Explanatory Note

This memorial Record Book of L. O. Loomis post was sadly neglected by the Recording officer of the post; so that the war record of only a few members of the post was recorded in this very valuable book when they should have been by the Adjutant of the post. The record of members in the Description Book of the post is ~~now~~ incomplete in many cases, which made it difficult and impossible for the recorder to give an accurate record of each member of the post.

Before leaving Quincy the 4th of August, 1929. the writer put in a good many hours filling out the war record of every member of L. O. Loomis post; as he found it in the Description Book.

On July 11, 1929. the post disbanded, when the Comrades of the American Legion post of Quincy took over the records of the L O. Loomis post and agreed to maintain the charter as long as any of the members of the post survive. Of a total membership of 243, only ten survive at time of this writing, August 1, 1929.

PREFACE.

The toils and duties of our soldier life are over. As the object of the Grand Army of the Republic is to preserve its memories, not for the purpose of keeping alive the animosities of the War, but as an ever living influence for good in all our hearts, in a true soldierly spirit of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty; so the Grand Army Memorial Record is designed to aid in collecting, preserving and perpetuating the Military History of each Grand Army Comrade.

The Grand Army of the Republic is distinctly the representative of the rank and file of the army of 1861–5. It is here that private soldiers are found in the majority, and it remains for them to furnish the facts and material from which the future historian may write for our posterity, a truthful and complete history of the Great Civil War of America. To fully accomplish the design and objects of this work requires,

First—A general adoption of a uniform plan, by all Grand Army Posts.

Second.—A hearty co-operation in a true soldierly spirit, which includes, devotion to truth, duty and discipline.

Third—A thorough appreciation and comprehension of the Grand Army of the Republic, and of the truths and principles it teaches.

Each Post procuring a Record Book, should adopt suitable By-Laws expressive of the object sought, and providing in substance.

First—The permanent appointment of a Post Historian, who should carefully and truthfully cause to be filled out the "Memorial Record Book" of the Post, by indexing the names of the members, assigning one Lithographed page to each Comrade, corresponding if possible with his number on the Post Descriptive List, and inserting therein his Military History in brief. Each Lithographed page when so filled should be subscribed by the Comrade named therein. If dead, his record should be certified as correct, by the Historian, according to his best information and belief. By a vote of the Post, at a regular meeting, a record of which should be kept in the Adjutant's Minutes, an additional page, pages or portion of a page in the Appendix of the Memorial Record Book, may be assigned to any Comrade, in which to continue his Military History, when the space in the Lithographed page is insufficient; and a reference made thereto in the Index, and on the Lithographed page as follows: See Appendix, Page..... (The person after whom the Post is named and Soldiers and Sailors whose graves are decorated by the Post on Memorial Day, may also be assigned a page in the Record by vote of the Post.)

Second—Upon the death of a Comrade in good standing, the Post should hold Memorial services as prescribed in the Ritual. When the Commander calls for the Military Record of the deceased, it should be read by the Adjutant from the "Memorial Record Book." Memorial Resolutions, when adopted, should be inserted in their appropriate place on the Lithographed page assigned to the deceased Comrade. If too long for this space, then by vote of the Post additional space may be assigned in the Appendix, and a record thereof kept and references made thereto as above provided. Whenever a Comrade's death is the result, either directly or indirectly of the disability for which he draws a pension, that fact should always be stated in the Memorial Resolutions. The Post surgeon should be a member of the Committee on Resolutions. A copy of the "Memorial Record" page or pages so completed, and signed by the Commander and Adjutant, should be sent to the widow of the deceased, or to the family. The Commander and Adjutant should in all cases not otherwise provided for, certify to the correctness of the transcript or copies furnished.

Third.—The last surviving member of the Post should be constituted and created a Trustee, for the purpose of exercising the care and having the custody of, the "Grand Army Memorial Record Book." It should be his duty, and he should be empowered, to carefully. and faithfully deposit said "Memorial Record Book" in the Public Library of the place where the Post is located. Provided however, that in case there should be none, or he does not deem it a suitable depository, then he should deposit said Book in the State Library at the State Capitol, subject to the care and control of the Commander-in-Chief of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic Provided further, That in case said trustee be so ordered, he should cause said Memorial Record Book, to be deposited in the office of the Librarian of Congress, to become the property of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and unconditionally subject to its control.

It is by this means that the Military History of each Comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic can be procured, preserved and perpetuated, and an authentic record preserved, of the widows and orphans of our late Comrades.

It is hoped and expected that Congressional and State Legislation will make these Memorial Record Books documentary evidence in certain cases, and of certain facts therein contained, and that certified copies of the Record may be accepted in the courts and governmental departments, as prima facie evidence of the facts therein alleged. Great care and mathematical accuracy should be observed in the matter of names, dates, localities and events.

The limited space for the Military Record on the Lithographed page, is designed only for a list of battles and engagements in which the Comrade participated; when and where wounded; when and where imprisoned (if a prisoner,); and any incidents of particular interest.

The Burial Record is designed not only for the deceased Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, but for those whose graves we have been accustomed to decorate on each Memorial Day.

The Grand Army Memorial Record is respectfully dedicated to the Veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic.

The Author.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

C. O. Loomis Post, Grand Army of The Republic, Celebrates

Members of C. O. Loomis Post, No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, entertained the ladies of the Lincoln Club and Daughters of Veterans, auxiliary organizations, at an oyster spread Thurday afternoon at K. of P. hall. About 30 were present, including members of the post and the other two organizations. Oysters, crackers, doughnuts and coffee were served, and all enjoyed the occasion very much.

At the conclusion of the repast, Mrs. Faxon favored the company with an appropriate war-time original poem, C. W. Owen gave a brief history of the Post, D. H. Crane recited two or three poems, and Mrs. Oxenham spoke briefly, voicing her appreciation of the privilege of being present, all of which was much enjoyed by those present.

While looking over the Post records to get data for his historical sketch, Mr. Owen discovered that it lacks only a few days of being the 50th anniversary of the organization of C. O. Loomis Post, but arrangements having been already made for this spread on he 14th, it will have to answer for the 50th anniversary celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Burger kindly donated their services as caterers, and the K. of P. Lodge tendered the use of their pleasant and commodious hall for the occasion free of charge, for which they have the hearty thanks of the local Post.

Following is the historical sketch prepared by Comrade C. W. Owen:

C. O. Loomis Post, No. 2, Department of Michigan, Grand Army of the Republic, has the honor of being the oldest Grand Army post in Michigan, having been chartered Jan. 22, 1876, 50 years ago the 22d of this month.

The Post was started with 14 charter members, as follows:

Daniel W. Sawyer, aged 37 at time of muster, was the first commander of the Post. He died in California in 1904.

Benjamin F. Clark, 45, died many years ago.

David C. Myers, 55; dead; no date.

W. H. Thurber, 33; died at his home in Quincy Aug. 22, 1913.

Ed. A. Turner, 31, died in California a few years ago.

Thomas Lennon, 40; died Feb. 16, 1908.

Charles D. Skinner, 37; died Dec. 4, 1915.

George W Rathbun, 31; died Jan. 23, 1912.

Frank M. Rustine, 35; died June 16, 1917.

John C. Nichols, 40; died April 4, 1909.

Hiram Rustine, 28; died April 26, 1878.

Andrew Turner 36; died Feb. 27, 1919

William Wilson, 28; dead; no date.

Horace H. Hunt, 37; died Nov. 27, 1905.

Eighteen more members joined the Post during the year of its organization, 1876—Centennial year; three more in 1877; 8 in 1878; 7 in 1879; 4 in 1880; 2 in 1881; 6 in 1882; 56 in 1883, which appears to have been the banner year of the Post; 7 in 1885; 10 in 1886; 5 in 1887; 12 in 1888; 7 in 1889; 4 in 1890; 14 in 1891; 6 in 1892; none in 1893; 5 in 1894. The total membership, or consecutive number of members mustered at this time—January, 1905—was 206.

