1965 VIKING

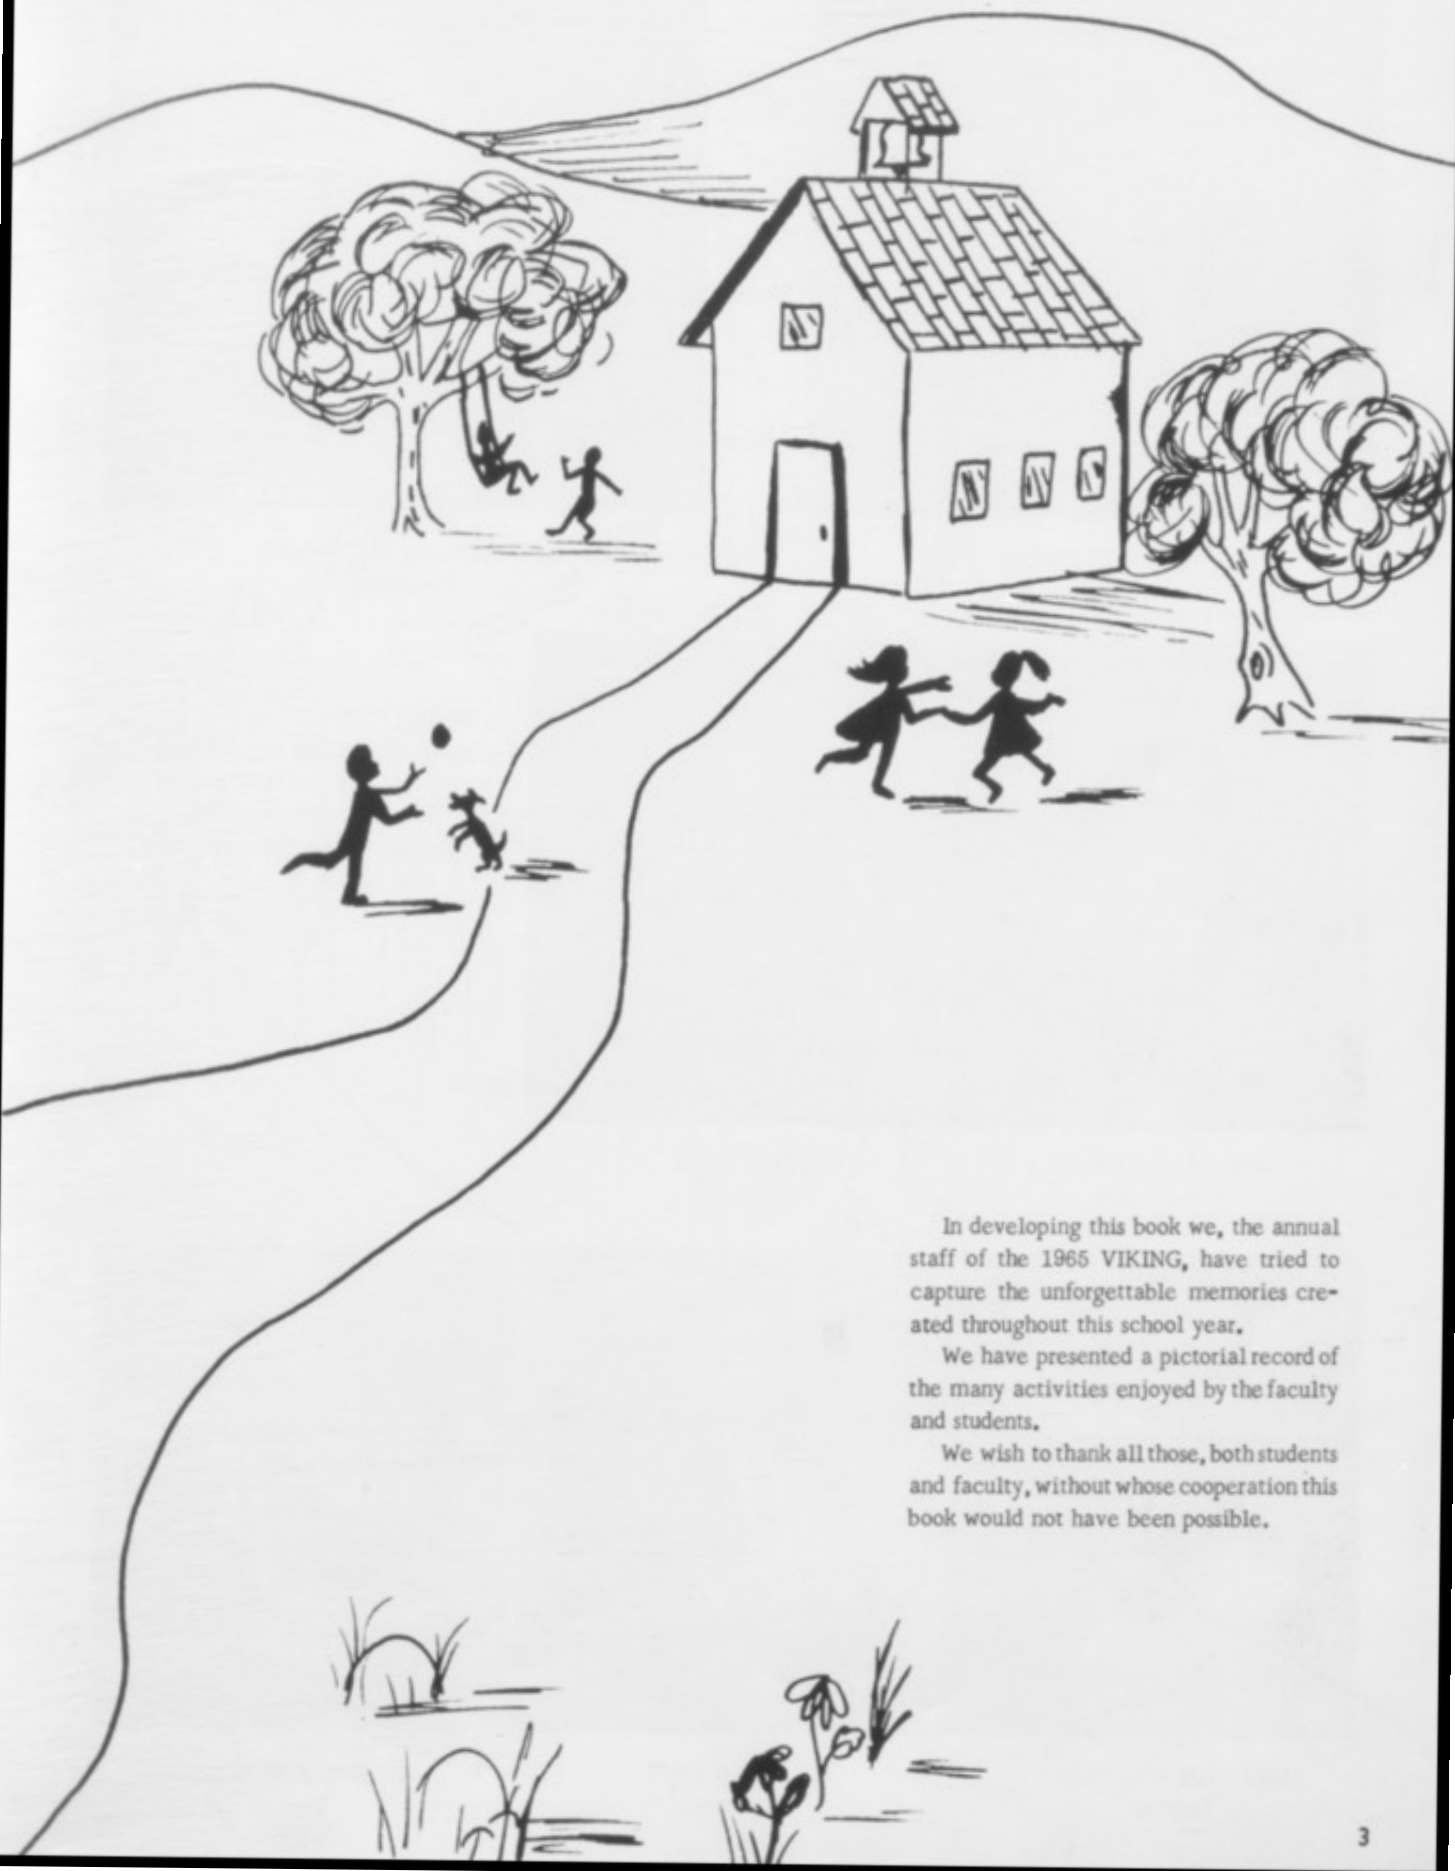

Bronson High School

Bronson, Michigan

Volume 35

In developing this book we, the annual staff of the 1965 VIKING, have tried to capture the unforgettable memories created throughout this school year.

We have presented a pictorial record of the many activities enjoyed by the faculty and students.

We wish to thank all those, both students and faculty, without whose cooperation this book would not have been possible.

Board Makes Improvements

MR. ROY BLOOM
President

MR. HOWARD McDONALD
Treasurer

MR. LAMAR MODERT
Secretary

MR. SCOTT CARY
Trustee

This year the big achievement of our active school board was the boosting along of the plans for the new school.

MR. PAUL WILLISON

Pass With Care

Never a Dull Moment

LEFT: Mr. Heisler carefully studies the blueprints of the new school. The new school is such a big project that it requires a lot of time, patience, and careful planning.

RIGHT: Mr. Heisler seems quite pleased with the progress in the construction of the new school.

Hub of B.H.S.

Mr. French, principal, makes a routine phone call pertaining to the activities of the school.

Mr. French and Mr. Brusak managed to keep our school running smoothly and efficiently all year long. They did everything from guiding students to trying to solve discipline problems.

Mr. French hurries to find another day of hectic and confusing problems.

Mr. Brusak, assistant principal, pauses to discuss a current administrative problem.

