CARRIE E. KEMPSTER

We, the Cardinal Staff of 1939, dedicate this book to Miss Carrie Kempster in admiration of her long and commendable service to our school. Her work as head of the Commercial Department and as High School Treasurer as well as her splendid qualities of helpfulness and friendliness mark her as an outstanding citizen of Coldwater High School.

FACULTY "ISMS"

- Now-I'll-Tell-One-ism--Mr. Austin can outyarn Baron Munchausen any day in the week. He can top your favorite story with one that will make yours sound like the first essay you wrote. His special talent lies in the hunting field and you ought to hear about the ones that got away.
- Snappyism--Mr. King is the guy who put the snap into our band. And what is a band without snap? A band can't get any place with only uniforms and a batch of instruments. There has to be some one to show them how to wear those uniforms and how to play those instruments. Well, to be brief, Mr. King did just that.
- Citizenshipism--Mr. Bates' code of life is good citizenship. He believes that we build the foundation of our future while in school and that we ought to do a good job of it while we are at it. We think he has something there.
- Accuracysim--Miss Kempster is a rabid supporter of accuracy in spelling and punctuation. It is the original type of spelling that really riles her. Even the seniors have done and still do their share of spelling words just any old way. A poor speller and punctuator will never get into the diplomatic service.
- Good Sportsmanshipism--Mr. Bauer does not approve of winning a game by demolishing the opponent into puddles of gore and piles of disconnected arms and legs. If you like blood and bones you'd better steer clear of Coach whose motto is simply, "Good sportsmanship." Now you husky hopefuls know how to get an "E", or an "A" in football.

Retiringism--Meet the ghost of C. H. S. Two-thirds of our observing student body have never laid eyes on Mr. Grigg and wouldn't recognize him if they did now. He maintains a ghostly silence and invisibility but those who know him think he is pretty much okay. Come out of the ectoplasm, Mr. Grigg, and take a bow.

Promotism--Mr. Clute could successfully promote a campaign to put an elephant in every garage. When made responsible for the Circus ticket sales and the ads for this super-magnificent-stupendous-Cardinal, he tore into the jobs and came out clutching success with both hands.

Organizationism--Mr. Kline seasoned a flock of harmonicas with a couple of jugs and served up the best harmonica band for miles around. Turn him loose with a bunch of boys and he will organize a tumbling team, a scout troop, or a masculine branch of the Ladies Aid before you can bat an eye. It is our opinion that he could organize a mob of hungry cannibals into a vegetarian society.

Chemistryism--Mr. Sibley can't remember the common name for things. We ask for "aspirin", but he wants "acetyl salicylic acid." We like salt but he will take "sodium chloride, please." You have to know Chemistry to follow him through the Chemistry of his conversation. But if you know anything about chickens you will have a topic of conversation in which you will be able to follow him fairly well.

Wanderingism--Mr. Lyons' wandering is the kind that leads him away from the subject and into many and devious paths. And since it is this kind of wandering on the part of the teachers that keeps the students from going batty, his classes hope that he will wander merrily on and on. We have noted though, that his boys do know their stuff.

Tardyism--After innumerable interviews with students who come from two minutes to two hours late--Mr. Sharer is convinced that tardyism is one art that should become lost. If you must be tardy, he requests you to think up some original excuse like, "The clock was slow," or "The car wouldn't start." He is haunted by, "I fell out of the barn," or "I got all the red lights." However, he is very understanding and, "A friend at nine is a friend that is fine."

Penalty Roomism--Miss Burrell is gunning for the misguided fellow who thought up the cute idea of penalty rooms. They haunt her and make her cross. Something ought to be done about it. Being a student ourself, we suggest, "Away with 'em!"

Safetyism--Mr. Green is all for safety and safety education but after three years of teaching it he feels that he could plead self-defense if he suddenly went out and scattered a few fenders along the highway. Perhaps next year, Mr. Green!

Artism--Miss Culp is responsible for those wonderful backdrops that we have on our stage. She knows the secret of transforming an expanse of cloth into a magnificent skyline. Also, under her direction, her students have transformed the Biology lab into a veritable art museum. And that is an accomplishment!

Study Hallism--Mr. Frizzo's pet peeve is study hall; the students do everything but study. They wear him down, but he must be a hardy soul because he survived a year of those study halls which makes him a veteran.

Cheerfulnessism--Mr. Dennis is a cheerful sort of fellow. Even his worst Algebra class can't quite depress him. He realizes that Algebra is one of those subjects that you either get or you don't. The person who can be cheerful in the face of original Algebra and original General Science experiments is a person to be admired.

Patriotism--Miss Lazenby believes in her America and don't let anyone tell you differently. She knows her history and if given a little time she might even convert the most violent teardowner of Democracy. That sounds like a tall assignment, but the impossible has been done before.

Driveism--Miss Semmelroth wishes she could drive a car without being afraid of wrapping the thing around a tree. We have heard that practice makes perfect, so keep at it, Miss Semmelroth, and maybe someday you will make Barney Oldfield look like an amateur. However, in classes, she steers a straight course to knowledge.