Increase in membership from this time was slow, the total number mustered or received by transfer at the present time is 243. Of this number death has claimed the great majority, the present memberhip of the Post being only 17. Past Commander L. D. Reynolds has the honor of beng the oldest member, 91, and Commander Harvey J. Wood, the youngest, 78 the 22d of this month.

The Post was named in honor of Col. Cyrus O. Loomis, who organized the famous Loomis Battery at Coldwater in 1861. His war record is givn as follows: "Captain Co. A, 1st Michigan Light Artillery, May 28, 1861; Colonel 1st Michigan Light Artillery, Oct. 8, 1861; brevet Brigadier General U. S. Volunteers, June 20, 1865, for gallanry and meritorious services; mustered out and honorably discharged July 29, 1865."

During its active days the Post took a leading part in all patriotic demonstrations, such as Memorial Day observance, county reunions, encampments, etc. Through the efforts of this organization funds were raised for the soldiers' monument which occupies a commanding position in Lakeview cemetery. On the north front of the monument is a tablet bearing this inscription: "To the Memory of Our Soldier Dead. Erected by C. O. Loomis Post, No. 2, G. A. R., and the Citizens of Quincy, Michigan, 1884." In front of the monument, facing the cemetery entrance, is one of the guns of the famous Loomis Battery, and a few feet south of the monument stands the caisson, both mounted on the original carriage which carried them into numerous battles of the Civil War of the 60s. Nearly 200 veterans of that strife for the preservation of our union of States are at rest in Lakeview cemetery, and at present there are only 17 members remaining in the Post.

In 1887 a beautiful memorial record book of over 300 pages was presented to the Post, on the outside cover of which is embossed the following in gilt letters: "Presented to C. O. Loomis Post, Department of Michigan, by C. V. R. Pond, H. D. Pessell, M. M. Brown, J. J. Badgley, J. B. Sutton, C. W. Woodworth, Rev. J. E. Fisher, Fred Kohl, W. J. Barnes, J. H. Rathbun, C. McKay, Dr. E. Blackman, Dan W. Sawyer, George F. Nivison, Norman G. Cooper." One page in this memorial record book is set apart for a brief war record of each member of the Post.

Up to recent years the Post took the initiative in the proper observance of Memorial Day each year. For several years past, however, the younger generation, greatly assisted by the Daughters of Veterans and American Legion of World War boys and auxiliaries, have come forward nobly and are carrying forward the good work of perpetuating the memory of those who have defended our glorious Stars and Stripes on the field of battle, thus relieving the old veterans of the '60's, who are now guests of honor on such occasions.

The present members of C. O. Loomis Post, though few in numbers (only 17), are proud of the distinction of being members of the oldest Post in the State of Michigan, and are unanimous in their determination to hold their charter until taps are sounded for the last member.

The Grand Army of the Republic and other organizations made up of war veterans cannot be recruited and perpetuated like other civic organizations, as none except those who have seen service in the armies of our country and marched and fought in defense of "Old Glory" are admitted to their ranks. Hence these organizations must cease as their members pass away. Many Posts throughout our State and other States have already given up their charters and disbanded. Many others will be compelled to do so soon, and in a few years this grand old organization will be a thing of the past.

Following is list of officers and members of C. O. Loomis Post No. 2 at date of 50th anniversary, January 22, 1926:

Quincy Has The Oldest G. A. R. Post In Michigan

Organization Was Second To Be Formed In State, First One Not Being In Existence Now.

(Special to The Citizen Patriot)

Quincy, Mich., Feb. 3.—An unique position in the historical affairs of the State is given the village of Quincy because it is the home of the oldest G. A. R. post now in existence in the State. The local post, which was organized in 1876, was the second of its nature in the State, the first one having been organized in Detroit shortly before that, but passing out of existence several years ago.

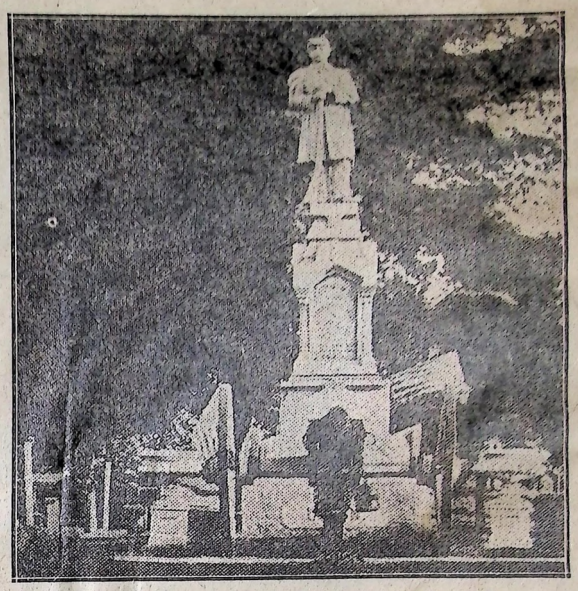

The local post held its first and organization meeting at Quincy Jan. 22 of the above mentioned year, with 15 charter members as follows: Daniel W. Sawyer, 37; Benjamin F. Clark, 45; Daniel C. Myers, 55; William H. Thurber, 33; Thomas Freeman, 40; Ed. A. Turner, 31; Charles D. Skinner, 37; George W. Rathbun, 31; Frank M. Rustine, 35; John C. Nichols, 40; Hiram Rustine and Horace Hunt, 37. None of the charter members is now living.

Daniel W. Sawyer, who was elected the first commander later moved to Vernondale, Calif., where he died in December, 1904. The organization was named the C. O. Loomis post in honor of Col. Cyrus O. Loomis who formed the famous Loomis Battery at Coldwater. His war record is given as follows: Captain, Battery A, 1st Michigan Light Artillery, May 28, 1861; Colonel 1st Michigan Light Artillery, Dec. 8, 1862; Brevet Brigadier General U. S. Volunteers, June 20, 1865 for gallantry and meritorious services. Mustered out and honorably discharged July 29, 1865.

During the year 1876, the post increased in membership to 322 and during subsequent years, the membership has gradually increased until nearly all the Civil War soldiers in Quincy and vicinity have become members. The descriptive book of order shows a total enrollment of 241 but because of death and removal from the village, the membership average at any given time is much less than that number. During its most active days, the post took a leading part in all patriotic demonstrations such as Memorial Day observances, county reunions, encampments and so forth. Through the efforts of the organization, funds were raised for the soldiers' monument which occupies a commanding position in Lakeview cemetery. On the north front of the monument is a tablet, bearing this inscription: "To the memory of our soldier dead. Erected by C. O. Loomis post No. 2, G. A. R., and the citizens of Quincy, Michigan, 1884." In front of the monument facing the cemetery entrance, is one of the guns of the famous Loomis Battery and a few feet south of the monument stands the caisson, both mounted on the original carriage which carried them into numerous battles during the war of the 60's. Nearly 200 of the veterans of that terrible strife for the preservation of our Union, are at rest in Lakeview cemetery and at present there are only 24 members remaining in the post.

Lorenzo D. Reynolds, now in his 88th year, is the oldest member of the organiaztion now living and Harvey J. Wood, aged 75, is the youngest. The average age of the present members is about 80 years and the combined ages are 1905 years. The post still holds regular meetings on the first and third Saturdays of each month in rooms on the second floor of the village hall. Members of the organization still go in a body to the Memorial Day and other special services, but their marching days are over and they are furnished automobile transportation.

The roster of living members includes: Lorenzo D. Reynolds, Co. H, 11th Michigan Infantry, 83; Dr. D. H. Wood, Co. H, new 4th Michigan Infantry, 79; Henry H. Nichols, Co. A, 9th New York heavy Artillery, 78; Albert J. Warner, Co. D, 126th New York Infantry, 78; Harvey J. Wood, Co. K, 15th New York Engineers, 75; Ward Noble, Co. I, 74th New York Infantry, 77; Lewis C. Failor, Co. C, 12th Ohio Cavalry, 76; Andrew Jackson, Co. D, 3rd U. S. colored Cavalry, 77; Charles W. Owen, Co. G, 1st Michigan Vet. Infantry, 75; John W. Wagoner, Co. MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

The 1st Mich. Sharpshooters.