Efficiency Counts!!

Mrs. Smith gives instruction to first semester office girls: Dollene Hyska, Jill Gillette, Shirley Myers, Linda Czajkowski, Marilyn Meyer, Mary Anderson, and Sharon Rosenberry.

Mrs. Smith, secretary of the principal's office, was aided by junior and senior girls who helped her with the lighter tasks. The girls prepared bulletins, answered telephone calls, and typed stencils for the busy teachers.

Second semester office girls Shirley Ludwick, Marylyn Burnside, Beverly Wielgos, Mary Emerson, Karen Ballard, Darlene DeMeritt, Sharon Renger, and seated, Peggy Baker.

MRS. DONNA BRUSAK
B.S., W.M.U.
Typing

Mrs. Brusak seems quite pleased; evidently the class scored well on a test.

Mrs. Ray and Mrs. Brusak are Bronson's business teachers. Typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping are the courses offered to the students. These courses prepare many for their futures in the business field.

Our Goal — Accuracy and Speed

MRS. NOVA RAY
B.S., W.M.U.
Typing, Shorthand,
and Bookkeeping

Ready! Begin! Mrs. Ray starts the stop watch for a five minute timing.

MRS. RUTH RITTENHOUSE
A.B.
Defiance College
Math., Latin

Mrs. Rittenhouse points out a picture of interest to the Latin students.

Tri-Lingual School??

MR. ELDON SHOOK
B.A., Ohio Northern
University
M.S., Indiana University
English, French

French to English, or English to French, could have been the question as Mr. Shook glances at a student's paper.

MRS. LOIS CARPENTER
B.S., W. M. U.
Art

The art director, Mrs. Carpenter, holds an illustration of modern art. This is only one of many activities of the art classes.

MRS. MARGARET NORTON
B.S., Bridgewater College
Librarian

Mrs. Norton, the librarian, poses for a picture as she leafs through a book.

MR. GEORGE WILSON
B.A., Georgetown
M.A., U. of M.
Drivers Education

Mr. Wilson, our drivers education instructor, pauses before stepping into the drivers education car.

English — Tool

MR. WILLIAM LIGGETT
B. S.
Kalamazoo College
English

Mr. Liggett smiles as he takes a breather between his ninth grade English classes.

The English department offers each student the chance to become more familiar with the English language in use and structure. Students are required to complete three years of high school English, and senior English is required for students acquiring academic diplomas.

MRS. ELIZABETH BEALL
B. A.
Earlham College
M. A.
W. M. U.

A new teacher to B. H. S. this year, Mrs. Beall instructs senior English students in an advanced course for those planning future education.

of Communication

MRS. ARIDEAN FRENCH
B. A.
W. M. U.
English

Mrs. French and Mrs. Toupalik devote their time to increasing the knowledge of English to Bronson High School students. New books, new methods, and old rules combine to help the students understand our language.

Mrs. French explains the correct way to diagram a sentence.

MRS. EILEEN TOUPALIK
B. S.
W. M. U.
English

Mrs. Toupalik listens as a student expresses his viewpoint of a story in literature.

MRS. RUTH SCHEIDLER
B. A.
Western Michigan
Algebra II, Arithmetic, and
General Math

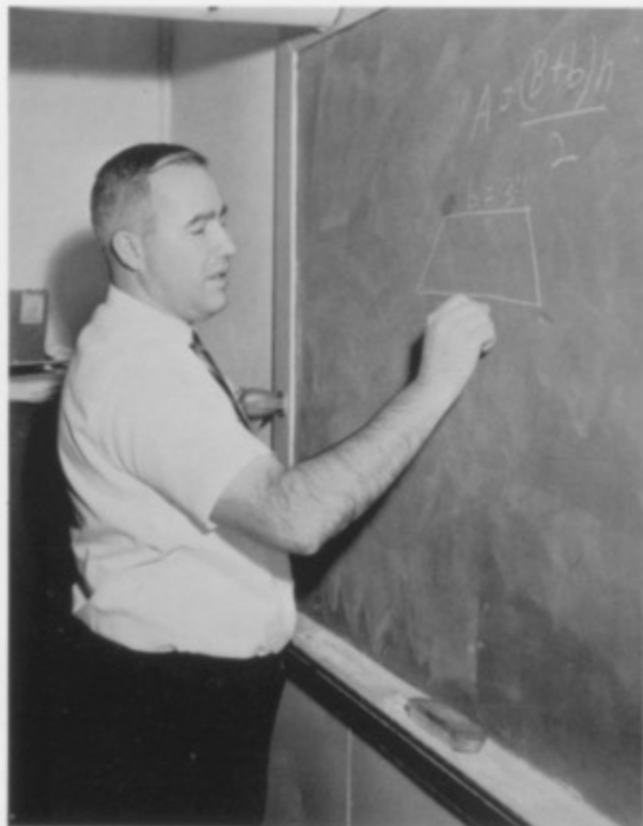

Mrs. Scheidler gives the students the correct answers to their arithmetic problems.

