This year, the Centennial Charger is dedicated to Mary Hobday. Mrs. Hobday was the secretary at the high school since 1962. She will be missed by students, administration, teachers and alumni alike. Although she was in the main a disciplinarian, she ran the school with love and generated it throughout. She will be remembered by all for years to come.

To think of one hundred graduating classes — over one hundred years of young people progressing through and out of this school system — instills some idea of the breadth and depth of the continuity of community influence on the students and graduates of today's classes. One hundred groups of youth have laid the foundations and planned for today's traditions. They glory in our conquests and growth. They agonize in our temerity and periods of stagnation or decline.

Through us they live on.

They are a part of us and our todays; and we, in turn, are a part of them and their yesterdays because, we are all Union City High School.

The theme of "Chargin' on to Another 100 Years" won the Seniors top honors in this year's float competition. The Freshmen's float came in second with "U.C. Past, Present and Steps to the Future." The third-place Junior float, depicting an atomic-bomb cloud, aptly predicted "Chargers Bomb Spartans;" while the Sophomore's fourth-place float encouraged the team to "Bomb the Spartans at Midway."

Hang on, Woody!

The new Charger Quarterback?

Homecoming '80

In the '80 season's winning tradition, the Chargers blasted the Springport Spartans off the Homecoming field with an unparalleled score of 33-0. Thanks to the continued support of U.C. fans (above)!

Union City High School had an excellent season this year, but finished second in the Big 8 Conference with a 10-4 record, league-wise, and 16-6 overall. Ten players will return next year, and it could be the year for the Championship. The three seniors that graduated are of excellent quality as devoted athletes. They are to be commended because there are few of them left. Congratulations to Joey Hawkins, Marty O'Keefe, and Ron Ratliff.

Prom Night

The Junior class feted the Seniors with a dinner-dance affair at the Coldwater Country Club for this year's prom. After the buffet dinner, the classmates and their guests danced to the music of the Rawson Road Band. Many couples took in the late night skate at the Skate Ranch. Most everyone gathered at the Coldwater Recreation Lanes for bowling at midnight. Around 3 a.m. the remaining night owls roosted at the Big Boy for breakfast before heading home.

No Lack of Talent Here

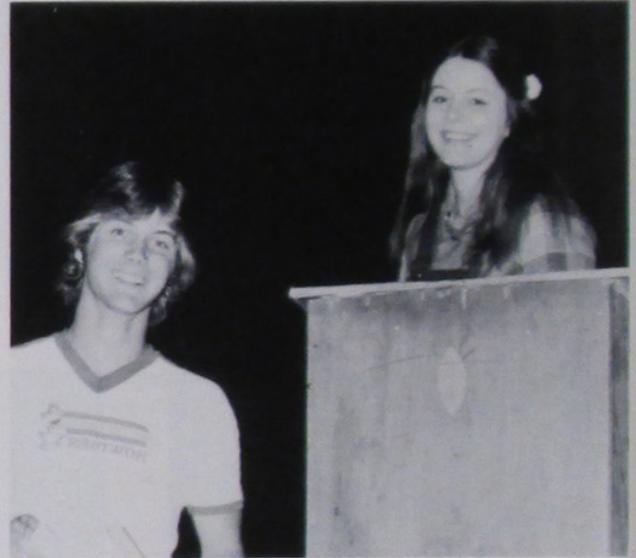

This year's Talent Show was loaded with fun and laughs. Students entertained the community with choreography, singing, and comical skits. Introducing the acts with humorous commentary were seniors Marty Heator and Sheila Mitchell. As in previous years, the most popular act was the Senior Guys' Chorus Line.

Awards Day

On June 2, 1980, the annual Awards Day assembly was held. Nine teachers presented awards in their areas: Mrs. McGlashen, choir and accompanist; Mr. Clayton, band; Mr. Rhinwhart, industrial arts; Ms. Dolson, drafting; Mrs. Wasnich, business and typing; Mrs. Sisco, yearbook editor; Mr. Tundevolde, mathematics; Miss Leonard, art; and Mr. Mathis, history, human behavior, government, and social problems. Mr. Amyx presented scholarships and special awards to honor students and participants in the CISD Special Project and 1980 Quiz Bowl. Honored as 1980 Honor Students were Chris Cole, Robin Craydon, Ron Fox, Tammy Hanson, Joey Hawkins, Luann Herman, Carol Johnson, Chris Katz, Bill Morton, Gordon Stone, Dennis Strong, and Tracey Whitcomb. Union City participants in the '80 Quiz Bowl were: seniors Ron Fox, Joey Hawkins, Marty Heator, Chris Katz; Juniors Tony Densmore, Mark Follis, Lyn Heise; and sophomores Scott Hamp, Roger Johnson, Sam Myers, Kristy Smith.

