He is retiring after 30 years of teaching in the Bronson system, and we are going to miss Mr. Atkocunis — a big man with a big voice and a great heart.

"Mr. Atkocunis was a dedicated teacher, devoted to the welfare and betterment of students, whether in the classroom or in the gym. He contributed more than his share of time and ability in a variety of ways and could be counted on to serve in time of crisis or emergency. His standards were high, but fair and were applied to all equally."

"He will be long remembered by his students and colleagues for his many contributions over the years to Bronson Community Schools."

Smitty ...

With the death of Mr. Ledward Smith, we have lost a teacher, a friend and an advisor to whom we attribute the success of our FFA program.

Smitty will always be remembered for telling Polish jokes and making kids smile when he played Santa Claus. He will be especially remembered for his confidence in troubled students whom he made into outstanding FFA members.

Although Smitty can't be with us anymore, the MEMORIES he left will be ours forever.

F.F.A.

Future Farmers of America

The FFA endured an arduous year after the death of their advisor Mr. Ledward Smith. One of the parents, Mr. Byers, volunteered his time to direct the organization until later in the year when Mr. Halsey was hired as agriculture teacher and new FFA advisor.

A most active F.F.A. sponsors a banquet at the end of each school year to summarize the year's activities. Their annual banquet was held this year on April 29 in St. Mary's Gym.

Award winners at the banquet were: Dale Disbro, Harold Gump, and Laurie Herman, recipients of the Greg Traskos Determination Award; Lee Swift, Star Chapter Agribusiness Manager; Carlin Smith, Dekalb Award; Marcia Carpenter, Star Chapter Farmer.

The 1982-83 F.F.A. officers are: Mickey Carpenter, President; Dale Swift, Sentinel; Barry Duncan, Vice President; Kim Byers, Secretary; Mary Lahrke, Treasurer, Dean Halsey, Advisor; Tim Towne, Reporter.

New Members

Thespians

The International Thespians Society held its banquet on May 25, 1982, in the high school library. The speaker for the evening was Dr. D. Terry Williams from Western Michigan University where he is the director of Shaw Theatre. A special feature of the evening was the awarding of an honorary membership in Thespians Troupe #620 to Mr. Ray Smith, local newspaper editor.

The Branch Area Career Center is an extension of the local school for juniors and seniors where they spend their mornings or afternoons learning a specific trade or skill for which they receive three credits.

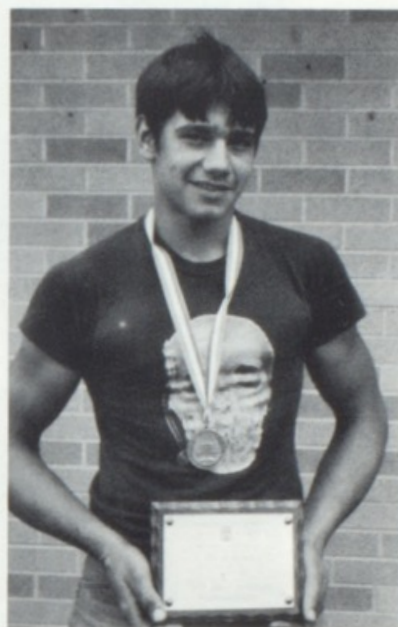

The various programs sponsor their own clubs: BOEC, DECA and Vica and involve our students in local, regional and national competition.

Business Office Education Clubs — Sheryll Sensat, President; Laurie Sygnecki, Reporter; Pattie Troth, Treasurer; Kendra Uhrig and Brenda Michael, State Participants.

Distributive Education Clubs of America — Julie Wilcox, President. Julie was a winner at the state level and advanced to national competition. Other state competitors: Tammy Davidson, Carrie Maddox, Ken Houghton, Ron Herman, Pam Howard, Kim Stump, Nancy Rifenburg and Sandra Shiery.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America — State Treasurer Katrina Cockrell. State competitors: Kevin Barnes, Kim Kubasiak, Kris Malovey, Cyndi Krontz, Bonita Gibson, Laurie Herman, Charles Salek, Todd Cranson.

BACC Clubs

Right: Charles Salek, first place winner in Auto Mechanics Contest for two consecutive years, advancing to Nationals twice.

Regional Honors Choir

In October, 16 people from the Acappella Choir auditioned for the Regional Honors Choir. Each prepared one piece of music and sang their part, along with the other three parts on tape, in front of a judge. Bronson performed well, with eleven people being accepted into the choir. Going onto the State competition in December were seven who were chosen from Bronson for the State Honors Choir.

