are built like ours . . .

Dear Folks:

. . . These people over here don't live out on farms like back in the States. They more or less live in small villages where everyone seems to be related to each other . . .

Dear Mom and Dad:

. . . Well, here I am in France, a long way from home. Wasn't seasick on way over . . . I hope this awful war will soon be over and we will be together again. . . .

December 10, 1944

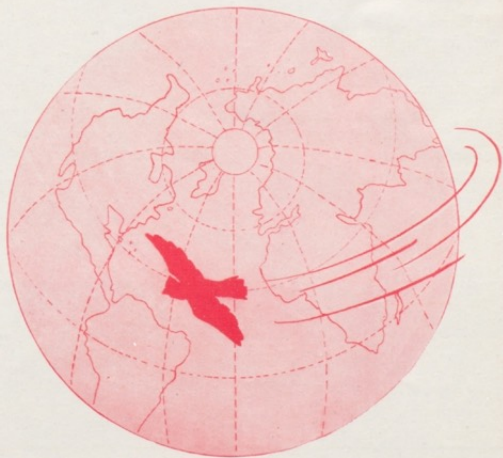

Dear Mom and Dad:

. . . It was a beautiful day the day we landed, and it was also strange and so very quiet except for our air force roaming around in the sky like birds . . . We were as green to war as they come, but since then we are entirely different people than we were a few months ago. . . . The only thing to do is to go on and on until there is no more enemy, and then we hope for a lasting peace. . .

Jim Thomas.

ADMINISTRATION

IRA KING

Superintendent of Schools

Mr. King is the man who is responsible for the activities in all the public schools in Coldwater. He has cooperated wonderfully with the students and faculty. All the functions that go on in our schools are backed to a great extent by him.

This wasn't Mr. King's first as Superintendent of Coldwater Public Schools: in 1919-1925 he held the same position.

You did a splendid job this year, Mr. King, and we wish you good luck for the future.

Mr. King's advisors are the members of the School Board. They foregather their ideas and suggest plans which they think would improve conditions in the schools. The School Board is a very important part of our school system.

PRINCIPAL

E. Byron Thomas

Mr. Thomas has quite a hard job but he has proven to be an excellent high school principal. He spends the whole year, not only keeping law and order, but helping, and talking things over with students who are in need of aid.

Our principal, besides doing his regular duties, has taught Journalism. In this, his first year, he was a great help in putting out the year book, and he assisted both semesters' "Mirror" Staffs in the publishing of our school paper.

We thank you, Mr. Thomas, for all the hard work you have put in for making our school a better one.

Mr. Dennis has been Mr. Thomas' right hand man this year. He has taken over many of the tasks in Junior High, in order to allow Mr. Thomas to tend more to Senior high school duties. Mr. Thomas will agree that he has done a wonderful job.

Mr. Dennis also teaches General Science in Junior High.

EUROPEAN THEATER

April 8, 1945

Dear Mother and Dad:

. . . We haven't been getting too good eats lately because they need other stuff up here a lot worse than good eats, such as gasoline, etc. I would rather eat K rations for the rest of the war so that they could keep the other supplies up that are needed a lot worse to win the war a lot faster. . . I am quite sure that I am receiving all of the packages that you have sent. They all come in real good condition. We haven't been receiving much mail lately because we have been moving too much and too fast. They get mail to us about once a week though. . .

Dear Mom and Dad:

. . . When we were stationed near Paris we were billeted in a large French chateau . . . That French chateau was a beautiful old castle built by some American. The walls of the room we had were solid mahogany, with panel mirrors in every available location. The chandelier looked as if it would weigh a ton. That was living the "Life of Riley", but that has changed . . .

Dear Mom,

. . . The monsoon season started with a strong wind which we thought would leave us tentless by morning. . . About two in the morning it started to pour. . . I slept until about 11:15 Sunday morning, and went out to look around. I found that one end of our camp was under four inches of water. We were on higher grounds so we weren't bothered. . . But when I woke up about 9:00 Monday I noticed our shoes and boxes floating around the center of our tent. We had a great time chasing our shoes as they floated down the company street along with articles of clothing, etc.

Class of '45 in Review

A future of dismay, anxiety and fear awaited us as we wandered into the "enormous" Lincoln Junior High. Our class as the months went on, was slowly learning the traditions of the school, and we no longer felt alone as most seventh graders do. We looked up to the "big" freshman as something very superior and far off, and they no doubt did feel superior to us.

The eighth grade went along smoothly, and the weaker sex slowly, but shyly, began to notice the males about. But as usual, they were more interested in sports. Bob Wigent, "Cutie" Linn, Owen and that big tough guy, John Roby were among those that were being eyed, but Owen and Mary Margaret were tied up, and Carl said that Janice McConnell would do okay in a pinch.

The ninth grade seemed a cinch for us, because at last we were at the top of Junior High, and we expected the "little ones" to look up to us. As we did when we had once been children. The kids from the country schools came in to ours and this proved a new and different form of amusement (may I say Wayne Jones). Jack Musser moved here from Ohio and really added to the basketball team. Many of the boys made the football, basketball and baseball teams, and if you could get them to talk of anything else, you were doing good.

The crossing of the court didn't come soon enough and we again found ourselves in the steps that we were entering Junior High. Covey, McConnell, Branch and Butler were the officers of the class. The sophomore reception made us no longer strangers with the others and again we stepped right along. Soon came the time for the sophs to put on the Christmas party. It was a gala affair and a play was put on entitled "People Don't Change".

Jack Hauska was one of many sporting the new fad of red hats around school.

The Junior Year proved very thrilling for the girls as Mr. Eby came as our coach. Reppert, Musser, Mason and Hill guided us successfully as the officers. "Once and For All" showed that C. H. S. contained much talent for the Junior Play. Linn, Jones, Musser, Wolfcale and Roby were our contribution to the basketball team.

