The School Board Sets School Policy

The Quincy School Board members, left to right: Stanley Preston, Franklin Kratzer, Elmer Dobson, Jack Fowler, Ronald Reynolds, Amy Broad, Susan Lambright, Douglas Orton, Harold Schultz.

The people in any school system ultimately control the school. In Quincy, the people elect a school board, which sets school policy. It hires a superintendent, whose duty is to keep the schools running. All the hiring of teachers, spending school funds, and similar duties are done by his office. He supervises the principals, who in turn run the individual schools.

Superintendent Reynolds Interprets Board Policy

"Yes, here's my name. Right here."

"Now teachers, let us reason together."

"When can we get together to talk this over?"

"The running of a school system is indeed a complex undertaking."

Q.H.S. Gazette Becomes Real Paper.

In a fall election, Q.H.S. GAZETTE was selected as the permanent name for the newspaper which was issued every third Tuesday. Five students attended Newspaper Day at Michigan State University in November to learn new journalistic skills. At Christmas, the staff sponsored a Penny Pitch collection for Fort Wayne's WOWO radio station. They took a spring tour of the Battle Creek ENQUIRER AND NEWS, and in March the school participated in a contest to guess the number of words (5,627) in one issue of the paper.

"After we make the paper, we have to sell it." These people are Darlene Siler, Delorse Morris, Cathy Pask, Carol Rose (hidden), Terry Salyer, John Brewer, Calvin Marsh, and Mike Fidler.

Science Club Strives To

Because of still further cuts in Club Day, the school's largest club, the Science Club, felt very restricted in its meetings. It continued to interest students in the field of science, and several trips were planned by the Club this year. The first in December had to be cancelled due to bad weather and insufficient sign-up; the club also planned a winter outing to Echo Valley. Trips to various museums were also considered.

Vice President, Deb Youngs, handled those meetings for which President Chuck Cook was absent.

Will Pam Supianoski and Bob Ball be future scientists?

Discussion and voting becomes lively during a winter meeting of the Science Club.

F.H.A., for the "67-68" school year, had a highly successful and interesting program. The club president, Alice Hardy, did a good job leading such activities as bake sales and Christmas caroling.

The meetings which were held once a month were always well attended and interesting. The school year was highlighted when Melanie Rawson won the "Betty Crocker Homemaker" award.

This A-Band Is Number One,

Quincy High School students should take a great deal of pride in their A-band which is certainly a credit to our school. Under the direction of Harry Blake, the band has developed into the best in the state, in Class C.

Quincy bandmen began this year by presenting entertaining performances during four high school football games, and one college game at Hillsdale College, which was a great privilege.

During the fall, the Quincy band was invited to the M.E.A. meeting in Battle Creek, where they presented a polished concert. The band also takes part in the Homecoming, Halloween, and Mayor Exchange Day parades throughout the year.

Hard work and many night rehearsals go into developing the mature sound and marching effect this band has attained.

But It Still Tries Harder!

The band presented three concert performances for the public this year: A Christmas concert, a concert at Tibbits, and a Spring concert. Present at the spring concert was guest conductor and trombone artist, Mr. Ronald Thielman, from Highland, New Mexico. Mr. Thielman is the composer of Chelsea Suite, a song which was played by the Quincy band.

Of course the highlight for the 1967-68 A-band has been the straight "Number I" ratings they have received at Gull Lake marching contest, and at district and state contests, at Battle Creek. Very much enjoyed by all bandmen was the trip to Selmers, where they viewed instruments being made. In memory of their effort and achievements the band will have a record made of its concert recordings, which will be treasured throughout the years.

The band presented a fall concert for the student body in the high school cafetorium.

Deb Youngs went to Girl's State last summer, representing Quincy.

Connie Tappenden and Bonnie Boyer served as Co-Editors for this annual.

Marie Beck was chosen Queen in the Tip-Up program.

The Seniors, class of 1968, showed all . . .

The long awaited Senior year has finally come to an end for the class of 1968. Even so, it has gone out with a bang. The class leadership was in the hands of (left to right, above) Darlene Siler, Historian, Pam Supianoski, Vice-president, Jerry Salyer, President, Alice Hardy, Treasurer, and Chris Sebring, Secretary. Through the year many activities were undertaken. First came the Senior pictures, next came the excitement of ordering our caps and gowns, our announcements and our Senior keys.