Absentmindedism--Mrs. McFarlane is absent minded--as all good teachers are supposed to be. However, she reflects that being a good teacher is all right if you can remember what is good about it. Might we suggest that she makes the housekeepers and "Good housekeeping every day keeps Reno away."

Peaceism--Miss Schultz will have peace if she has to fight for it. She believes she would be happy as a lark if she could find a flock of students who are closely related to the clam and the busy little ant, so that every little student would lack the desire to noisily inquire of his neighbor, "What is the next answer?"

Arguism--Have you something to argue about and no one to argue with? Just dash down to Miss McLean. She will take care of one side of the argument but you had better call in some seconds to help you on your side. You have probably guessed that Miss McLean's favorite dish is a good argument.

Vocabularyism--At the age of two Mr. Renshaw astounded the family by pronouncing "anti-disciplinarianism" and proclaiming it to be the appropriate policy for his family to assume. Since then his vocabulary has progressed prodigiously and now includes "anti-disestablishmentarianism." Students, how do your ten-cent words stack up?

Neatnessism--Miss Moore is driven to distraction by little scraps of paper, not to mention pop-corn kernels strewn liberally over the floor. And then there are the boys who sit on the back of their neck or on one ear, and park their feet on the seats. Her idea of neatness includes a fairly straight back.

Behaviorism--Miss Squires believes in that good old adage: "Treat others as you would have them treat you." It is a pretty good old adage and deserves all the support that can be rallied to it. So take a tip and don't dash around taking cracks at people unless you want them to "mow you down" in return.

Humorism--A bit of humor here and there makes a government class more interesting. There's nothing like a good laugh to prepare you for the arduous task of learning the four ways of amending the Constitution. Mr. Weeks keeps his classes from becoming monotonous which makes the students more likely to absorb a bit of knowledge. "A laugh a day keeps the 'E's' away."

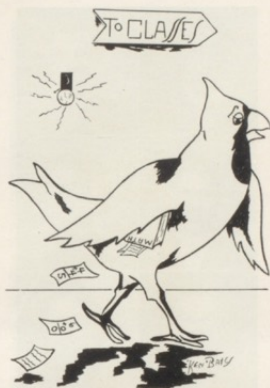

Goodism--Miss Steffaniak likes the good things about school life. She is strongly in favor of good assemblies and interesting organizations that help us get along with each other and teach us co-operation. She believes that if we come under good influences in school we will have a proper start in life.

Funism--He is the fellow who worries about keeping the faculty contented. Hm--where have we heard that word before? He believes in fun for the faculty for a change and so there are parties, roasts, volley ball, and other forms of fun to keep them happy. With Mr. Symons around, teaching can't be such a bad job, after all.

Helpism--Mrs. Van Aken is always asking, "What can I do for you?" If she sees you looking bewildered, she arrives under full sail to help you out. She is a God-send to the faculty--always on hand to help a bit here or there, and to pass out the coffee at card marking time. But sometimes she is stumped by the twins and then she wails, "What can I do with Mark and John? They just won't study!"

Figurism--If $1+1=2$, $2 \times 2=4$, how much does it cost to print the Cardinal? We'll lay a wager that Mrs. Slee could give you the answer in a flash. Mathematics is her realm and she could even make us understand squareroot--an amazing achievement when you consider the density of our brain.

Confidencism--Miss Terpening believes that all things and all people are good. She has confidence in everyone and will believe nothing wrong of them. Her policy is simply, "Good will for everyone." Maybe someone ought to explain this policy to certain men in Europe.

THIS IS NOT FAREWELL

Dedicated To The Class of 1939

This is not farewell — don't weep.
For tomorrow issues in another day on hurrying feet.
And the wind chases the shadows away.

This is the time for laughter — not tears.
Even after four years there should be no regrets.
Others have tread the same path, more yet to follow.

But Graduation brings a mingled feeling of hope and distress;
The promise of meeting something new.
Regret for the faces that might not be seen again.

This is not farewell — don't weep.

By Ida Dennis.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, Humpty Dumpty, King Looie 13, and the Scribe, county clerks of Branch County in the City of Coldwater, in the State of Michigan, a part of the United States, on the Continent of North America, and in a Corner of the Universe draw up this last will and testament for the Class of 1939, who are of sane minds and memory, and not acting under duress or under influence, and also being of sufficient age to make and publish this testament, that is to say:

- I, Helen Armstrong, will my cute laugh to Shirley Thurkow.
 I, Ruth Arney, will a curl comb to Mr. Sibley for his mustache.
 I, Ruth Ann Asbury, will my love of flowers to Martha Fuller.
 I, Walton Balcom, will my Model T to C. H. S. athletes to encourage substantial transportation.
 I, Harley Bates, will my study hall ambition to my brother Dick.
 I, Rolland Bates, will my ability to anyone who hasn't any.
 I, Esther Batterson, will my excess altitude to Jean Clark.
 I, Fred Bauer, will my ability to handle my big feet to Corky Zinn.
 I, Beryl Benedict, will my animated eyebrows to Mary Munday.
 I, Mary Bennett, bequeath my brown eyes to Wilma Tase.

