GOLDWATER IN HISTORY

IN 1796 the British, who had won this Great Lakes region from the original French explorers of 1615 and later, surrendered Detroit and other posts in the west to the United States, and Gov. St. Clair proclaimed the County of Wayne, which extended from the Cuyahoga River in Ohio to the Mississippi and northward to Lake Superior, including of course the present County of Branch and the entire St. Joseph valley, the primeval home of the fierce and warlike Pottowattomies. In 1800 this locality became a part of Indiana, but in 1805 the Territory of Michigan was formed, with Gen. Wm. Hull as governor.

In 1812 the British again came into control of Michigan and secured the help of the Pottowattomies, who massacred the garrison at Fort Dearborn (now Chicago) and killed every American possible, helped by Tecumseh and his Shawnee braves, but in 1821 the Indians sold to the whites what is now Branch County and a vast area besides, though they still continued to occupy it as before, on reservations, one of which was six miles square, called Mikkesawbee, in Coldwater and Quincy Townships. However, they roamed everywhere, to hunt and fish as they chose, in a veritable red man's paradise; the woods abounded in deer, wild turkeys, pigeons, squirrels and other game, while the lakes and streams swarmed with fish.

The present city of Coldwater occupies part of what was then a beautiful prairie, some three miles long from east to west and a mile or more wide. It was dotted with oaks, with an occasional elm, while bordering it were magnificent forests of beech, maple, walnut, whitewood, elm, oak and other trees.

So much for this locality previous to the coming of the white man.

The following abstract is by no means intended as a history of Coldwater, but merely a list of the noteworthy events of the past ninety-one years. It will be found valuable as a matter of reference.

1822—Joseph Godfrey established a trading post to barter with the Coldwater Prairie Indians; a little later one Marquette conducted another where Oak Grove Cemetery is now located.

1829—Oct. 29, Branch County was laid out and so named by the Territorial Legislature: it was first attached to Lenawee County and later to St. Joseph.

1830—Hugh Campbell erected the first (log) house, on the present site of the Y. M. C. A. The county had 50 whites at this time. Two-horse stages began running over the Indian trail, between Chicago and Detroit, later made the Chicago road. Entire county tax, $7.36.

1831—Allen Tibbits and Joseph Hanchett platted a village here, calling it Lyons. In July Mr. Tibbits preached the first sermon here. A. F. Bolton built the first frame building in the county, a hotel at Masonville, near the present cemetery bridge; landlord, Harvey Warner. Branch was made the county seat in place of Masonville, which held that honor a few weeks; Branch then had one log hut.

1832—Chicago road built through here, following the old Indian trail. Oriental Hotel built. Peter Martin built a sawmill at the junction of Division and Clay Streets. Cynthia Gloyd taught the first school, with 9 pupils; Silas

A. Holbrook established the first store here. M. E. Church founded by Rev. E. H. Pilcher, circuit rider, with five members—Allen Tibbits and wife, Joseph Hanchett and wife and Amelia Harrison.

1833—The name of the town was changed to Coldwater, from the Indian "chuck-sey-ya-bish" or cold water. Branch County, as such, began its separate existence, March 1; it had previously been attached to St. Joseph County. First Sheriff, Wm. McCarty; clerk, Wales Adams; treasurer and register of deeds, Seth Dunham; probate judge, Peter Martin.

COLDWATER IN 1830

1834—The "old red schoolhouse" was erected near the corner of Pearl and Hudson Streets.

1835—The village of Masonville was platted on the east bank of the Coldwater River and aspired to be the county seat again. Baptist Church organized with sixteen members.

1836—Methodists built a church.