Honor Students

Despite the fact that the world has been upset by war for the last four years or more, CHS has continued with its high scholastic standards. The senior class is no exception and has maintained a high average, for of the ninety-six graduating, only seventy-eight ratings were listed, as there were a great many identical averages. The top ten of the class, in order, are: Janice McConnell, Mary Margaret Butler, Margaret Snyder, Janice Tompkins, Marilyn Crawford, Norma Murphy, Annette Branch, Eloise Molby, Virginia Mollenkopf, Connie McQueen and Carol Griffin.

The next ten, given honorable mention are: Patricia Wolford, Helen VanDyke, Ruth Tappenden, Natalie Kerr, Eleanor Smullen, Arlene Marti, Russell Davidson, Ruth Strong, Darlene Gochenour, Lois Jean Cortright.

Our last year has been very happy in some ways and sad in others. Many of the boys had to leave for the service and couldn't be here for commencement. Kaiser, Rubley, Ivaska, Charlene, "Bucket" Roby, sported classy cars, but where they got the gas and tires is still beyond us. The class put on a comedy entitled "Professor, How Could You?"

We hate leaving C. H. S., the teachers, the assemblies, the familiar halls, the exciting games, and last, but not least, the kids. We know that they are the ones we will always remember as making our six years in the higher institution of learning, a success.

SENIOR PROPHECIES

Let us forget the world of the present for a few fleeting moments and take a look into our crystal ball to see what the future holds for our seniors in—say, ten years!

1. We find Bob Alexander still traveling to nearby cities looking for female material.
2. Howard Adams is one of Hollywood's latest discoveries to play opposite Lily White Lily.
3. Multi-millionaire, LaMar Bascom just returned from Reno after obtaining his fifth divorce. His country home is now called "Sons of a Bascom".
4. Pat Best decided to be a fireman because she loves those fire trucks so well.
5. Annette Branch is now taking Dolly Dawson's place at the National. She finds the work fascinating.
6. Frances Bunce is helping out during the Easter rush at her Bonfiglio Shoe Shop.
7. Mary Margaret Butler, still working at Martin's to put her husband through college, finds it necessary to feed her "Quiz Kids" fish, the brain food.
8. Ken Coe is giving Frank Sinatra a lot of competition. His new title is "The Squeak".
9. Bob Collard is now "The Glove" of the "Scarf and Glove Gang".
10. Mrs. Amasa Colley, formally Lois Jean Cortright, recently threw a big party in her attic to celebrate her first wedding anniversary.
11. We looked in on Marilyn Crawford the other day while she was waiting on tables at the Dixie Ballroom in Hodunk.
12. Russell Davidson has taken over Harry James' property, including Betty Grable.
13. Sylvia Deal has taken over Mr. Rice's position in the typing room.
14. Don Dean is chief waterboy for the Detroit Tigers, now that CHS has stopped playing professional baseball.
15. Betty Decker just took over the presidency of the W. C. T. U. of the Baptist Church.
16. Maxine Dillon is working as a dispute settler between Montgomery Ward and Co. and the government. She has earned her seventh million.
17. Betty Doll is still trying to make up her mind.
18. Betty Dunkel was operating the elevator in the Washington Monument until someone answered her question, "But where's George?"
19. Darlene Ewers has decided to take over the job of pushing the buttons changing the stoplights downtown.
20. Lynn French has become the world's fastest reader. He owes his success to the quick sight reading he did in school.
21. Darlene Gochenour is managing Branch's Basement.
22. Leon Greenmyer has taken Butter's buffaloes and is selling them at wholesale prices to father-in-law's concern.
23. Carol Griffin, who has been a model for years, is now taking a trip across the Delaware.
24. Mrs. Dick Tappenden, nee Winifred Gruner, just paid the last installment on her house trailer.

25. Lawrence Gruner, as a graduate of Purdue, is constructing an underground bridge between Batavia and Coldwater.
26. Maynard Gruner is now president of an enormous chemical company and has dropped the saying, "But that's what my brother told me".
27. As for Jack Hauska, well, you all know how that turned out.
28. Erma Haskell is now world-renowned for her cocktail parties.
29. We find Jake Haylett going to a Grange dance on his first date.
30. Rosemary Helmer has taken Miss Evelyn Moore's place teaching American Government in CHS.
31. Gilbert Hill loves the name "Clark" so well, he has decided to buy out the candy company. Now all he needs is a little "Spark" from a long lost "Friend".
32. Joyce Howes is a second Hazel Scott and is playing at the Aragon in Chicago.
33. Irene Howland is making the headlines this week. She just obtained her tenth divorce.
34. Joseph Ivaska followed in his father's footsteps. Once in a while his father even offers him one of his cigars.
35. Taking up residence at Pilot Knob, Marjorie Jewell is still waiting for Jake's proposal.
36. Wayne Jones, having taken over his father's business and his father-in-law's concern, is now selling hay where the shoe counter formerly was in Penney's.
37. Bill Jones has been cultivating chipmunks and pansies to go along with his name—Mr. Chimpansie Jones, Esquire.
38. Malcolm Kaser is now planning Woodie Herman's itinerary. Woodie's latest performance was held in the "Jungle".
39. When we saw Natalie Kerr, she was drinking her tenth highball and playing poker with "the boys" at the Elks Temple.
40. Eugene Lapham is the newest box office sensation in Hollywood.
41. Carl Linn is Dr. Bailey's assistant, spending most of his time studying his manual, "The Doctor's Bedside Manners".
42. Catherine Love is making millions on her own radio program.
43. Arlene Marti is co-owner of the street light in front of her house.
44. Owen Marquette and Virginia are in reconciliation after having separated for the 20th time.
45. Richard Mason has taken over "Van's" taxi service.
46. Bonaverre Mead's household is run on a 75 percent to 25 percent basis—with Bonaverre in the lead.
47. Joan Mead is Van Johnson's favorite pin-up girl.
48. Wendell McCollough is on the radio giving advice to the lovelorn.
49. Janice McConnell is slowly recovering from her latest injuries acquired in a bout with "Man Mountain" Jones.
50. Mary Lee McGowen finally bought out controlling interests in the Hi-Speed Corporation.
51. Connie McQueen is the world's most famous psychologist and is at the present trying to determine whether "Pick" Buford has schizophrenic tendencies or is just plain stupid.
52. Eloise Molby was churning butter when we saw her last.
53. Virginia Mollenkopf was engaged three times before she finally found THE man.
54. Dick Moser has taken over Bob Hope's place on the Pepsodent Program. He is called the "Personality Kid".
55. Charlene Murdock is enjoying her work at the State Home as a matron in Cottage 11.
56. Norma Murphy is a "Bouncer" on the 102nd story of the Empire State Building.