JUNIOR CLASS

At the first meeting of the class of 1940, the following officers were elected: President, Walton McCort; Vice-President, Ora Norton; Secretary, Fritz VanAken; Treasurer, Virginia Herlan. This marked the second time that Walton McCort has been chosen President, having also held this position in the eighth grade. This was the second consecutive year that Ora Norton has held office, having been last year's Treasurer.

At the second class meeting, the members organized a Washington Club for the next year's trip. At this same meeting, committees for the Junior-Senior Banquet were chosen.

Mr. Renshaw and Miss Kempster acted as class advisors.

The Reserve team in basketball was made up of mostly Sophomores. They were: "Buck" Gates, "Bus" Edwards, Eugene Cox, Joe Elliget, Junior Cook, Dick Kerr, Paul McKee, Vern Wert. Bob Linton proved very good this year. He played on the first team and will be a great help next year.

The Sophomores, as usual, put on the Christmas party. They collected 25c dues from each member of the class to pay expenses.

STUDENT COMMISSION

The members of this year's Commission were: Mayor, Neil Pfof; Clerk, Martha Fuller; Senior Commissioner, Bill Hillborg; Junior Commissioner, Oliver Marion; Sophomore Commissioner, Dick Kerr.

The new form of government used in our high school this year was introduced by former Mayor Horace Woodward because of a lack of cooperation in the other system. The Commission form reduced the number of council members from seventeen to five. It provided that the Mayor be a Senior, the Clerk a Junior, and a Commissioner from each of the three grades. It was put into effect by an overwhelming majority when voted upon by the students.

The committees appointed for the year and their heads were: Athletic Committee, Mr. Frizzo and Commissioner Oliver Marion; Assembly Committee, Mr. Sharer and Commissioner Bill Hillborg; Social Committee, Mr. Green and Clerk Martha Fuller; Citizenship Committee, Mr. Sibley and Commissioner Dick Kerr.

All members of the Commission agree that the change in systems has been a great help in accomplishing what was necessary.

THE MIRROR

Each semester a staff is appointed for "The Mirror" by Mr. Sharer. The staff is chosen from the journalism class and as one staff retires the other takes up its work. The Mirror is printed by a local printer and is published every two weeks by the staff.

There were two changes made this year. The first semester The Mirror was published by the staff with the help of the Journalism Class. The second semester a larger staff was chosen and the Journalism Class just put out the April Fool edition.

Four styles of Mirrors were voted upon this year and the four-page type was easily chosen.

THE JUNIOR PLAY

Director, Miss Marian McLean

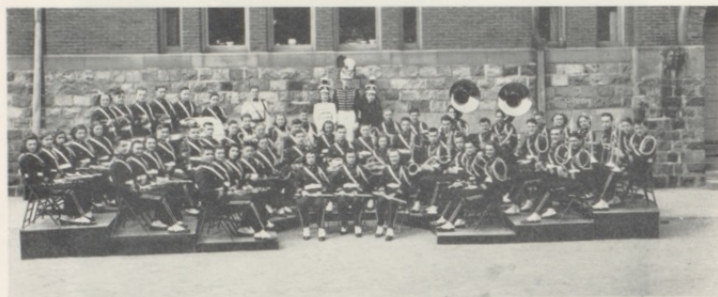

The Juniors selected for their dramatic presentation this year three-act comedy by Hilda Manning entitled "Life Begins at Sixteen."

In the large cast, only two characters were over twenty-one, and the majority of them were at that interesting and dramatic age of adolescent-sixteen. The central characters were Paul and Frannie Hollis, sixteen-year old twins. Paul is an imaginative, sensitive boy while Frannie is more direct and ready for life.

As the play opened, Mrs. Hollis has just won a radio contest for naming a new beauty soap and had been rewarded with a trip to Havana for herself and her husband. Paul becomes the head of the house and with the aid of "Secret Seven Society" he causes a bit of trouble for his sister, Marjorie Hollis and her boy friend who turns out to be a racketeer.

The characters were:

This year's seniors took the sixteenth annual tour to Washington. Because of the New York World's Fair they went by way of New York.

They left Sunday, June 11th at 7:02 A. M. on the N. Y. C. train. They went through Buffalo and arrived in Niagara Falls at 6:08. On Monday they took a boat from Albany to New York. In New York they visited China Town, The Bowery and Greenwich Village. Tuesday was spent at the fair. At 8:07 A. M. on Wednesday they arrived in Washington. Thursday the seniors visited the Smithsonian Museums, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Capitol Building and Supreme Court Building. They left Washington at 5:50 P. M. on Thursday and arrived in Coldwater at 9:25 A. M. on Friday.

The price this year was raised to $49.00 because of the fair.

Students wishing to earn part of the price of their trip, sold candy, hot dogs and subscriptions to various magazines.

Top Row—M. VanAken, Cutler, Mr. Weeks, J. VanAken.

DEBATE

The debate team, with four returning varsity members, had a very successful season. They won the Twin Valley Championship.

At the first of the season the team held preliminary debates with several of the Twin Valley schools: Kalamazoo, Jackson, East Lansing and Lansing.