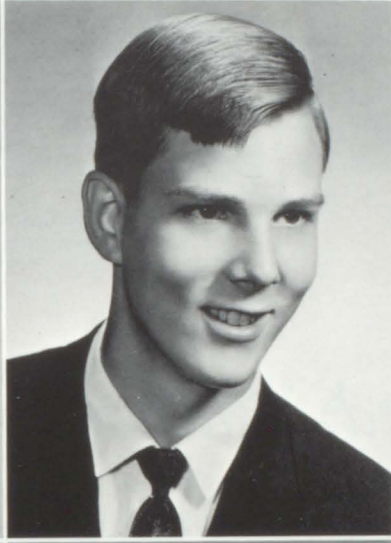

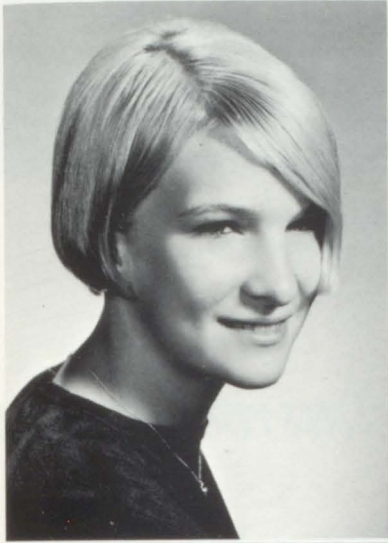

Closely following that came Homecoming which we will always remember for we took the pepjug for the first time by ourselves! Right behind that came Tip-Up and after that Spring, which meant the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

Then, last but not least, the big day was finally here, May 31, which was the last time for many of the Seniors to walk the halls and classrooms of Q.H.S. But the many fond memories of our Senior year will never be forgotten by the Class of 1968.

This very large group attended the Junior-Senior Banquet, April 19, 1968.

Is it the "Garden of . . ." or Edon, Ohio? Hmm, we wonder.

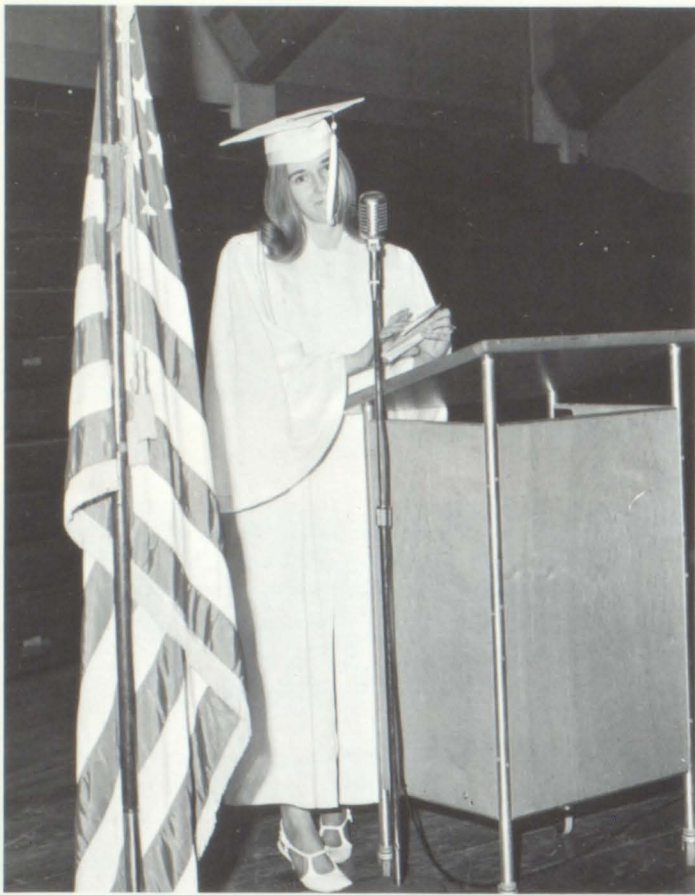

The center of attention of the prom was a wishing well and a wild flower. Here Mike Beach, Brenda Badders, Penny Cox, and Jim Hoff admire the furnishings.