Editor National Tribune: Would like to hear something about my father's regiment, 1st Mich. Sharpshooters.—Herbert Fauts, Estaceda, Ore.

This regiment, one of the fighting regiments, was organized at Kalamazoo and Dearborn from April 14 to Oct. 7, 1863, for three years, and mustered out July 28, 1865. It had two Colonels, Charles V. DeLand and Asahel W. Nichols. Recruiting for this regiment began in the Fall of 1862, and on July 7, 1863, six companies were mustered in, which were ordered to Indiana and were most effective in checking the advance of Morgan's Raid. They then returned to Dearborn, where the other four companies were soon after recruited. The regiment was ordered to Chicago in August, and placed in guard of the Confederate prisoners at Camp Douglass, but joined the Army of the Potomac in March, 1864, and crossed the Rapidan with it in May for the Wilderness campaign. On May 12, at Spotsylvania, the 1st lost 34 killed, 117 wounded and 3 missing. Maj. John Piper being among the killed. Another bloody contest was that of June 17, at the assault on Petersburg, where the casualties of the regiment were 75 killed and wounded and 81 missing. Maj. Levant C. Rhines, who was killed in this action, was in command, and the part played by the Sharpshooters was both prominent and highly meritorious. When Petersburg fell the regiment was the first to enter the city, its flag appearing on the Courthouse, while a few minutes later the colors of the 2d Mich. appeared on the top of the Customhouse. A distinguishing feature of the regiment was its company, composed of Indians, who, by their cool and effective marksmanship, added greatly to the efficiency of the Sharpshooters. The regiment belonged to Willcox's Division, Ninth Corps, and lost 137 killed and 165 from disease, etc. Its total of killed and wounded was 491, and 51 of its members died in Confederate prisons. —Editor National Tribune.

The larger part of his life was spent in mechanical work, being an expert machinist. He was a great lover of the out-of-door life, being a great fisherman and hunter.

On December 28, 1878, he was united in marriage to Libbie Monroe, who passed away March 28, 1924. He was a good citizen, a kind neighbor, a loyal friend, always ready to lend a helping hand to others.

His survivors are one sister, Mrs. James Blanck, of Battle Creek; one nephew, of Battle Creek; one niece, of Jackson, Mich., and a niece residing in St. Petersburg, Fla.; two cousins, Sarah Etheridge Fisher and Theodora L. Etheridge, of this city; Warren Etheridge and Theodore C. Etheridge, cousins, of Quincy, and hosts of friends. The services were held at his late home on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. C. W. Mackenzie. The pallbearers were members of Butterworth Post No. 109 of which he was senior vice-commander, and members of the I. O. O. F., who also took charge of the services at the grave. Thus passes one more aged veteran to his bivouac.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

OLD RESIDENT HERE DIES IN WEST

Word was received recently from Gardena, Calif., of the death of Edmond A. Turner at his home in that City Aug. 9 following a lingering illness of many months.

Mr. Turner will be remembered by many of the older residents of this section, he having at one time been a resident of Quincy moving to California 35 years ago. He was a brother of the late Andrew Turner, who died early last spring. Funeral was conducted by the Odd Fellows at his home assisted by the G. A. R., Post, deceased being an active member of both orders, and the remains laid to rest beside those of his wife, who preceeded him by several years. He served with distinction through the Civil War, and was well and favorably known by everyone in his home community. Mrs. Conant, a niece, survives him.

SYLVESTER M'NITT.

Sylvester W. McNitt, one of Algansee's oldest and most highly esteemed residents, dropped dead at his home in that township on Nov. 8, apoplexy being cause of death, which came as a shock to all, as he had to all appearances been enjoying his usual health.

Deceased was the second son of James and Matilda McNitt and was born in Algansee township Nov. 16, 1840, and with the exception of a residence of 14 years in Iowa and Illinois had spent his entire life in that township, where, by his sterling worth, his frank and genial ways, and his generous, open-hearted conduct to all, he won to himself a host of true friends. He listened to his country's call and on Nov. 12, 1863, enlisted in Battery F, 1st Mich. Light Artillery, serving nearly two years, being discharged July 1, 1865.

Dec. 20, 1867, he was united in marriage to Sarah E. Craig, and to them were born three children, one dying in infancy. The others are George R., who with his wife, resides at the old home, and Nellie, wife of Everard M. Hawes, also residents of Algansee. These, with the mother, three brothers, Edwin, Albertus and Sydney, one granddaughter, Marcella McNitt, one grandson, Lyle Hawes, and a host of friends and neighbors are left to mourn his death.

For some time he had realized the seriousness of his condition and often expressed the wish that he might go quickly. That wish was granted and on Tuesday, Nov. 10th, he was tenderly laid to rest in the beautiful Lester cemetery, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, the services being conducted by P. D. Gray.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM H. THURBER.

Wm. H. Thurber was born at Madison, Ohio, Feb. 9, 1841, and died at Quincy, Mich., August 22, 1913, at the age of 72 years, 6 months and 13 days.

His mother died when he was three years old and he then lived with his sister and when old enough learned the carpenter's trade, which he followed all his life. He served during the civil war as a member of Battery G, First Michigan Light Artillery, and was one of the charter members of C. O. Loomis Post, G. A. R., in which he always took an active interest.

He was united in marriage March 11, 1866, to Abbie Swartout and to this union were born five children, two dying in infancy and one, Harry E., at the age of 24 years. He is survived to mourn his loss by his wife and two children, Earl, of Michigan City, Ind., and Mrs. A. E. Rogers, of Quincy.

He was one of the pioneers of Quincy, being married here and lived here ever since, having resided in the house where he died for 45 years. He was quiet and unassuming and highly esteemed in the community where the greater part of his life was spent. He had been in poor health for a number of years and confined to his home for a long time before death came to his relief.

The funeral services were held at the family residence on east Jefferson street Monday afternoon, conducted by his pastor, Rev. R. D. Freeman, and interment was made in Lakeview cemetery. Six, comrades of C. O. Loomis post acted as pall-bearers.

I certify upon honor that the foregoing record of my Military service is correct, and I request as a last military honor a Grand Army Funeral and Memorial service at my burial.

FROM OVER

In only fourteen Chinese cities are there telephone systems of appreciable size.

Cars of a new type, with a capacity of 70 tons, are being put in service

The additional revenues required to carry out the program of military and naval preparation of which I have spoken, would, as at present estimated, amount to $56,000,000. If added to the revenues of the second half of the fiscal year, would yield the treasury at the end of the year an available balance of $76,644,606.78.

The emergency revenue act, if continued, would produce during the two months of the fiscal year remaining after the first of May, about $15,000,000. These two sums, if continued beyond its present time limitation, would produce, during the half year then remaining, about $41,000,000. The duty of one cent per pound on sugar, if continued, would produce 606.78.

OBITUARY

L. C. Failor was born in Stark county, Ohio, July 16, 1847. At the age of 2 the family moved to a farm near Lima, Ohio.

His early education was obtained in the public school. Mr. Failor answered his country's call in 1862, serving with the 12th Ohio Cavalry in the Civil War. He was honorably discharged in 1865.

On the 4th of November, 1869, he was married to Mary A. Jay, of Lima, Ohio, who departed this life March 13, 1885. Four children were born to this union, Thomas J. of Detroit; John W. of Yelna, Washington; Walter L. of Olympia, Washington. and Maud Forney, of Elkhart, Ind.

On June 12, 1907, Mr. Failor was married to Ella O. Jenne, of Quincy, who with a brother, Frank Failor. of Lima, Ohio, a sister, Louisa Ridenour, of Lima, together with 21 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren still survive.

Mr. Failor moved to Quincy, July, 1890, and became a member of G. A. R. Post No. ~~85~~ 2 Quincy.

He was a sincere Christian and had family worship morning and evening as far back as the author can remember.

Only a week prior to his death he said to the writer, "There is no death; Death is only a change, as gradual and natural as the fading and falling of the autumn leaf."

Mr. Failor's three sons are today holding positions of responsibility and trust as a tribute to their father's beilef and self-sacrifice in aiding them to secure a college education.