Class Day

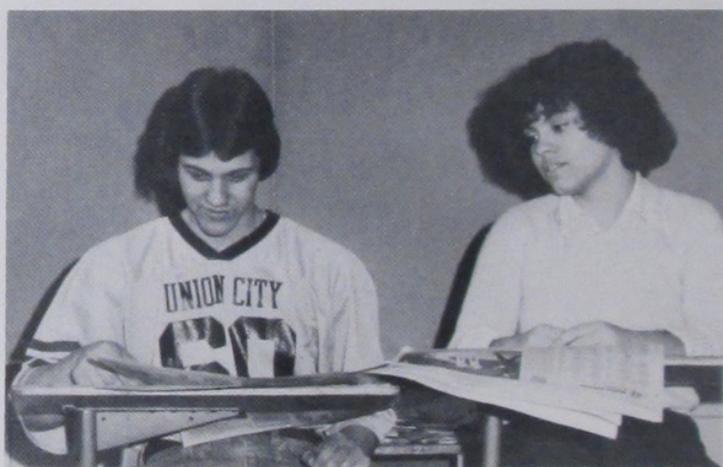

"Class Day" is the seniors' big chance to show everyone how much — or, in some cases, how little — "class" they all have. At assembly, senior "wills," giftatories, and "ten years later" predictions are read by various members of the senior class, along with the results of the "mock elections."

Walking the Aisle on That "Sentimental Journey"

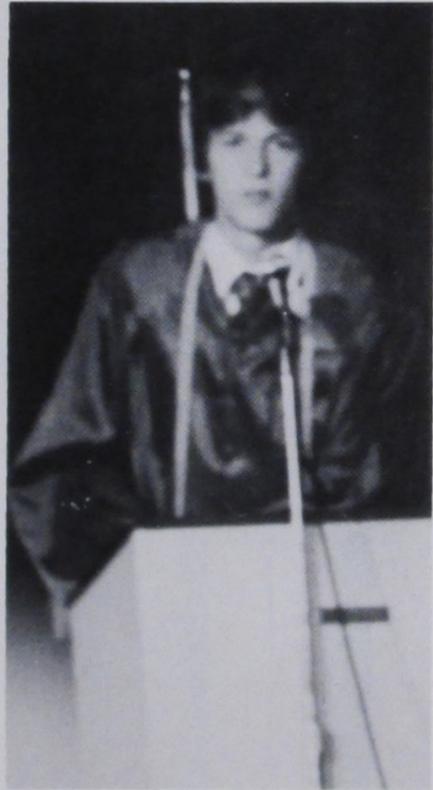

For many Seniors this occasion will be their last visit with each other. Many will never see their friends again . . . this is walking that "Sentimental Journey". They've come this far together and now it's time to say good-bye and move out into the world their own separate ways. Each will have his own plan for the future. For all, this will be the last time the entire class will be together, sharing in this special moment, remembering the past, enjoying the present, and anticipating the future. This is the Senior class of 1980.

Choir Says It With Music

After an absence of five years, U.C.H.S. again has a choir. Under the direction of Mrs. Patti McGlashen (below), the group practices very hard and dedicates many hours in preparation for their many performances. The invaluable accompanist for the choir is Kristy Smith, above far right. Solo parts were performed by Marti Palmatier (far right), Julie Goodrich (right), and Karen Hagelshaw. During the 1979-80 school year, the choir has performed in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, with the Senior and Cadet Bands; at the Union City and Sherwood Elementaries, with the Middle School Choir; at the National Honor Society inductions; at the Union City Rotary Club; at the 1980 Baccalaureate services; and at the annual awards ceremony — as their final exam.

This Is Union City Show Biz

Each year drama classes, under the direction of Mrs. Patti McGlashen, perform in various ways at Christmas. This year's classes displayed their talents to the students at Sherwood and Union City elementary schools, and also at Union City Middle School.