Juniors Present A Fine Play: "Animal Farm"

This spring the Junior Class presented a different type of play: Animal Farm. The play originated from George Orwell's book by the same title. It was presented as a fable in two acts, done in a humorous manner to illustrate a serious point about world government.

The play cast consisted of Narrators, Terry Salyer, Pam Bonham, Janet Irvin, Mickey Barve; Boxer, Bill Keith; Major, Warren Brown; Clover, Dawn Pope; Napoleon, Richard Klepack; Squealer, Charles Avery; Snowball, Penny Cox; Mollie, Patti Fidler; Benjamin, Wayne Victor; Moses, Warren Brown; Student Director, Kathy Nutt; Advertising, Vickie Watkins; Stage Manager, Gene Suever; Wardrobe, Cathy Supianoski, Miss Betsy Craig was the director of the play.

Warren Brown, with three parts, proved to be very versatile.

Pam Bonham, left, was a narrator. Charles Avery and Richard Klepack, who played the parts of pigs, talk to Patty Fidler, who was really a horse named Molly.

Bowling — Everyone's Winter Sport!

This year's race was exceptionally close with five fine teams in contentionship to the very last week for the first place. But naturally the best team always ends up on top! There were many high games bowled this year, such as Ken Kings' 223, Denny Wolfe's 199, and Carol Rose's 176.

Jim Hoff shows correct procedure for picking up the ball—by the sides.

Linda and Lori, with the help of many friends, have a blanket-toss for the "March of Dimes."

Cheerleaders Have Several Special Activities

Besides cheering at games, the girls were busy doing other things! To purchase new uniforms, they had dances, sold cookies, and had a sweetheart.

Sandy "watches" the merchandise as the cheerleaders hold a bake-sale to raise money for new uniforms.

Little-C Conference Champs

The most exciting play of the season was made by Jim Hutchins. Here he takes a punt and tears up the left sideline aided by a key block by Bill Bradley.

The result, of course, is the winning touchdown. Coaches Longhini and Chard reflect the joy felt by the team and all the fans present.

Well, Quincy finally did it. Our football team took the first solo conference championship since 1949. In 1959, though, we held a tri-championship with two other Little C teams. In winning this year we set and broke many records. We put 6 men on the All Conference squad; (Jerry Salyer, Mike Moore, Claude Nance, Ken King, Bill McConnell, and Chuck Ames; Honorable Mention were Bill Bradley, Larry Reichhart, Jim Hutchins, Dan Wilkinson, and Chuck Cook). We also put 2 men on an All-State team: (Mike Moore and Jerry Salyer on 2nd team U.P.I. and Jerry on 2nd team A.P.; Honorable Mention include Mike Moore, Chuck Ames, and Larry Reichhart—A.P.) We went through our first undefeated season since 1949 with a tie as our only blemish; the team also ended up 10th in the state on A.P. and 12th on U.P.I. polls.

The most unusual picture of year: Jerry Salyer, 48, walks away from the play. Larry Reichhart, 42, cuts inside as Chesty Blackman, 10, gets his head stepped on by a Homer Trojan who also deals a knee to the thigh of Bud Strauss, 32, who counters with an elbow. Chuck Ames, 74, would have been hit by 33 of Homer except for Bill McConnell's well-placed toe.

From pages 112 and 113, FRONT ROW, 1-r: B. Ball, B. Hickok, R. Huggett, J. Salyer, K. Clark, D. Wilkinson, D. Wilson, T. Macklin manager. 2nd ROW: C. Avery, B. Mueller, D. Marvin, M. Fidler, D. Price, M. McGlothen. 3rd ROW: Coach Longhini, D. McCann, C. Blackman, B. McConnell, R. Vanlandingham, A. Bladder, B. Keith, J. Hoff, M. Moore, Coach Ludlow. 4th ROW: I. Strauss, C. Ames, J. Blair, M. Trenary, W. Victor, W. Brown, C. Nance, B. Bradley, K. King.

We're Number One!

Bill Kieth tells a teammate how it was done and Rick Van-Landingham hollers "We're Number One!" The game was the turning point of the season as the team gained momentum.

Here's the hero, Jim Hutchins, surrounded by Mike McGlothlen, Bob Mueller, and Bud Strauss. Jim was named All-Conference, Honorable Mention, for the season.