MR. MARTIN WOODCOX
B. S.
M. S.
Ball State
Arithmetic and English

Mr. Woodcox writes the equation on the board to find the area of a trapezoid.

Advancement in the mathematics department have been developed to train students for further use of these mathematical skills. The mathematics department offers a variety of courses to students interested in the field. Geometry, Shop Math, General Math, Trigonometry, Solid Geometry, and Refresher Arithmetic are the math classes open to high school students.

Mr. Bond tells a joke amidst his arithmetic class.

Students for Human Relations

MRS. THELMA BOND
B.S.
Eastern Michigan
Literature and Geography

Mrs. Bond displays a map used so students will become more familiar with the geography of their country.

Social studies enables BHS students to learn and understand more about their own country and the people in it. The classes also make students aware of their freedoms, privileges, and duties to their land.

MISS PATRICIA CHISHOLM
B.A.
Western Michigan
Speech, World Geography, and World History

Miss Chisholm prepares for a lecture to her world history class on the stages of primitive man.

Mr. Rittenhouse demonstrates the use of a steelyard, which shows physical balance.

Steelshop

It seems like a rather greasy job, but Mr. Whorley is quite content.

Mr. Atkocunis and Rex Terry, student teacher, watch as the boys perform continuous somersaults.

"Keep those knees straight!" is the cry as the boys do their daily push-ups.

Physical Education Classes Gain Fitness, Strength, and Agility

Students at BHS are offered a balanced course in Physical Education. The classes are organized in a manner to present each student a variety of sports, exercises, and physical games. Besides keeping trim and fit. The students also find much fun in these classes.

The girls stretch their arms in preparation for a warm-up exercise.

In a practice session the girls attempt to improve their technique.

A Stitch in Time Saves Nine

MRS. EUNICE MARTIN
B. S.
E. M. U.
Home Economics

Mrs. Martin gives the girls some tips on cooking.

Home Economics is offered to all girls in grades eight through twelve. In home economics the girls learn the fundamentals of cooking and sewing.

MRS. ROSE MARIE HAENNI

Home Economics

Mrs. Haenni examines a new pattern book.

Take Us to Our Dinner

The cooks this year in the high-school cafeteria were Joyce Hoard, Marjorie Keeslar, Jewel Rumsey, and Head-Cook, Mrs. Ruby Evans.

Helping to serve along with the cooks were Penny Moffett, and Elizabeth Howe. Miss Harriet Swank collected the fee for the lunches each noon.

Transportation by bus wouldn't be complete without the bus drivers. Here the bus drivers pose for a photo before a night delivery.

Wanted Automation —

LEFT: Glen Stroup, the head custodian, busily replaces the dome to a light fixture. Besides pushing a broom, Glen does odds and ends of jobs. The students can usually depend on Glen for helping them with different jobs.

Hank Blain, another custodian, takes a break after doing some difficult and tiring work.

Vern Deal, our night custodian, begins his work by dumping wastebaskets. Find any good notes lately, Vern?

