Quincy High School
Quincy, Michigan

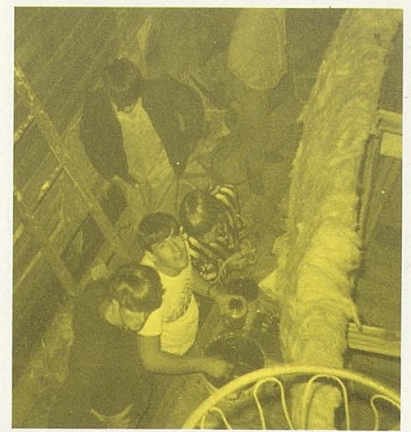

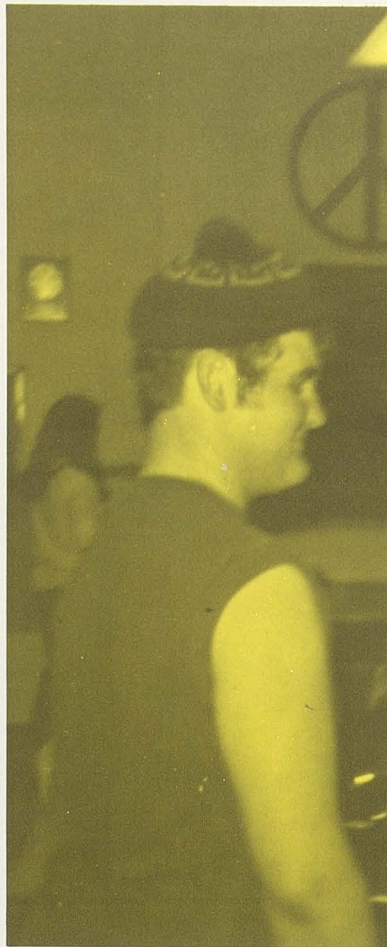

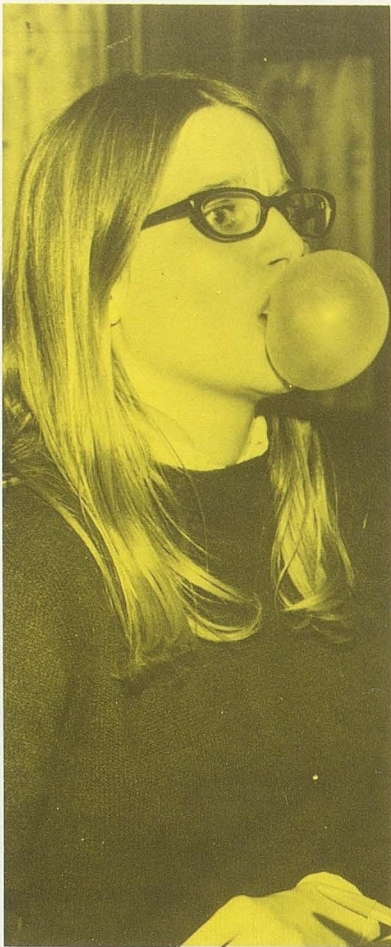

A High School goes through many moods and Quincy is no exception. We have the crying of Queens who have won, yelling of excitement during sports events, the hard work of faculty as well as students to make all activities a success, and the embarrassment that vandals cause. But most of all and what we would like to express in this year's ORIOLE is the comedy and good humor of all at Q. H. S. So welcome to "THE LIGHTER SIDE OF 1972," where double button cuffs and pointed collars, long hair are in, and the age of majority rule is 18 years of age.

A yearbook is a treasure; they are made only once a year, summing up the whole year. There is never another one like it because no two years are the same. I hope everyone can appreciate the hard work and effort it takes a staff to log and present in an enjoyable manner the history of Q. H. S.

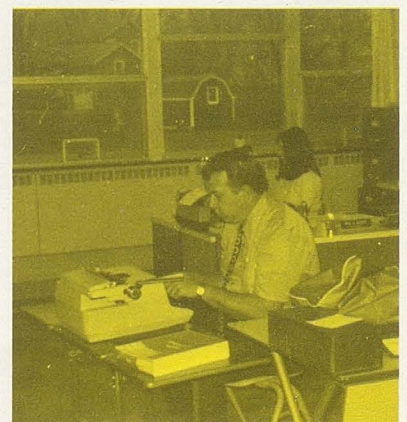

MONDAY-Chicken fried steaks, mashed potatoes, spinach, bread and butter, pudding and milk