57. Jake Musser has retired to the life of a hermit. After his latest spat with Marjorie he can't make up his mind whether to propose or not.
58. Richard Nichols is teaching electricity at Kinderhook A. & M.
59. On Riverside View, Almada Norton is chief engineer at the Shirttail Factory.
60. Cecil Paradine recently purchased a little white cottage for his bride.
61. Jean Raymond is doing exhibition skating in New York City.
62. Shirley Raymond is one of Charlie Priest's proteges.
63. Betty Robey is the blues singer at the local night club, Holiday Inn.
64. John Roby is managing a cheese factory. He is an industrious worker. His motto is—"We slice 'em thick."
65. Garrett Rubley writes faithfully to his famous finance, Myra Lee Cofer, who is following Florence Nightingale's footsteps in the swamps of the Belgian Congo.
66. Marjorie Sampsel is camping on the Atlantic Shores waiting for her Navy sweetheart to come home from the wars.
67. Craig Sebald has returned from the Merchant Marines and is raising chickens. (The foul species).
68. Dana Sebald is a big game hunter and tours the country giving talks about coots.
69. Doris Smith and Guy Peavy have purchased a life-time lease on the fifteenth row in Tibbits Theater.
70. Elsie Smith is filling cavities in dental plates.
71. Shirley Smith finds the country so peaceful—as long as Roy is there.
72. Eleanor Smullen is an assistant to President Truman in foreign affairs.
73. Margaret Snyder recently left for the Far East to serve as a missionary.
74. Robert Speaker is modeling the latest double-breasted, two-pant, tweed-plaid-covert cloth suit for Esquire.
75. Kathryn Sprowl has been trying out the latest form of the splits called "The Sprowl".
76. Maurine Stout has introduced a new candy-making process for Tribolet's.
77. Ruth Strong has worked her way to the vice-presidency of the Southern Michigan Bank.
78. Betty Swaffield and Denzil are still finding Race Street the best place to park.
79. Don Symons is still travelling in co-operation with Bob Alexander to nearby cities.
80. Ruth Tappenden has won national honors in a recent cheerleading contest.
81. Janice Tompkins, after a hard day on the farm, dreams of that Morrison boy.
82. Helen Van Dyke got so used to carrying the bulletin around she decided to operate a ferrying service. Her Van Dyke specialty runs to Quincy and back.
83. Pete Van Dyke is still giving Doris Funderburg a ride home every noon.
84. Betty VanOrthwick now has a temporary job sewing up backs in union suits.
85. Twyla Walsworth is assisting Mr. Sibley in the chemistry lab.
86. Marian Walters has decided to take a job as official painter of flag poles.
87. Vern Weaver is Victor Mature's stand-in.
88. Mildred Welch is a salesman for electric ditch diggers.
89. Mary Wert—well, the last we heard, she was crossing a hyacinth with a snapdragon at Van Aken's.
90. Mary Lou Westbrook is still tuning in on the party line.
91. Elnore Whitney won a scholarship to Harvard.
92. Jim Wolfcale got mixed up with his dates the other night and accidentally eloped with the other twin.
93. Pat Wolford has taken over the management of the Main Theatre.
94. Gladys Wood has become the nation's most successful business woman.

LETTERS FROM SERVICEMEN

AROUND THE WORLD

EUROPEAN THEATER

England, April 4, 1935

Dear Folks,

. . . I guess you're all pretty worried about a telegram you got from the War Department. . . . All I got was a little nick in the left shoulder. . . . It doesn't bother me much at all, but it will take a little time to heal up. . . . I meant to tell you right after I was hit, I got back that pint of blood I gave the Red Cross last year. I guess it was a good investment, after all. . . .

Pfc. Charles C. Raymond, 36832342
Det. of Patients, Plant 4125
U. S. Army Hospital
A.P.O. 519
Care Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

Dear Folks:

. . . I will tell you how I picked up my first German prisoners . . . As I was going through a village a young civilian ran out of a house and down the street. I caught him and he very casually informed me there were two German soldiers in his home. So I went down, very carefully edged up to the house, looked around the corner, and there were two honest to goodness Nazi soldiers. I walked in with my rifle, and the minute they saw me, up went their hands and, "Komerad, komerad". I just had to laugh and then they did too. I ask them, "Do you want to become prisoners?" They answered, "Ya, ya".

Pfc. Richard Kerr 15106586
G.F.R.C. Postal Detachment
A.P.O. 739
Care Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

April 6, 1945

Dear Folks:

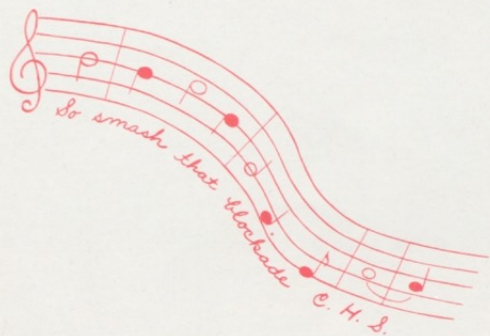

. . . It is the strangest thing just going into different houses every day and making oneself comfortable, using whatever is convenient in the house for personal comfort after having kicked the people out. . . .

Charles Carey.

