A black and white photograph of a river or lake. In the background, a bridge with a truss structure spans across the water. The banks are lined with dense trees, some of which are reflected in the water. The overall scene is serene and natural.

*Ah, could I lay me down in this long grass
And close my eyes, and let the quiet wind
Blow over me, - I am so tired, so tired
Of passing pleasant places! All my life
Following Care along the dusty road,
Have I looked back at loneliness and sighs!*

A black and white photograph of a riverbank. The foreground shows the calm surface of a river. The middle ground is filled with a dense thicket of trees and bushes, their leaves appearing somewhat dark and textured. The background is a bright, overexposed sky. The overall mood is serene and somewhat somber.

*Yet at my hand an unrelenting hand Plugged ever, and I passed. All my life long
Over my shoulder have I looked at peace;
And now I fain would lie in this long grass
And close my eyes.*

Yet onward!

A Tribute To A Dedicated Man

The yearbook staff, on behalf of the student body, takes pride in paying tribute to Mr. Patrick Wade. Coach Wade has been on the coaching staff at Union City since 1952, having just completed his fourteenth year of coaching here.

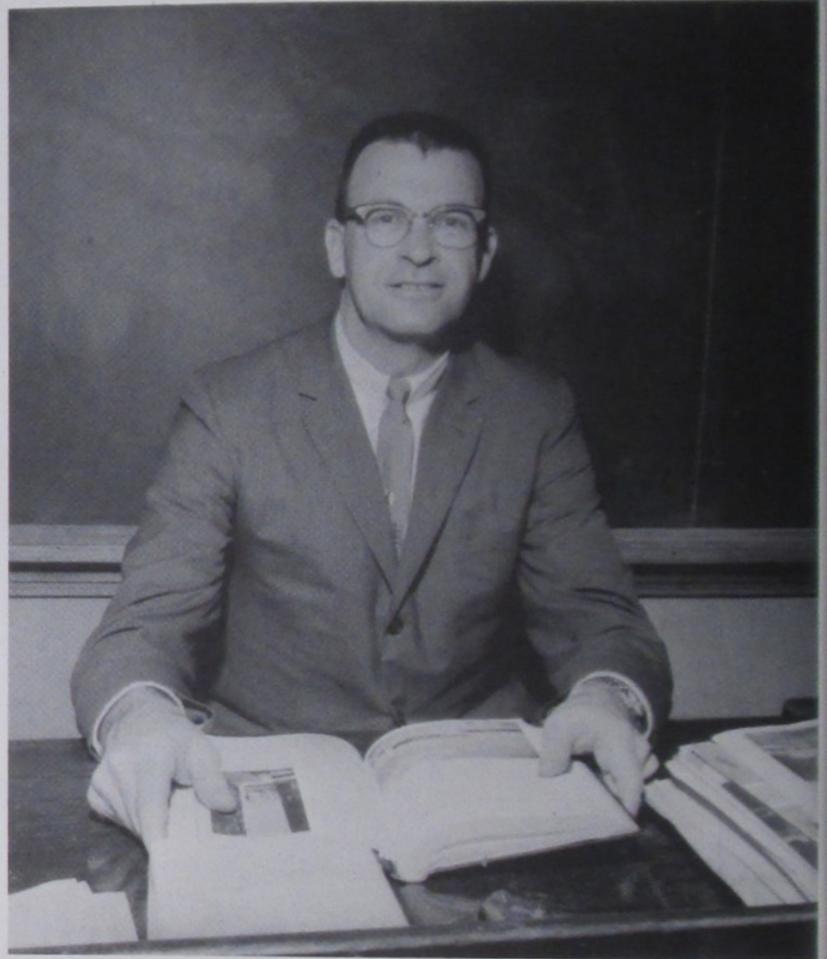

Mr. Wade came to Union City immediately after college graduation. His schedule now includes teaching junior high physical education, history, and science, and driver education during the summer.

Coach Wade will long be remembered by the many boys he has coached. He talked in quiet, deliberate ways. Yet, when he spoke, all listened.

During the years, whether his team would win or lose, Coach Wade was always their most loyal supporter.

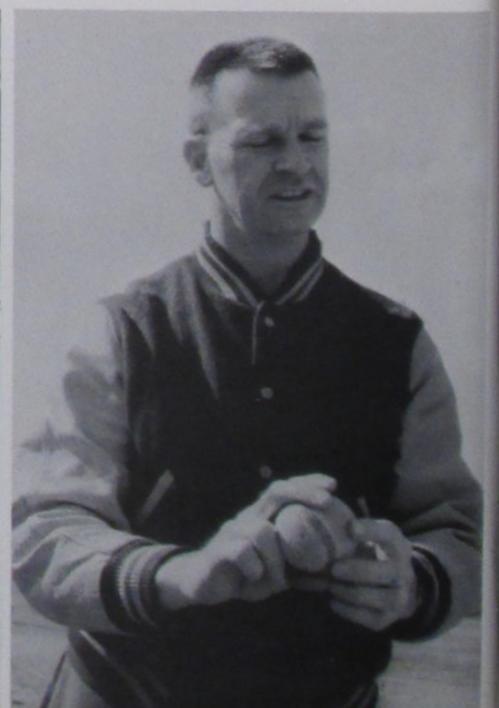

Among Mr. Wade's favorite hobbies are golfing and just staying home with his family. He also enjoys helping with the summer recreation program here in Union City.