Thank you Laurie Herman, editor of this 1982 edition of MEMORIES — for the long, long hours you've spent helping the staff put their ideas on paper — for the numbers of pages you've rough drafted and quad-pak-ed — for picking up the loose ends dropped by other staffers — for being the dependable, capable person who has been willing to shoulder to its completion the record of this school year. You've been great!

Graduation Class of 1982

On Wednesday, June 9, Commencement for the Class of 1982 took place in the gymnasium because of unfavorable weather. The graduates were escorted by the Honor Guard from the Class of 1983.

"Dearest Friends" was the title of the speech given by Valedictorian Maria Albright. Class Salutatorian and Class President Marcia Carpenter spoke about "The Game of Life" and Class Historian Carlin Smith's topic was "Leadership: The Key to Prosperity."

Senior band members joined the band for the final performance under the direction of Carlin Smith.

Academic honors and awards were presented by Mr. Wade, followed by the awarding of diplomas and the passing of the cane from the senior class president to the junior class president, Marcia and Mickey Carpenter, respectively.

How the Vikes

The 1981 Homecoming activities proved to be victorious in spite of the loss suffered by the football team. The Freshmen were declared winners in the float contest and as an added attraction, all the Homecoming Candidates were treated like royalty as they were transported past an appreciative crowd in Corvettes.

King Candidates:

Eric Saitz
John Troyer
Brad Neveraski
John Courtney
Leo Odisher
Todd Moss

Won the West?

The lucky couple for the 1981 Homecoming King and Queen were John Troyer and Carrie Maddox. Although the traditional bonfire was a disappointment because of the rain, the Viking spirit was not dampened. The football team put forth all their effort and played like winners.

Queen Candidates:

Christine Luce
Kathy Sikorski
Dena Davis
Patti Troth
Carrie Maddox
Laurie Herman

Student —

For the second time in the 13-year history of the B.E.A. Scholarship Benefit Basketball Game, the teachers were forced to take a back seat. From the very beginning the students had control of the game with a 15 to 4 lead, but the mentors' spirits were unwilling to be broken and by halftime, the scholars had a sizable lead.

In the second half the teachers appeared to be overwhelmed, but even then they never once considered throwing in the towel. It was a good game, ending in a student triumph, 49 to 40.

Faculty Game

The children's play for 1982 was a musical composition of short excerpts from Aesop's Fables. Comprising the cast were the following:

Seniors Reign! Twirp Week 1982

Twirp Week 1982 sponsored by the student council saw the seniors victorious with the largest accumulation of points. Among the featured week-long activities were the scavenger hunt, the flower sale and a special type of dress designated for each day. An innovation of this year's activities was the Saturday playoff of such contests as running events, egg toss, tug-of-war and the ever-popular Volkswagen stuffing.

The Follies returned after a year of absence due to the lack of the middle school stage because of a millage failure.

FOL 19 The Best

Over seventy students responded to the call for tryouts with skits and musical presentations displaying their various talents.

Carl Rifenburgh, with the help of student directors Carlin Smith and Kyle Adamson, improvised a stage and created a setting in the high school gym.

LIES 82 of Times

"The Best of Times" drew large, appreciative audiences both nights.

Rainbow Connections

The Junior-Senior Prom "Rainbow Connections" was held May 15, 1982, in Bronson High School's gym and featured the band "Karman." The Grand March was led by Mr. and Mrs. David Post.

Junior Class President Mickey Carpenter and his fellow-officers worked closely with their class advisors Alan Andridge and Patricia Ross to make the prom a success.

Varsity Learns New System

The Bronson Viking Varsity football team struggled through a rugged schedule enroute to a 1-8 season.

The Vikes were coached by Joe Fisher, the second consecutive first year coach. Assisting Fisher were Maurice Skinner and Ken Miller. The co-captains for the team were John Courtney and Brad Neveraski.

Coach Fisher, commenting on the attitude of the team, said he was pleased with the fact that they never quit despite their many setbacks. He was also pleased with the improvement the players showed. The team began to work together and play better football as they got "the feel of the system."

There was a great deal of concentration on the development of attitude and discipline as well as fundamentals. Increasing strength in these areas and the adjustment to coach Fisher's system may lead to the continuity needed for a brighter season in 1982-83.