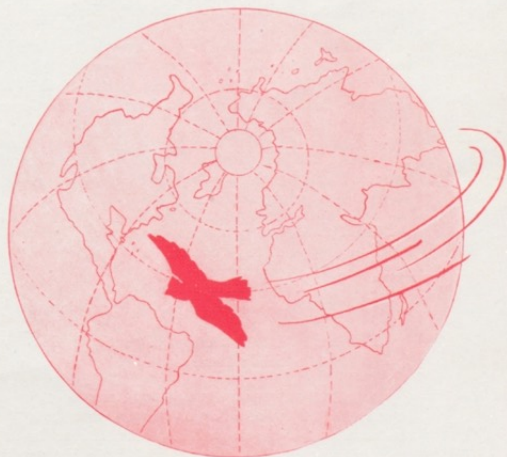

Dear Mom:

. . . Jerry hasn't been bothering us lately with any planes, so we are a relatively happy and unchanging squadron. However, the flak was still pretty awful the last time I was up. They wouldn't come up to get us but they sure tried to bring us down to them . . . Heaven forbid. . . .

STUDENT COMMISSION

The student body of CHS was well rewarded by their choice of representatives for its school government; Gilbert Hill was elected Mayor; Virginia Pierce, Clerk; Owen Marquette, Senior Commissioner; Warren Steffey, Junior Commissioner; and Bill McCurly, Sophomore Commissioner.

Each member of the Commission was appointed chairman of a committee whose responsibility it was to keep the school running smoothly and efficiently. Virginia was chairman of the Social Committee; Owen of the Assembly Committee; Warren, of the Athletics Committee; and Bill, of the Citizenship Committee.

One of the big social events of the year was a hard-times party sponsored in March by the Commission. They sponsored several of the students' favorite Friday night dances.

The Commission printed programs for the football games, and schedule cards for the basketball season.

They sponsored, during the 6th War Loan Drive, a popularity contest based on students' War Bond and Stamp purchases.

They revived the exchange assembly in CHS by engineering one with Angola High School in March.

This year citizenship grades were arrived at on a different basis. Lists bearing the names of all students were distributed among the teachers and the members of the individual grade, citizenship committees. Then each teacher and committee member holding a list would mark on the basis of

LINCOLN COUNCIL

The Student Council, consisting of six pupils, did a fine job of trying to make the school a better place. Besides choosing the citizenship committees and the hall monitors, it was responsible for the Junior High entries in the Hallowe'en parade, and planned and gave two fine assemblies that were presented to the whole High School. The Student Council was also responsible for all parties that were held throughout the year. The teachers and pupils of the Junior High School think the Student Council did a wonderful job this year.

the symbols "O", "-|-", or "-.", according to what each member thought the student deserved, "O" meaning average, "-|-" above average, and "-." below average. If the member had no contact with a student, he didn't mark him. After this, the committee for each grade collected its respective lists, and arrived at a numerical grade. This has been a very unbiased and satisfactory system.

MIRROR STAFF

Every two weeks, on Tuesday, the students of CHS heard some of their fellow students muttering something about "deadline", and caught a glimpse of them dashing here and there, paper in hand, to interview someone. These were just members of the "Mirror" Staff nosing out all the latest "dirt" and news to put in the school paper. Every time something happened you could be sure a reporter would hear it, and that it would be in the next issue. These students really have to work hard and put a lot of time into each issue of the "Mirror". They did a good job of bringing all the latest news to its subscribers.

Cardinal Staff

Since the War started, materials needed to publish The Cardinal have been more difficult to obtain. This year was no exception and film, paper, and cover material were all hard to get. Nevertheless, the staff has tried, with limited supplies, to give you a Cardinal to meet the former standards. Many thanks to Janice McConnell, her staff, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Patterson, Mr. Dennis, and the Gist Studios for their many hours of work in order to produce this year's book, whose theme is "Cardinal Around the World". This year, as was different from previous years, the aid of several junior high students was enlisted. These students have done a splendid job in representing the junior high. Much credit is due Jean Aebersold who contributed all the art you see in this Cardinal—the cover, the division pages, etc.

F. F. A. CLUB

The Future Farmers of America have been quite active this year in rounding out C.F.S.'s social calendar. The first evidence of their spirit was the "super" hayride they sponsored for all "CHS-ers" who were "brave" enough to endure the slight chill of a fine October night. They have come through with several crowd-enticing after-game dances. They brought to our auditorium the "Cornhuskers" from station WOWO in Ft. Wayne.

The FFA sponsored a party for the other FFA clubs of Branch County. They participated in a basketball tournament with other schools; out of 12 games they were the victors of 9. In a county contest held in Bronson in March, they placed first in "Livestock Loss Prevention". As a spring project they sponsored a seed sale.

During the drive for the Airport Memorial Fund last fall, the club contributed $50.

Mr. Barnes, the agriculture teacher, was their adviser.

SENIOR PLAY

The Senior Class of 1945 presented "Professor, How Could You" on Friday, November 17, 1944, at 8:15 P. M. The play, under the direction of Elizabeth Rich, assisted by Connie McQueen and Ruth Tappenden, was a complete sell out as well as a great success.

The play centered around Keats Perry, a young professor allergic to women, (a situation which provided much amusement for the audience) who in order to become Dean of his college, had to be married. Keats was portrayed by Owen Marquette; Vickey Randolph, the bane of his existence, and, incidentally, the girl he finally married, was portrayed by Marjorie Jewell. Others in the cast were: Grandma Perry, Margaret Snyder; Grandpa Perry, Carl Linn; John Appleby, Jack Musser; Priscilla Morley, Janice McConnell; Tootsie Bean, Lois Jean Cortright; Butcher Boy Bean, Bob Collard; Valerie Whitman, Natalie Kerr; and Boggins, Malcolm Kaser.

The proceeds from the senior plays are used in several ways, one of which is to welcome the sophomores to senior high with a reception to which all students and teachers of senior high are invited. Part is also invested in a traditional memorial gift to be left to Coldwater High School by the graduating seniors.

