YEARBOOK STAFF

The 1983 Oriole is the result of many people's hard work. Selling ads, scheduling pictures, selling yearbooks, taking pictures, and laying out pages are only part of the work necessary in making a good yearbook. I would like to thank our advisor Mrs. Joanne Finley and the rest of the staff for the fine job that they have done.

We are proud to present to you with the utmost pride the 1983 Oriole. The entire yearbook staff hopes that you will recall many fond memories of the 1982-83 school year.

Karen Hosek, Editor

Working on the 1983 Oriole has been a rewarding experience that I will always cherish. It has been a lot of fun and hard work to put the yearbook together. Many people have worked long and hard on it. At this time I would like to thank Chris Kline and Scott Horn who sold the most ads, also, all the other staff members who sold ads. But most of all I would like to thank Mrs. Joanne Finley who has worked very hard to make the 1983 Oriole a reality.

Karime Corvity, Assistant Editor

Scott Horn and Chris Kline

Melissa Wood, Diane Gilbert, Jenny Shilling, Dena Stempien, Elaina Wood and Chantal Cochrane.

Dawn Hilton, Brent Withington, Rachel McRae and Todd Cochrane

Michelle Miller, Keli Cutler, Darla Sellers, and Stephanie Wymer

YEARBOOK PHOTOGRAPHERS — Terry Stephens, Tim Finley, Advisor Mrs. Joanne Finley, Todd Cochrane, Darla Sellers, Karime Cariuty and Karen Hosek.

We would like to thank Ron Philbrick at the Carousel for all his help and for developing our pictures.

We would also like to thank the Class of '83 for donating a Sigma 80-200mm F3.5-4 Zoom Lens, as their class gift, to the yearbook staff. This gift will be greatly appreciated.

YEARBOOK SALES ASSEMBLY

Members of the yearbook staff had fun during the Yearbook Assembly singing the song they had written especially for the assembly . . .

“Remember when you were in school

Soon those days will be gone
Aren't you glad you bought a yearbook?”

Keli, Stephanie, Scott and Scott sure seem to like that chocolate pie.

Master of Ceremonies at M.S. Assembly — Rachel McRae

Staff sings “Remember all the Homecoming fun — trying to win the pep jug . . .

Homecoming Queen and King — Gail Condra and Mike Hard

. . . building floats and working on skits — painting your names in the parking lot.”

“Come on Frenda, Scott, Scott and Elaina, you can win the pie eating contest.”

"GRADUATION DAY"

Today we'll start a new life
 And we'll say our last good-byes
 To all the friends we've grown to love
 With whom we've laughed and cried

Remembering the fun and laughter,
 The problems and fears,
 And watching all our memories grow
 Throughout our high school years.

The memories of the dances
 And the new friends that we've met,
 Vacations, teachers, talking,
 And exams we'd rather forget.

Yes, high school days are precious but brief,
 Where all your dreams come true;
 It is not the end, but the beginning
 Of a life we'll start anew.

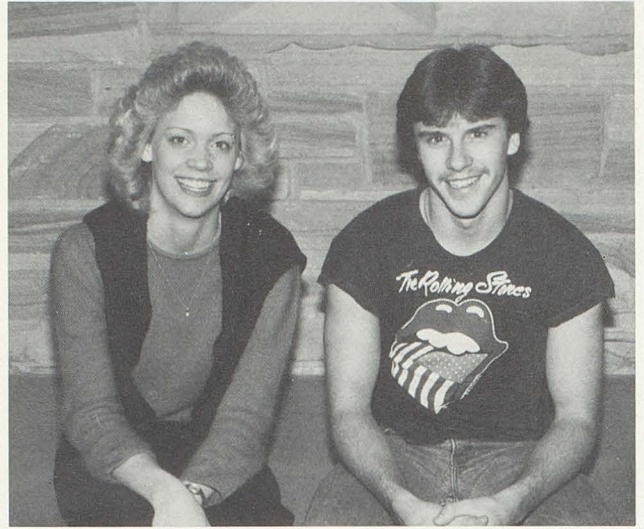

— Lisa Booher

A WIND BETWEEN THE HOUSES

A most unusual play entitled A Wind Between the Houses was this year's QHS dramatic offering, presented by the Quincy Society for the Performing Arts on the evenings of December 4 and 5, 1982. The play, a comedy-drama, starred Kim Hagy as Gracie Martin, a mildly eccentric widow who keeps the ashes of her deceased husband on the mantelpiece. Her insistence on maintaining regular conversations with the remains causes her selfish and conniving daughter Sheila and her nasty and egocentric son John (played by Kris Quimby and Kurt Spalding) to destroy their mother's most prized possession — the urn of ashes — in a most heartless and callous way. The play's unusual course of events and colorful characters provided a most unusual evening of theatre. Maurice Hill's play was directed by Mr. Christopher Walczak and was his twenty-third production at QHS. The performances were highlighted by the talents of Jennifer Dobson, Eric Huttenlocher, Rachel McRae, Paula Falzon, Mike Kanaby, Jodi Paul, and Shawna Walters. Sarah Brickey acted as Mr. Walczak's production assistant, and Brent Parkinson acted as stage manager.

SHARE "BIG 8" CHAMPIONSHIP

The 1982 Orioles coached by Lonney Evon began the season with only three starters returning from last year's "Big 8" Championship team. Through hard work, determination and a solid defense the Orioles continued the winning tradition with a 7-1 Conference Record and a 7-2 Overall Record. Quincy had been picked by critics to be no better than fourth before the season began. Quincy finished the season tied for 1st Place with Athens losing only to Union City in league play. For the second year in a row Quincy kept the "bell" by defeating Reading. The team lost their final contest to Michigan Center in the Cascade Playoffs. Jim Supianoski became the "Big 8" Conference all-time leading ground-gainer with his career high record of 3,059 yards in 520 carries.