In the Twin Valley Tournament the high school was very proud to have the team win four out of four contests. In the state they advanced to the Third Elimination debate. This gave Coldwater her third consecutive wall placque. Also, four debaters won Free Press lapel buttons.

In the Spring Speech Contests DeForest Cutler won first place in the Declamation with the speech, "Labels" by D. M. Dozer. Kathryn Amaden won second place. In Oratory John VanAken won first place. His oration was, "Man in a Hurry Backward." Clarence Fayling received second place. In Extempore Speaking Paul Hurrell was given first place. His topic was "Chamberlain and England." Natalie Blanc received second place.

The Subdistrict contest was held at Sturgis April 1st. Coldwater won third place in each division.

Seniors graduating this year were: Paul Hurrell and Neil Pfof.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

This chapter, which was organized in 1934, has just closed another successful year. The officers for this year were: President, Raymond Youngs; Vice-President, Robert Smith; Secretary, Wayne Archer; Treasurer, Glenn Furney; Farm Watch Dog, Hylen Traver.

President Raymond Youngs was sent to Kansas City for one week in October to the National F. F. A. Convention.

The club again organized a basketball team and played F. F. A. teams from Union City, Bronson, Hillsdale, Marshall, Tekonsha and Quincy. All members of the club took part in these games.

Besides taking a summer camping trip to some nearby lakes and several northern lakes, the club worked on an orchard project.

To finish their year the members plan to attend the F.F.A. week in May which is to be held at Michigan State College at East Lansing.

GIRL FRIDAY SNITCHES ON WINCHELL

Let's go to press:

History Note: The Coldwater Cardinals used to sail under the flag of "The Saurkrauters."

It has been rumored that Mr. Bauer and Mr. Austin were the first Coldwater-ites to go swimming this year. It happened at Craig Lake when the ice gave in.

Harley Greenwich thinks gym floors ought to be made of rubber. A bad bump on the head kept him out of several basketball games. The flu was equally mean to Bonnie Barry.

Bright Student: "A moon is something that sees all, hears all, and tells nothing."

Saw the Mayor measuring his length on the floor of Tibbits Theatre.

Orchids to Ruth Sweezy and Martha Fuller for a darn good job of cheer leading. Honorable mention to Eugene Seelye for his effects.

Overheard in class: Wayne Wright placing his bets on the Sturgis Trojans, the former "Go-Carters."

What could be more fun than observing five faculty members cracking wise in a battle of wise cracks? At the last report, Mr. Austin was leading by a score of crevices.

Rachel Speaker is known as the hungriest girl in C.H.S.

Thomas Weage agrees with us that a broken foot is a great handicap; but it is also a swell way to gain sympathy.

Matrimony Note: Miss McLean is leaving us for good this year. The new name will be Johnson. We're sorry to see her go.

Senior High students would give their eye teeth for the kind of bannisters that are to be found in the Junior High.

Leora and Josephine hope that Mr. Austin will be able to find two old maids for '39-'40 as nice as the ones he had during '38-'39.

Coach Bauer, Mr. Clute and Mr. Green: "Hair is something which we don't know what to do with when we have it but which we wish we had back when it is gone."

Senior High students are getting a lot of fun out of writing to foreign boys and girls. Norway, Arabia, Ceylon, S. Africa, England, Germany, Lithuania and Borneo are some of the countries with which successful communication has been established.

Movie actress Myrna Loy is going to be home-sick when Neil takes her out of his locker.

Dale Dean won the 1939 "Boy Who Made the Most Noise About Nothing in Fourth-hour Study Hall" medal.

Pearl Roberts has had a dreadful time of it with her hiccoughs this year. Won't someone please really and truly scare her, just once.

Should we mention that the flu took an awfully mean crack at the student population this year in February? Or would you rather not be reminded?

Beverly Richardson and Josephine Decker dashed to a couple of hospitals to part with an appendix each, during spring vacation. But Jane Tyler beat them to it by getting her's done one week before. Anyhow, they all lived—we think.

Discovery: David Weage seems to be made of rubber. He bounces when he falls and does not find it difficult to simultaneously occupy five seats in Room 101!

Beryl Benedict gets all her information about the navy from a certain sailor who happened to be stationed at Hawaii this year.

Jean Parker, Geraldine Hobus, Ruth Ann Asbury and Natalie Blanc caught an attack of roller-skating-itis and did they have fun one spring evening!

In March Betty M. Olds began wearing a Hillsdale ring instead of a locket, on a chain. It seems the ring was too large.

When Jerry Kemick cleans out his locker before leaving dear old C. H. S. for the last time in June, he will need a couple of donkey carts to haul away the amazing contents of his one little locker.

Rachel Speaker and Hobart Wilbur were glimpse exploring a Five-and-Ten in Battle Creek.

Talent Note: Bob Linton is said to be the best sound-effects man in the entire Sophomore class. He does it all with a dish pan, this and that, and a dash of imagination, and he never heard of mike-fright. That is probably because he makes too much noise to hear anything else.

Rollie Bates wins the "Never Came to School on Time" medal for 1939.