JUNIOR PLAY

Friday, March 23, the Junior Class presented their play "Smilin' Through" to a full house. The house lights dimmed at 8:15 showing an English garden scene. In the background was a typical country cottage.

Kathleen Dungannon, played by Virginia Spencer, lived with her Uncle John Carteret, portrayed by Ned Legg. Uncle John did not approve of Kathleen's finance, Kenneth Wayne, Royce Olmstead, and forbade her to see him. Finally, Kathleen persuaded her uncle to tell her the reason for his antipathy toward Kenneth.

The second act was a flash back showing John Carteret's youth and his love for Moonyeen Clare, Kathleen's aunt, also played by Virginia Spencer.

The third act brought a happy ending with Uncle John finally giving Kathleen and Kenneth his permission to marry.

Other characters in the play were: Ellen, the maid, Shirley Mitchell; Willie Ainley, one of Kathleen's beaux, Santford Jolly; Doctor Owen Harding, a friend of the family, Charles Asbury; Mary, Moonyeen's sister, La-Mayne Hammond; guests at the wedding, Iola Macklin, Betty Jane Brauker, Joyce Stansell, James Gay, Bud Barrett, and Burberry Gray.

Miss Rich directed the play, assisted by Mary Ellen Tribolet and Teddy Hardy. Joan Baggerly and her committee were deserving of applause for the splendid job they did in obtaining properties for the play.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves resumed their activities last fall with an additional membership of 28. These girls underwent the traditional "torture" of informal initiation followed by a formal initiation, very solemn in contrast. We also welcomed a new adviser this year, Miss Stillwell, our gym teacher.

They made, once a month, in cooperation with the Red Cross, cookies for the men at Percy Jones Hospital in Battle Creek. They also worked on sewing projects for Junior Red Cross.

Their social calendar included: several Friday night dances; sponsoring two student assemblies; a sandwich sale which went over big with the student body; and finally, a big spring party, incidentally given on Friday the 13th. The theme, superstition, was emphasized in the decorations along with the Sadie Hawkins theme, the boys depending on the girls for invitations.

The Girl Reserves contributed $15, last fall, to the Airport Memorial Fund.

HI-Y

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the high school and community, high standards of Christian character.

Under the excellent leadership of Jack Musser, President; Royce Olmstead, Vice-President; and Donald Wright, Secretary and Treasurer, with Mr. Poulos as advisor, the club completed a very successful year. There were twenty-five members, an increase over last year's membership.

The boys have sponsored two very successful after-game dances this year and also have secured club pins. Their sports activities included playing basketball twice with the State Home & Training School, winning both times by large margins. While at the school, they went swimming. The boys had a party at the Holiday Inn on April 2, and sponsored a dance at the Masonic Temple afterwards.

Congratulations, boys for a very full year.

"C" CLUB

The "C" Club functions a little differently from the other clubs in school, in that they initiate their new members in the spring instead of in the fall. Their initiation is also conducted on a different basis: the boys, in order to become full-fledged members, being forced to undergo, at the hands of the veteran members, minor hardships in contrast with the laugh provoking pranks played on the initiates of the other clubs.

Their activities this year have included sponsoring several of the popular after-game dances and presenting one of the most entertaining assemblies of the year.

Mrs. Corless and Coach Laughlin entertained the football and basketball squads on two different occasions at their respective homes.

All boys who win a varsity letter in any sport—football, basketball, track tennis, golf, etc., are eligible to join the club.

The "C" Club has been a part of CHS for many years, and many of its former members are in the Armed Services.

4-H SEWING CLUB

The second year of the 4-H Sewing Club was completed with ten girls, who were members this year, exhibiting their projects on Achievement Day, April 6 and 7.

The girls had projects to complete before the end of March. Their projects consisted of anything as simple as aprons to as complicated as formals, depending upon the year they were working in: the first year they could make towels and simple cotton dresses; the second year, a slip and a cotton dress; the third year, wool skirts and blouses; the fourth year, a cotton dress and a slip; the fifth—from this year on they could choose, more or less, what they wanted to work on—a complete costume or, room accessories such as dressing table skirts; the sixth year, refinish furniture or make another complete costume.

Of members of the club who were still in high school, Ruth Ellen Smith and Emily Downer are in their second year of sewing; Joyce Schlubatis in her third; and Wilma Loose in her sixth.

Mrs. McFarlane was their leader, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Loose.

The officers were: Wilma Loose, President; Ruth Ellen Smith, Vice-President; and Joyce Schlubatis, Secretary.

COMMUNITY HEALTH

The Community Health class has, this year, divided its course of study into two units. During the first semester they studied the health situations and problems in Coldwater. In connection with this, Dr. Church, director of the Kellogg Foundation in Coldwater, presented two talks to the class—"Organization of the Health Department" and "Communicable Diseases"; Mr. Wilcox, a sanitary engineer of the Health Department, presented a talk on milk; two girls who were traveling around the county giving demonstrations, presented a demonstration of foods and food handling; Dr. Campbell from the State Board of Health in Lansing gave a talk, "Maternal Health and Maternal Care"; each girl was assigned a subject relating to Community Health to investigate and report on to the entire class.

Their second unit of research was Child Care. Nursing skills, included in this unit, were taught at Mrs. MacFarlane's house instead of at the hospital as was done last year, due to the fact that the hospital was overcrowded. First aid was also included in this unit.

Mrs. MacFarlane had a class of twenty-four girls to work with as compared with fourteen girls last year, which was the first year of its organization.

SENIOR CHORUS

The Senior Chorus, a mixed chorus of fifty senior high students under the direction of Mrs. Nelson participated in two of our outstanding assemblies this year: the Thanksgiving program and the Christmas program.

According to tradition, the chorus moved through the halls of the high school singing Christmas carols. Upon request, they sang Christmas carols out at the Greyhound Post House.

They planned to introduce a novel idea this year for their Easter carolling, however, spring vacation interceded. The girls were going to be "decked out" in crepe paper Easter bonnets for this occasion.