In conclusion, the words of Tennyson come to mind:

"And the stately ships move on
To the haven under the hill,
But O, for the touch of a vanished hand
And the sound of a voice that is still."

Funeral services were held at the home, Rev. A. E. Wynn officiating. Burial was in Quincy cemetery.

CIVIL WAR VET IS GIVEN A MIL-ITARY BURIAL

Timothy Talant, Father of A. J. Talant, Laid to Rest Tuesday Afternoon

Jan 13, 1923

The ranks of the local G. A. R. were broken again Saturday, when another of the honored veterans, Timothy Talant, passed away after two years of failing health. His death occurred at the home of Cassius Paige, with whom he had been residing the past year or so.

The funeral services were held at the home of the son, A. J. Talant, on Depot street, Tuesday afternoon, and the deceased was honored with a military burial.

The services were in charge of the G. A. R., assisted by Rev. I. T. Weldon and Rev. Cassius Paige, and Mrs. Leon DeWolfe sang three beautiful solos. The regular G. A. R. services were given at the house instead of at the cemetery, with a prayer by Rev. Paige and splendid tribute to the deceased and veterans of the civil war by Rev. Weldon. Eleven of the old veterans were present at the services.

The pallbearers were: C. W. Owen, A. A. Wilcox, H. J. Wood, H. C. Burwell, Wm. Crabbs, W. J. Austin. Twelve of the members of the American Legion escorted the remains to the cemetery, the escort consisting of the firing squad, color bearers and color guards. At the cemetery there was a prayer by Rev. Weldon, a military salute and taps by Al Helme.

Relatives from out of town were: Mrs. Amy Joice of Lawton; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Doty, of Coldwater, Mich.; William Dennis, Otsego, Mich.

Timothy Talant was born near Cicero, N. Y., June 7, 1844. The youngest of a family of seven, each of whom Hiram Wiser was born in Penfield, N. Y., June 4, 1828, and died at his home in Quincy, Mich., Aug. 10, 1912, after a lingering illness, at the age of 84 years, 2 months and six days.

At the age of 22 years he was united in marriage to Sally A. Doris, to whom eight children were born. In 1854 he, with his wife and one child, came to Michigan, settling on a farm north of the village of Quincy.

In 1864 he enlisted as a soldier, serving his country faithfully till his discharge. He afterwards engaged in the draying business in Quincy, which business he followed for twenty years. He was honest in all his dealings with his fellow men and was greatly missed when it became necessary for him to retire from actiye service,

He was converted under Rev. J. Weber's preaching, joined the M. E. church, of which, when health permitted, he was a faithful attendant, rarely missing a Sunday or prayer meeting.

He was a great and patient sufferer, being unable to be around only as he was assisted by his faithful wife. Last Thursday he fell into a deep sleep from which he never rallied, dying as he had lived, quietly.

He leaves to mourn his loss an aged wife, two sons, Harlow, of Bridger, Mont., and R. D., of Quincy; four daughters, Mrs. Demorest and Mrs. Hunt, of Chicago; Mrs. Lieving, of Quincy, and Mrs. Frank Paddock, of Allen; all of whom will miss him when coming to the home. A. A. WILCOX CIVIL WAR VETERAN PASSES AWAY

Death Occured Saturday Morning Following Period of Poor Health

The village was shocked to learn last Saturday of the death of an old resident, Al Wilcox. He passed away Saturday morning, April 18th, death being due to a complication of diseases. He was a prominent member of the G. A. R. and Masonic order and was always a worker for the betterment and improvement of the town.

His wife preeded him in death some years ago and his daughter and husband have been keeping his home up since. He has long been identified with the business interests of the village and his passing will be sincerely mourned by everyone.

Albert A. Wlcox, son of Chloe and Jehiel Wilcox, was born at Angola, New York, April 21, 1844 and passed away at his home in Quincy, Michigan on the morning of April 18, 1925. He was the 12th of a family of thirteen children, seven boys and six girls.

He lived on a farm in New York until, at the age of seventeen, he came to Burr Oak, Michigan. In 1863, at the age of nineteen he enlisted in the 11th Michigan Cavalry and served his country until the close of the war. He was confined in Libby prison six months. He returned to New York in 1865 and attended Bryant and Stratton business college for one term. In 1869 he engaged in the boot and shoe business at Burr Oak. He was united in marriage to Pearl L. Arnold of Quincy, Michigan, April 21, 1870. To this union, four children were born, Mrs. Louise Haight who tenderly cared for him during his long illness; William, of La Grange, Ind.; Jay, who died at the age of one year and Fred A. of Los Angeles, California.

In the year of 1876, he with his family came to Quincy after which, during fourteen years he was employed as a traveling salesman by a Buffalo shoe firm. Later he engaged, first in the grocery then in the shoe business in Quincy. Besides his children, he leaves to mourn his passing, one sister, Mrs. Chloe Cetwick of Bradford, Penn., two granddaughters, other relatives and a host of friends. His wife preceded him in death seven years. He was a loyal member of C. O. Loomis Post with a strong devotion to the flag and all for which it stands. He was never happier than when he was able to attend a reunion of his old comrades. He was a member of Mt. Vernon Lodge No. 166, F. and A. M. and it was his request that the lessons of the order be exemplified at his funeral.

Funeral services were held at the late home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Dr. R. W. McLain officiating. Mt. Vernon Lodge, No. 166 gave its impressive funeral service.

The floral offerings and the large number of friends and relatives attending the services, attested to the esteem in which Mr. Wilcox was held in this community, where he had resided, so

OBITUARY

Steven W. Rogers was born in Baldwinsville, New York, Feb. 18, 1844, one of a family of five children. Like many another lad of his time the years of his school life were few and he was obliged to leave school at twelve years of age and became a driver on the tow-paths of the Erie Canal. When the call for volunteers was sounded a few years later he answered by enlisting with Co. A. 122 Infantry, N. Y. Volunteers and served his country as a soldier for three years.

It is interesting to note that Mr. Rogers was a member of the firing squad which fired the salute when the National Cemetery was dedicated at Gettysburg and Pres. Lincoln made his famous Gettysburg address Nov. 19, 1863.

After the war he was married, Jan. 15, 1868 to Lucinda Fellows and thirty years ago they came to Michigan and have lived in and near Quincy ever since. Mr. Rogers had been in excellent health until the Spring of 1921 when he began slowly to fail and died at his home on N. Main St. Sept. 23, 1921 at the age of 77 years, 7 months and 5 days. Immediate relatives are a sister of Baldwinville, N. Y.; a son, A. E. Rogers of Quincy and one grandson, Harry Rogers of Chicago.

Memorial services were held at the late residence Sunday afternoon 2:30. Following this the remains were escorted to Lakeview cemetery by a military escort and a firing squad from the local post of the American Legion. Then the G. A. R. boys, comrades of Mr. Rogers, conducted the burial service, the Legion squad fired a salute and taps was sounded. Thus the body of one more veteran of America's greatest war was laid to rest.

OBITUARIES.

William Herrick.

William Herrick was born at Memphis, N. Y., October 12, 1848, and died at Quincy, Michigan, January 10, 1917.

Mr. Herrick repersented a lineage which extended back in unbroken succession to the time of Norman invasion of Britain, when the traditional ancestor of the family, Erick, the Forester, raised an army to repel the Norman invaders. From Erick, the Forester, sprang one Eyryk, of Great Stretton, Leicester, England, who was contemporaneous with Henry III and the first of record of this Herrick family. Through many generations, with varied othography, the name descended to Sir William Heyrick, who was born in 1557 and died March 2, 1653. He was member of parliament from 1601 to 1630 and knighted in 1605. The fifth son of Sir William was Henry Herrick, who settled in Massachusetts, the first of the family to make America his home. Henry and his wife were among the thirty who founded the first church in Salem in 1629, and later among the founders of the first church in Beverly.

From Henry, through Ephriam, born 1638; Stephen, born March 15, 1670; Edward, born Oct. 17, 1695; and Ebenezer, born Oct. 2, 1731; descended John Herrick, who was a soldier of the Revolution, being a member of George Washington's Guard. He enlisted Jan. 1, 1771, and served throughout the war, a participant in many an historical battle.