Thanks, Mr. Wade, from all who have known you, for a job well done.

Mr. Wade, Classroom teacher.

Coach Wade, on the field

Students At UCHS . . .

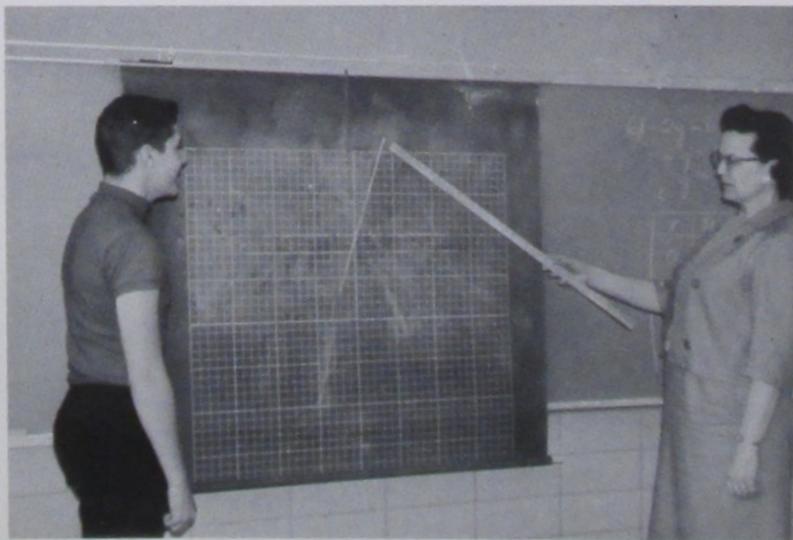

Learn . . .

by re-living important historical periods,

by studying the language and customs of other countries,

14 by mastering and then applying theorms, formulas, and laws,

by reading, comprehending, and doing.

Create . . .

by experiencing the joy that comes from learning the technicalities of music in order to produce a fine performance, by starting with many phases of the whole of U.C.H.S. and coming up with finished products, by studying the basis of the English language and applying it through original writing and through reading literary classics, by observing, by feeling an emotion, and by expressing it.

Participate . . .

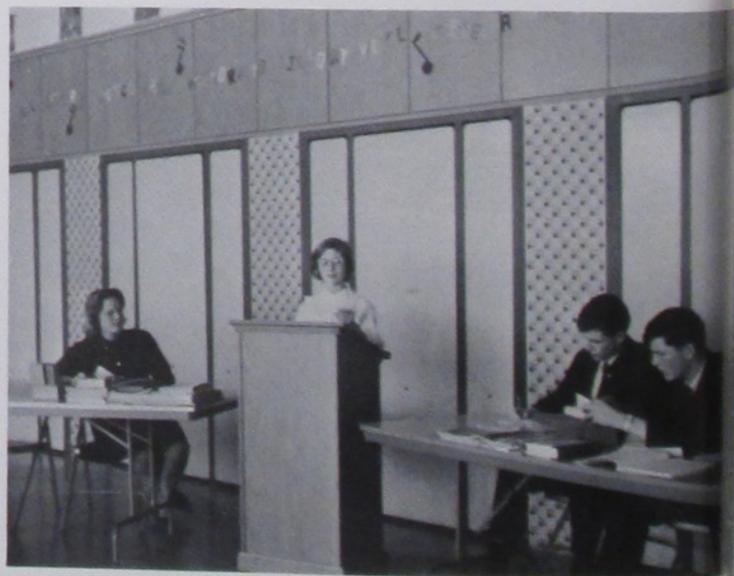

as they enthusiastically support their team,

as they learn the art of domestic living,

as they relate school events to the student body.

as they examine the pros and cons of important issues of the day,

Have Fun . . .