The Senior Chorus provided entertainment at a P. T. A. meeting.

It was co-sponsor with the Junior Girls' Chorus of a girl dates boy party on May 26. Cokes and sandwiches satisfied everyone's appetite, and a floor show and dancing fulfilled everyone's "yen" for entertainment.

The accompanists this year were Doris Jean Funderburg and Joyce Howes.

2nd Row: Carey, Holmes, Renshaw, Jividen, Fisk, Post, Jackson.

JUNIOR CHORUS

The Junior Chorus, composed of nineteen ninth grade girls under the direction of Mrs. Nelson, assisted with the assembly programs observing Thanksgiving and Christmas, sharing its bows with the Senior Chorus and the "A" Band.

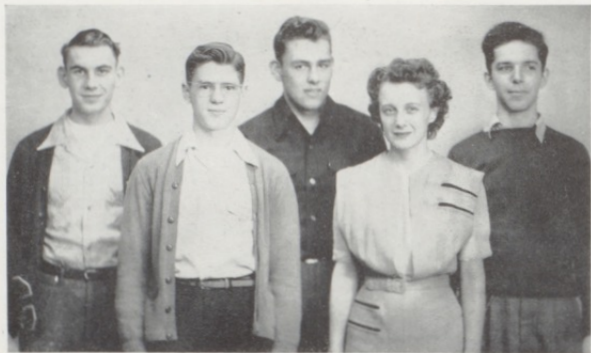

This chorus sponsored a girl dates boy party with the Seniors on May 26. They helped provide the ravenous high school crowd with enough cokes and sandwiches to satisfy the gnawing sensation. They also aided in presenting a lively floor show as entertainment, besides offering dancing.

Another junior high chorus organized second semester by Mrs. Nelson was a boys' chorus of twelve.

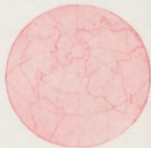

From their repertoire, college songs were their favorites.

The boys made their first public performance before a junior high assembly in March.

Rosemary Renshaw served as the accompanist this year.

DEBATE TEAM

This year Miss Rich decided to have the debate team consist of all boys. The reason was because boys' voices carry better than girls. Ned Legg and Jim Gay took the negative side and Wayne Jones and Jack Musser the affirmative. Carl Linn was also on the team for a short time but had to quit because of other activities. The Topic debated was, "Resolved: The legal voting age should be lowered to 18".

Lansing Eastern High School, which later became state champions, came here for a practice debate in November. The next week our team went to Grand Rapids to watch several schools debate.

In December the team traveled to Jackson, where they entered the tournament debates with Jackson High School, Lansing Sexton High School, and Kalamazoo State High School. Even though they lost the debate, the experience they gained was worth all the effort they put forth.

No top honors were won this year. Nevertheless, our appreciation goes to the team and its director for their effort.

VARSITY BAND

"Maestro" Bond guided the band through a very successful year. They started their activities with marching at county fairs—the Branch County 4-H Fair and the St. Joseph County Fair in Centerville.

In the early part of October CHS's football squad played their first home game, and with this game the band resumed its roll as a pep section, presenting some "snappy" marching formations and music. The band was divided into two sections and at every home basketball game one of these sections was present.

The "A" Band participated in the annual concert March 8 and 9, presented by the instrumental department. The concert was presented two nights this year because of the large demand for tickets. Their party of the year was the formal banquet on May 4. The dinner was held at the Arlington Hotel with a dance afterwards at the high school gym.

Concert Orchestra

With only twenty-seven members the orchestra worked hard this year. They graciously played for the junior and senior plays. They also participated in the annual Band Concert, March 8 and 9.

Most of the members of this organization played in the "A" Band. As the orchestra had not been functioning regularly this year, these students were enough interested in it to come back to school night after night, before the concert, in order to get in shape for the coming event.

Last year two members of the orchestra, Frankie Dolbee and Barbara McMichael, organized a dance band enlisting the aid of several other members. Mr. Bond worked with them, and soon they were meeting requests to play at junior, senior proms in surrounding towns. This year, during the second semester, Basil Early, a former graduate of CHS, assumed the ownership of the band.

INTERMEDIATE BAND

Many of the members of the Intermediate Band are grade school students who will, by the time they are in high school, be excellent musicians.

This band marched in several parades throughout the year, one of them being the Hallowe'en parade in which they appeared as ghosts and goblins. They also put in an appearance at some of the football games and at some of the basketball games.

Its members put on a very fine assembly for the entire high school. It played at the Band Concert March 8 and 9. Members of this band had some parties during the year. Some were with the "A" Band and some were strictly "B" Band affairs.

BEGINNERS' BAND

The Beginners' Band was composed of sixty-four up-and-coming grade school and high school students.

For their inexperience in public performance, they participated in quite a number of events, especially in small groups and as individuals. A group played at a P. T. A. meeting this year, and several groups and individuals from the grades entertained their respective grades. The whole Beginners' Band participated in the Band Concert March 8 and 9.

They were rewarded for their efforts by having a skating party at Hemlock Lake.

POPULARITY CONTEST

Among popularity contests conducted in CHS in past years, the one this year has been, perhaps, the most original and the most popular.

The Student Commission sponsored it in connection with the Sixth War Loan Drive in a manner which increased War bond and stamp sales and enthusiasm in voting. Preliminary ballots were distributed in both junior and senior high, (separate contests were conducted) and each student wrote down his choice for the most popular girl and boy, the most beautiful girl and the most handsome boy, the best girl and boy athletes, the girl and boy most likely to succeed, and the girl and boy with the best sportsmanship. Ballots were counted and the ten students in each division receiving the most votes were placed on election ballots. The students or teachers who bought 10c stamps received the privilege of casting 1 vote; those who purchased 25c stamps, 3 votes; 50c stamps, 6 votes; $1 stamps, 15 votes; $5 stamps, 100 votes; $25 bonds, 500 votes; $50 bonds, 1500 votes; $100 bonds, 3500 votes $500 bonds, 10,000 votes and $1,000 bonds, 50,000 votes. The patrons could spread their votes among the candidates, or they could concentrate them on one.