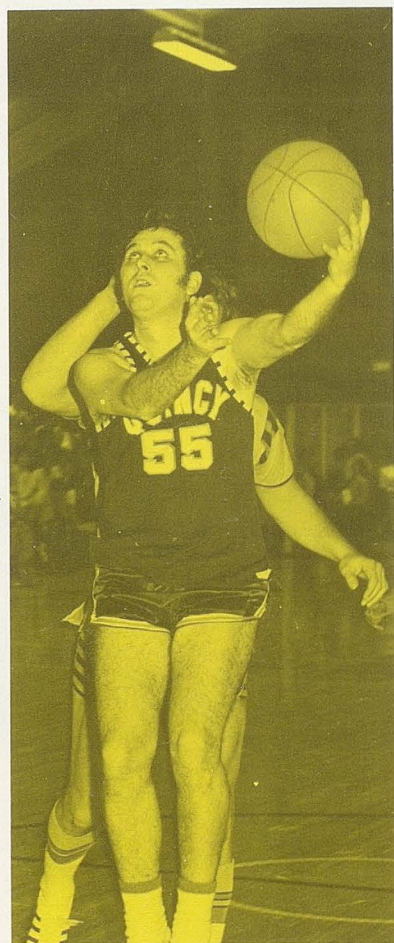

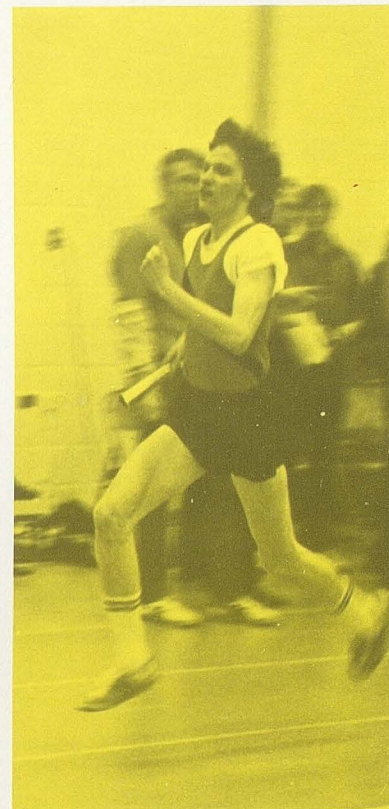

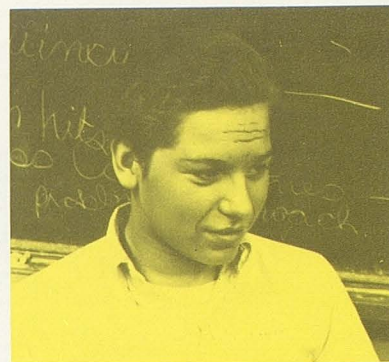

TUESDAY-Tuna fish sandwich, potato chips, peas, pears and milk

WEDNESDAY-Sloppy joes, green beans, peach cobbler and milk

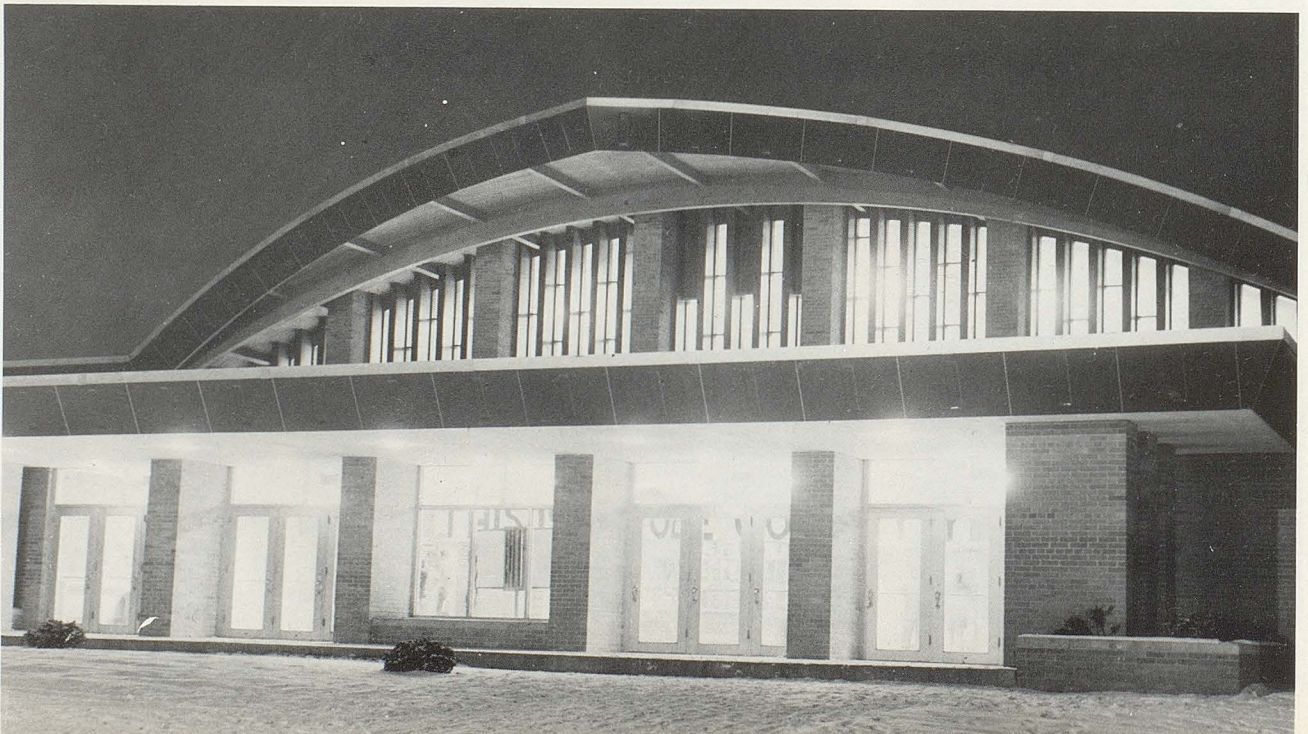

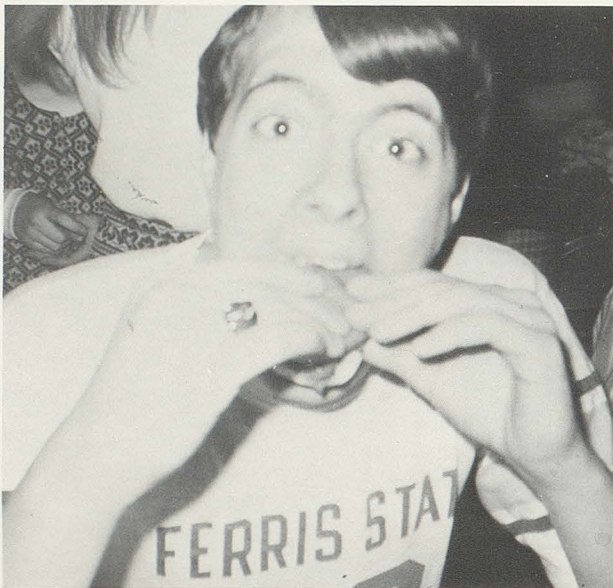

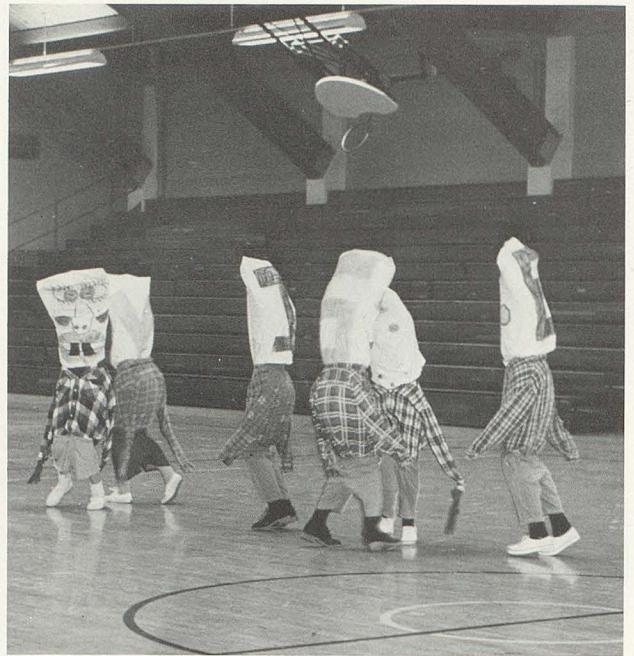

THURSDAY-Fish sticks mashed potatoes, mixed vegetables, jello and milk

FRIDAY...NO SCHOOL

Blue Cheese Cake and the

A BLUE CHEESECAKE ADOLESCENCE

Blue Cheesecake does the job on hemorrhoids.

Can I dig it, once said a weary traveler. Like I'm seeing star studded strawberries coated with molasses shortening.

Can it be we are all in a cosmic mainspring' system.

Or is it all just a bunch of chocolate woodchips.

Strange may be the answer, but let us remember that a one legged Gila monster did not win the Boston Marathon.

So what are we faced with maybe something looney, but what could be more looney than a rawhide hammer.

Bolts, Crumbs, Webs, Feathers, and Hands all shape the mind, but why can't we be educated by a crystal blue leopard. Instead of a xerox tadpole.

But please someone let me see thru ignorance, thru hypocrisy and all evils that destroy minds and form character.

Please just let "the moon come shining thru."