Study Hall — Center of BHS Hub-bub

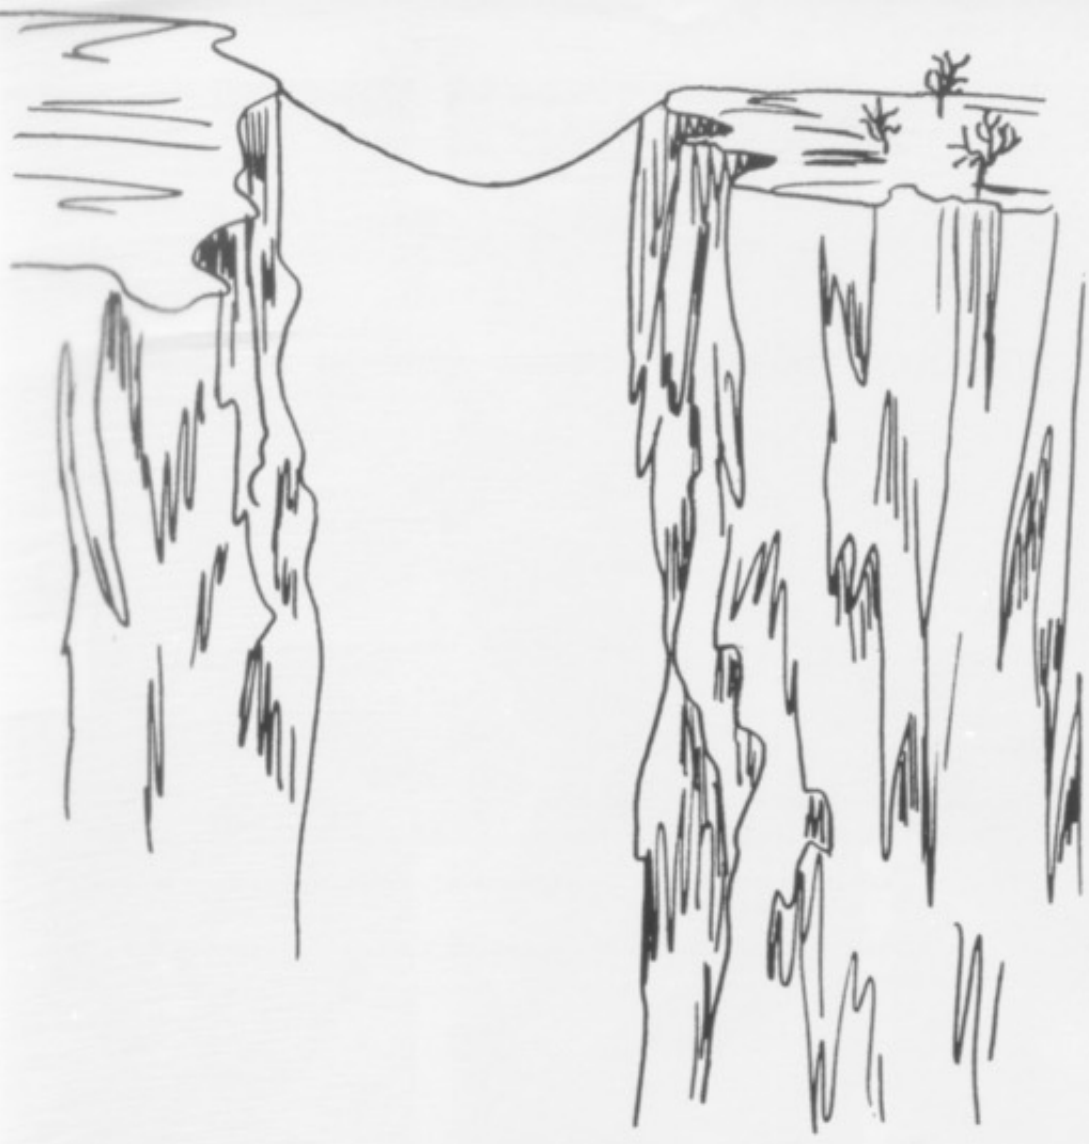

The study halls this year were all under the able direction of Mrs. Laws. Under her cautious guidance, students were encouraged to study.

Mrs. Laws pauses a moment from her duties as study hall supervisor.

Students find peace and quiet during study hall, giving them a chance to catch up on homework.

An unusual study hall - mass confusion on Initiation Day!