1967 Orioles Provide Many Thrills

The Offensive team, FRONT ROW:

Quincy Places Four Gridders

All State Jerry Salyer talks to Head Coach Dan Ludlow during a time out.

Chuck Cook, All Conference Honorable Mention, Jerry Salyer, All Conference and All State, and Mike Moore, All Conference and All State, warm their hands during the cold and muddy Reading game.

Claude Nance looks on as Coach Ludlow talks to his All Staters, Jerry Salyer and

All Conference Bill McConnell makes a tackle the easy way—sitting down!

All Conference and Honorable Mention All State Chuck Ames leads the blockers on a charge up the middle.

All Conference Kenny King proudly displays the coach's hat won by him in the last game as the most outstanding Senior.

On All-State Teams!

Mike Moore. These three Seniors were named Tri-Captains by their teammates.

Dan Wilkinson, All Conference Honorable Mention, and Dave McCann, number 24, prepare to meet the runner which Kenny King has slowed down.

Offensive . . . And Defensive Players Are Honored

Slipping on the slick Reading turf, Claude Nance, All Conference, makes important yardage after catching a short pass. Jim Coonce and All Conference Honorable Mention Bill Bradley move up to supply blocks.

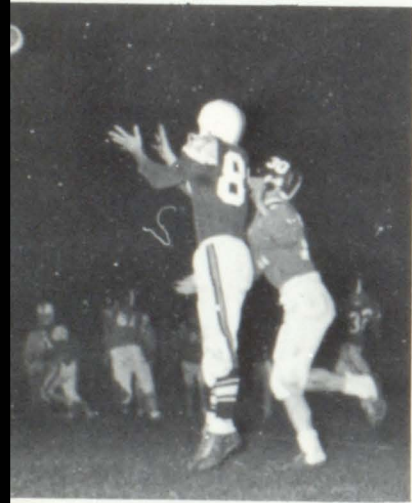

All State Honorable Mention and Conference Honorable Mention Larry Reichhart hands out a straight arm to All Conference Neil Bussing of Homer. Bud Strauss, Number 30, and All Conference Honorable Mention, Jim Hutchins, No. 28, bring up the action.

FRONT ROW (l to r): J. Barrett, K. Ball, J. Watson, D. Wentworth, T. McCann, T. Lown, D. King, B. Reichhart, J. Hoff. SECOND ROW: T. Macklin, T. Rogers, R. Glaum, K. Horn, D. Diedrich, T. Coonce, J. Foster, B. McCurley, J. Wells, R. Daniels, G. Baldauf, J. DeLine, Coach Nofz. THIRD ROW: Coach Ehrenstein, G. Fickle, D. Musgrove, J. Krzeminski, K. Cook, M. Persails, P. Warkoczski, K. Preston, T. Burseson, R. Kestner, L. Sebring, Coach Chard.

J.V.'s Prepare For Varsity Service

Mike Persails pulls down a pass on his own 33-yard line.

Football, on the Junior Varsity level, has been looking more and more like the Varsity Edition. The team is very well balanced; although the sophomores dominated the starting lineups, the frosh substituted strongly when called upon. The season, at 4-2, produced many thrills, not the least of which was a heart-stopping 12-6 victory over Bronson; the second touchdown was scored with only two minutes left. Homer supplied another great game and the Trojans won 6-0. Defensively, Ken Ball and Gary Fickle stood out. Offensively, look for Tom Burseson, Jerry Watson, and Roger Glaum next year.

Hello there! Tom Burseson seems to have lost his blockers and is dropped for "no gain."

Inexperienced Team Produces 7-10 Record!

A 7-10 season by a team which lost its five starters is to be commended. Although inexperienced, the team showed constant and steady improvement. Doug Meiring, the biggest scorer and rebounder, along with Jerry Watson and Phil Warkoczeski, supplied team leadership.

Two games stood out as super thrillers: the first Homer game, lost in an overtime, and the last game of the season, an outstanding win over always-tough Bronson.

Mike Persails gets two easy ones as Dave Miller looks on.

A Hillsdale forward is pinned down by Tom Burleson (25), Doug Meiring (44), and Tom Brockway (35).