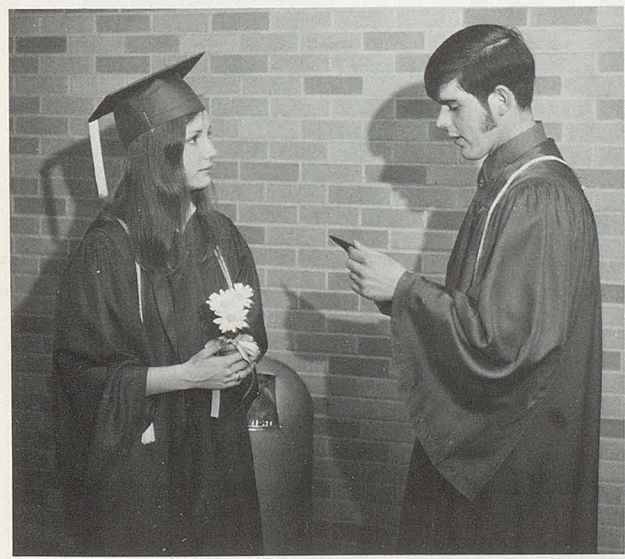

By Dennis Goodwin

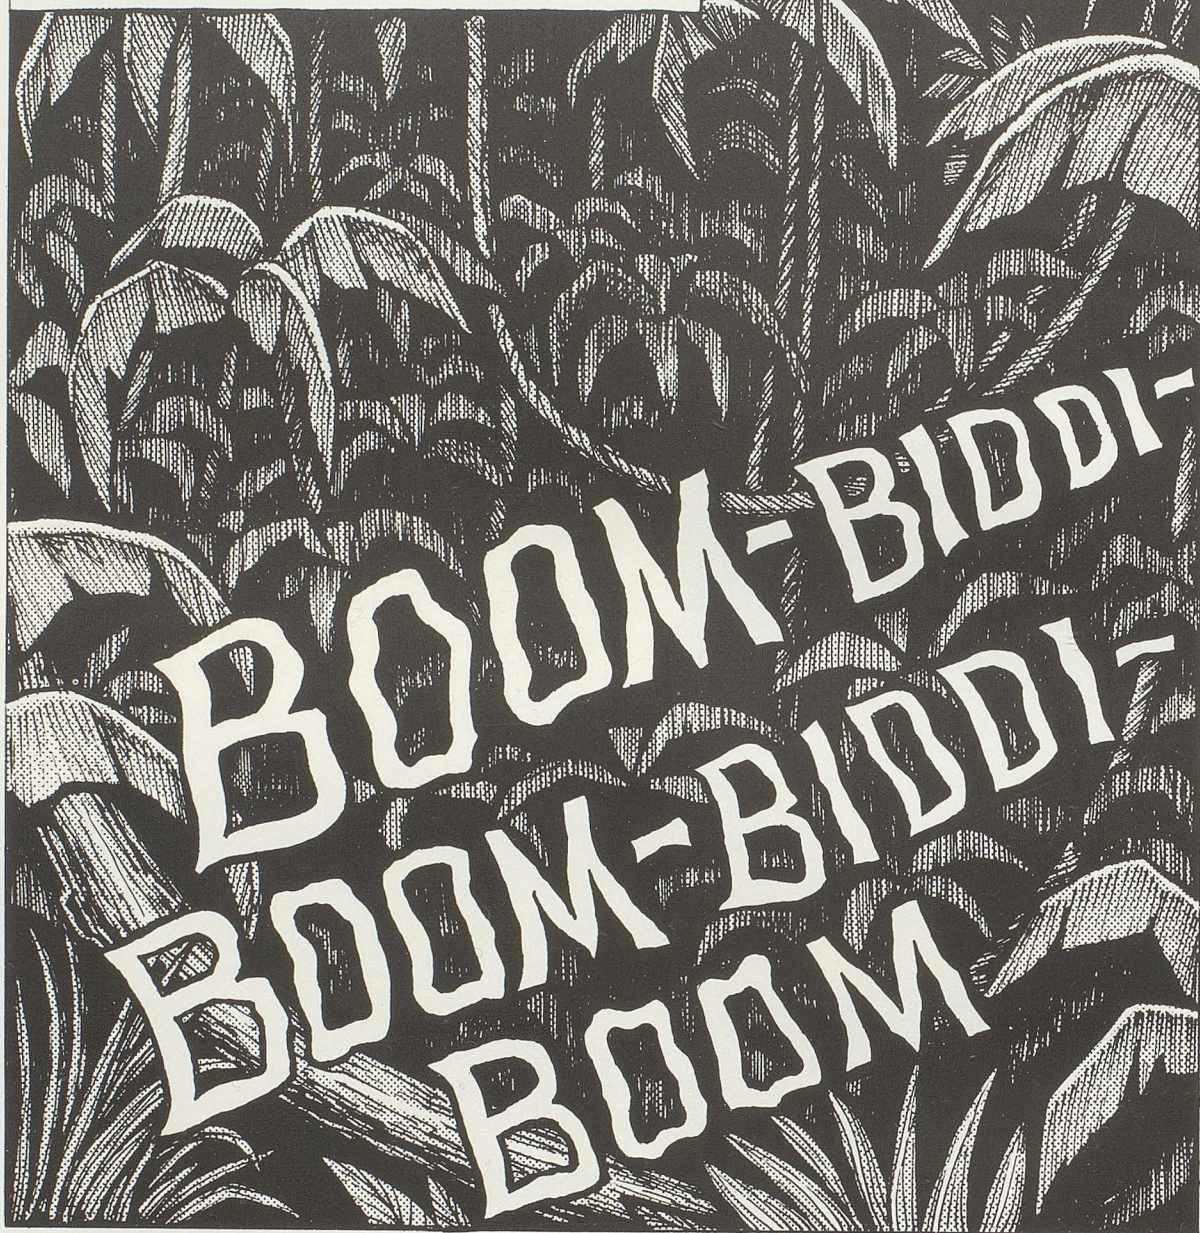

Moon Came Shining Thru

June ninth was the last time the class of seventy-two will ever be all together, physically. But mentally there will always be their memories. The class of seventy-two had many great times, but as they would all agree, there is another side besides the lighter side to life.