JV's Never Let Down

Working with a small squad, Coach John Van-Dam led his JV Viking football team to a 1-5 record. Assisted by Coach Jeff Johnson, VanDam guided his Gridders through a rugged schedule which consisted of such powers as Kalamazoo Hackett, White Pigeon, Constantine and others.

The coaches were pleased with their team's determination and "never-let-down" attitude. Their will to keep trying carried them to two very exciting ball games: their come-from-behind victory against Litchfield and their strong performance against a tough Quincy team.

Joey Losinski was the recipient of the "Coaches Award" for his determination and hard work as well as his talent.

Girls' Varsity Improves

Varsity Girl's Basketball

Head Coach Chris Brilinski led her Girl's Varsity Cagers to a 8-12 record. The lady Vikes were led by the strong seasonal play of Marcia Carpenter who was recognized on the area level. Many other players, including many underclassmen, turned in fine individual seasons as well.

The highlight of the season for the team was their revenge victory over Quincy in the first round of the district tournament. The win was strictly in vain as the Vikes were upended by state-rated Homer in the final contest.

The team's 8-12 record was an improvement of last year's and the quality of talent among the younger players shows promise for next year's season.

JV's Stay Enthused

JV Girls Basketball

The Girl's Junior Varsity Basketball team worked their way to a 6-12 record. They were guided by Jane Snyder, who was coaching basketball for the first time.

The girls played with consistent enthusiasm throughout the year as evidenced by the scores of their games — six of their losses were by five points or less.

These tight game situations and the hard work contributed by the team helped to develop many strong fundamentals which will be valuable to future Bronson teams.

Grapplers Pin Down Eight Wins

A young but strong Viking wrestling team worked its way to an 8-4 record. The team also placed first in the Constantine Invitation Tournament and placed third in two other similar tourneys.

Head Coach Carroll Moon, Captains John Courtney and Kevin Losinski provided the leadership for the squad which will have eight returning lettermen. Serving as an incentive for the team was their will to work towards making Assistant Coach Charles Atkocunis' final season a success.

The Viking Grapplers had seven members qualify for Regional competition with four of those advancing to the State. The State participants included Seniors Sam Butters, Harold Gump, and Kevin Losinski, and Sophomore Ed Micklatcher.

Varsity & JV Basketball

The varsity basketball team experienced a disappointing 13-8 season, losing several games by very small margins. In district tournament play they yielded to Quincy in overtime 57-62.

The JV's compiled a record of 12 wins and 8 losses.

Girl's Softball

Bronson High School welcomed girl's softball to its sports program this year. This is the first girl's softball team from Bronson to ever compete at the High School level and their season was not a disappointment.

Carl Rifenburgh took the coaching position of the young team and guided them to an impressive record of 13-3. Although they did not advance very far in tournament play, they displayed a great deal of potential and proved that this program is worthy of continuance.

Kneeling: Misty Dempsey, Sandy Davis, Ramona Smoker, JoAnn VanBlarcom, Roxann Litzau. Standing: Coach Becky Fraser, Marilyn Kline, Teresa Bell, Polly Weaver, Lisa Roussey, Carrie Maddox.

Becky Fraser, coaching varsity volleyball at Bronson for the first time, led the team to a record of 8-5. Even though the girls played consistently throughout the season, they were unable to advance into tournament play after being defeated by a strong Pennfield squad in their pre-district game.

Rookie Coach Ellen Sully guided the JV spikers to an impressive 8-11 record. Undeviating play, sparked by a great deal of enthusiasm created the winning combination.

Tennis

The girl's tennis team returned to action this year after missing a season due to a millage defeat. Playing a large and difficult schedule, the team compiled a 2-10 record and tied for second at the Springfield Invitation Tournament. Coach Martin Woodcox was pleased with the progress and improvement of his players, as well as the quality of play of many younger players.

The boy's team, also coached by Mr. Woodcox, turned out its best year in a long time by working for a record of 4-12.

Golf

Mr. Modert, in his first season of coaching golf, had difficulty coming up with a win as he guided his young team through a tough schedule.

Standing: Coach James Modert, Tony Martinez, Brian Eley, Rob Rhoades, Chris Gilbert.
Kneeling: Kenneth Kubasiak, Kevin Stutzman, Robert Mayer, Jeff Case.

Track Teams Show Improvement

The girls' track team put together the finest season in five years as they worked toward a record of 7-4, breaking many school records in the process. They were guided through their tough schedule by head coach Chris Brilinski.