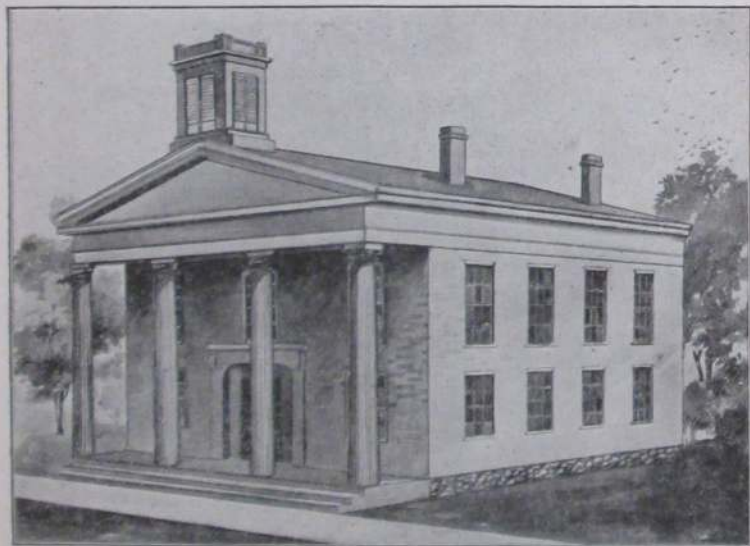

1837—The village was incorporated; population of entire township, 960. Branch County then had 4,016 people. Francis Smith, Thos. Daugherty and Wm. B. Sprague erected a mill on the present site of the "A" mill; it was burned in 1858 and rebuilt in 1859. Dr. Alger at this time found 37 taverns between Quincy and Sturgis. A terrible year for malarial troubles. One historian says that 32 out of 140 people of the little village died that fall. The cause was said to be the Clay Street milldam built in 1832. A body of angry citizens destroyed it. July 18, Coldwater's first newspaper, the Observer, was issued. This became the News, then the Democrat, whose existence ended when as the outcome of a row among the owners the office was "pied." Presbyterian Church organized with sixteen members.

1839—Schoolhouse erected at the corner of Pearl and Clay Streets. A county poor-farm was purchased at Branch; present poor-farm purchased April 1, 1861.

1840—The last of the Pottowattomie Indians, except a few stragglers, were removed to the far west.

1841—Albert Chandler founded the Coldwater Sentinel.

1842—Coldwater became the permanent county seat, supplanting the village of Branch and blasting Masonville's hopes.

OUR FIRST COURT HOUSE, ERECTED IN 1848

1844—The Baptists and Presbyterians built churches, the former where the Old Bank building now stands; the latter is now the Lutheran Church, the other is the Gage building on South Monroe Street. 1845—Robinson Robinson was robbed of $1,500 in silver and gold in a Coldwater tavern.

1846—The first jail was erected. Spring election voted against licensing liquor selling. November 30, American Hotel burned.

1847—County vote decided to build a courthouse; majority, 27, the exact figure by which the proposition to build a new one was carried 40 years later. The "old white schoolhouse" was erected, on present site of Washington school, also a steam flouring-mill on the corner of Jefferson and Pearl Streets.

HILTON, THE BEST CLOTHIER
AND SHOE FURNISHER

Who believes in paved streets and cement sidewalks and useful good roads.

Who believes in the street cleaning, the weed scythe and the paint pot. In shade trees for beauty and comfort, whose groves were the first temples of God.

Who believes in neighborliness, in the tongue that commends, in the ear that is deaf to slander and in the hand that helps the other.

Who believes in his city, Coldwater, in its historic past, its fortunate present, its significant future and in its beautiful homes, churches and schools which are its title to endure.

