Cards Have Good Season — Defeat Sturgis

Coach Al Schorfhaar's fighting Cards ended the 1971 season with a 3-3 conference mark and 3rd place finish. Dan Lyons was the only Redbird to make All-Conference, and Honorable Mention went to Paul Tower, Terry Engle, Kevin Cox, and Kent Fasick, who was the team's most valuable player. The Cards have 10 starters back and are really hoping for a conference crown next year with the good JV team coming up.

Lady Redbirds a First at CHS

Coldwater High School is slowly getting underway with a competitive sports program for women. This year's contribution to the cause was the formation of the Girl's Intraschool Basketball team. The team played three other schools plus two scrimmage games. Their win-loss record was 6-4. The season ended with a contest between the team and the women faculty. The game was primarily to make money for the Girl's Athletic fund but also proved to be a very entertaining event.

The Albion-Coldwater Exchange. The days when tension and mixed emotions filled the hearts of many students here at CHS. For two days, forty-eight students from CHS went to Albion, and fifty-eight students from AHS came to Coldwater. We learned about their ideas and their school, and they in turn, learned ours.

Blacks and whites met, and some grew to be friends, in those few days they shared together, and it proved to be a good experience for both. For many students here, it was an experience they might never forget, being the first time they had encountered anyone outside of their own race.

This is the second year for Albion and Coldwater to exchange some of their students, and we hope to continue doing this for some time. It was wonderful to hear the students say "We hated to see them go home."

DON'T THEY

Although this wasn't the best year for CHS, it also wasn't the worst. Changes have been made this year, through the help of the Commission, which have made this school a progressive one. The '72 Cardinal took an awful lot of work, and now it is finally complete; but so as not to incriminate anyone, Mr. Keelar's book shall be delivered to him in a brown, paper bag.

There are many people the Cardinal Staff need to thank, such as Chris Endicott and Debbie Tanner for helping with the class section, and for a few layouts; Tim Lenz and Craig Davidson for student photography and picture development; Andy Kelly, Bill Morehouse, Randy Rosetter and Jim Paull for selling some ads; Jim Reynolds and Jeff Tartaglia for doing some nice layouts; the coaches, for being so helpful with the scoreboards and team identifications; and to the teachers who let Jeff and I out of some of our classes to work on this damn thing; to Modern Yearbook Publishing Company for publishing it, and to the students who supported us by buying it.

A very special thanks to Russ Whitehead, our yearbook representative, who helped us with so many editorial decisions, and who was patient with us when we didn't make our deadlines. Another special thanks to our professional photographer, R. S. Satula, who made the photography look extra good in the book. However, it was Barb Kuntz who gave us some morale to keep on going, and without her, the '72 Cardinal wouldn't be here today.

Sincerely,

Jeff & Diana

It was not a perfect year

But can perfection be defined?
