This annual is dedicated to you, the students of B.H.S. This book marks the end of another year of our education. There are still many closed doors for in reality we are only beginning to learn. So many doors remain closed. Waiting for us to open them.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Aldrich

BHS welcomes Mr. Aldrich to the administration staff. We hope the student body has made as good an impression on him as he has made on the student body.

Mr. Aldrich's secretary is Mrs. Marie Tracy.

MRS. TRACY

Mr. French

This marks the twelfth year of Mr. French's role of principal at BHS. He has set a fine and workable example of what a good student-teacher relationship should be.

Mrs. Phillips was Mr. French's secretary until the second semester. The position was then filled by Mrs. Crandall.

MRS. PHILLIPS

MRS. BRUSAK

Counselors

MR. WHITCOMB

BHS has two fine counselors which the students are thankful for. Both Mrs. Brusak and Mr. Whitcomb are available at all times for confrontation with students. Besides listening to the students problems, they also help in setting up schedules, choosing colleges and various other student activities.

Mr.
Norton

As financial assistant Mr. Norton keeps close tabs on all financial matters at BHS.

MRS. BURKHARDT

R to L - Mrs. Sommerlot, Mrs. Keeslar, and Mrs. Evens.

The Cooks

It is a hard task to cook a good meal for hundreds of people, but our cooks manage to do just that every day of the week!

Mr. Crandall, better known as "Cleo," is the day janitor for BHS. Cleo is always willing to lend a helping hand and do odd jobs that range anywhere from turning the registers down to spraying ants that are running across the office floor!

Mrs. Laws is the study hall clerk. She also manages the used book store.

Mrs. Unterkirker assists
Mrs. Norton in the library.

SENIORS

CLASS OFFICERS L to R: SITTING - Advisor Miss Chisholm, Alice Klavinski (treasurer), Ann Kentner (secretary), Sue Kolassa (student council rep.). STANDING - Advisor Mr. Gardstrom, Al Sosinski (student council rep.), Steve Ellison (president), and Al Cockrell (vice-president).

This is the final year at BHS for the class of '70. The past four years have been filled with many memories, both happy and sad. The only advice we give to you who remain is to stick with it and stay in school. We all know that at times it doesn't seem worth it but when you get that little piece of paper that says you are a graduate of BHS, that's when you realize that it is worth it all. But just because we have graduated doesn't mean we have finished our education; in fact, our education has only begun.

ACTIVITIES

Sno-Ball

The theme of the Sno-Ball this year was Santa's Workshop. At 11:00, Queen Nadga crowned Miss Janine Hartup as the 1970 Sno-Ball Queen.

And the band played on.

Homecoming

Homecoming was a cold event this year. Miss Alice Klavinski was crowned by Virginia McDonald, last year's Homecoming Queen.

Due to not having a field of our own, instead of having class floats we had walls of the gym to decorate.

Yummy, Yummy, Yummy - was the freshman theme. They placed 4th.

Aquarius was the theme chosen by the sophomores. This wall placed 3rd.

The theme of the senior wall was Memories Are Made Of This. The senior wall placed 2nd.

This year the seniors had the task of working in the Queen and her court.

The Crowning!

Moon River, took 1st place, done by the junior class. They had the task of working in the band stand.