spontaneously,

enthusiastically,

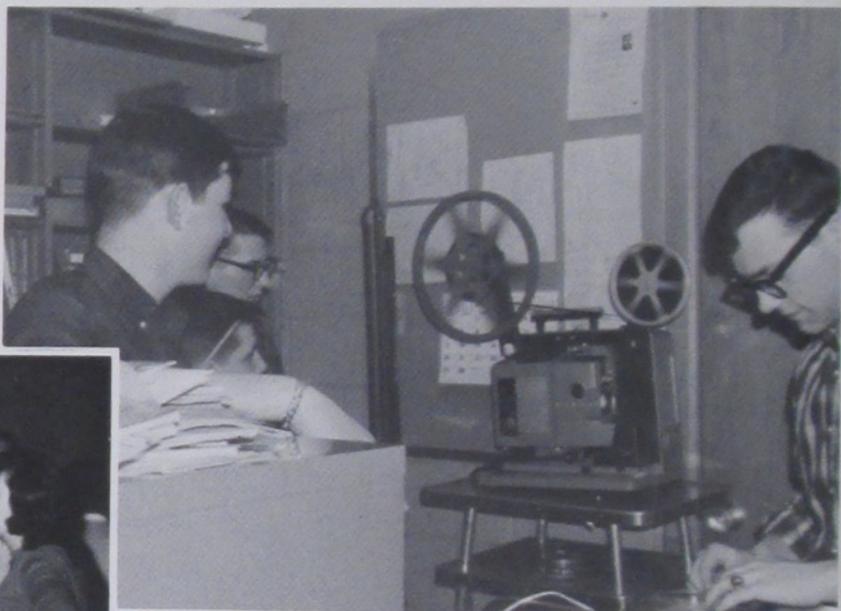

together,

and yes, eating.

Discover Themselves . . .

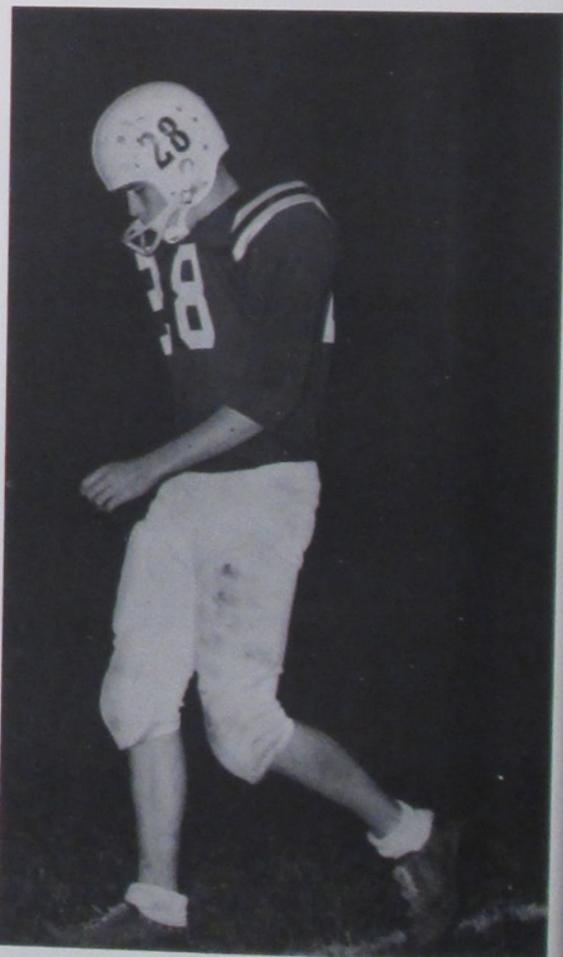

through wise use (?) of free time,

through socializing,

through contemplation,

through worship.

The Student Council was involved in school activities from the first day through the last day of the 1965-66 school year. School opened with an assembly, which was planned and carried out by the officers of the Council.

The next project was the Homecoming Week, November 1st-5th. The Council seems to have formed the habit of planning a better Homecoming each year, and this year's was no exception.

Activities continued from last year were operating the malt machine, taking charge of the concession stands, and subscribing to seven national newspapers for the library. The Council was also in charge of organizing the dances, and issued some dance rules, in addition to those previously formed.

In service to the community, the Council pledged $100 to the Union City Centennial Corporation, and contributed to the United Fund and the March of Dimes.

The membership of the Council was raised to twenty-four students this year.

For School Betterment

All right, Tom, don't get demanding. There are plenty of malts for everyone.

Jerry and Em converse with Mr. Singles about some of the Council's correspondence.

If that man doesn't stop taking pictures of me eating at the concession stand. . .

This year's National Honor Society had more members than in any previous year. Sixteen new members were inducted into the Society on January 28th. All were qualified to meet the four items of which the choices are based: Service, Leadership, Citizenship, Scholarship.

The officers for the year were Brad Heisler, president; Larry Corey, vice president; Shelley Kingsley, secretary; Jerry Mack, treasurer; Sherry Danbury, historian.

The National Honor Society spent one afternoon touring Ft. Custer Training Center, in Battle Creek, and spent an evening at SAGE, which is a huge electronic center in Battle Creek.

The Future Teachers of America Club met regularly through the year, on every second and fourth Thursday. At each of these meetings, various programs were presented, including films and guest speakers.