On December 14, when the contest had run for three weeks, the grand total for War bond and stamp purchases by the students and teachers was $5,958.95. The total number of votes cast was 150,000. The winners of the contest were as follows:

4-H CLUB

In CHS there are approximately 60 students who belong to the 4-H club. To belong you must live in the country and be at least 10 years old. The majority of those who start at 10 continue until they are 21. Your first project in the club will be canning, clothing and handicraft. You start at the simplest stage and continue until you have covered everything. When you take up a livestock project you start with the smallest of animals and continue until you're handling horses and cows. The livestock and garden projects start in June, along with canning and cooking. Clothing and handicraft start in the fall usually in September.

A new class has been started recently in leadership. Here older boys and girls are taught how to become good 4-H leaders and good American citizens.

HOT LUNCH

Many hungry mouths have been fed each noon by the cafeteria class, under the capable direction of Mrs. MacFarlane.

The lunches cost the students twenty cents a day, or one dollar a week. Junior and senior high students and teachers had the opportunity of having lunch at school, as well as the ward schools. Two boys assisted in transporting the food to these schools.

The girls and boys that helped with this program are: Jean Thomas, Rosemary Helmer, Frankie Dolbee, Lois Boyer, Betty Lewis, Marie Jones, Ellen Kinyon, Shirley Smith, Pat Jones, Norma Canfield, Eleanor Thomas, Wilma Dunn, Darlene Ewers, Cecil Paradine and Kenneth Coe.

Congratulations to these people for their fine work — and food!

PACIFIC THEATER

THE TROPICAL PARADISE

Somewhere in the Pacific, where the sun is like a curse
Each day is followed by another — another slightly worse
Where the coral dust blows thicker than the shiftless desert sands
And the white man dreams and curses and prays for better lands.

Somewhere in the Pacific, where a girl is never seen
Where the sky is never cloudy and the grass is always green
Where the flying fox's chatter robs a man of his blessed sleep
There isn't any whiskey and for beer — the Briny Deep.

Somewhere in the Pacific, where the mail is always late
And a Christmas card in April is considered up-to-date
Where we never get a pay day, so we never have a cent
But we don't miss the money, cause we never get it spent.

Somewhere in the Pacific, where the ants and lizards play
And a hundred fresh mosquitos replace the ones you slay.
So take me back to the U. S. A.; let me roam the frosty dell
For this God-forsaken island is a substitute for Hell.

Show them this, when they start talking about those beautiful
South Sea Islands.

Dear Mary, and Mrs. Lahman:

. . . No snow here. It was frosty on Christmas Day though! . . . We had roast goose, potatoes, brussels sprouts, mince pie, and Christmas pudding, a typical English Christmas meal (without the usual alcoholic spir-its!). We had quite a time. . . .

FOOTBALL

The season opened with the Cards traveling to Three Rivers. The fast Three Rivers team managed to build up a score of twenty-seven to Coldwater's seven. The following week we played Lakeview here, and suffered a defeat of 25-6. The Cards battled out an annual victory of 8-6 over Hillsdale by making an unexpected touchback. Marshall showed surprising ability and due to their large squad, and a number of substitutes, rang up a score of 58-0. Albion won their game with Coldwater this year by a score of 13-6. The two weeks' practice between the Albion and East Lansing game was spent on passing mostly, and the night of the East Lansing game proved to be a drenching rain, making pass play impossible. East Lansing won 15-0. The Sturgis game was lost by Coldwater by a score of 30-6.

Due to the loss of John Roby, Gilbert Hill, Bill Jones, Wendell McCollough, Clinton Neusbaum, Jim Corless, Owen Marquette, and Rolland Gilbert, the backbone of the Varsity line, and Jack Hauska, one of the best quarter backs in the Conference, and two half backs, Wayne Jones and Richard Steffy, the Cards will have need for many new key men next year.

BASKETBALL

CHS in the first game of the season looked good against Albion and beat them in a close game by two points on their own floor. However, the following week Lakeview won a close game from Coldwater on our floor by a score of 52-48.

At our second away game in Marshall we were beaten 58-35, and received another loss, from East Lansing, by 1 point in the last few minutes of play. Sturgis traveled to Coldwater and won a victory of 45-30. The following week an unexpected victory was carried home by the Hillsdale Hornets and then our luck began to change.

Coldwater won four out of the next six games. They beat Albion 50-32, suffered a defeat from Sturgis, then beat Lakeview in a close game, 48-44.

Losing by 9 points to Marshall the Cardinals rang up their highest score of the season.

Although East Lansing went down as another victory and the easy victory over Hillsdale of 51-36, in which Max Corless scored 32 points (lacking only one point of tying the Twin Valley high score record), ending the season.

The District was played at Sturgis and Coldwater drew St. High. Due to the strange floor and because none of the Cards seemed to be hitting the basket we suffered a defeat of 52-32.

Max Corless was the only Coldwater basketball player to be elected on the All-Conference basketball team although Jack Musser, and John Roby received honorable mention.

BASEBALL

The baseball season opened with a non-conference game with Union City, here. Coldwater won the game by a score of 7-2. The first conference game was held at Lakeview, in which the Cardinals lost by a score of 5-4. Our second home game was played with Marshall, who suffered a defeat of 5-4.

Rainy weather caused a week's delay in the scheduled games, but the season continued with the return of nice weather.

Coach Olson, with the help of Coach Laughlin, gave the boys on the team a tough workout all season, and they practiced every afternoon when the weather was favorable.