During his military experience John Herrick was associated with Theophilus Frink, a drummer of Washington's Guard, which associatation led to Herrick's marriage to Frink's sister, Esther on Oct. 5, 1786. To them twelve children were born, of whom William, was the father of Jerome, who was the father of the subject of this sketch. On his maternal side he descended from Ethan Allen, of Fort Ticonderoga fame.

William Herrcik spent his boyhood years near the scene of his nativity until the breaking out of the Civil War, when the martial spirit of his forbears quickly manifested itself. On Dec. 18, 1863, at Hannibal, Oswego County, N. Y., he enlisted as a private in company M, Second N. Y. Heavy Artillery, in which he served until dis-

QUINCY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1913

DEATH OF C. L. TRUESDELL.

Quincy Loses Prominent Business Man and Good Citizen.

Although Mr. Truesdell's condition was known to be very critical for several days before the summons came and his death was expected, the annoucement of his demise Saturday forenoon cast a gloom of sadness over the community. Death came as a kindly relief to his great suffering about 8:15 Saturday morning, April 19th, and the sad news quickly spread throughout the community. Probably no other man in this part of Branch county was better known or had more close friends than Mr. Truesdell. As cashier of the First National Bank of this place the past 30 years he was closely identified with the business interests of the community and was well known by everybody. He will be greatly missed in the business and social circles of Quincy.

CHARLES L. TRUESDELL.

Charles L. Truesdell was born at Jackson, Mich., July 18, 1846, and had he lived until July 18 next would have been 67 years old. He was the oldest of five children born to Mr. and Mrs. James T. Truesdell, two sons and three daughters, only two of whom survive, Mrs. R. V. Eligh, of Coldwater, and George C. Truesdell, of Freeport, Ill. The year following Mr. Truesdell's birth the family moved to Ithaca, N. Y., the former home of his father, where he engaged in the butcher and drover business and where the subject of this sketch spent his boyhood days, completed a common school education and assisted his father until 16 years of age, when, in 1862, he got the war fever and enlisted in Co. A, 109th New York Infantry, in which organization he served in the ranks to the ... [illegible] ...ity.

Mr. Truesdell had been afflicted for a many years with Bright's disease, which gradually grew worse and at times was a great sufferer. Four years ago last November he was taken criticaliy ill with neuritis and other complications and for a time his life was despaired of, but after several months' illness he recovered sufficiently to again look after business at the bank and three years ago this summer Mr. and Mrs. Truesdell took an extensive trip to the Pacific coast, visiting friends, the Youkon Exposition at Seattle and other places of interest, which they greatly enjoyed. Following this trip Mr. Truesdell was at the bank pretty steadily overseeing the business there. His last illness was of short duration, his last visit at the bank being two weeks ago last Monday, April 7th.

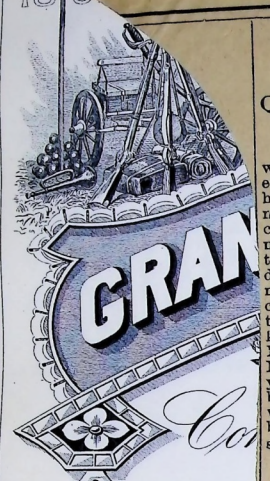

The funeral was held at the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, where the remains were viewed by many friends during the hour preceding the funeral exercises, which were conducted by the pastor, Rev. P. H. Case, whose remarks were very appropriate and comforting to the sorrowing family. Two selections, "Lead Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me," were sung very beautifully by Mrs. Leon DeWolfe and Miss Hazel App, with organ accompaniment by Mrs. C. A. Bishop. The house was filled to capacity by relatives, neighbors and friends, gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed loved one and true friend. Members of C. O. Loomis Post and other old soldiers attended in a body, as did the bank directors Representatives from the Coldwater banks and many friends from that city were in attendance. The remains were laid to rest by the side of his son Frank in the family lot in beautiful Lakeview.

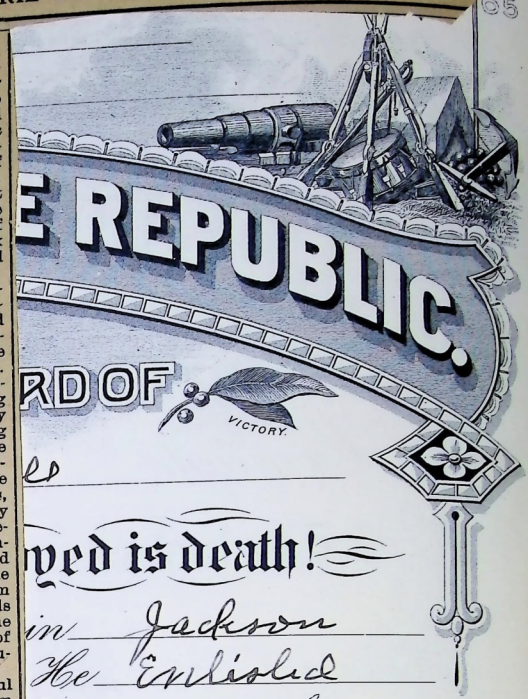

The numerous and very beautiful floral tributes attested the high esteem entertained by neighbors and friends for deceased.

The pall bearers were W.H.Lockerby, H. A. Graves, C. C. Jones, M. S. Segur, A. A. Squier and G. J. Fillmore.

As a token of respect all business places were closed during the hour of funeral.

DEATH OF E. B. CHURCH

Sept 12 1929

Funeral services for the late Edwin B. Church, who died early last Thursday, were held at his late residence on West Chicago street Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Church, who was 84 years of age had been in poor health for the past two or three years, but was confined to his bed for only a week, during which time he remained in an unconscious condition.

Edwin Bosworth Church was the son of Wm. Henry Church and Susan Lincoln Church, and was one of ten children, two of whom survive him, Miss Carrie P. Church, of California, and Mrs. Will McCaw, of Providence, R. I.

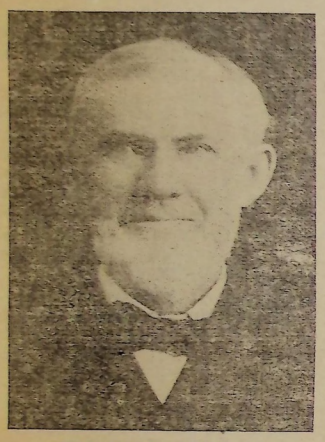

He was born November 12, 1844, in Bristol, Rhode Island, in a stately old colonial house, which is still standing, and which has been in the possession of the family for over 200 years. Here he lived until 1862, when he enlisted in Co. E, 12th Rhode Island Infantry, serving for the period of one year. He engaged in the battle of Fredricksburg and after his discharge on the 29th of July 1863, returned to his home in Bristol.

In the year 1868 he came west on a pleasure trip, stopping at Quincy to visit a former Rhode Island friend, Solomon Hatch, who was conducting a meat market here at that time. Mr. Church decided to remain in Quincy, associating himself with Mr.

In the death of Mr. Church, Quincy loses one of her highly esteemed and foremost citizens.

The services were conducted by Rev. C. C. Mitchell, of Union church, and interment was made in Lakeview cemetery. Rev. Mitchell was for nine years pastor of the Baptist church at Pawtucket, Rhode Island, and is acquainted wth the country near where Mr. Church's boyhood was spent, Pawtucket being but a few miles from Mr. Church's boyhood home.

Friends and relatives were present from Lansing, Jackson, Coldwater, Jonesville and Toledo, Ohio.

EDWIN B. CHURCH

Hatch in the meat business. On Dec. 5, 1870, he was married to Mrs. Adeline Broughton Burdick, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Broughton, who were among the first settlers in Quincy. Since his marriage he has made his home continually in the house on West Chicago street, where he died.

When Mr. Church withdrew from the business with Mr. Hatch, he devoted his time and interest to the development of the farm north of town known as the Church farm, a part of whch was originally owned by Mrs. Church's father, John Broughton, for whom Broughton street in that locality is named.

In connection with these farm interests he became associated with the late John Babcock and John Van Patten, in the buying and selling of livestock and in these interests made many trips to the West, where he lived ranch life for weeks at a time.