The Club continued its past activity of giving each faculty member a Christmas rose. Some of the members were also involved in cadet-teaching, when once a week a student spent half of a day with one of the classes at the elementary school.

With the arrival of Spring, the club members made plans for their annual FTA Dinner, and for the tea which is given in honor of the graduating Senior girls and the faculty members.

Membership in FTA this past year totaled twenty.

Students Spend Many Hours

Members of "The Maroon and Gray" staff were involved in a busy year. They continued using the offset process of producing a paper, under a new adviser, Mrs. Baggerly.

The paper was published every two weeks. The average sales were 500 copies. many new features were introduced. Among them were the Matchmaker, various polls, a complete Feature Page, and the paper's mascot, Ma Roonie.

As a member of the Quill and Scroll Organization, the newspaper staff has tried to produce a clean, interesting paper, one that satisfies the student body, faculty, and community.

The fourth and final deadline for the 1966 Maroon Memories arrived rapidly for the Yearbook Staff. The days leading up to this final deadline were filled with many hours of the planning, writing, and completion of the 103 pages of the yearbook.

The 1966 Maroon Memories was produced under a new advisor, Mrs. Baggerly, and was published under a new company, Taylor Publishing Co.

This year's Editor-in-Chief was Shelley Kingsley; the Assistant Editor was Em Tassie. Shelley's job was to plan the entire yearbook, and insure the completion of these plans. Em spent the year learning everything there was to learn about producing a good yearbook.

As Business Manager and Sports Editor, Bob Brewer's year was kept very busy with all of the advertisements and keeping up with all sports events.

Co-op

There were 13 UCHS students participating in Co-op this past year. The Co-op students attended school for half a day and worked at their assigned jobs the rest of the day.

UCHS Co-op students have various kinds of jobs, such as working at the hospital in Coldwater, working in gas stations, garages, and stores in the business district of Union City.

The Co-op students have gained much experience and knowledge from their jobs, and are better prepared to meet the future.

Bible Club

Every Monday Morning at 8:00, the Bible Club could be found in Room 14, with their advisor, Mr. Lutz. This year the theme of the Bible Club was, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." Their theme chorus was "Christ For Me."