With Only One Starter Returning,

A young Oriole cage team that finished in sixth place in the rugged Little C Conference is looking forward to next season's campaign. There will be six returning lettermen: Jim Riley, Chuck Cook, Larry Reichhart, Steve Barve, Ron Huggett, and Dennis Grey. The 1967-68 squad consisted of six juniors and five seniors. The "Birds" reached their peak in March tournament play only to lose in the district final to a tough and highly rated Homer team, 91-70. Quincy reached the district finals by beating Jonesville, 57-45 and Reading, 48-46. The Orioles finished with a 9-11 overall record.

The 1968-69 team will miss the talents of Captain Jerry Salyer, who averaged 19.6 points per game, and the fine spirit and determination of Chuck Ames, Calvin Marsh, Brian Shaw, and Dave McCann. Other top scorers were Jim Riley, 12.6, Dennis Gray, 8.4, and Steve Barve, 7.6 points per game. Top rebounders were Jim Riley, 11.9, and Steve Barve, 8.5 rebounds per game.

Coach White Built A Respectable Team

Whenever Quincy applied a press, Cal was right in there, grabbing more than his share of stolen passes.

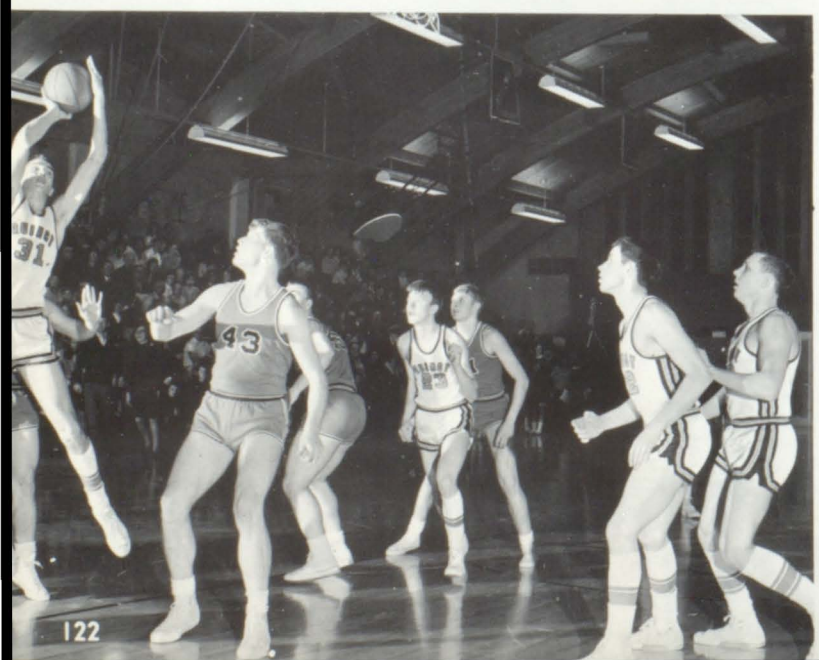

"Quit your pushin', Claude!!"

Jerry Salyer certainly took the lion's share of awards this year. He was named Captain, most valuable, Ball Hawk, Best Free Throw, and was placed on the All-Conference Second Team. Dennis Gray was voted Most Improved. Jim Riley made Honorable Mention, All-Conference.

Jim Riley jumps center as Steve Barve (32) and Dave McCann look on.

Steve Barve gets away his favorite, the short base line shot, as Jim Riley (30) and Ron Huggett watch.

This is the way we steal the ball: Larry Reichhart does the honors; Steve Barve is at left and Dave McCann at right.

Quincy was very proud of this year's cheerleaders, who were always up to the minute in the world of fashions.

Cheerleaders Pep Up Games, Buy New

The Varsity cheerleaders maintain pep and enthusiasm all through the Homer game.

The seventh grade cheerleaders are all up in the air over a cheer. Left to right: Carol Van Riper, Pam Halstead, Mona Lyons, Marlene Boley, Debbie Cosier, and Sandy McCann.

Don't you wish you had an Orioleman too? Here's that missing 1/6 of the reserve cheerleaders (Sandy Gallop) with Orioleman, better known as John Brewer.

8th Grade Has A Winning 3-2 Season

The eighth grade team compiled a record of 3-2 in regular season play. The team's leading scorer, Fred Kochendorfer, compiled a 12.6 per game average, besides grabbing 16 rebounds a game. Good team spirit characterized the team, and it should carry over to next year's JV team.