At the organization of the First National Bank in 1880, Mr. Church became one of the first directors and served as first vice president, then president, and afterward honorary member of the board until the end.

The death of Mrs. Church in 1917 saddened his life, but since that time, he has had the devoted care and companionship of his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Church Parsons, of Chicago, and granddaughters, Mrs. A. W. O. Rahn of Newark, N. J.; Mrs. F. E. Hathaway, of Chicago, and Miss Edwina Parsons, the latter taking up her residence with him. Besides these he is survived by a great grandson, Edwin Church Rahn, of Newark, the two sisters mentioned above and several nieces and nephews.

Of good old New England stock, Mr. Church was typical of the Puritan forefathers of whom Governor Bradford of Massachusetts was his direct ancestor.

Mr. Church was a direct descendant of Benjamin Church, an American soldier in the early Indian wars, who was born at Duxbury, Mass., in 1639. He was engaged in several skirmishes in King Philip's War.

He possessed a delightful sense of

In 1878 he was united in marriage to Estella A. V. Ford, of Erie, Pa., and to this union were born eleven children, of whom Minnie E. and Gladys O. preceded him in death. Those who are left to mourn their loss are the wife and nine children: Earl C., of Cleveland, Ohio; Onah M. at home; Mrs. O. G. Greaux, of Chicago, Ill.; Moze W., at home; Cyrus K., of Battle Creek; Bernice B., of Coldwater; Vera C., of Los Angeles, Cal.; Beryl M., of Battle Creek, and O'Donnavan F., of Saginaw, and two grandchildren.

Mr. Jackson was a charter member of the G. A. R. Post, No. 2, in which he was faithful in all that was assigned to him to do. He was always of a kind and pleasing personality and made many friends in the village. He bore his suffering with patience and was given every care by his son Moze and daughter Onah, who have remained in the home to care for their parents.

The funeral services were held in the Advent church Sunday at 2 p. m., Feb. 2, with Rev. W. B. Williams, of Pittsford, officiating. The American Legion had charge of the services at the vault in Lakeview cemetery, where the remains were placed to await burial.

Sleep on, dear father, for your work on earth is done. We have laid you to rest until Jesus comes on the Great Resurrection Morn.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to all our neighbors and friends for their many expressions of kindness and sympathy during our bereavement. For the beautiful floral offerings; the members of the American Legion; Elder W. B. Williams, for his comforting words, and Rawson & Brockway for their thoughtfulness.

Obituary

CORLAN E. BRAINARD

Corlan E. Brainard died at his home in Quincy, April 27, 1929, aged 84 years and 11 months. He was born in Algansee where he lived with his parents until 20 years of age, when he enlisted as a volunteer with Company A, 1st Michigan Sharp Shooters, and served his country faithfully until the war closed.

Four years after returning home he was united in marriage with Sarah Drury and together they traveled life's ourney for 55 years. Twenty-one years ago they came to Quincy to live.

One child, Inez was born to them, and since his wife's death 5 years ago, he and his daughter, her husband, Edward, and son, Corlan, have resided together.

His mental faculties were preserved to a remarkable degree to the last. He was a quiet deep thinker, a lover of nature and all that was good, a kind considerate husband, father, and friend.

His helpful words and deeds will be cherished by many and a truly good man has gone to his reward.

Besides the immediate family he is survived by one sister, Augusta Caldwell, of Quincy and one brother, Scoville Brainard of Coldwater; several nephews, nieces and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon, April 30th, at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Della Fry, of Burlington officiating, assisted by Mrs. Faith Hill of Burlington, as soloist, singing the deceased's favorite hymns. Both Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Hill are close friends of the family.

An unusually large number of beautifully arranged flowers, was a silent tribute of love and respect to the departed.

Interment was at Lakeview cemetery, Quincy, Michigan.

DEATH CALLS YOUNG MAN.

Ned C. Drake, Veteran of The Spanish-American War, Answers Final Roll Call.

One of the saddest deaths which we have been called upon to chronicle in some time occurred last Saturday morning at 6:30 o'clock, when Ned C. Drake, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Drake, passed away at the age of only 28 years. While serving his country in the Southland in the Spanish-American war the deceased fell a victim to the insidious approach of disease which later developed, and against which he fought a noble but losing fight. Last fall it was seen that consumption had a strong grip upon him and in October he went to Kansas, hoping that the change of climate would benefit him. Instead of improving, however, he grew weaker and was compelled to return home in a few weeks. From that time on he fought bravely for months against the disease but to no avail and he gradually grew weaker until the end came peacefully Saturday.

Ned C. Drake was born in Quincy, Michigan, 27 years ago the 18th of last September. He was the eldest child and only son of Charles and Lottie Drake, who with his two sisters, survive him.

His demise occurred June 19, 1909, at the family home on Fulton street, where for many months, loving hearts and willing hands strove to make more gentle the last days of the patient sufferer.

He fraternalized with Rathbun Lodge No. 167, Quincy Encampment No. 159, Independent Order of Odd Fellows; with the Spanish War Veterans' Association, and was for a few years, a member of the Coldwater Light Guard Infantry. In 1898 he was among the thirteen young men who enlisted from this village in the Spanish war and is the second to receive the final muster.

He was with Co. A., 32d Volunteer Infantry, on its eventful journey to Tampa, Florida, and it was while camped there, in the midst of mud and rain, that he, like many others, first became sick. However, he recovered sufficiently to accompany his regiment to Fernandina, where in the course of time, a furlough was procured and he returned home in a much weakened and emaciated condition. He again entered the service in June, 1899, at Detroit, but upon reaching Fort Sheridan he was discharged on the allegation of physical unfitness. With little question, it was while camped in the fever laden thickets and swamps of Florida that the first inroads were gained by the insidious disease, which in time claimed him.

Last December, it became evident that the tentacles of his fateful malady were gripping him with relentless severity, and upon the advice of friends, he concluded to apply for a pension. His comrades and physicians did all possible to expedite matters in his interest, but the department was too late in recognizing his claim.

Though only a boy when in the service of his country, yet in the soldierly duty and loyalty to his comrades, Ned C. Drake was as true a soldier as ever marched to the beat of drums or the sound of fife.

May he rest in peace, unmindful of the summer's heat or the winter's blast, under the protecting folds of his country's flag which, floating in silent eloquence o'er him, proclaims the noblest sentiment that ever graced the silence of a tomb.

The funeral was held from the home on south Fulton street Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and was one of the most largely attended and most impressive held here for some time. In addition to the large concourse of friends who gathered to pay the last tribute to the departed, there was present in a body the Quincy lodge of I. O. O. F., of which the deceased was a prominent member, and about fifteen Spanish-American war veterans from Coldwater and this place, most of whom were his comrades in the service. The body of Odd Fellows was one of the largest ever assembled here, seventy-eight members being in line.

Rev. A. L. Murry, rector of the Episcopal church at Coldwater, had charge of the services at the house. Music was furnished by the following quartet: Miss Mable Jones, Mrs. H. J. Williams, E. K. Pearce and Theo B. Ganong. Interment was made in Lakeview cemetery and the services at the grave were in charge of the Odd Fellows, when, with their impressive ritual all that was mortal of Ned C. Drake was laid to rest in beautiful Lakeview.

The following relatives from out o town attended the funeral: Mr. an Mrs. Ed. Whaley and Mr. and M Peter Whaley, of Coldwater, and Mi Chas. Harrigan, of Racine, Wisconsi

Thomas Fennon was born Oct 21st 1835 in Ireland County of Meath Province of Lynster
Enlisted at Detroit Mich July 4th 1862. as Private in Co A. 4th Mich Cavalry. was promoted Blacksmith at Nashville Tenn. Dec 20th 1862. {Continued from Memorandum} Nothing very important in my Military History. I was allways ready for my rations, and allways lonesome when there were no
Excitement; Happy when we made the Johnnies git. one incident. We were Skirmishing near Noon Day Church. and my Co were short of rations. So I thought would go to a large Brick House near by and forage some. the Boys were between me and the Rebs. I hunted the House over. and found nothing. I went back of the House into a Log House which was used for Kitchen. the Boys were Skirmishing with the Johnnies. and thought there was no danger, I found a Bin of Flour.. got a Saucer. filled my Sack. threw it on my Soulder and started back. and when I went out of the Door the Rebs were coming in the yard not more than 15 rods away. Halt you Yankee Son of a Bitch. but I dident Halt worth a Cent, but I got to the rear. they fired at me. or my Sack of Flour for when we made flatjacks we picked out 30 bullets all flatted amoung the flour. Another incident we were near Montgumary Ala. on the Wilson raid. and we wanted Some whiskey. We asked a Negro whare there was a Still. he directed us as near as he could. We thought we could get there in a little while. but it took us 3 hours hard riding. and when we found it. We also found a lot of Rebbels who were on

APPENDIX.