The following boys make up the regular team: Jack Hauska, catcher; Garrett Rubley and Max Corless, alternating pitcher and center field; Tom Buford, 1st base; Bob Milliman, 2nd base; Wayne Jones, short stop; Owen Marquette, 3rd base; Frank Murphy, left field; Clyde Gilbert, right field; Dana Sebald, right field; Joe Loomis, right field; Bob Lublow, 1st base, reserve; Charles Gruner, reserve; Joe Ivaska, reserve. Craig Sebald, reserve; Bill Jones, reserve; Ralph Pfust, reserve; Robert Worden, reserve; Elwin Cleaver, reserve; Maurice McCollough, reserve; Max Omo, reserve; Junior Ewers, reserve; Bill Fitch, reserve.

The "C" Club had a thousand tickets printed, which were sold to students in the junior and senior high. These permitted the students to attend a pep assembly, and the Sturgis game afterward. The money from this sale will be used to purchase new baseball equipment.

The shop classes made a batting cage this spring for the boys to use at the park.

The Baseball team did a fine job this year, and the students of CHS seemed more interested in the sport than they had in many years.

TUMBLING

The tumbling team, under the direction of Mr. Green, started the year out well by practicing twice a week.

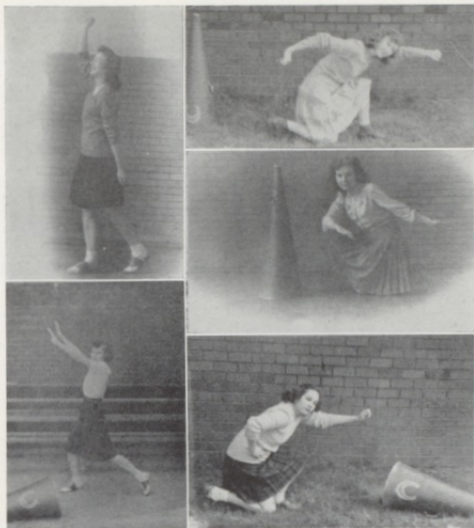

The team was made up of mostly junior high students with a few from senior high. Those students participating in tumbling this year were: Tom MacFarland, Royce Rainey, Gerald Green, Lois Adams, Jeanette Adams, Beatrice Goodwin, Granger Preston.

In March the team entertained the student body by participating in an assembly in which they demonstrated the do's and don'ts of some difficult and some simple acrobatics, which consisted of frontroll and backroll — both were demonstrated with and without hands — head spring, front foot throw, back foot throw, front summersault, and hand spring from chest. They also demonstrated their tumbling art at our last home basketball game.

Tumbling has done much for the students who participated. Not only does tumbling help strengthen practically every muscle in the body, but the students find it a good source of entertainment. The boys and girls did not merely do the exercises but varied the actions and presented their own versions.

Left to Right:

Top: Marjorie Jewell Ruth Tappenden.

Middle: Janice Tompkins.

Bottom: Virginia Spencer, Mary Vinton.

Cheerleaders

At the end of another year, we wish to compliment the cheerleaders for their splendid job in cheering at pep-meetings and at the games.

We are losing three girls through graduation — Ruth Tappenden and Janice Tompkins, both with four years of leading, and Marjorie Jewell, who completed one year. Virginia Spencer and Mary Vinton are first year leaders, and will be back next year to cheer our teams on to victory.

Mid-year, the call went forth for males, and in response, Richard Dailey and Bill Stansell joined the cheerleaders ranks. With the aid of Jeanette and Joyce Corless, Lois Boyer and Mary Lou Garman, the reserve cheerleaders did a fine job.

We extend our appreciation to the cheerleaders.

AROUND THE WORLD

PACIFIC THEATER

India, March 18, 1945

Dear Twyla:

India is an incredibly poor country. The folks here live in crowded villages. There is not enough to eat, and starvation abounds. Disease is widespread, and there are few doctors to take care of it. There are not enough jobs, or money to buy food, and begging is the only way to keep alive. . . . The average Indian is stunted in growth.

Dear Mom and Pop:

. . . We happened upon an old Chinese flour mill and stopped to look it over. They had dammed up the water and were using it to turn a water wheel. Through some sort of gear system, the wheel ran a large stone roller around a groove in the floor. Rice was placed in the groove and the roller did the rest. . . . I have come to the conclusion that everything grows in China. We found cotton fields and one orange tree.

India, April 9, 1945

Dear Folks,

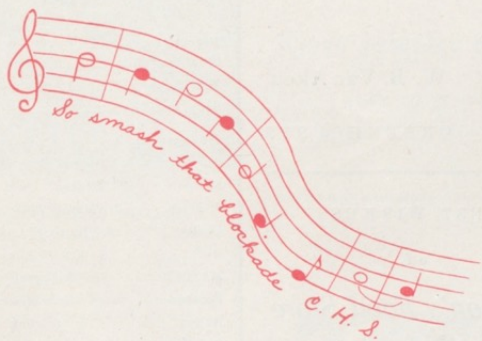

The other day we went to the Burning Ghats (or Ghauts) where they burn the bodies of their dead. It's a Hindu custom. First they bathe the bodies in the river, which is supposed to be holy water, then they lay it on a tier of logs, put oils and fats on it, fill the mouth with food for later life, and then put a torch to it. It's all done in ceremony.

Dear Folks,

My furlough to Scotland is now a pleasant thing of the past. Glasgow was the first stop. . . . The one spot I'm thankful I visited was beautiful Loch Lomond. . . . From Glasgow I entrained for Edinburgh—a perfect city for a sightseer. The dominating feature of the city is Edinburgh Castle, perched on a hill in about the center of the town. The Palace itself dates back in part to 1498. It looks like an impregnable fort with the stone walls and cliff-like slopes to the rocky hill.

Dear Mother, Dad, and Grandpa:

I do want to tell you about our trip to the city. . . . We stopped at the fort and airfield. . . . Before we reached the field and all around it were strewn wrecked Jap planes, many of which never got off the ground. The field is a huge place, its wrecked buildings and hangars were some sight to see. . . . The business district of the city was a mess—skeletons of buildings and debris all over. Many of the buildings had been of the most modern type.