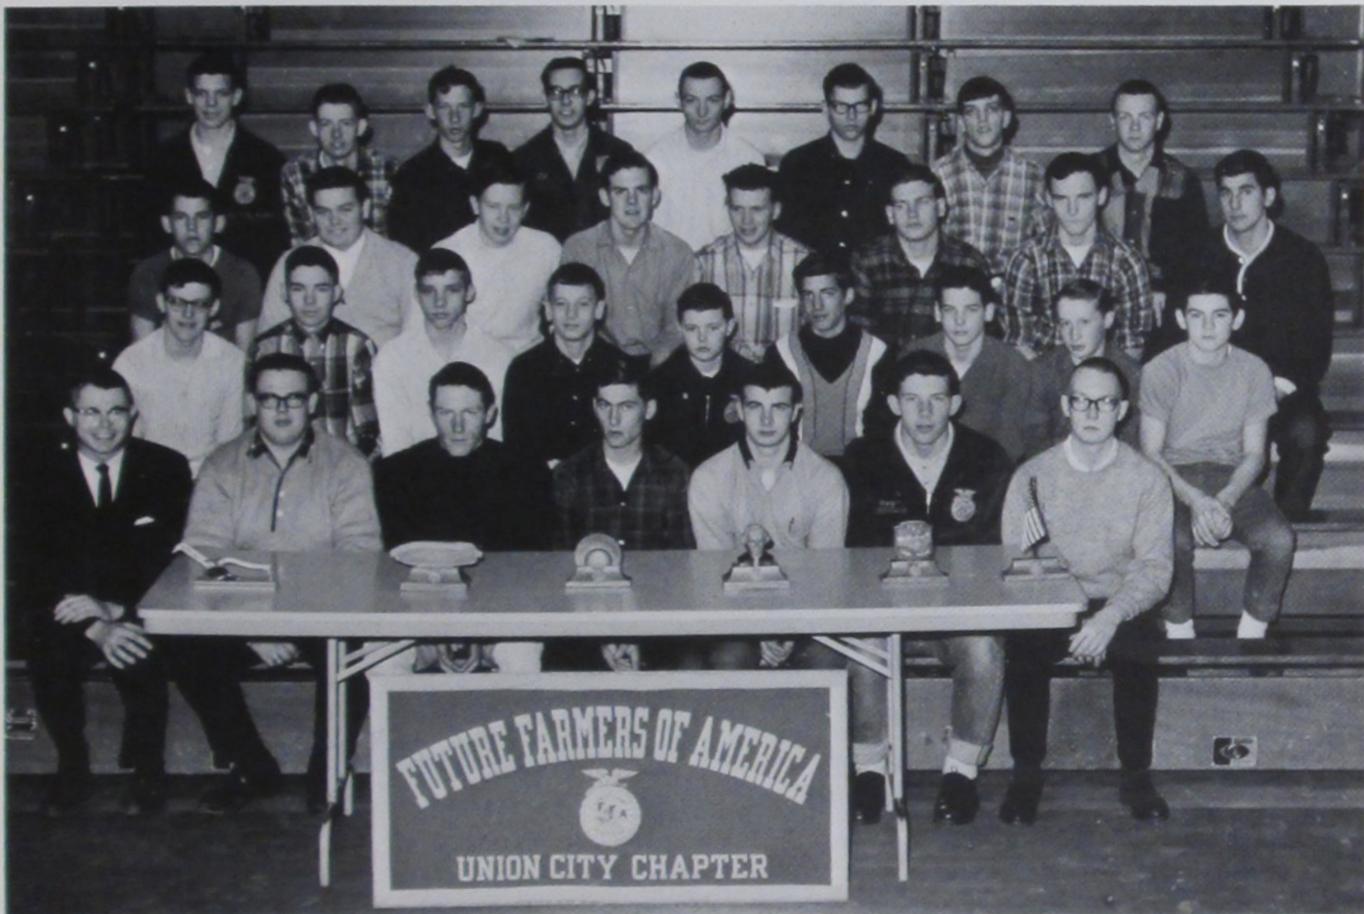

The Bible Club's meetings consisted of discussions of scriptures and Bible topics, singing hymns, and doing skits. On occasion, outside speakers visited the Bible Club.

Prayer partners were also an important part of the Bible Club. Each week, the members would draw a name of someone in the club out of a hat and pray for that person all week.

Outside activities for the FFA included the FFA Leadership Contest, Land Judging Contest, at which they received a II; and the FFA State Convention. They have also raised Christmas trees on their plantation, which they sold before Christmas.

This year was the first year for two vocational agriculture courses for freshmen. One was in applied plant science, and one in applied soil science.

FNA meetings are always kept lively. The girls have made reports on the various fields of nursing, and have seen films pertaining to the nursing profession. Mrs. Warke has told them of the different colleges they may attend in order to study nursing.

It is their future goal to make the Future Homemakers of America an even more integral carrier for home economics, for both community, school, and home life.

Part of being an FHA member is learning the many aspects of being a homemaker.

First All-School Play

Jesse greets his pupils on the first day of school.

The make-up crew worked long and hard, and produced the proper effects.

The first All-School Play at UCHS was presented on April 14th and 15th. There were about thirty students in the cast, all under the direction of Mr. Lutz.

"The Thread That Runs So True" is the story of a teacher's trials and problems as he reopens a rural school. Lonesome Valley Rural School was located in the hills of Kentucky. Jesse Stuart arrived in the area in 1925, with plans to reopen the school.

The year began in mid-July, almost harvest time, and concluded in January. Jesse met up with many problems during this time. At one point he was almost fired, and the school was almost closed. One of his problems was being in love with one of his students, Naomi Deanne Norris. The problem was the fact that she was going to marry another man.

However, in the end, Jesse accomplished everything he set out to do. He received the consent of the School Board to have a new, muchly needed, Consolidated School built, his pupils were victorious over a neighboring, rival school (Landsburgh) in a scholastic contest, and Naomi Deanne finally realized she was in love with him.

Most important of all, Jesse realized that education is the "thread that runs so true".

"Carol, you've just got to help with my gestures!"

"Well, I guess that looks o.k., Cathy."

Helen, Susan, Mr. Lutz, Skip, and Alan gaze at their successful record.

The Debate and Forensics teams have each enjoyed an exceedingly successful year.

The four Varsity Debaters completed their regular State Schedule with seven victories and one loss. The Affirmative team, composed of Helen Doane and Susan Leitch, won all four of their debates, while Skip Knapp and Alan Parks, of the Negative team, completed the regular season with three victories and one defeat.

Union City held its own tournaments on Saturday, Dec. 11th. Eight schools were represented. UCHS took second place as a team.

On Saturday, Jan. 22nd, the Varsity Debaters traveled to Western Michigan University, for the District Debate Tournaments. The result of the tournament was a tie for first place between Kalamazoo University High, Parma Western, and UCHS.

The Debaters again traveled to WMU on Feb. 18th, to compete in the Regional Debate Tournaments. They emerged as Regional Champs. It was in this tournament that Alan and Skip tied for the highest points of all contestants.

March 10th and 11th saw the Debaters journey to Ann Arbor, to compete in the State Semi-Final Debate Tournaments.

The following topic was debated throughout the year: "Resolved: That the federal government should adopt a program of compulsory arbitration in labor-management disputes in basic industries."