A Tribute to Cheryl

CHERYL LYNN FREEMAN

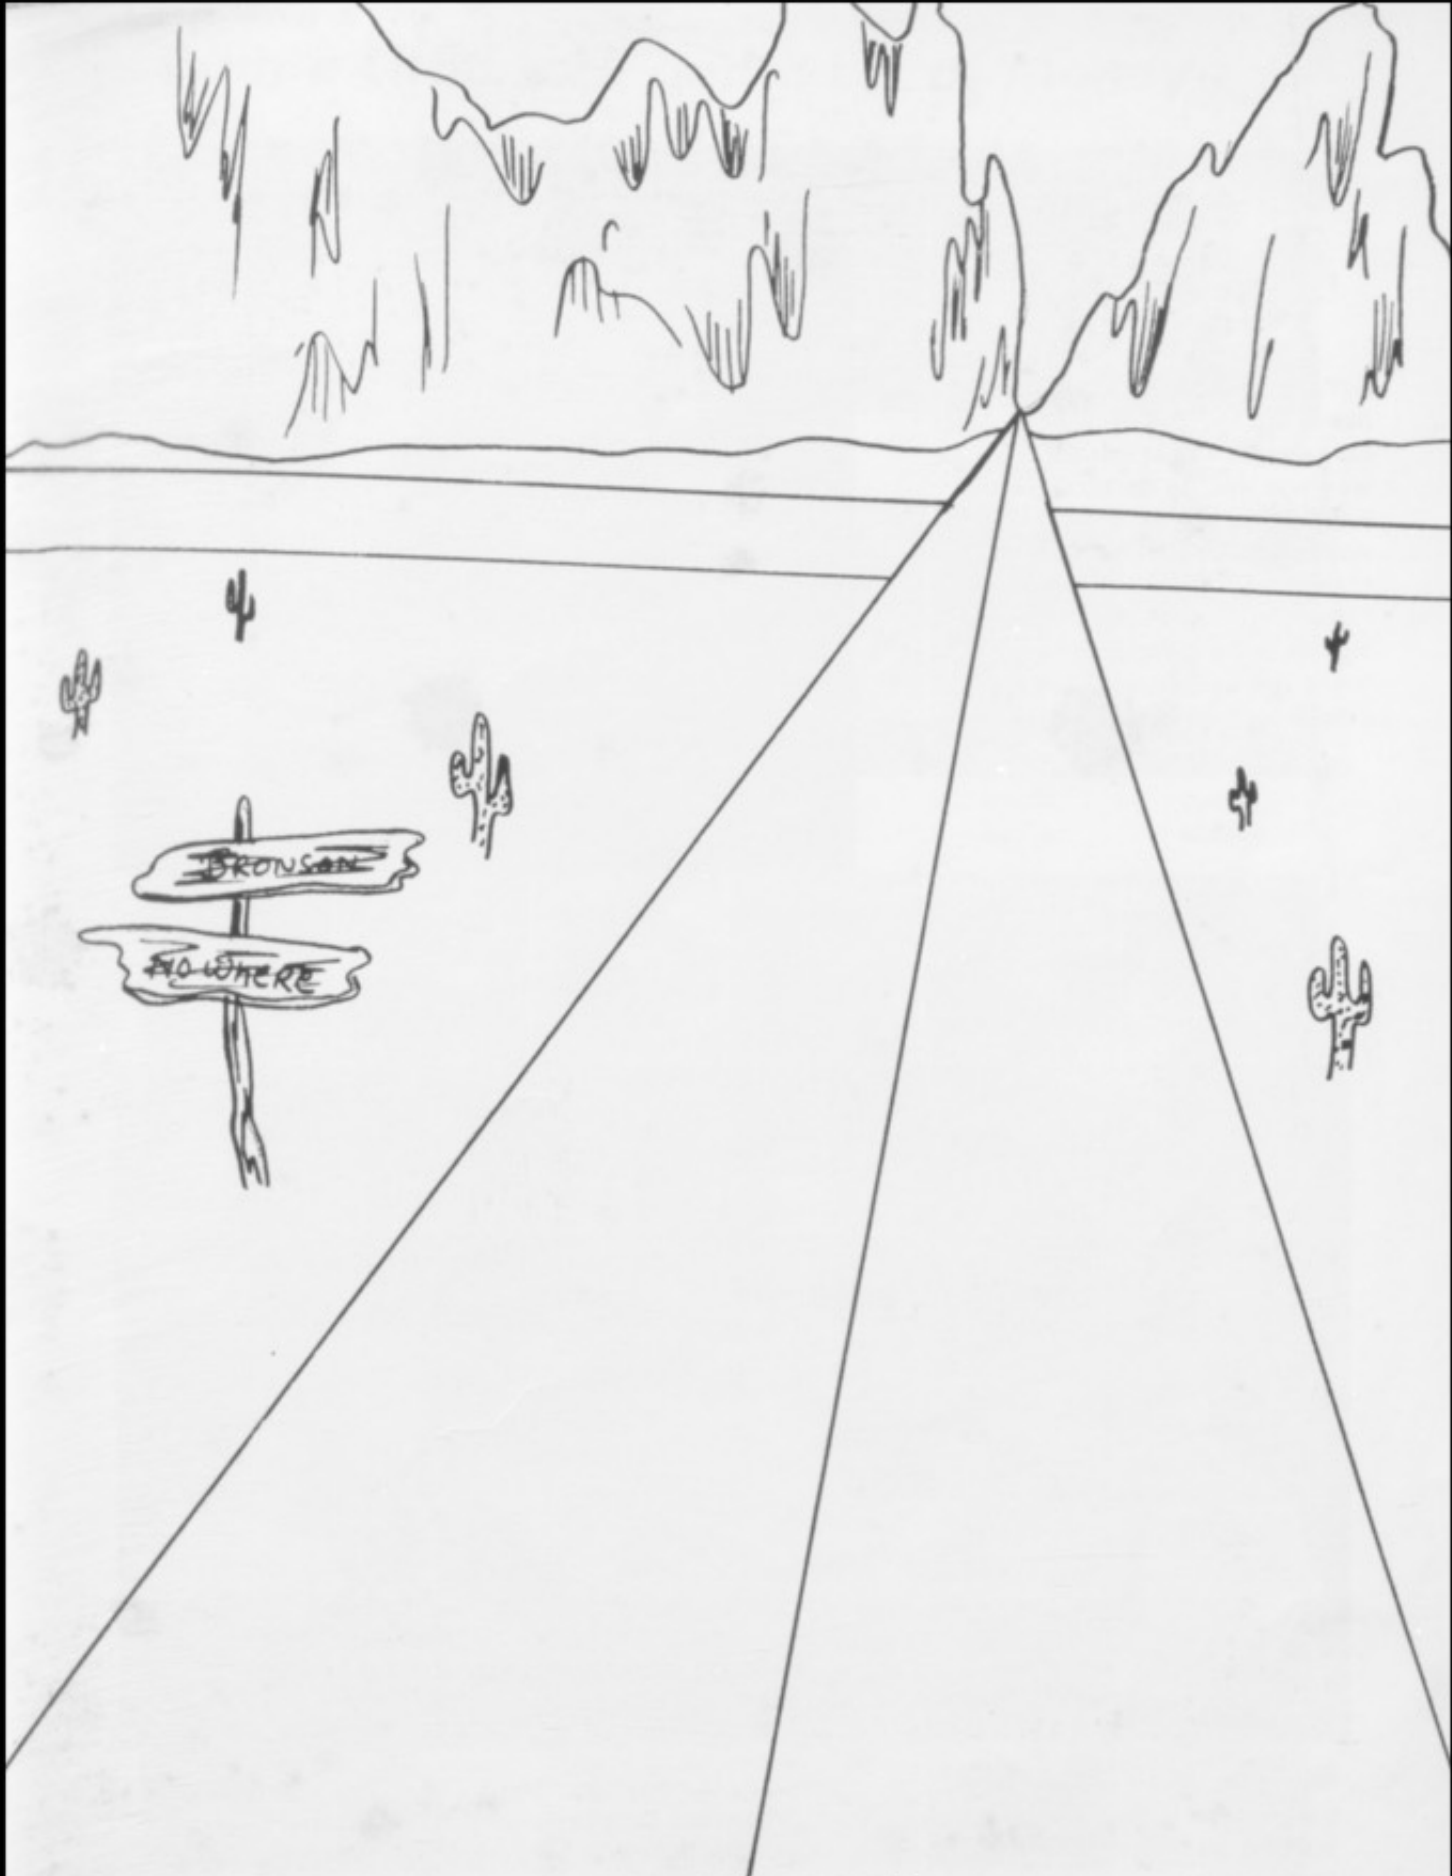

Dear Cheryl,

We remember you in many ways - your laughing voice, the way you smiled, your hazel eyes that gleamed mischievously; and the way your brown hair bounced gaily as you walked. We won't forget the laughter, the fun, the secrets, and the tears you shared with us. The friendship that you gave us was a rare and beautiful treasure we will cherish all of our lives. As we, the class of 1965, graduate we will take with us your memory as that of a young and lovely girl who would have graduated with us and who found a place in our hearts forever.

And as someone once said:

"The smiles the tears,
The girlhood years,
Are gone - But not forgotten."

Your friends

New School Awaits Us

Advisors for the Junior Class were Mrs. Norton and Mr. Zabanick. The junior class entered a float entitled "How the West Was Won" in the Homecoming Parade.

Another project was putting on the Christmas Dance with the theme of "Silver Bells." The prom was the big task in the springtime. A year 'round task was taking care of the concession stand at games and dances.

Besides the regular officers this year, the juniors elected Inter-C members. The officers and representatives of the junior class were: Nancy Armstrong, treasurer; Doug Crabtree, S.C. representative; Jeanne Mallory, president; Stan Welch, vice-president; Debbie Barkowski, secretary; Larry Withington, Inter-C; Randy Kibiloski, S.C. representative; and Gary Gunthorpe, Inter-C.

Each year the senior class is given the privilege to initiate the new freshmen into high school. This privilege is reserved solely for the seniors, but each year there are a few anxious juniors who take this opportunity to "play senior." These disobedient juniors must be punished and are brought before an assembly to get down on their knees and beg the forgiveness of the freshmen and seniors.

"Son of Flubber" was the freshman float for Homecoming. The freshmen were proud of their efforts and enjoyed the fun and headaches shared by all who worked on it.