Ruth Ann is still trying to figure out a way to pop popcorn by telepathy or remote control. The pop-corn went by mail, maybe she could pop it by mail.

Statistics: This 1939 batch of Seniors is the largest graduating class in the history of C. H. S.

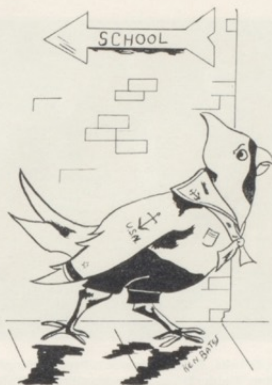

Glen Linton won the 1939 "Prettiest Girl" medal. Fare thee well from

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

Officers for this year were: President, Loren Newberry; Vice-President, Daryl Papke; Treasurer, Gerald Smith; Secretary, Phyllis Dean. Besides these officers there are three council members from each grade.

The members of the Council met with Mr. Bates every other Tuesday morning.

The Council initiated a new idea this year called the "rubbish pile." All articles found were put together on a table and a Council member was assigned to watch it. When a student found an article on the table belonging to him, he took it leaving a slip of paper with his name on it.

Also the Council worked on a new form of Constitution.

The Council this year took charge of all Junior High parties as well as raising the Junior High's share of the cost of the movies shown during the year.

 Second Row—Schultz, Tyler, K. Strong, L. Fry, Watson, Sprague, D. Strong, Mr. Kline.
 First Row—Stowell, Carey, Branch, Pascoe, Bradley, Aldaffer.

THE HARMONICA BAND

Last fall volunteers were called for the Harmonica Band. Twenty-six boys signed up and with the aid of their jews harps, jugs, harmonicas and their leader, Mr. Cline, they had a very successful year.

This year differed from previous years in that they had a director, Duncan Strong. They also had special features. Dancing by Babs Parker and Evelyn Rosenburg and singing by Patsy Kibbe.

Practice periods were held after school once each week and all members proved faithful in this preparation. The band has received education as well as fun.

The following is a review of the events in which the Junior High School Harmonica Band appeared:

1. Junior High School Assembly.
2. Senior High School Circus.
3. Junior High Parent-Teachers Meeting.
4. Exchange Assembly with Bronson.
5. Michigan Children's Village.
6. Kiwanis Ladies Night.
7. Junior High Recognition Night.
8. Scout Training Course, Boys Building at Battle Creek.

Class of 1942

The Freshmen Class has again climbed one more rung in the ladder of education under the direction of an able President, Eugene Pascoe. The class also benefited by its other officers who were: Vice President, Charles Carey; Secretary, Mary Anne Corey; Treasurer, Wayne Green.

The class was well represented on the student council by Phyllis Dean, John Woodward, Loren Newberry, Lora Lee Ruple.

This class has also taken part in many of the activities of the school. Such names as these were called for reserve football letters: L. Morris, D. Green, D. Harris, R. Kuchta, D. Asbury and E. Pascoe.

Also when the reserve list for basketball was called, the following responded: D. Green, D. Harris, C. Zinn, B. Sibley, H. Leedom and C. Cary.

Not only in sports but also with T. Wright, W. Green, M. Gould, H. Cloyd, and E. Cutler as a debating team, they finished second in the Junior High Competition.

Therefore it is safe to say that this freshman class will furnish a huge asset to the Senior High next year.

EIGHTH GRADE

Class of 1943

The Eighth Grade has just completed a successful year and will be looking forward to their first year of High school next year. This Class of 1943 is the largest eighth grade class in the history of the Junior High School, having a total of 117 students.

Class officers this year were: President, Daryl Papke; Vice President, Bernadine Simons; Secretary, Jack Gates; Treasurer, Roger Tappenden. Student Council members were: Clare Wise, Beverly Morgan and Earl Schultz. Class Advisors: Mr. Dennis, Mrs. Slee and Miss Squires.

Junior High debating under the direction of Erwin Feller provided an interesting highlight for eighth graders. Three promising debaters: Clare Wise, Arthur Lewis and Daryl Papke won the Junior High debating tournament for the Eighth Grade.

The class represented the State of Illinois in the annual Halloween parade last fall and won first place for the best float in the Junior High school.

SEVENTH GRADE

Class of 1944

The Seventh Grade completed their first year in Junior High School with the notion that High School wasn't as bad as they had supposed. The Halloween part was climaxed with all the students marching in the parade and the Seventh grade float representing Minnesota. The gala Christmas party was held in the gym.

Mr. Sibley's visual education was a regular activity, as was the once a week assembly.

The officers for this year were: Duane Papke, President; Joan Hilbert, Vice President; Patsy Kibbe, Secretary and Treasurer. Council members were: Jerry Smith, Polly Walker and Eugene Zinn. Class advisors were: Mr. Grigg, Miss Semmelroth and Miss Steffaniak.

Debate was introduced with Polly Walker, Betty Newberry, Delores Tompkins, Charles Raymond, Wayne Papke, Dorothy Pascoe, Patsy Kibbe, Marjorie Amaden, Patsy Longworth, Dorothy Haskell and Wanda Harvey trying for the team.