The District Forensics Tournament was held at UCHS on March 28th. In this type of competition, there are eight different categories. Of these eight, UC placed 1st, 2nd, or both in five.

"We can't all be perfect, you know."

"I know, but you don't have to open your mouth so wide!"

Sophomores Sponsor "Crystal Ball"

THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS AND THEIR ROYAL COURT: Tom Case, Jodi Smith, Prince Bob Wagar, Princess Merrilee Wagaman, Joy Eldred, Sam VanHorn.

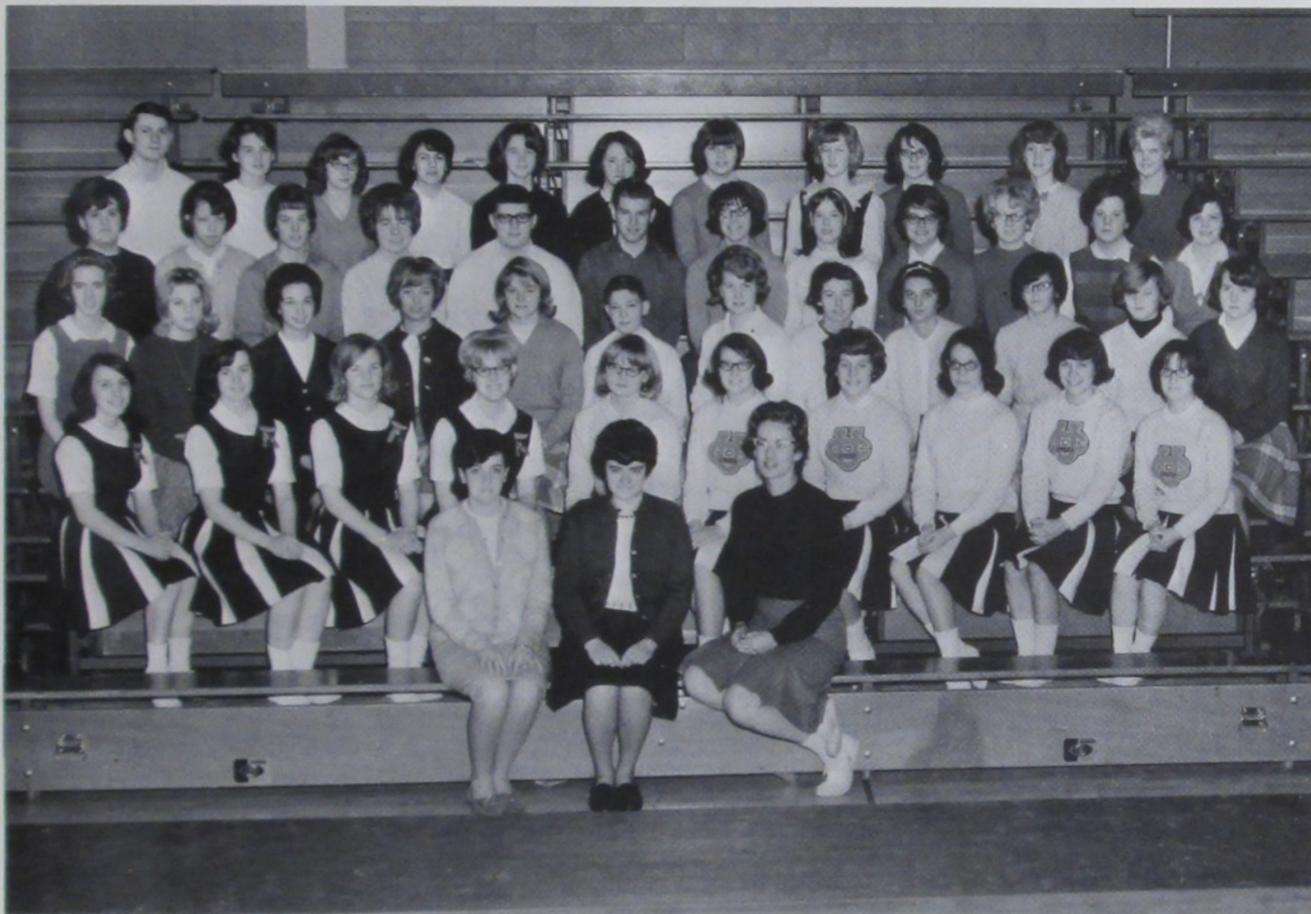

It was laughs, work and fun for the Sophomores as they prepared for the Sno-Ball.

It was the night of January 29th. As couples entered the high school, they observed a cafeteria that was quite different in appearance from the usual one. Beyond the French doors were various decorations that carried out the theme of the dance they were attending. . . "Crystal Ball."

Frankie and Dianne Fabiano presented the crown and roses to Princess Merrilee.