The eighth grade officers were: Victor Brown, vice-president; Marilyn Evens, student council representative; Sally Sutton, president; Kathy Parsons, treasurer; and Bob Redmond, secretary.

Eighth grade advisors, Mr. Woodcox and Mrs. French, check over final plans for eighth grade trip to Chicago.

Youthful Leaders

Seventh grade advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Bond, are contemplating their task of welcoming the newcomers to junior high.

Seventh grade officers are: ROW 1: Jim Modert, vice-president; Ted Gregg, treasurer; and Gary Younce, student council representative. ROW 2: Karen McGiffen, president; and Susan Ellis, secretary.

Summer Conferences

RIGHT: Jean Mallory, Joan Diffenbaugh, Nancy Armstrong, and Jeanne Woods attended Communication Arts Institute at MSU for a two week course in journalism.

ABOVE: Donna Livesay, Miss Chisholm, and Anne Osborn attended the National Dramatic Arts Conference at Indiana State University.

BELOW: The Rotary Club sponsored Lloyd Miller as Bronson's Representative to Camp Emery. He was chosen on the basis of leadership, scholastic standing, and athletic ability.

Representing Bronson at Girls' State for an educational two weeks of governmental study was Jeanne Woods. She was chosen by the faculty, classmates, and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Wilfred Bercaw, Larry Kibiloski, and Brent Wilber formed the Bronson delegation at Boys' State.

"Perry"

Stan and Perry enjoy reading his hometown newspaper.

Strum us a tune, Perry.

Per-Olof Hormander from Tröllhattan, Sweden, was sponsored by the Student Council as our exchange student this year. "Perry", his American nickname, stayed with the Robert Welch family from August of 1964 until July of 1965. Perry actively participated in the many activities at Bronson. He played on the Varsity football team and was a member of the Varsity Club, Pep Club, Student Council, the Hi-Times staff, and the Double-Sextette. Perry enjoys playing the guitar, reading detective stories, and listening to music. When he returns home to Sweden, Perry plans to finish his last two years of high school and attend college.