Marcia Carpenter and Dena Davis were state qualifiers in the discus and high jump respectively, with Davis going on to place second in the state.

Coaching the boys' track team again this year were Carroll Moon and Keith Dykman. The team finished with a record of 3-8, their best in two years.

Baseball

The varsity baseball team experienced a disappointing season under the direction of first year coach Frank Sineni, who, along with Captains Kalon Hoard and Carlin Smith led the team to a record of 5-14. With only four retiring seniors, many underclassmen gained experience in game situations giving Coach Sineni an optimistic view of the future.

The JV's started their season with a bit of uncertainty because a head coach couldn't be found. Varsity coach Sineni and Athletic Director Paul Turner helped to direct the team in the early part of the season until John Mayer, a Bronson citizen, volunteered. Under Mayer's guidance, the team put together a record of 8-4.

A Moment . . . a Mood a Place in Time!

A fine portrait study is forever . . . it is the present and the past given to the future . . . it is a way to remember that cannot be duplicated.

The gift of a fine portrait study takes time and effort and is truly an expression of love on the part of the giver; and, when properly displayed, reflects the close feelings between two people or a family.

Well, we now find ourselves at the end — the end of the many memories of happy times, sad times and fun times, woven as a thread throughout this book. All these memories are placed here for everyone — teachers and friends — to look at and to laugh at, today and years into the future.

As editor, my staff and I have compiled all these moments for you — the people who make the yearbook a success with all your smiling faces. I hope you will cherish these memories.

I would also like to thank my staff for all their hard work, and especially Mrs. Hurd, our advisor, who strived hard to make everything work out successfully. May you all find peace and happiness always.