Mr. Fischer

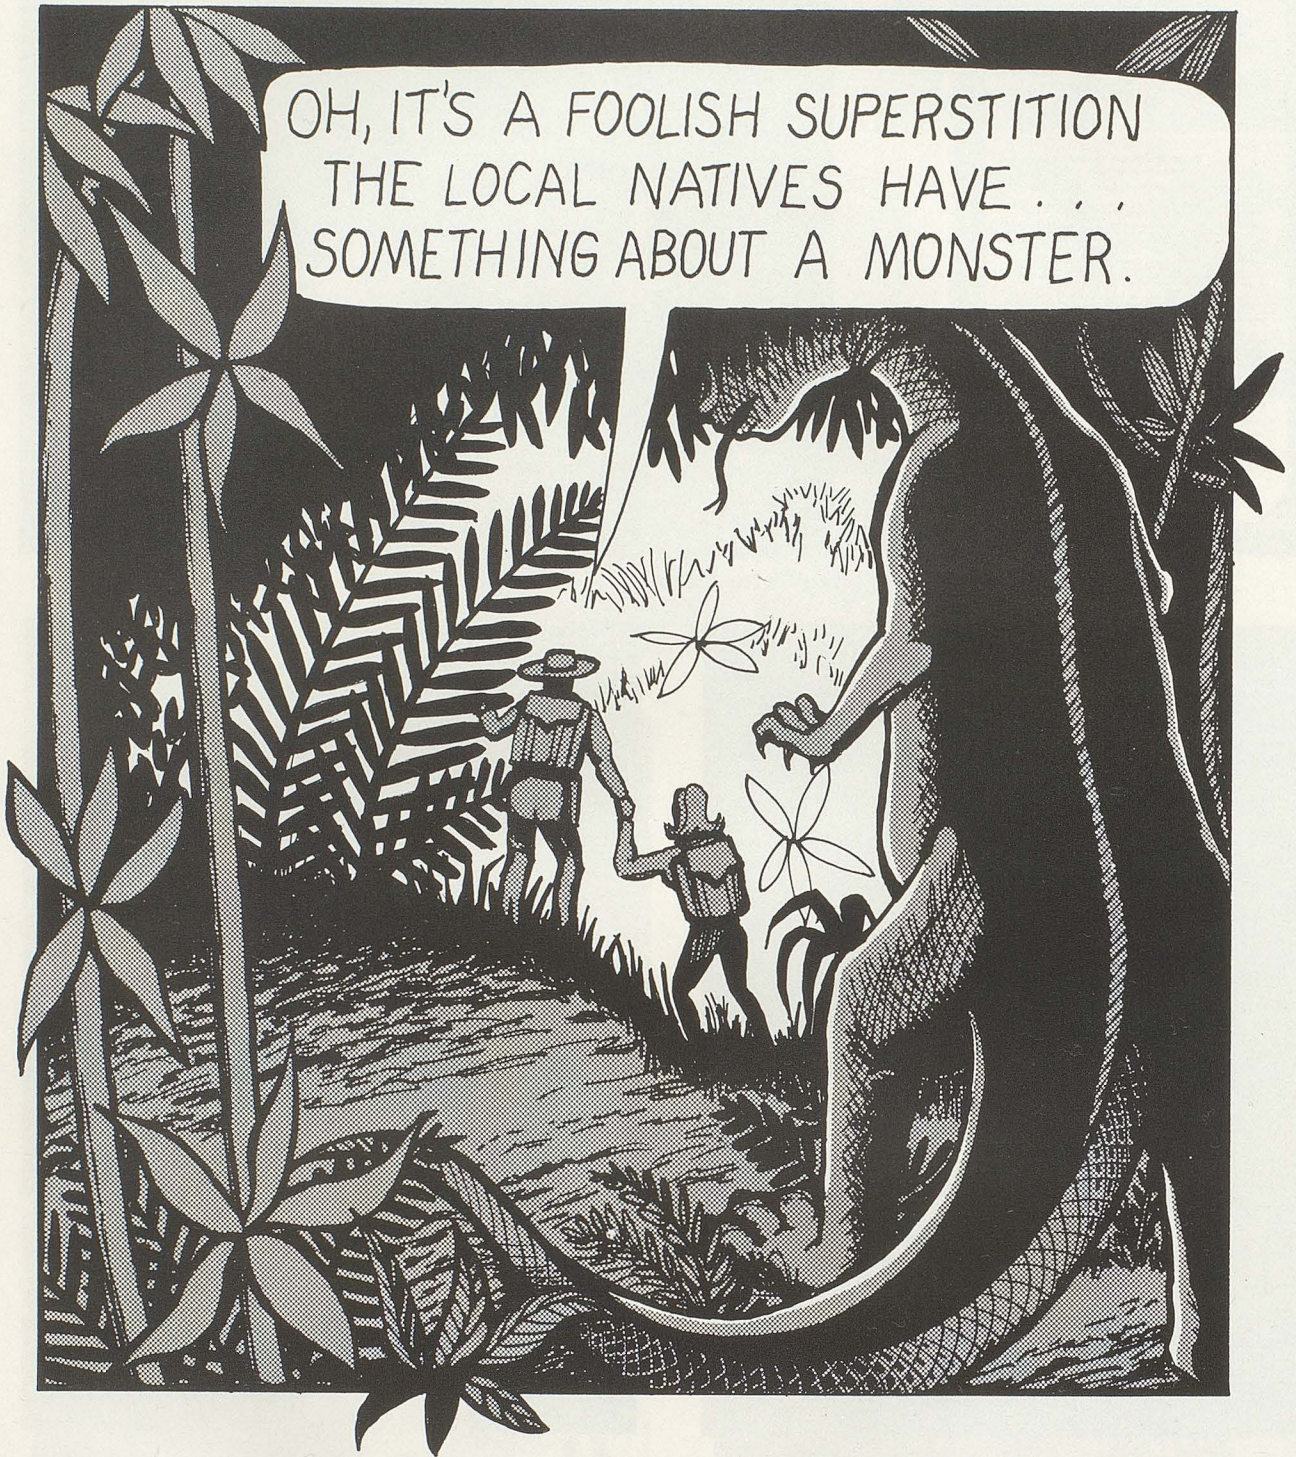

Mr. Fischer receives award in his honor.

Upon his retirement, everyone now realizes that Mr. Fischer is going to be very hard to replace. After 29 years of service he not only received recognition from our community, but from President Nixon, the governor, and many other important State and Federal officials.

The yearbook staff wishes Mr. Fischer a long and happy retirement.

We Did it Again!

The Yearbook Staff nominated for the third consecutive year, a winning girl for the Miss Oriole contest. Debbie Doll was voted Miss Oriole for the 1972 season by the student body for her school spirit and enthusiasm. Debbie is also the third member of the class of '72 to receive the title of Miss Oriole. Dorothy Felts, 1970 Miss Oriole; Sally Fosdick, 1971 Miss Oriole, and now Debbie Doll, 1972 Miss Oriole.

1971 Miss Oriole, Sally Fosdick crowning Debbie Doll as the 1972 Miss Oriole. Happily, Debbie receives her crown.

1972 Miss Oriole

Patriotism

Connie Cox, with tears of joy, became our 1971 Homecoming Queen.

Dave Weber put a lot of effort running with the ball for a score.

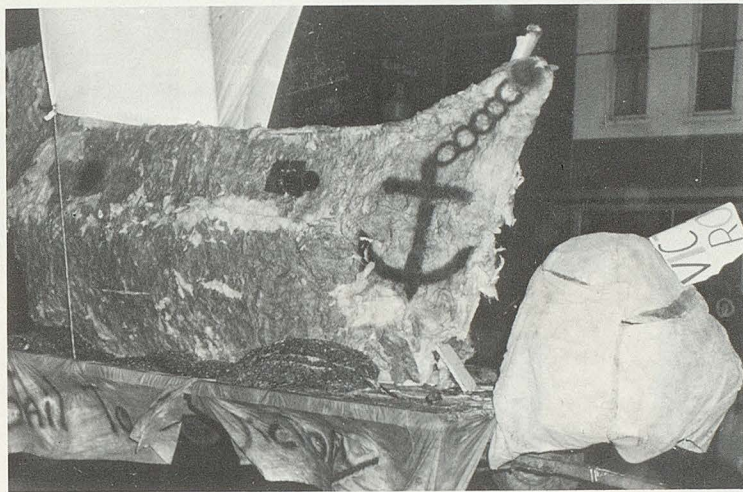

The Juniors and Seniors decided to work together on the Homecoming festivities, instead of going through the cut-throat competition that the classes seem to accomplish every year. This took a lot of courage for these two classes to do. Even though they worked together and put on a very beautiful skit, yell and float, the Juniors and Seniors were disqualified, from all competition. All because they wanted to keep harmony instead of playing the war game.

was the theme chosen for this year's Homecoming Activities. Each of the classes were to put on a skit, cheer, and build a float to fit the theme and promote spirit for the big battle against Bronson. But as tradition has it for Quincy's Homecoming, it rained and we lost to Bronson with a score of 6-14. Not all was lost as it seemed. Our team put up a beautiful battle and the rain didn't seem to dampen the fans' spirit, especially the sophomores for they won the Pep Jug. But the highlight of the evening was when Connie Cox was crowned our 1971 Homecoming Queen!

The Homecoming Dance was the biggest success. The band, Salem Witchcraft, was the best that Quincy students had JIVED to for a long time.