Terry Elder (16) and Mike Fast (43) lose a rebound to the freshmen.

Rex Hilton (13) and Don Goodwin (50) aren't close enough to stop this score.

Seventh Graders Begin Organized Ball!

Baseball Proves To Be Spring's Best Sport!

The baseball team made a good showing this year. Players who contributed greatly to the "cause" were Jerry Watson, Dennis Gray, and Clare Musgrove. Certainly one of the exciting games was the first one with Camden-Frontier. In that rain-soaked game, Dennis Gray socked a three run homer at the bottom of the fourth inning to win it.

Phil Warkoczeski, our best young pitcher, drills in a strike on a helpless Athens batter.

Brad Hickok sometimes tries to catch the ball on the chest. Fortunately, the ball was foul.

1968 Track Team Is Well Balanced

Steve Shaw makes an effort in the broadjump.

Track has not enjoyed the same popularity as baseball in recent years at Q.H.S. However, that does not mean that track isn't liked. The tracksters have performed well this spring. Athletes such as Chuck Smith, Steve Shaw, Bud Strauss, and John Riley have done exceptionally well. Also to be commended are the 880 and mile relay teams. As the team is "loaded" with underclassmen, next year should be unusually good.

Chuck Cook in the high-jump.

Chuck Smith breaks the tape in the 880-relay.

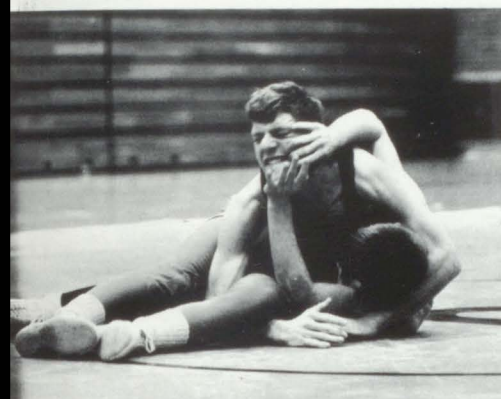

Bill Keith: "I dare ya' to cross THAT line."

Allen Blatter and Harry Lyons demonstrate the "ready" position during wrestling practice.