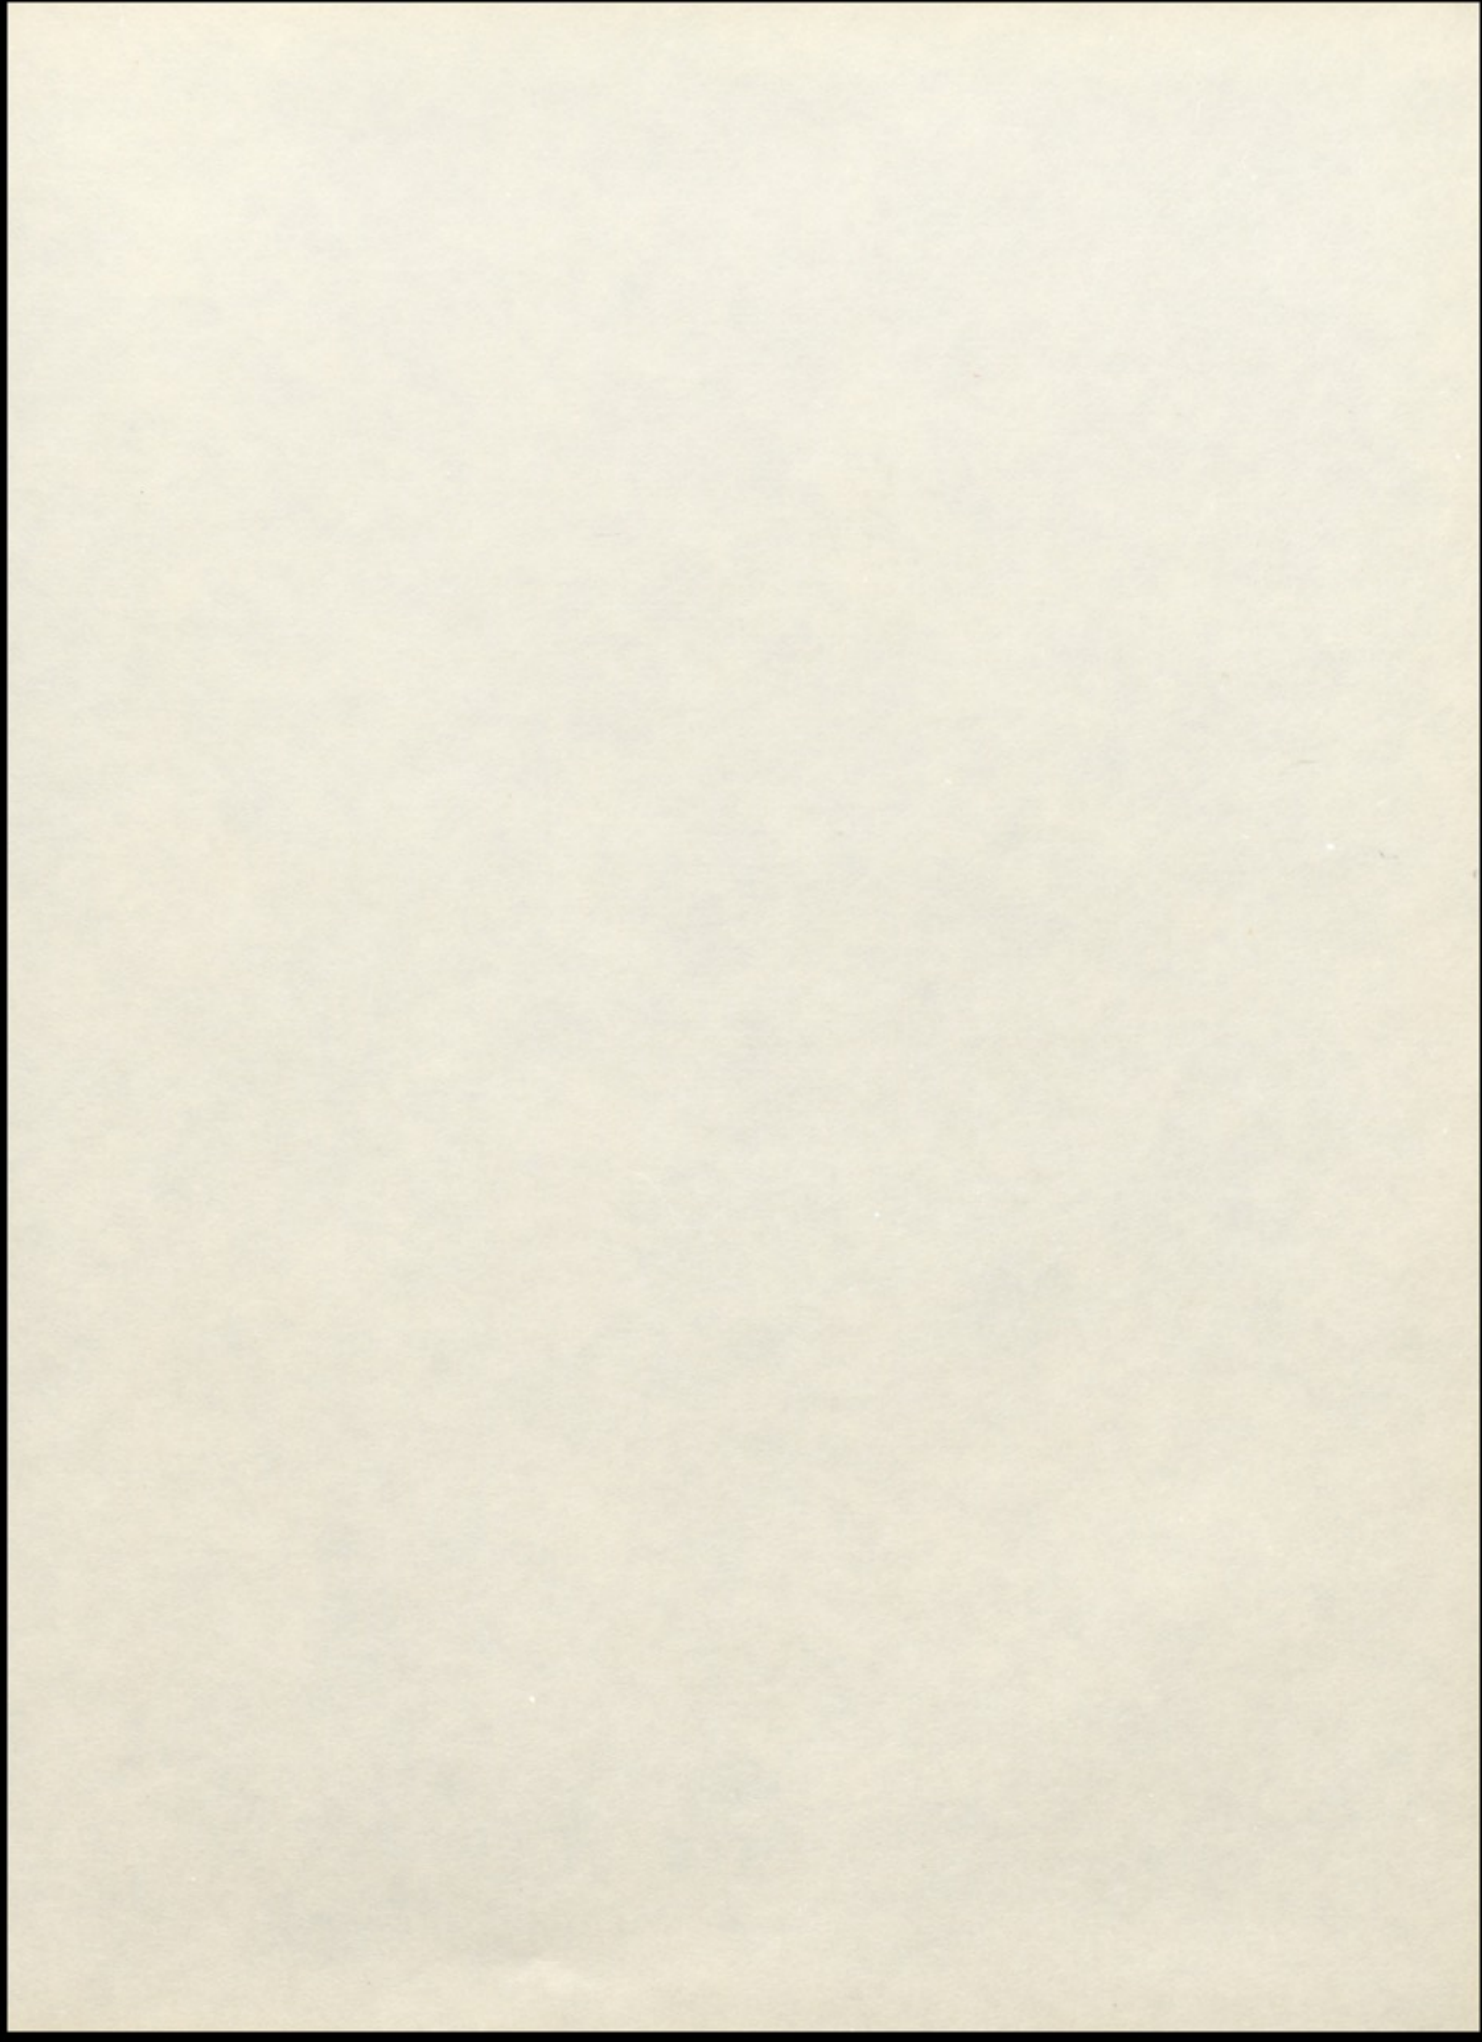

To the Class of "82" — much success in what you choose to do.