The first important event of my Milletary career was when I enlisted in an independent Reg. that was finally called 11th Mich. I. Vol. it happened in this way Col Wm J. May of White Pidgeon was organizeing an Independant Reg. he sayed he had authority from the Secretary of War, to rais a Reg. & Battery. & would be given a Command Independent of any other Officer, his plan was to go to Jeffersville Ky. and with his Reg. & Battery, we were to march through Dixie, untill we got in rear of Richmond about face & capture Jeff. Davis & his Cabinet, and from there to Charleston retake Fort Sumpter, and the war would be ended; we dident know any thing about war, but felt it our duty to help Sustain the old flag, & was anxious to be one of the first in all heroic actions, the Col got his Quota of Men 1200. but our Governer wouldent let the Col leave the State only as a reg, which was No) 11th and instead of getting Henry rifles, as we expected, we had the old Russian Musket &, we could, hitt a Critter with one 10 rods away, the Col was so crestfallen that he resigned after bravely leading us to Bardstown Ky. we lay at or near Bardstown all winter, Smallpox was the cause, & the only thing we done of importance was to bring a rebbel Spy, who proved to be a Woman, I, taken sicke in March, 62 with Typhoid Pneumonia, & for a while felt as if would as soon I five as die, the reg, Moved to Belmont Ky. & when got able joined the reg, our army had taken Bolingreen & we thought the war was about ended & we wished to see that place before was sent Home, asked the Col. if I could go & sayed No. but I went just the same; the cars runn through to Nashville & when the Train came along, jumped on & went along, stayed all night & came back on the first Train, saw 6 rebbls forts & we supposed it was an American Rebellion, time found us at Nashville where we marched all over the city to show the citizens that they had no business to fool with the 11th Mich. was down at Columbia Tenn. awhile guarding trains of provisions down in Alabama to Supply Bruels Army, which was after Bragg, was detailed as Assistant Teamster, among our trips to Pulaski once there were two Teams of us sent through with Coffe & Sugar, we dident start untill P.M. the rest of the Train had gone on & we expected to overtake it, but night overtook us & we stopped at a Planters to stay all night, the old gent came out & told us to drive on, he dident keep Yankees, the boys had got there Teams unhitched, a Darkee had told us that Massa had plenty to feed our Teams on, so I sayes Uncle, we intend to stay right here to Night & we will hold you responsible for our Safety, we dont intend to take any thing of you but what we are willing in the Morning before we leave to give you an order on the Quartermaster at Columbia for your pay, the next day at noon found us at another Plantation unhitching our Teams to feed & water, the old gent came out, says he (what are) you doing, sayes I dont you See, Well you drive right along, I dont allow any Yankees to Stop here, Sayes I, Uncle we are going to stay here feed our Teams &c and the best thing you can do for the benefit of your health is to keep your Mouth shut for we Sometimes take Exceptions to being called Names, we stayed & had quite a chat with the old gent, he sayed that he kept one of our reg boys several days, that got hurt while Putting up Telagraph, he had 2 sons in the southern Army fighting for their homes & if he couldent convince me that he was right, he would like to See me one year hence when Secesh Yankees, would be drove across the Ohio River, on our way back we stopt at a place called Jeffersville about 4 P.M. there was a grocery Store, as I stepped in the door, there were 6 or 8 men seated & busily talking, howdy Sayes I, they looked me over & one of them says, thats a nice weapon you have, let us See it, I whipt it out quick as a flash pointing it so he could look down the barrel, aint it a daisy, go but dont shoot, you had aught to see their Eyes bug out as I gave each one a chance to look, about that time one of our boys hunched me, & asked if we hadent better drive on, told them to move their Teams & we would pull out, I told the men we were ahead of our train & the boys wanted to keep there, good by boys & if you come to Columbia Call on (a N Squad (No. 2) & we will give you the best the Tent affords, they were a Squad of Scotts Rebbl Cav. that is what a Darkey told the boys, & their Horses were in a good back of the House, time brought us back to Nashville. Bragg had got in rear of Buel hence the famous race between the 2 armies for Louisville, on the 5th of July 1862 our team ran away throwing me out of the Waggon & against a Tree breaking several ribs injureing My Spine & right arm, in the latter part of the summer & fall we were on several foraging expiditions, as well as chasing & skermages with the rebbles, and by the time of the Battles of Stonerriver the boys sayed they were just spoiling for a good old fight, an assertion they never repeated after those Battles, in the Spring & Summer of 63 after Rosecrance had got tired of waiting for Bragg to attact him made up his mind to leave Murfreesboro in pursuit of the Enemy, after fording Streams, Marching through rain & mud & skirmishing with the rebbs &C we had, (got) the other side of Tullahoma, when I gave out, was taken back in ambulance to Tullahoma, was there about two weeks, and carried to Murfreesboro, from there was taken to Nashville, and was kept in Hospital untill September when I was better & they sent me to the Convalesant Camp, but I dident stay, I took a Train the next Morn & went to the front, found our reg at Chattanooga & reported to our Surgeon as a deserter from Nashvill, the old Doctor laughed & sayed he wished a lot more of the boys, (would) desert the same way, well that was the only time I deserted, I kept with the reg from that time untill it was discharged, during the Siege of Chattanooga, we lived on 1/4 rations, a critters Lead would sell for 75 cts & Hide 75 cts, Tongue 50 cts the feet & Tail they would give away, they dident intend to be Hoggish — after the Battles of Lookout & Mission Mountains, we followed Bragg & our Brigade took Braggs rear guard about 500, 24 peices of artillery and a number of his Baggage train, we had been advancing Cautously, untill about Midnight, when the command was given to charge, we kept in as good line as possible, but in the darkness our leg was in the ditch & going down a Hill (this was) the 69th Ohio fired into us, but shot over us, I took two Johnnies & carried their guns for them to the rear, over

I met a gentlemen & lady in a buggy they stopt & I had to give them a short History of what I had been through. he put his hand in his pocket & gave me a dollar to help me get Home & see my family. I walked on untill about Sundown & within about a mile of the R.R. Station {dont remember the name} I slept out of the road in a small bunch of bushes & changed my clothes & came out a full blooded Citizen. when I got to town went to a Hotel & called for Supper & a glass of beer. after supper a fellow wanted me to play a game of checkers. I sat down & we played. I saw a number of those $5. men about & occasionly one would ask me where I was from & which way I were going &c. I got on train about 10 O clock for Toledo. I came from there to Marengo, where I got a train that run only to Adrian, where I stayed untill about 12 O clock that night, I changed my clothes & on board a car that was filled with Soldiers & came Home as a Soldier, was at Home about two weeks, then I returned to Columbus O. at the last station before we reached Columbus, two $5. men got on train came up to me & demanded to see my pass. I prepaired myself with writing material & after was loked up. wrote a letter to the commander of the post stating the particulars of my present confinement in the Bull pen. I gave (it) the Orderly at the gate to deliver at Headquaters. in a little while my name was called to report to Headquaters, when I arrived there were a number of Officers in & some were reading my letter, they asked me some questions about those $5. dollar men, where they had first seen me &c & Sayed they had presented a large (bill) against me for fare &c which they had payed, but they would attend to their cases, soon. they seemed to be thankful to me for exposeing them, & discharged me from the bull pen I was Exchanged & returned to my regiment at Murfreesboro Tenn. I used to go down to the Slaughter pen watch my chance & buy a critters Head for 75 cts dress it & make Head Chees, & Sell enough to buy another, after having all my Chums & myself wanted to Eat, So you See a Soldier always manages to get something to Eat if there is a possible chance. about Nov. 25th we were in the battle of Mesionary ridge, which so demoralized (Gen Hood's Confederate) that he retreated to Tunnil Hill, Ga & held the Tunnel all winter. about the 7th of May /64 we entered upon the Ga Campain, & was in the battles of Buzzard Roost, Resaca, New Hope Church, Kenesaw Mountain, Smirna, Peach Tree Creek, 7th of Aug. ALLEN, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JUNE 7, 1907.