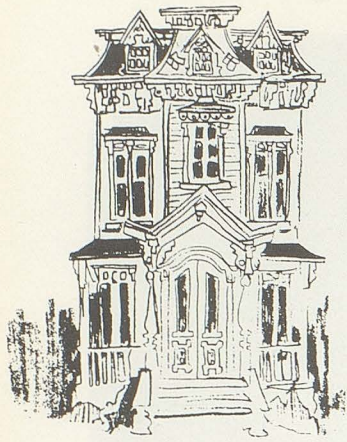

The Homecoming Court consisted of five Senior girls to run for Homecoming Queen chosen by the Senior class. They are (1. to 5.) Bev Gallop, Dort Felts, Queen Connie Cox, Kathe King, and Patti Larsen.

Sophomores received a 1st on their float: Sail to a Victory.

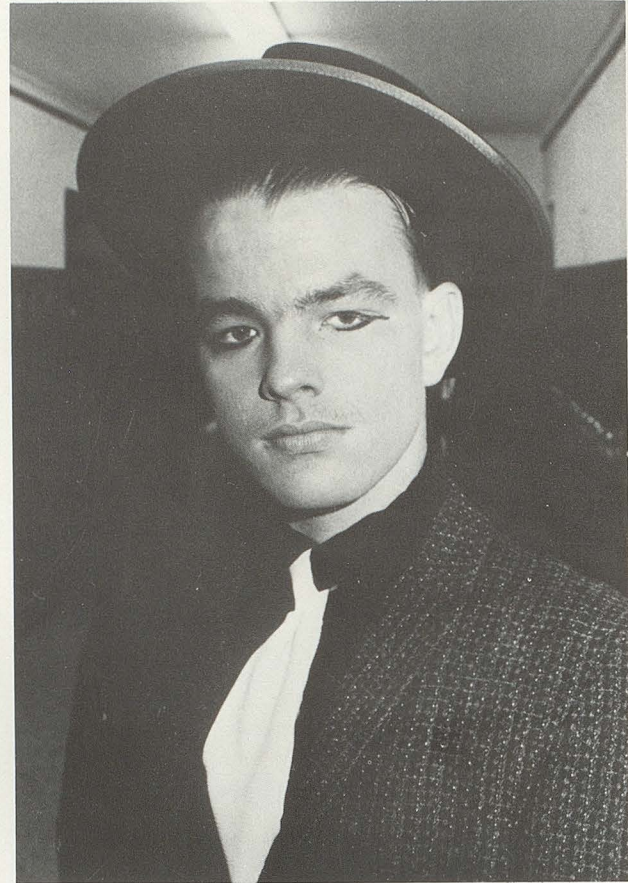

The atmosphere at the Homecoming bonfire was filled with a burning desire to win.

Fred Cortright posed as the storyteller while Shelly Strothers listed to the Juniors' and Seniors' version of the Quincy Orioles' victory over the Bronson Vikings.

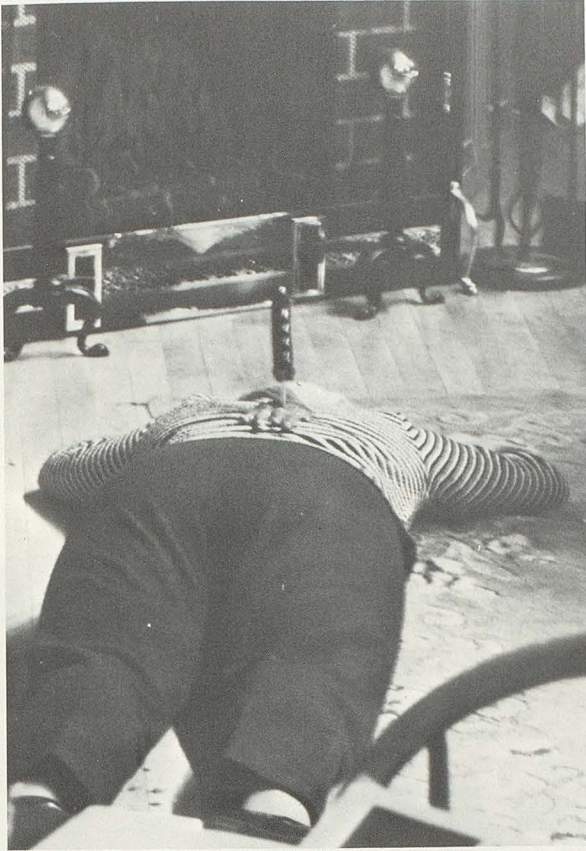

The Quincy High School executes another great play, The Web of Murder by Jonathan Troy, in a double feature production on November 19-20. The acting was quite superb although there was some difficulty with the secret passage entrance and keeping the blood on the victim's back. But the performers took everything in stride, and the play came off well with the approval of everyone concerned.

The Spiral Staircase by F. Andrews Leslie was the first play of the double feature, murder mystery. The time and effort that went into the plays came through in the acting of our stars. But although only the talents of the actors were examined by the audience, the people behind the scenes must not be forgotten for their talents and fine work, such as: make up, props, stage hands, sound effects, lighting, the set, etc.