Top Row—Green, Wright, Cloyd.
 Second Row—Raymond, Haskell, Tompkins, Dean, Amaden, Walker, Lewis.
 First Row—Daryl Papke, Kibbe, Cutler, Erwin Feller, Gould, Duane Papke.

JUNIOR HIGH SPEECH CLUB

This club was formed only this year but in this short time has shown remarkable progress.

The teams were as follows: 7th grade: Polly Walker, Charles Raymond, Patty Longworth, Dorothy Haskell, Wanda Harvey, Duane Papke, Bill Newberry and Marjorie Amaden; 8th grade: Arthur Lewis, Clare Wise and Daryl Papke. 9th grade: Wayne Green, Elwin Cutler, Margaret Gould, Tom Wright and Howard Cloyd.

The club was organized and coached by Erwin Feller, post graduate and for four years a varsity debater. All credit for its success is due him.

During the debate season the members and their coach met at eight o'clock in the morning.

A rostrum for the club was made by the Manual Training classes.

A tournament was held and was won by the eighth grade team. The ninth grade team was second. These debates were judged by Mr. Weeks, Barbara Watson and Betty Wise.

A declamation contest for seventh and eighth grade students was held at the time of the high school Spring Speech contest.

Next year, the club hopes to secure debates with other Junior High schools or small schools near us. They will be coached at that time by Kathryn Amaden and Mark and John VanAken.

GIRL THURSDAY SNITCHES ON GIRL FRIDAY

FLASH!!

Bannister sliding is the leading sport in Junior High. At least Connie Derhamer gets a whiz-thump thrill out of it.

The Freshmen boys went for close-cropped pates in a big way this year: maybe it keeps the girl friends out of their hair.

Anita Blanchard is our closest rival. Every day during sixth hour she indulges in key-hole peeping. We wonder why it is always the same key hole.

The roller skating fever struck the Junior High violently this spring. Victims broke out in a rash that could be relieved only by a lot of vigorous roller skate rolling in the cool of the evening. Coldwater-ites thought the Martians had finally landed.

Miss Semmelroth hums all the time but Girl Friday couldn't find out what the tune is.

The Freshmen are all excited because next year they get their first chance at living in a locker instead of in a desk and on a hook.

Bright Student: "A pet is something which gets all the blame for everything that gets busted around home."

Angola hasn't anything on us: Granger Cook hails from Scotland.

Martha Treat, Pauline Gilfillan, Marjorie Amaden, Art Mohr and Bob Browne all win themselves a 1939 "Name Mentioned Most in Mirror" medal.

Eugene Pascoe was appointed judge of the new Youth Court for bicycle ordinance violators.

Nicknames found wandering around: Helen Regetz gets called "Tubby." Elwyn Cutler sometimes answers to "Babe," Barbara Allen wonders where "Shrimpy" comes from, Olive Laney and Shirley Zull are "Elmiry McInteeshacanagun" and "Tildy Jane McInteeshacanagun" respectively. Someone pinned "Tiny" onto Carl Stansell, Richard Asbury fumes about "Ash Can," and Loren Newberry is gunning for the guy who thought of "Hooney."

Boys and girls who took part in the checker tournament are still recovering from their exhausting ordeal.

Excuses dug out of the files: One boy was absent because of his head and another blandly admitted, "I just skipped." However, foot or leg injuries were blamed for most of the absences. Knotted shoestrings got blamed for tardiness. Maybe the tardy one never heard of the good old tooth and nail technique.

Janean Hilborn and Edna Lytle are seriously thinking of taking over the cheer leading when they get up there in Senior High. Good luck girls.

Phyllis Dean fears that she can never live down the reputation of her Senior High brothers.

Girl Thursday is beginning to suspect that Girl Friday is beginning to suspect that Girl Thursday is snitching, and that Girl Friday is beginning to conceal news that Girl Thursday would like to lay hands on.

FOOTBALL

The 1938 Coldwater Football season was not a successful one as far as championships and records go. But records do not tell the whole story. They do not show, for instance, that the Cardinal Gridders out-rushed and out-passed every team they played except one, the conference champions, Albion.

Coach "Sunny" Bauer opened the season early in September with about 45 candidates reporting. After three weeks of exercises and scrimmage an inexperienced team started the season on the new Three Rivers field. They were humbled by the mighty Three Rivers Stars, 12-0.

The Cardinals came home from Dowagiac a week later with a 6-0 defeat on their shoulders.

Fast gaining experience the Red and White held the powerful St. Augustine Greenclads to a lone touchdown. But that was enough to administer defeat to the Cardinals.

The conference season opened with a hard, fast game at Marshall. The Redskins hung up a first quarter lead that was almost overcome in the last two minutes when the Cardinals scored one touchdown and were headed for another. The final count of this thrilling game was 20-19.

Then came the game in which the Cardinals were completely crushed. The Albion Wildcats hung up a 27-0 victory on the Cardinal home grounds.

The next two games were the only victories for the season. They defeated the Adrian Maple Leafs on the ancient sleeper and a Mahaffey run.