BIG DAY FOR ALLEN.

Unveiling of Soldiers' Monument and Impressive Dedicatory Exercises Memorial Day.

After a week of rain and cold wind, discouarging to those in charge of Decoration Day services, Thursday, May 30th, dawned a little cloudy in the early morning but warmer, and before 7 o'clock the clouds had rolled away, and the warm sunlight was flooding the earth with its brilliancy. All nature was at its loveliest, as if vieing with humanity in the appropriate observance of this sacred day.

Owing to the unsettled state of the weather it was not thought prudent to proceed with the decorations upon the day previous, and much credit is due to the committee in charge of this work, who showed their patriotism by arising before 4 o'clock to accomplish their task of disposing one hundred yards of bunting and over fifty small flags in artistic draping about the rostrum, thirty feet square, fashioned in pagoda form, the result of their efforts being most pleasing. Two large flags formed the background of this decoration, while a little to the left in front arose the monument, shrouded between two more large flags, and from the staff upon the lot floated the beautiful banner presented to the veterans by our townsman, W. N. Benge, the whole forming an imposing array of the stars and stripes sufficient to inspire with patriotism even the heart of an anarchist.

The cemetery was in perfect order throughout and nearly every lot was decked with beautiful floral designs in carnations, palms and other seasonable flowers and ferns, the graves of the for over half an hour while he spoke of our debt to the past and vested the strength of our sovereignty in the individual, thus inciting to noble acts and deeds of patriotism worthy of these self sacrificing sires.

Judge Stone in his remarks brought out the thought that devotion is incersed by sacrifice, and that our boasted safety lies in our willingness to sacrifice all if need be for our country.

Between the addresses of Mr. Guernsey and Rev. Colvin the two flags which enveloped the statue were drawn aside by Solon Peirce Clickner and Horace John Wesley Peirce and the monument stood unveiled before the audience in all its imposing grandeur.

Built of Barry granite, with a total height of 15 feet and 9 inches, upon the upper die of whose three bases arises the figure of a soldier standing at parade rest, 6 feet and 3 inches in height, the front face of the monument proper bearing the inscription: "Forty-two years after the surrender at Appomattox this monument is dedicated to heroic men who imperiled their lives that the nation might live. Erected by a comrade who by the fortunes of war was permitted to return home and enjoy the blessings of peace." The eastern face bears the words "Gettysburg, Chickamauga," the western, "Wilderness and Petersburg," while upon the second base on the three sides appear the three words, "Fraternity, Charity, Loyalty," with the dates 1861–1865 just below the inscription on the front. The lettering is executed in raised design, rendering the inscriptions easy to read at a distance. The weight of the entire structure is 15 tons, and it stands today as it will a century hence, a silent monitor of the past, an inspiration to patriotism to the living, and a memento of the generous donor, to whom Judge Stone paid high tribute in his address.

At the moment of unveiling a snap shot of the scene was secured, and later, after the crowd had dispersed, a view was taken with the G. A. R. grouped about the stone, which will be of inestimable value to their friends as the swiftly passing years bear them one by one to rest within the sacred limits of this monument to their valor.

At noon the ceremonials were all completed, the monument dedicated, and the most memorable Decoration Day ever held in Allen was past, but the lessons of patriotism, sacrifice and generosity advocated by the eloquent speakers, and impressed by the gray haired veterans who typify these things, will not pass away.

of the 18th of June, after a bloody day before Petersburg, when his regiment captured 90 men and three commissioned officers of the 54th North Carolina regiment as prisoners of war, he was one of the 75 men to answer "here" at roll call, all that remained of the 885 men that proudly marched into the thickets of the Wilderness six weeks before.

Then and there this regiment settled down with the rest of the army and laid siege to the city of Petersburg, which ended on the 2d day of April, '65, this regiment raising their battle-torn flag from the window in the dome of the Court House in Petersburg, the first Union flag to float from any public building in that city. Sergeant Lake was not there. His strength had failed and about July 15, '64, he was sent to City Point, finally arriving at Mewer General Hospital, Philadelphia, weighing then but 90 pounds (ordinary weight 150), soon coming down with typhid fever and lay on one little iron cot over four months, when he was discharged from the service.

Of the five Sergeants who left the State with this company three left their bones in Virginia, the fourth was shot through both thighs (still living) in the assault and hand to hand conflict in front of Petersburg.

Sergeant Lake, though nearly 75, is quite active and looks ten years younger. Like many other soldiers of the rebelion, Mr. Lake seldom says much about his experience in the army, and only does so now at the earnest solicitation of the editor for publication in connection with the account of the dedication of the monument presented by him to Allen township. He has been back to the scenes of carnage and looked again on the sands that drank the life blood of so many of his comrades.

Twenty-two years after the war a grateful people amended the laws and by a special order of General Scofield Mr. Lake was mustered as First Lieutenant of Co. A.

Among the visitors present on Memorial Day and during the week were: Mesdames Adams and Rumsay, of Litchfield (formerly the Misses Peirce), at the home of Mrs. H. L. Peirce for several days, also her brother, C. W. Lake; Mrs. Etta (Dr.) Whitmore, of Quincy, with her sister, Mrs. A. B. Weir, and mother, Mrs. Cynthia Watkins, at the home of her brother, Edward C., from Wednesday until Saturday; Mr. Thomas and wife, of Jefferson (aunt of A. D. Peirce), at his home Wednesday and Thursday; A. Winchester, of Chicago, the guest of his brother, A. M. and other friends until Saturday; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Maynard, of Detroit, with Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Van Zile from Wednesday until Saturday; Misses Pearl Harbaugh and Lola Brownell, of Quincy, guests of Miss Nina Bond for the day; Miss Ethel Clark, of Hillsdale, and T. N. Brockway, of Albion, at G. W. Clark's; Mrs. Lida Aller, of Chicago, with Mrs. J. B. Conklin, and Mrs. Harriet Warriner, of Battle Creek, with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Haynes, indefinitely; Mrs. Chas. Wright and little daughter with her parents, Wm. Norman and wife, for a few days. Present at the ceremonies only were Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Roethlisberger and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Wolcott, of Hillsdale, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lindsey, of Litchfield. In fact the day might be classed as a home coming in connection with Memorial, and witnessed many a hand clasp among old friends long separated. The speakers were entertained to lunch by Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitney Watkins.

About seventy-five persons are estimated as the Allen contingent toward swelling the Roosevelt crowd at Hillsdale last Friday. Most of them were fortunate enough to obtain a sight of the nation's executive and a few to hear his speech. Among other incidents of the day A. L. Norton had his pocket picked of fifteen dollars and Wm. R. Dresser of eleven. Bleesed be nothing

Not What He Asked.

In these days of individualism in thought and action the balance of decision tips more and more toward the personal. Even in the matter of spelling, the ego asserts itself in the face of tradition and history. "Bobby," in Tit-Bits, is not the only person who constitutes himself the final court of appeal in the realm of orthography.

"So you go to school, do you Bobby?" asked the minister.

"Yes, sir," answered Bobby.

"Let me hear how you spell 'bread,'"

"The dictionary spells it with an 'a,' Bobby."

"Yes, sir; but you didn't ask me how the dictionary spells it; you asked me how I spell it."

the solitary candle. He could read there no sign of suspicion, but he asked himself what would have happened if Zeno had been tracked to his residence—what would happen if he really had been tracked there, and if Doborski were only playing with him. The fancy turned him cold.