Happiness
Is Tip-Up
Time

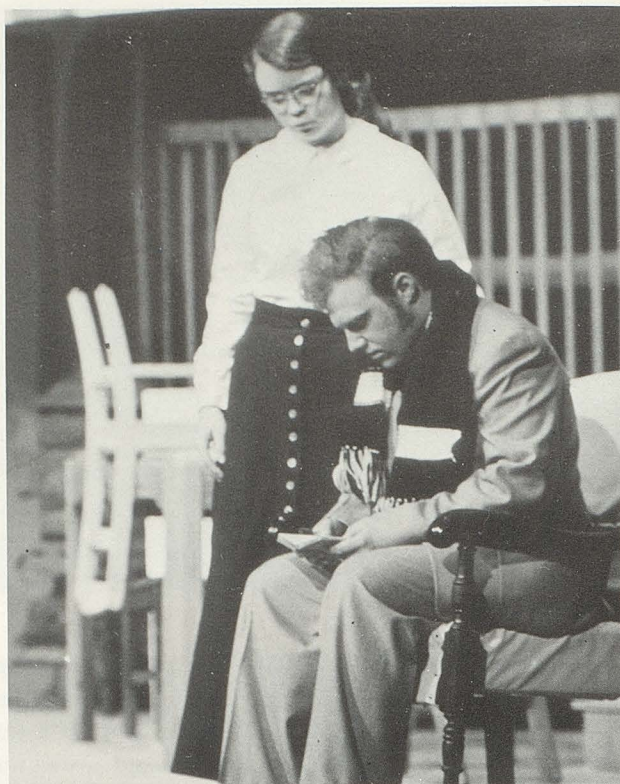

The 1971-72 Tip-Up program consisted of the usual parade, pageant, dance, and the carnival on the ice. This year's queen was Teresa Brewer; her first runner up was Judy Honyoust, while her second runner up was Kathy From. The program was filled with fine fill-ins, for instance the "Charlie Browners" and the Tri-State Misses. The next weekend were the festivities on the lake and the annual dance. The dance was led by Salmagindi. There was fun on the lake with games, fishing, eating, and just playing around.

Club

The seventh and eighth grade spirit was displayed in a new way this year. The classes formed two pep clubs. The 75 girls advised by Mrs. Budd and Miss Ferrell made up many committees. The committees were (1) to lead the crowd with a cheer, (2) to make posters, (3) to work in concessions, or (4) to work on the programs. The pep clubs were a complete success; fun was shared by all!

Teamwork Is the Magic Word

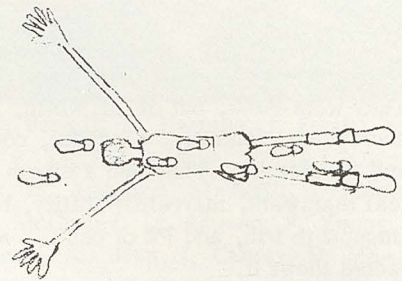

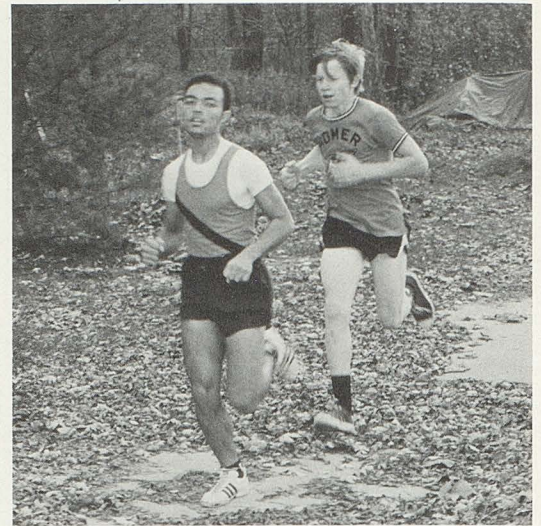

Our reserve football team could do no wrong. They were great, out of this world, fabulous, courageous, fantastic, beautiful, conquering, and undefeated. They had a superb attitude, real teamwork, marvelous ability, terrific willingness to win, and lot of pep ... and their record shows it.

1971 Brings a New Beginning . . . Cross Country

B. ROW: T. Kurtz, D. Cortright, S. Worth, Mr. Eich. F.
ROW: M. Pierson, R. King, R. Benvegna, J. De Line.

This year was the first year for cross country at Quincy High School. The team lost all of their meets although many of them were close. Lack of experience was their worst enemy. There were bright spots; for example, Steve Worth set a respectable 13:37 for the two and one-half mile course at Quincy Golf Course. Steve's record was almost a minute faster than the record set by Bronson earlier in the season. The team plans to be tough next year - many of them will have experience.

ORGANIZATIONS

Summer of '72

Advisor: Robert Eich

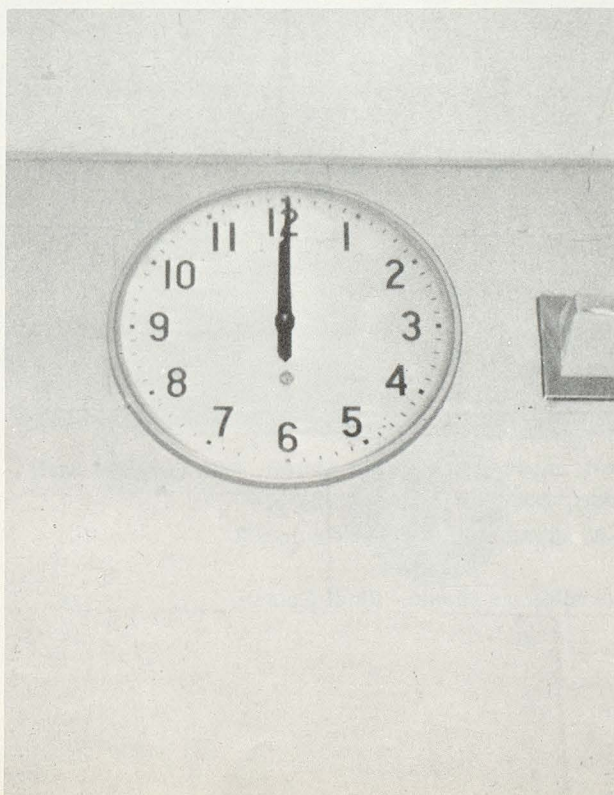

At the beginning of the year when the first yearbook meeting was held there was a count of 32 members. The count dwindled down to 6 people through the school year and a staff of 8 in the summer.