A week later Mahaffey returned the opening kickoff against Hillsdale for the only score. The rest of the game was dodging water and wading in the mud. It was the seventh straight game under the lights for the Cardinals.

The final game of the season in which the Cardinals out-rushed Sturgis, 256 yards to 177, and completed 19 passes, was won by the Trojans, 7 0. In this game all seniors played their last game for the Cardinals. They are: Greenwich, Balcom, Mahaffey, Newell, Hillborg, Faulkner, Simonds, Vinton, Gates, Bauer and Horning. This left six Juniors: Marion, O'Neil, Petersen, Love, Ferguson and VanAken to make up the nucleus of the 1939 squad.

Harley Greenwich was all conference and was honored on the all-southwestern Michigan team. He also was voted most valuable player of the squad, Newell was voted second and Mahaffey was third. James Love was named all-conference at tackle. Van Aken and Mahaffey were placed on the second all-conference team.

Bob Simonds was elected honorary captain and received a gold medal for participating in four years of varsity football.

The Reserves also had a very unimpressive season. They were defeated by Sturgis 12-0, by Quincy 6-0, and by Battle Creek Central Reserves 18-6. The last game of the season they won, they defeated Sturgis 14-7. This year's reserve squad will make a lot of trouble for those trying for the varsity next year. A few of them are: Gates, Linton, Huegli, Symons, Zull, Harris, Pascoe, Mohrhardt, Leister and Green.

Varsity

Top Row—Mr. Grigg, Mr. Frizzo, Coaches.
Second Row—O'Neil, McCort, Marion, Bauer, D Gates, Linton, Petersen, Steffey.
First Row—H. Gates, Greenwich, Barry, Wingard, VanAken, Mahaffey, Balcom.

BASKETBALL

The 1938-1939 basketball season opened under the watchful eye of our new basketball coach, Mr. Leo Frizzo. Mr. Frizzo is a former Michigan State player and was obtained by the school board as a teacher and coach this year. Coach Bauer was promoted to the job of Athletic Director.

For three weeks the squad was put through drills and exercises, and on the 13th of December met the 1937-1938 class "C" state champions, St. Augustine on their floor and were defeated 17-23.

They were completely humbled at Three Rivers 15-12.

They defeated the Adrian Maple Leafs there in the first conference game 27-20.

In their first home stand they held the Albion Wildcats to a 24-17 victory.

A thriller was lost to the Trojans on the Sturgis floor. With the score tied all the game, a fourth quarter rally won the game for the Trojans 39-34.

The Cardinals edged out the Hillsdale Hornets by a slim 23-21 margin a week later.

The Marshall Redskins invaded the Cardinal lair and won 31-30. It was a real heartbreaker for the Coldwater fans.

Meeting Hillsdale for the second time, the Cardinals polished them with a 36-28 win.

A week later they trounced the Adrian Leafs for the second time, 22-15.

Leading all the second game against Sturgis, the Trojans won only after Barry and Wingard were banned on personals. The score was 27-19.

The Cardinals made up for an earlier loss by defeating the Three Rivers team 40-35.

RESERVES

 First Row—Green, Cook, Wort, Elliget, Kerr, Cox, Edwards.

The St. Augustine Greenclads were defeated by the Red and White in a real thriller 33-31. (St. Augustine won the 1938-1939 Class "A" state championship tournament.)

Marshall defeated the Cardinals 34-27 in a third quarter splurge of points.

The Albion Wildcats defeated the Cardinals for the second time 31-26.

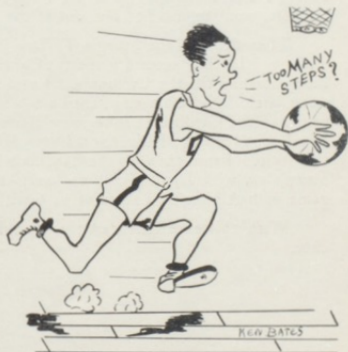

Entering into the District tournaments against Hillsdale, the Cardinals easily won 43-21 to take the cup.

For the third time this year and by the same score twice, the Albion Wildcats defeated the Cardinals. The last time in the Regionals at Albion 31-26.

The game was the last for six seniors: Wingard, Balcom, Greenwich, Bauer, Mahaffey, and H. Gates. Other members of the squad were: Marion, McCort, VanAken, Steffey, O'Neil, all juniors; Barry, Linton and D. Gates sophomores.

Wingard and Greenwich were named to the second all-conference team. Barry and Mahaffey won honorable mention.

The Reserves had a tough season. Some of the outstanding reserves are: Wert, Green, Edwards, Sibley, McKee, Kerr and Cox.

Bottom Row—MacRae, Siler, Mahaffey, Greenwich, Barry, Gates, J. Elliget, Simonds, Balcom, Lynd.

BASEBALL

The Coldwater Cardinal baseball team completed the most successful season since the arrival of the sport in the Twin Valley Conference.

Under the coaching of D. C. Bauer, a squad of Gates, Siler and Mahaffey as outfielders; Linton, MacRae, J. Elliget, Balcom, Cox and Wood as in-fielders; Lynd, Barry, Newell, Horning, and R. Elliget as pitchers; Greenwich, Farwell and Kelly as catchers, won six and tied one out of the first seven games.