This year the UCHS Pep Club has changed its name to the MSM's--the Mighty Spirited Maroons. The MSM's, under the direction of Miss Sanford, have worked hard to boost the spirit and morale of our team and student body. Hall and locker signs were a result of the work of the MSM's, as were the skits that were presented at various pep assemblies. They also learned new cheers and supported good sportsmanship at all of our games.

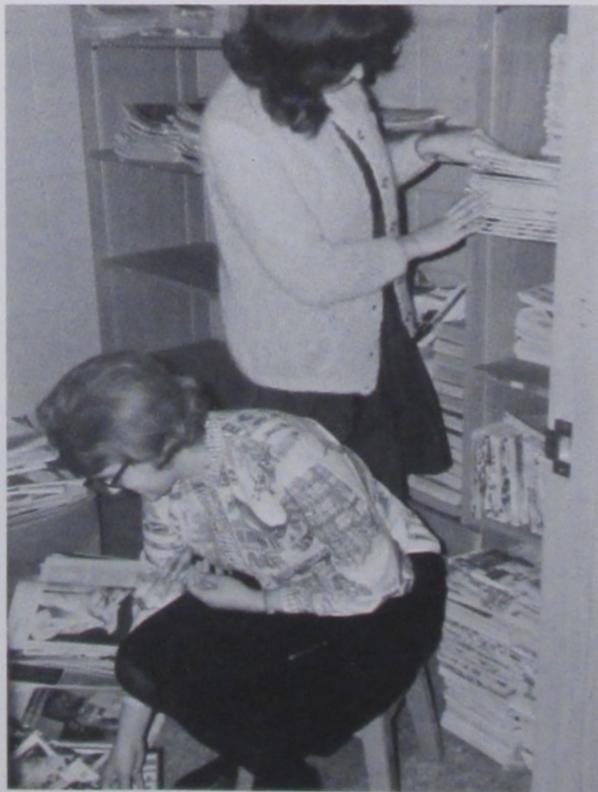

We are very grateful for the fine work and spirit the MSM's have shown this year.

It takes a mighty good stretch to get the "spirit" signs displayed!

Librarians Gain Experience With Books

SEATED: Tony Garrison, Jeannie Johnson, Carol Jasper, Mrs. Evert, head librarian; Susan Leitch, Ellen Arey, Ruth Sholes. STANDING: Carol Norton, Naomi Ellenwood, Lorraine Finney, Ted Stamely, Greg Hull, Dennis Kaniewski, John Musolf, Mary Sebo, Carol Toner, Cheryl Robbins, Lynette Girard.

Keeping track and taking care of all the books in the UCHS library is a big job. But the Library Club makes this job seem simple.

The student body of UCHS is very thankful for the many helpful librarians who keep the library quiet for studying, and help students find books and information. We are especially grateful to Mrs. Evert who keeps the library running smoothly and goes out of her way to find material for us.

Keeping the 'magazine room' neat and orderly is quite a job for the librarians!

SEATED: Tom Case, Helen Doane, Mrs. Converse, Marty Lepper.

Mrs. Converse, sponsor, discusses some of the songs with Skip Knapp, M.C.

The "Sing-Out" at our own high school probably had its first beginnings during the Christmas Holidays, when three students, accompanied by Mrs. Converse, journeyed to Mackinac Island. They were guests at a Moral Rearmament Conference.

Moral Rearmament is exactly what it reads--rearming morals. In short, its purpose is to build a more peaceful world. Those people, believing in this ideal, begin improving the world by first improving themselves. They are guided by four principles, love, purity, selflessness, and honesty.

Since the first beginnings, the "Sing-Out" group at our school has grown to over forty students. They have sung at a high school assembly, a community assembly, and the District Meeting of the Eastern Star. On May 14th, they performed for the State Meeting of Masonic Lodge.

On May 1, over seventy students, parents, and interested adults from Union City traveled to Culver Military Academy, in Culver, Indiana, to hear one of the original "Sing-Out" groups.

SPORTS

Queen Terri

The 1965 Homecoming Week began on November 1st. The student body attended an assembly, at which the fifteen candidates for the Court were presented. The Homecoming Court was limited to two Junior girls and three Senior girls; the Seniors were then eligible for Queen. Jane Brandt and Em Tassie represented the Junior Class, while Rose Knapp, Linda Melendy, and Terri Smith represented the Senior Class.

There were various activities throughout the week, all of which pertained in some way to Homecoming. Suspense was at its peak as a record crowd arrived to watch the Athens-UC game, on November 5th. The night was perfect. At halftime, with the score 13 to 0 in our favor, Terri Smith was announced as "Miss Maroon and Gray of 1965." The boys then went on to win the game, 20 to 19, doing their share in making Homecoming perfect.