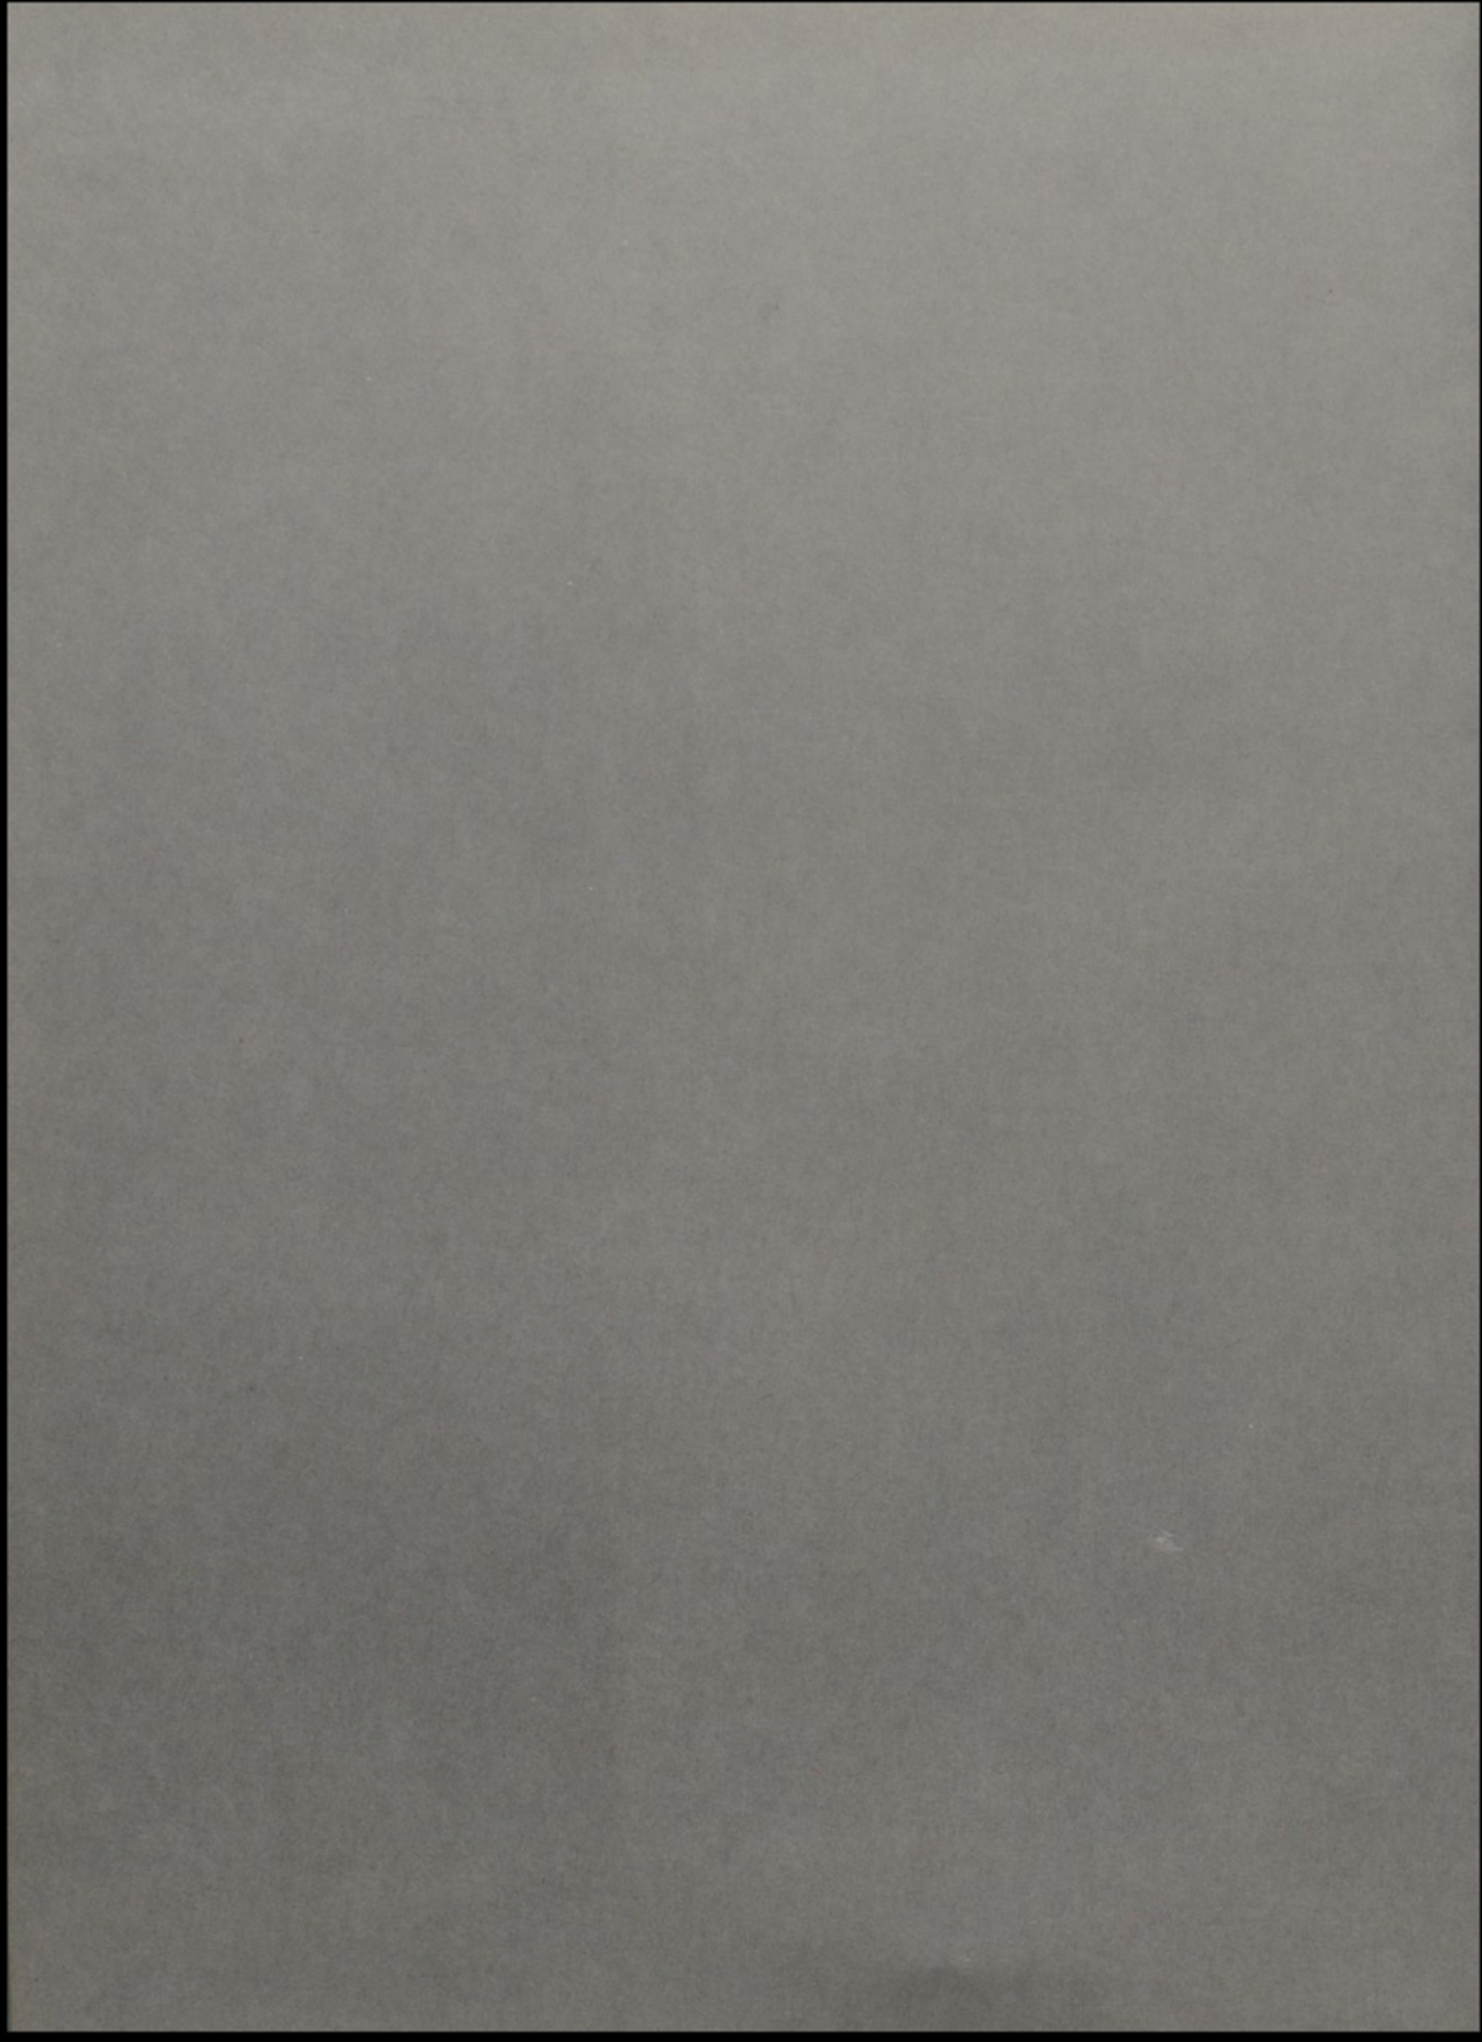

Laurie Herman
Yearbook editor

The task of preparing a yearbook for publication would be impossible without the encouragement and cooperation of so many, that to begin singling out a few for special recognition is almost dangerous. There does need to be acknowledged the contribution of our staff of students, many of whom have given of themselves tirelessly: Laurie Herman, editor; Maria Albright, business and advertising manager, assisted by Lorinda Mayer; Leasa Modert, typist; artist Shawn Brewer, designer of the cover; photographer and artist Kyle Adamson, division pages; Brian Stroup, Cyndi Krontz, Amy Weaver, Konnie Morrill, photographers; Brian Winney, activities; Christina Junker and Kris Malovey, administration and faculty; Betsy Shoun and Mary Lahrke, organizations; Laurie Herman, Seniors; Carlin Smith, sports; Gina Williams, underclassmen; and Tami Platter, who tackled any task I assigned her.

I would like to also acknowledge the valuable assistance of Leo Zimmerman of Taylor Publishing Company; Ron Philbrick of Carousel Studios and Bronson Journal editor Ray Smith, who came to our rescue more than once.