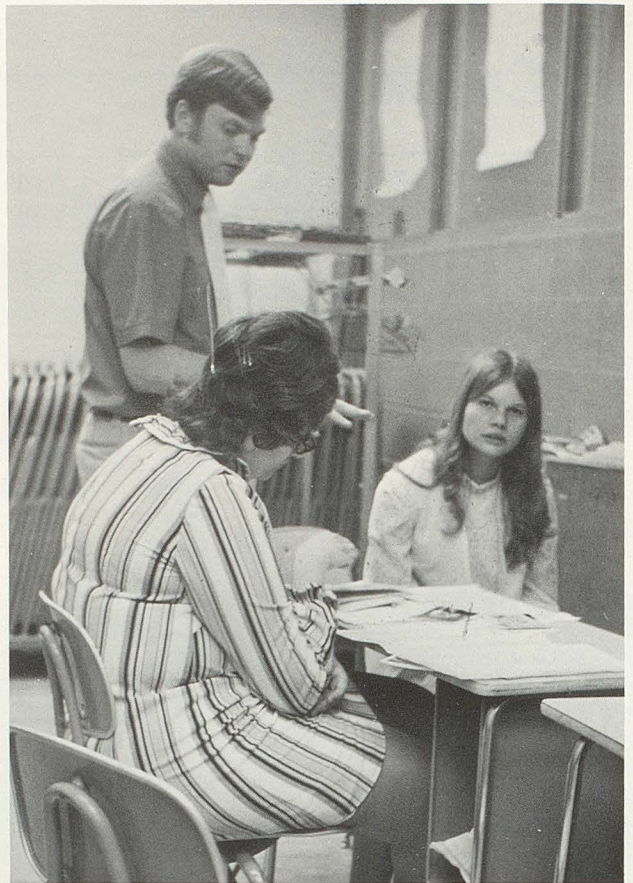

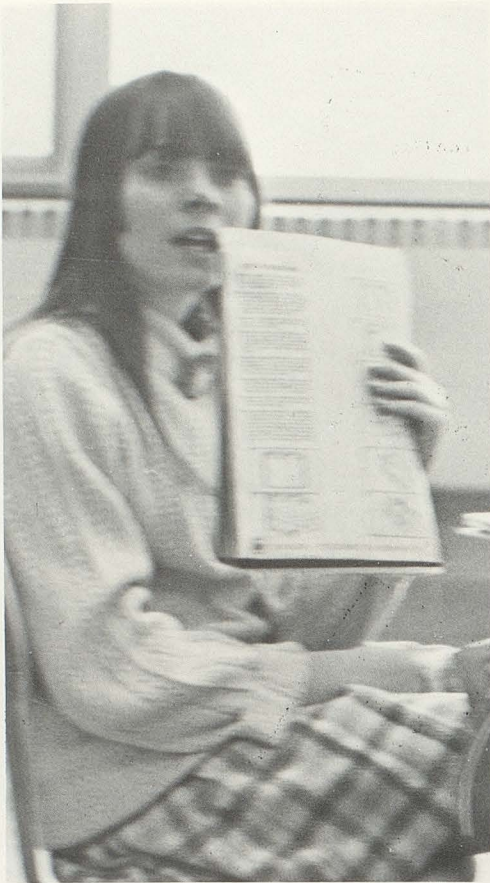

Students realized that to make a yearbook required much time, dedication, and the taking of pressure thus many conflicts were involved. None-the-less this is what resulted in mostly one month.

In June the staff of 8 completed 109 pages portraying the Lighter Side of 1972, and in my opinion one of the better if not the best, annual in Q. H. S.

Q.S.P.A.

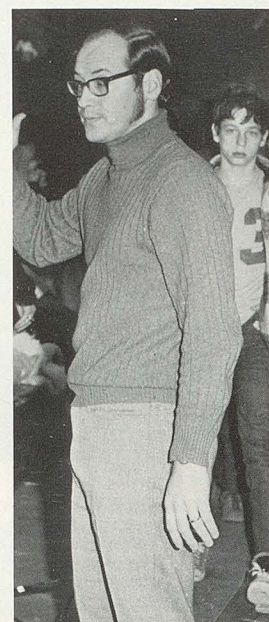

Band 1971-72

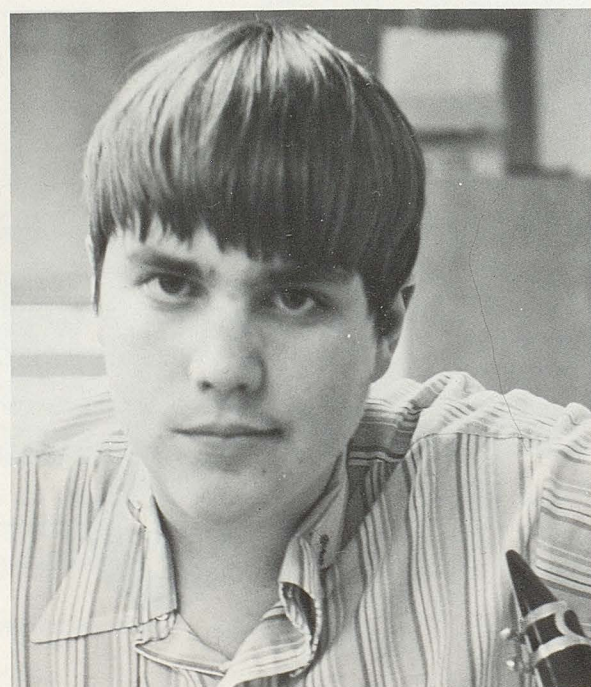

To summarize this year's fantastic band is a difficult task. They were anything but fantastic. Mr. Sherman's number one band marched onto the Coldwater High football field with another jazzy (?) dance step, typical of the Sherman era. The rain fell and so did the ratings, as the band received a two. It was then time to sit down and get ready for another contest, for concert. The band obtained a number two last year and meant to get a strong first this year and received a three. Better luck next year.

Middle School Band

Two years ago Mr. Sherman had a plan. He felt if he had a band of only freshmen and eighth graders it would result in a better senior band and a better junior band, now called the concert band. In the school year of 1971-1972 he tried it, and for a better junior band it was successful. With this select group another band had to be formed for the seventh graders, the Middle School Band.