Among other events was the activity you see here. This is Mayor's Day at the High School, and these drama students had the privilege of showing the mayors what they could do.

This is what each drama student looks forward to doing, because this is our "Broadway"; this is "Union City Show Biz"

Co-op/Work Experience

This year's co-op and work experience students included Amy Aldrich, Lori Bahlman, Pam Baker, Debbie Baldwin, Barrie Block, Robert Booth, Damita Combs, Richele Crane, Robin Craydon, Kathy Echerle, Denise Gentry, Lyle Hand, Ray Heath, Don Lash, Brenda Lee, Chuck Meffard, Troy Ogden, Debbie Penrod, Duane Risner, Don Rodgers, Laurie Sayler, Lori Scott, Theresa Stone, Todd Thomet, and Karen Weirich. Pictured above are morning co-op students, Marty O'Keefe, John Shaffer, Don Wickwire, Dave Dormer, Tom Clark, Todd Cole, Dean Dolbee, Debbie Siler, Todd Rathburn, John Carey, Mary Doolittle, Louann Herman, and Kari Miller. The memories of this year will remain with all of us, but for those few privileged to work with Mrs. Evert during her last year at U.C.H.S., it will be unforgettable. Her warmth and caring combined with her insurmountable knowledge made being a library aide a truly enriching experience.

Office Aides Perform Many Tasks Throughout the Day

Among the many jobs performed by the office aides are checking the attendance list in the office, collecting absence slips from teachers, handing out the announcements to teachers, and just "plain, old-fashioned errand-running." The loss of Mrs. Hobday early in 1980 was felt even harder by these students who had worked with her on a daily basis.

Bible Club: A Successful Beginning

This first year was a successful one for the Bible Club. Not only did the attendance increase as the year progressed, but so did interest. They had numerous teachers, as well as Christian friends and church leaders, share their testimonies. This activity proved enjoyable and exciting as each member grew spiritually and had opportunities to share their testimonies too. The Bible Club officers were:

President — Lisa Hawkins
Vice-President — Diana Funk
Secretary — Becky Hawkins
Treasurer — Beth Stewart
Mr. Dave Mathis was the advisor.

The 1980 staff was very small and beset by many problems causing this year's edition to be late. But due to dedication and hard work, the quality hoped for was attained and the Centennial Edition is one everyone involved with can be proud of.

National Honor Society

"Membership in the National Honor Society is both an honor and a responsibility. Students elected to membership are expected to demonstrate the qualities of scholarship, service, leadership, and character." National Honor Society Handbook.

Juniors and seniors are eligible for membership in the NHS, by meeting certain criteria in scholarship, service, leadership and character. To meet the scholarship requirement, a "B" average is necessary. After meeting this requirement, prospective members are screened on the basis of the other three criteria by a committee of teachers and the principal. All four criteria are of equal importance.

Induction ceremonies differ between chapters. At UCHS the inductee's parents are notified, and the inductee is surprised at a ceremony during school hours, in the afternoon. The entire student body gathers in the auditorium, with the faculty and parents of inductees.

The 1980 assembly was welcomed by the NHS president, Marty Heator. Then the invocation was given by NHS member Joey Hawkins, and the National Anthem was sung by Mrs. McGlashen, choir director, and Marti Palmatier, choir member.

Principal Miller then explained the election procedures, and the candlelight ceremony began. Robin Craydon read the introduction and lit the candle representing the eternal light of knowledge. Ron Fox spoke in character, Dennis Strong on scholarship, Pam Baker on leadership, and Christina Cole on service.

Then the tapping ceremony ensued with President Heator reading the individual's qualifications, leaving their identity until last. The active members, meanwhile, were in the audience, and at the name of the inductee they placed the braided torch around the neck of the surprised student and led them to the stage. There, happy parents waited to pin the NHS pin on their child. The new members then signed the enrollment book under the guidance of current member Carol Johnson.

This year at the completion of the tapping ceremony, the new UCHS choir, led by Patti McGlashen, sang "What Will The World Be Like Tomorrow?"

The new members of the NHS then pledged their loyalty to the Society and its constitution, led by Chris Katz. Bill Morton gave the closing benediction, and President Heator dismissed the assembly. The parents and new members then attended the traditional reception, where the new members were served by the old members.