The crowning ceremony was midway through the Homecoming Dance, which was the final event in the week of festivities. Ushers this year were Tom and Paul Brecheisen, and Crown Bearer was Miss Tangi Lepper. The girls and their escorts were as follows: Jane Brandt and Dick Watkins, Em Tassie and Ron Olds, Rose Knapp, and Greg Hull, Linda Melendy and Larry Corey, Queen Terri and Bob Brewer. Sandy Eldred, Homecoming Queen of 1965, was escorted by Brad Heisler.

Music was supplied by The Jack Braun Orchestra.

Roses, a crown, and a beautiful smile. . . all are features of a queen.

WOW! What an embrace!

A spirited crowd is a team's encouragement.

The Varsity Football Team completed its season with 5 wins and 3 losses. There were 32 boys on the team. The highlight of the season was the last game, when the Maroons brought the "Brown Jug" home.

Union City placed four boys on the All-Conference Team: Mark Aldrich, Warren Converse, Brad Heisler, Dick Watkins. Those receiving Honorable Mention were Ron Brewer, Larry Corey, and Dave Midaugh. Brad Heisler recieved Honorable Mention on the All-State Team.

Co-Captains this year were Larry Corey and Brad Heisler. Brad was elected by the team as "Most Valuable Player."

Eric's concerned look wasn't necessary; the Maroons downed Athens, 20 to 19.

Maroons Win Back Brown Jug

The boys anxiously watch as their team members fight to win.

Co-Captain Larry Corey (28) crashes through, with a touchdown as his goal. Eric Tundevold (12) is kept busy with blocking.

Dick and Doug secure a Maroon rebound.

The U.C. Varsity Cagers had difficulty trying to get a winning streak going. They compiled six wins and 13 losses overall this season. This may not be too impressive, but the Maroons played much better basketball than their record showed.

The Maroons produced the league's leading scorer in Dick Watkins who was named co-captain on the Little "C" All-Conference team. Dick also received All-State recognition.

The Varsity Basketball team set a new scoring record in the high school gym. They amassed 97 points in defeating Quincy 97-50. The climax of this year's season came in the District Tournaments. Union City defeated league champion Colon, and the Maroons advanced to the semifinal round of the Class "C" District Tournament.

JV's "hit hard" during practice.

Thirty boys reported for football practice last fall. They were to make up the 1965 JV football squad. Although they won only one game, both coaches had high praise for the young squad and their high-spirited play.

Next year, as seasoned veterans of the gridiron, these boys will be valuable assistants to our hard fighting varsity.

The JV's had trouble winning this year. Inexperience was their major draw-back. They played well but just could not combine their efforts to win more than one game. Coach Rice stated that he thought that his young cagers had gained much valuable experience in high school competition.

This year's team was composed of six freshmen and five sophomores.

UC Baseball Team Takes Second In Conference

SECOND ROW: Bruce Carpenter, Doug Miller, Dave Mack, Terry Musselman, Dorin Renner, Coach Wade,

This year the Union City Batmen combined experience and power to take an undisputed second place in the Little "C" Conference.

It was a fine year for Coach Wade and his team. They compiled a record of five wins and only two defeats, the two defeats being at the hands of Conference champion Bronson and third place Jonesville.

The last game of the season was with Athens. This game was a very important win for Union City. By beating Athens, the Maroons took second in the conference and eliminated Athens from receiving the All-Sports Trophy.

Union City lead the league with representatives on the Little "C" All Conference team. Brad Heisler and Ron Olds were in the outfield, Dick Watkins was the All Conference pitcher, and Ron and Bob Brewer made honorable mention.

Coach Wade shows Larry how to take a throw at third.

During their second season, the Union City wrestlers have done well. This year's season record for the Matrats was eight wins and five losses. Considering they defeated some schools which have been wrestling for years, this is an excellent record.

In the Galesburg-Augusta wrestling tournament, Merle Melendy placed second, Sam VanHorn and Keith Kincaid, third, and Dave Mack and Dave Knapp both placed fourth.

In the Parma Western wrestling tournament, Sam VanHorn placed first, Merle Melendy and Keith Kincaid both placed third, and Dave Mack fourth.

Coach Kendziorski stated that next season he expects his wrestlers to do even better.

In the mile relay which was the last event, Litchfield took first, and Union City took third. Thus Litchfield took the 1966 Little "C" track crown, and Union City finished a strong second.

In the meet, Warren Converse set a new conference record in the Shot-put with a put of 47 ft. 10 in. Warren was also high-point man in the Conference meet with 17 points.

Six new school records were also set this year. Mark Aldrich set a record in the 880 yard run. Eric Tundevold broke the record in the mile. The old mile relay record was broken by the team of, Mark Aldrich, Doug Miller, Eric Tundevold, and Dave Brandt. Doug Miller set a new record in the long jump, and Warren Converse set a new school record in both the high jump and shot-put.

Congratulations to our "Thin Clads" for an excellent season.