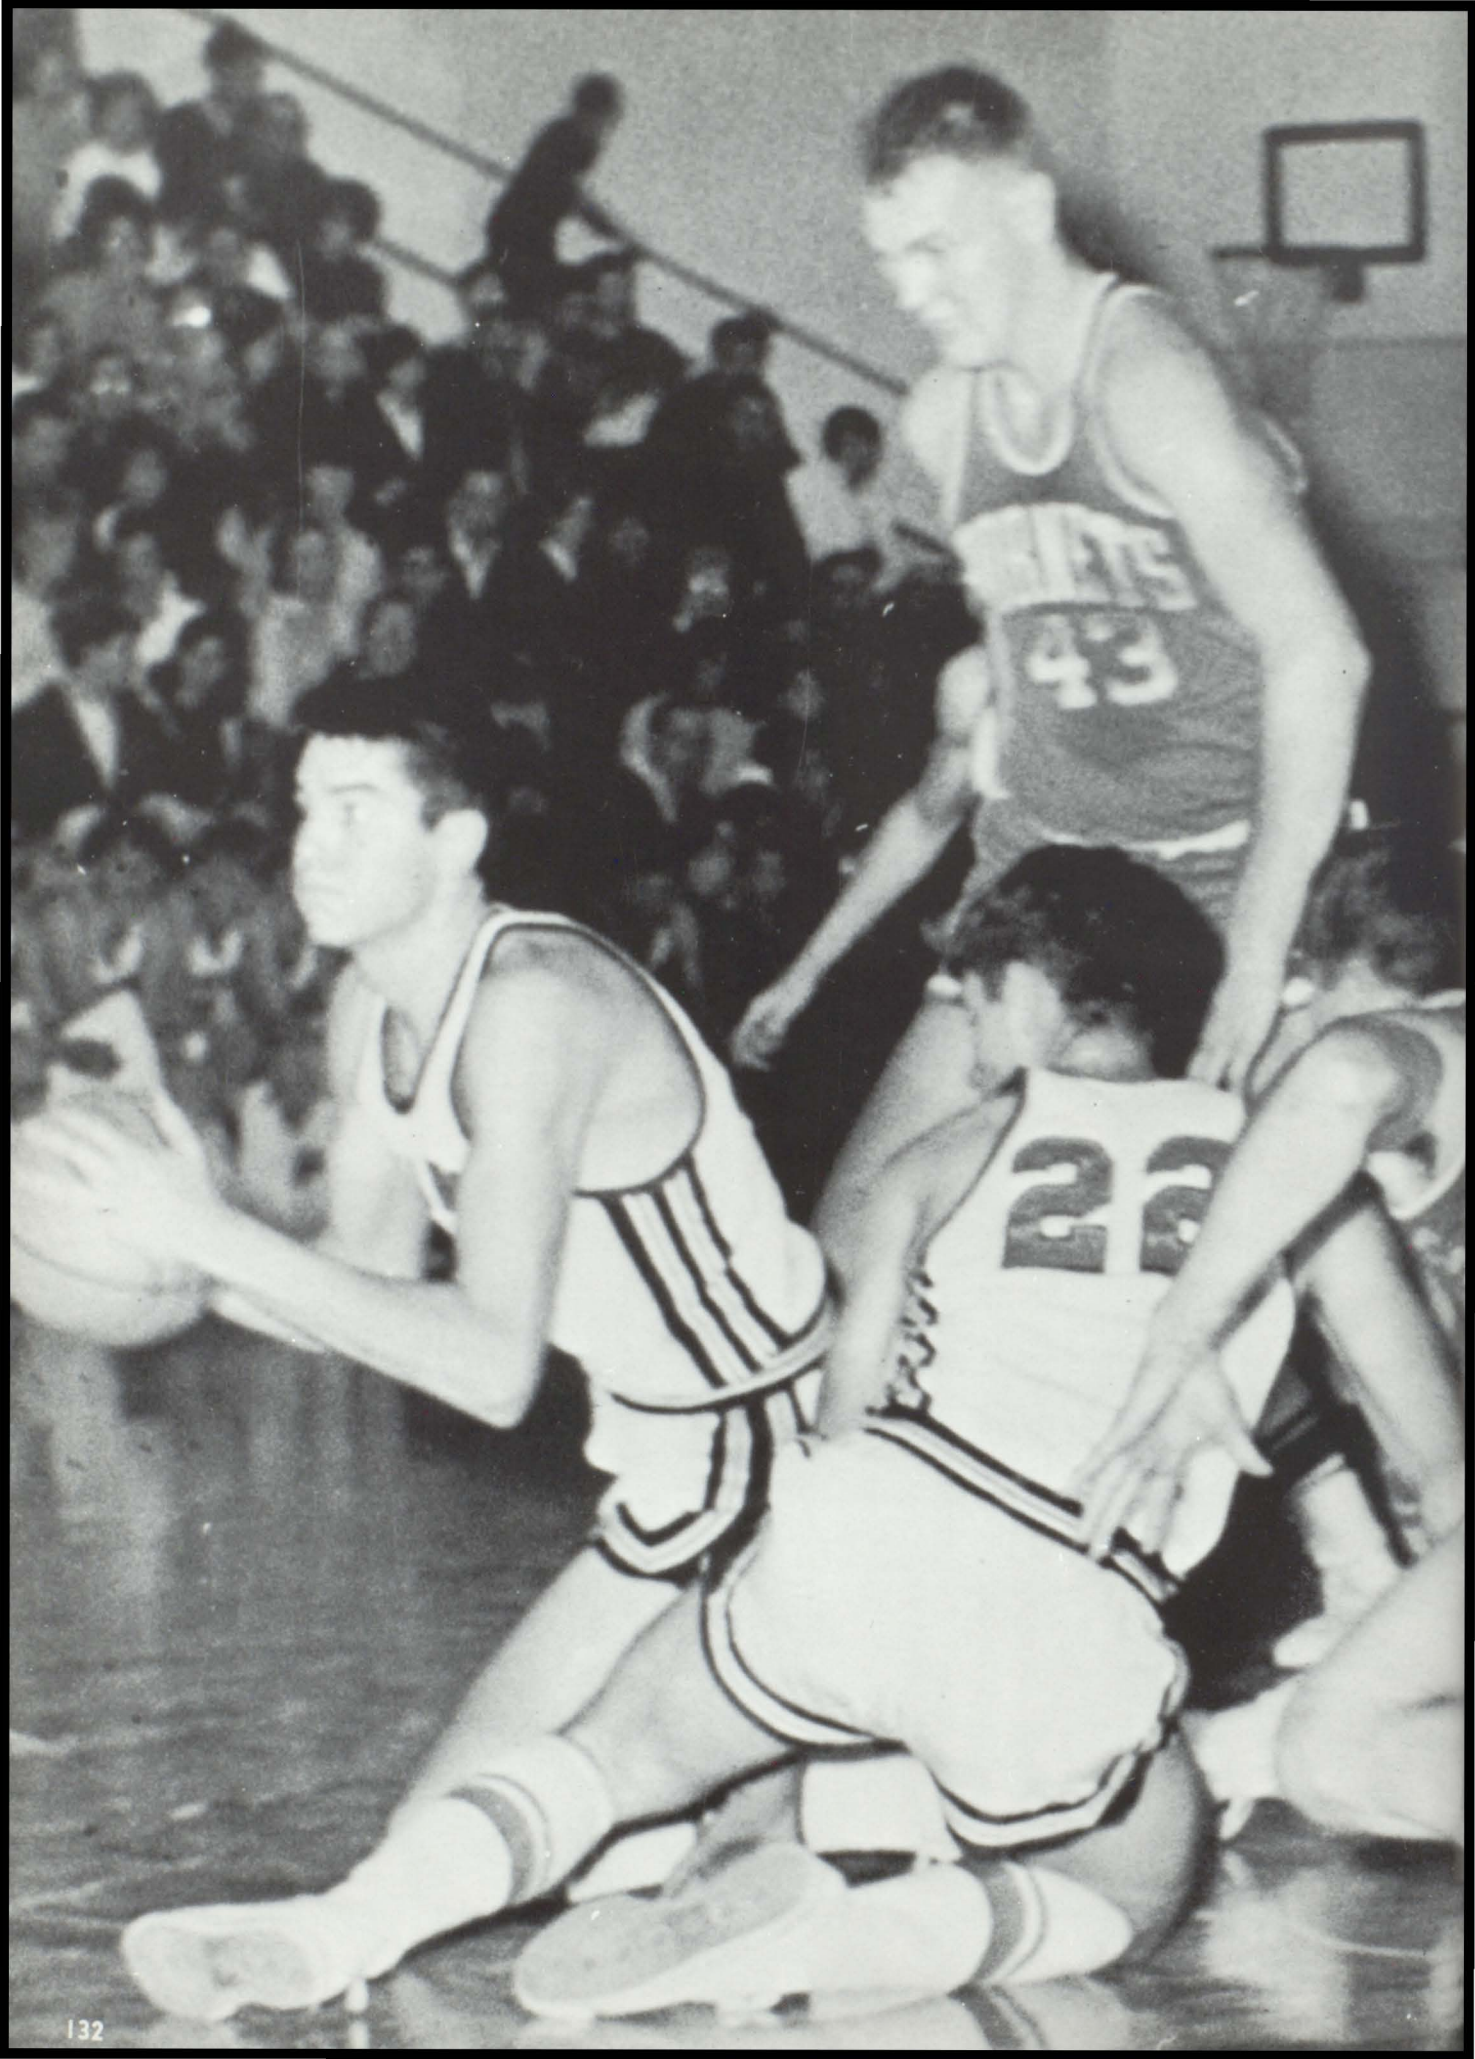

Doug Marvin is on top, but he seems to be getting the worst end of the deal.

This is the first Oriole wrestling team in the school's history. The year was full of joys and disappointments, highlighted by big victories over Coldwater and North Adams. Many of the returning boys are eagerly awaiting next year's season, to use what they have learned at the state regional tournament and to improve the techniques they learned throughout the year. The record for all dual meets was four wins and five losses.

Quincy's Newest Team Is A Success

This is girls' basketball; not quite like the boys do, is it?

Here's P.E. For Boys And Girls

Would you believe a bird? A plane? Tom Terrific? Or that my shorts just ripped out in the back??!