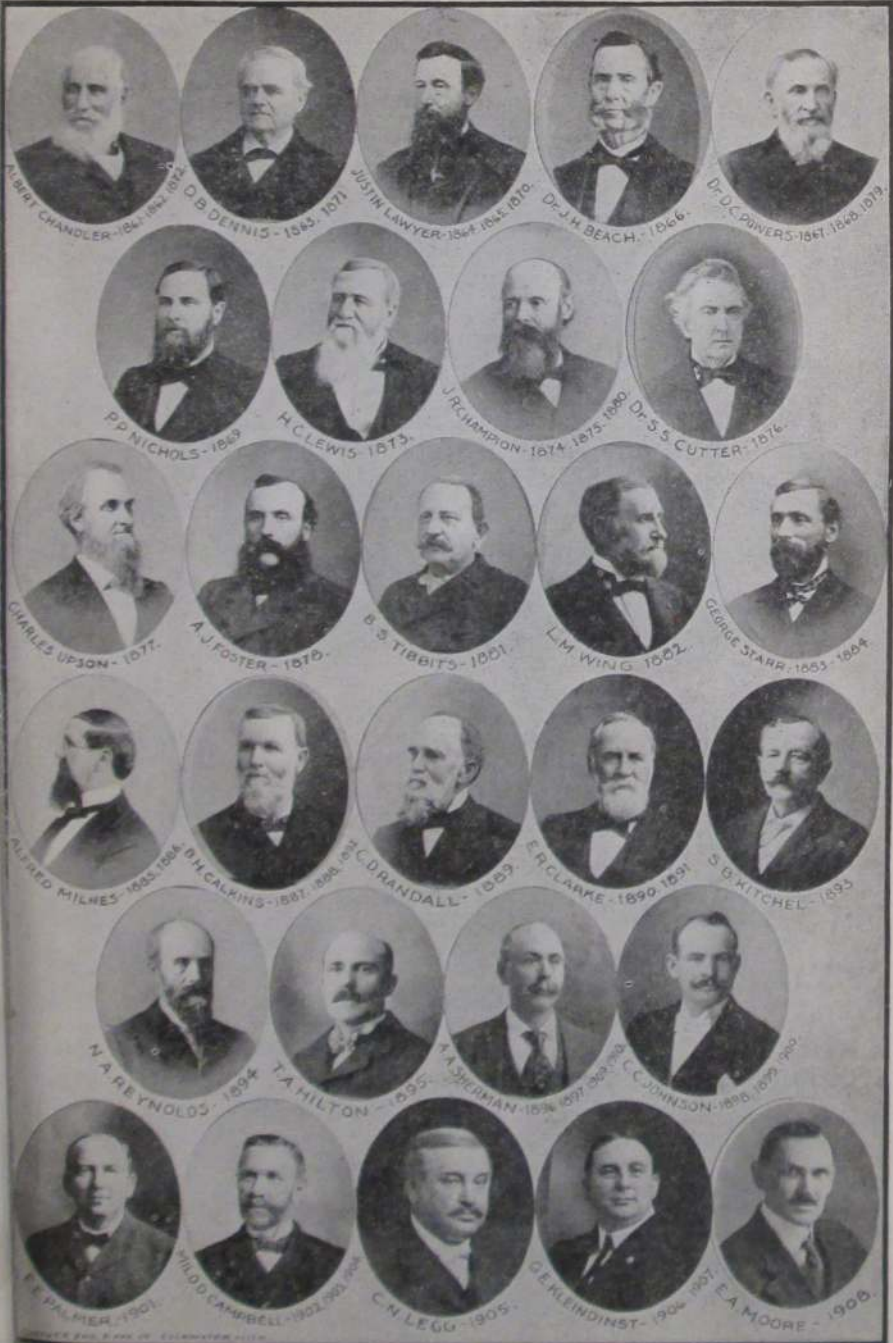

Who believes in the Town Beautiful and Healthy as the community's best and most permanent asset—the dower that incurs no envy and that which no vicissitude can take away.

Who believes in the farm, the farmer, the farm woman and the farm boy, and wants them to feel ever welcome to his store.

Who believes in quality always, the square deal in business, large or small, and in energy and courteous treatment in his store to all.

Who believes that women as well as men should never stop in the middle of the street car track to tie their shoe-string, and that

YOU should believe that HILTON'S Quality Value is a safe place to buy your Shoes, Clothing, Furnishings and Traveling Goods.

PART OF BUSINESS SECTION IN 1863

CHOOSE to your heart's content from the beautiful STYLECRAFT garments—the Clothes Luxurious for women, misses & children.

Take plenty of time when you come here, as there are so many styles to select from that an hour slips by before you know it. Don't imagine for a moment that you see the whole range of different STYLECRAFT garments in a few minutes. There is such vast variety that you wonder where so many different styles could come from!

But it is the materials, the designs and workmanship, rather than the number of garments we show, that your particular attention is called to, although the quality is also something of which we are pardonably proud. The STYLECRAFT makers use the finest cloths and employ none but the most expert designers and tailors, same as they have been doing for over thirteen years as manufacturers of high-class suits and coats. Can you wonder, then, why STYLECRAFT garments are always conceded to be

IN EVERY WAY EQUAL TO CUSTOM MADE.

Come and see what Dame Fashion has decreed shall be worn and note how cleverly the Stylecraft makers have interpreted her imperious "Royal Commands!"

LOOKING INTO THE FUTURE

What does it hold for you, with a lifetime before you? Good Fortune, or Ill Fortune, to be sure makes a difference, but much depends on yourself, not only as to what you earn, but what you save. No man is financially successful who does not have some surplus at the end of the year; no business is successful which spends all it makes.

Why not carry your surplus with the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York?

The oldest active Life Insurance Company in America.

The strongest in margin of Assets, having the lowest net cost to its policy-holders, and the lowest ratio of official expense.

May we confer with you in regard to your insurance needs?

THREE REASONS WHY

Michigan Belle Flour IS THE BEST:

First: It has a sweeter and pleasanter taste.

Second: The bread stays moist longer than that made from any other flour.

Third: It will make more loaves to the sack.