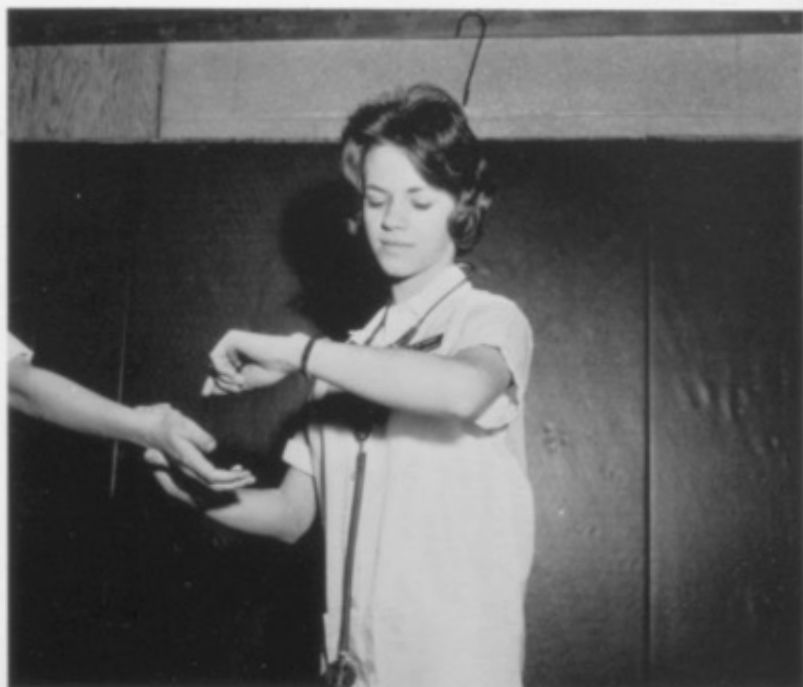

Above is Perry's American Family. They are Bob, Stan, Perry, and Mr. Welch, Barbara, Mrs. Welch, John, and Mrs. Jerry Morgan.

School Sees Improvements

The Student Council was responsible for many great improvements this year at Bronson. They were instrumental in the acquisition of a new scoreboard at the football field, fan buses for away athletic contests, and internal improvements of the school.

The Inter-C members represent Bronson in inter-scholastic meetings at other schools. Members left to right: Gary Gunthorpe, Larry Withington, Advisor, Mr. French; Brent Wilber, and Linda Barclay.

High School Journalists Join Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll Society is an International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. Members of Quill and Scroll must be a junior, must be in the upper third of their class, and must have done some outstanding work on some phase of journalism. Bronson High School has been a member of this society for seven years.

Second year members of the Quill and Scroll Society, Jeanne Woods and Pam Wagner, confer with adviser, Mr. Liggett, over recent Society news.

New members to the society from the Hi-Times staff are Jeanne Mallory, Sharon Rosenberry, Shirley Myers, Nancy Armstrong, and Elizabeth Mayer.

Members of the Viking staff who were initiated into the society were Linda Blasi, Donna Livesay, Stan Welch, Anne Osborn, and Joan Diffenbaugh.

13 WINS		2 LOSSES

Coach Athocunis briefs the managers, Dennis Wolfe and Allen Jeffery, on care of the valuable wrestling equipment.

Senior Wrestlers in Action

Terry Wilber strains to gain control of his opponent.

Lloyd Miller struggles for a take down in first period action.

Clark Walker, who was undefeated, applies pressure from his "up" position.

Dan Ludwick, who was also undefeated, prepares to turn his man over to gain another "pin" for the Vikings.

Reserves Post 17-2-1 Record

Coach Whorley and Fred Rosenau confer over some wrestling holds.

This year the reserve wrestling squad under the guidance of Coach Whorley notched a record of 17 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. The squad was extremely enthusiastic and worked diligently to achieve this fine mark.

An outstanding feature of the team was its willingness to help each other in learning the intricate holds and moves that are necessary to know in order to be a winning wrestler. It was this desire to know and to improve, plus a lot of hard work, that made success possible.

Coach Atkocunis need not worry about his heavy losses through graduation for help is on the way.

Selected by the team as most valuable players in football were Larry Withington, most valuable back, and Clark Walker, most valuable lineman.

Sports . . .

The Junior Vikings notched a first at the Junior High Homer Tournament.

Varsity Basketball team gets a few pointers from coach.

Who's going to make the first move?

All the way down the field!!

Backbone of Athletics

The Varsity Club was kept busy this year. They sponsored a WOWO hop. In the fall they sold season tickets, and during the year they sold Viking cushions. The members sold tickets at the reserve football games and took tickets at the basketball and wrestling games. The club furnishes films for the basketball and football teams as an aid to coaching.

Mr. Helmer is advisor of the club. The officers are: Larry Kibiloski, secretary; Dan Ludwick, sergeant of arms; Larry Withington, vice-president; Terry Wilber, treasurer; and Clark Walker, president.

A Peek into Progress

The walls are going up! Construction on our new high school began in the fall of 1964. Its completion is expected by the fall of 1965. We, the class of 1965, feel somewhat envious of the underclassmen who will be able to use this new facility.