They defeated the Sturgis Trojans in the opening game, 7-5, with Lynd doing the hurling. In their second game the Cardinals edged out the Hillsdale Hornets, 6-5, with Barry starting for the Cardinals. Lynd pitched an eleven-inning 4-4 tie with Albion a week later. Newell then pitched a 6-1 victory over the Marshall Redskins. On the next day the Cardinals broke some records: they trounced the cadets from Howe 31-18. MacRae, Horning, Elliget and Lynd did the hurling. Home runs and pitchers seemed the style. From then on the Cardinals found the way tougher going, but again defeated Sturgis 1-0 with Lynd giving up only two hits. The Cardinals then won the return game with Albion by a score of 11-6 with Newell going the entire game as pitcher.

With this excellent start the Red Birds went on to complete their best season to date.

Top Row—R. Kerr, M. VanAken, D. Kerr, Cox, Coach Weeks, J. VanAken, Russell, Powell, Seelye.
Bottom Row—Marothy, Truesdell, Kohl, Kipp, Hurrell, Wright.

TENNIS

Since last year, through graduation, we lost only one letter winner, and also with Mr. Weeks acting as coach, the team this year seemed to have had a good start toward another Twin Valley championship. The Cardinals were Regional champs last year.

With only three letter men, Ted Powell, Warner Marothy and Leonard Russell back this year, many new boys have reported this season.

Nevertheless we should have another championship team, for out of two meets with Sturgis, one with Battle Creek, Hillsdale and Howe, they only lost one of these matches and that by a score of 3-4. They upset Lansing Eastern High School by a score of 5-2.

Therefore we hope to see the tennis team with the 1939 Twin Valley championship by June.

Top Row—Parker, Pascoe, Wilbur, Weage, Smith, Morris, Cutler, Chenoweth, Davis, Coach Green.
Bottom Row—Mahaffey, McCort, VanAken, McMurray, O'Neil, Petersen, Gates, Kipp.

TRACK

The Coldwater Track team again started on another season under the able coaching of Mr. Green.

This year we had seven veterans back from last year, these were: Fritz VanAken, 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash and shot put if necessary; Morris Smith, miler; Ed Petersen; 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash; Barney O'Neil, 100 yard dash, low hurdles and broadjump; Harold Kipp, 440 yard dash; Richard Huegli, 880 yard dash, and Walt McCort, 440 yard dash. Other boys who this year made the team are Howard Chenoweth, miler; Harold Gates, high hurdles, high jump and pole vault; Don Newell, shot put; Jerry Davis, 880 yard dash; Bob Mahaffey, low hurdles and 220 yard dash; and DeForest Cutler, high hurdles and low hurdles.

Although the team has not been very successful as far as scores are concerned, so far they have been highly satisfactory. Opening the season with a meet at Marshall they were nosed out just by the relay. Then again at Howe they failed by four points.

Therefore we expect to see them near the top when the Twin Valley dust clears away. Furthermore, since we will only lose four boys, next year we expect them to be strong contenders for the Twin Valley championship.

Top Row—Nutt, Hooker, W. Green, Smith, Symonds, Coach Green.
Bottom Row—Burns, Brown, Heckman, Boyer, Hurley, Sisseem, Moody.

TUMBLING

The tumbling team under the direction of Mr. Green has just completed its fifth successful year.

Although the only performance this year was that of the circus, which was excellent, they have been highly satisfactory, according to their coach.

Much of the cause of Mr. Green's satisfaction is that the majority of the term have quite some time with us yet. However, as much as we hate to, we must say farewell to some.

Among these are June Sisseem, who has just completed her fourth year of tumbling, and Morris Smith, who has been with the team three years.

However, we still have B. Symonds, W. Nutt, W. Green, O. Boyer, H. Hurley, M. Burns, G. Hooker, T. Moody, B. Heckman, N. Brown, also starting early for next year to replace Morris Smith is E. Pascoe.

We wish to impress upon you that this is entirely voluntary, no awards are given and there is no feeling of competition.

Therefore, until next year when we will enjoy another tumbling team, to this year's wonderful team we say, "Thanks for some fine entertainment."

Bottom Row—McCort, Gates, Faulkner, McMurray, Horning.

GOLF

For the first time in ten years Golf was brought back to Coldwater High School as a major sport. Revival of the sport was largely due to the actions of our athletic director, Mr. Bauer. With Mr. Frizzo chosen as Coach, the season opened with swing.

Shouts of "Replace the turf," and "Fore!" soon filled the air at the Coldwater Country Club, where the many candidates were ambitiously putting and driving to make the squad.

The hikers of the fairways were beaten in a close match with Battle Creek, but by the end of the season their golf was much improved. Those in the Battle Creek match were: Plant, H. Gates, Kerr, Murray, Pfost, Horning, D. Gates and McCort.

Coldwater had more success in their second match with Battle Creek on the home course and continued to play better golf in the state tournaments.

Other members of the team are: Greenwich, Edwards, Faulkner, Hillborg, Mahaffey and McMurray.
