CLASS POEM

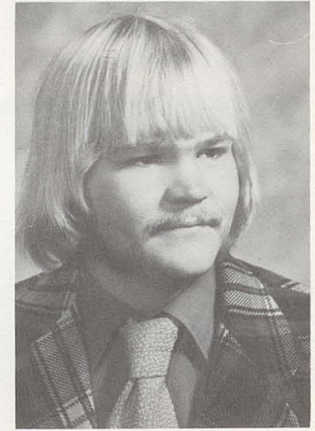

We stand on the edge of our future.
 Eager to stand on our own two feet,
 Yet unsure where to place the first step.
 We have waited for this moment with Apprehension, and now find that it is
 Not the confident step we had imagined,
 But merely a blind push forward.

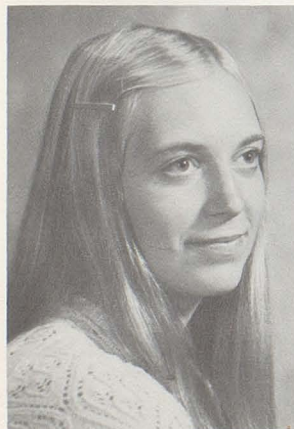

Shy Michelle?

Yet we make this move,
 As so many before us have done.
 Some shall achieve greatness,
 Some shall feel the depression of failure, And many shall merely exist.
 But we shall be remembered as being eager
 To meet the unsure demands of an uncertain world.

And we shall survive.
 Merely because we are who we are.

HOW MANY? HOW FAR? HOW LONG?
SENIOR CLASS SONG - By Paula Burk

How many roads must we all walk down
Before we meet again?

And how many dreams can we make come true
Before we reach the end?

The answer my friend is deep within our souls
The answer is deep within our souls.

How many vows that we made long ago
Will turn into dust and to sand?

And how many wrongs can we make right
Before we run out of time?

The answer my friend is deep within our souls, The answer is deep within our souls.

How many stars will we reach out to touch
Before we realize our goals?

And how many tears will fall to the ground
Before we learn to be kind?

The answer my friend is deep within our souls, the answer is deep within our soul.

How many times must we shout each other down, Before we all understand?

And how many miles will our weary feet
tread,
Before we may come to a rest?

The answer my friend is deep within our souls,
The answer is deep within our souls.

Miss Oriole 1975

On Valentine's Day, Feb. 14, the high school student body elected Julie Strang, Miss Oriole, with Sharon Luce, first runner-up and Kathy Curtiss, second runner-up. Also participating were Denise Harmon, freshman; Lori Ditton, Julie Bemis, sophomores; Velda Sperbeck, junior; and Chris Suever, Jan Osborn, and Sue Ridley, seniors.

All the girls were escorted by members of the J.V. basketball team, Bob Loveberry, Scot Luce, Cam Gary, Bruce Miller, Jim Fidler, Tim Kling, Dennis Quimby, Ben Richardson, John Lange, Tim Brown and Mr. Ludlow, who escorted Shelly.

Julie was crowned during half-time of the Jonesville game by Shelly King, Miss Oriole, 1974.

David and Lisa is a story about two mentally disturbed adolescents and how they overcome their problems together. David has been worshipped by his mother since he was very young. Doctors and therapists try to help these two youngsters and finally succeed. David does not like to be touched. Lisa who is serious at times also talks in rhymes. We will be losing some very talented seniors this year who have been in past plays.

The Speech Class: The Talkers of Tomorrow.

Due to circumstances the Yearbook Staff misplaced the candid taken of the speech class assemblies. This year the speech class put on 2 assemblies for the students, one in the winter and one in the spring. One should never forget Santa Claus (R. Iles) and his elves, the Lennon Sisters and B. Keeton's laugh, in the skits.

Taking a Look At News Focus and Project Christmas

This year Project Christmas supported more families than ever before. The News Focus class worked hard to get money, which in turn would be used for food, clothing, toys and misc. The students had to spend time fixing many of the toys and items that were donated. Items had to be sorted before they could be wrapped. The items were then wrapped and put back in their same piles. They were then taken and put into boxes for each family. The students then delivered these boxes to the families that they were supporting in the community.

Y.M.C.A. Youth in Government in Session

This April 10-12, 35 students and 2 advisors, who were interested in government went to our state capital. Each student became a senator or representative. Marlene Middel, a sophomore, Roy Snyder and Chris Godfrey, both seniors, all went as lobbyists. Cathy Pinney went to Lansing representing the southwest district trying to become governor in the mock elections. Mark Baranouski also went and was elected to the office of lieutenant governor. Cathy lost by eight votes in the election. The students held the positions of legislatures for three days. After a hard day's work the students enjoyed many fun and exciting activities.

The Varsity cheerleaders had a tremendous year. The girls worked hard together to prove their cheerleading skills. The cheerleaders provided Q.H.S. with much spirit which in turn makes the students support their team. They sponsored a cake raffle, dance, and bake sales. The girls were also in charge of the Miss Oriole festivities. We should be proud of our cheerleaders, it would be hard to get along without them.

Our Student Council and High School Officers Kept on Truckin' Throughout the school Year

This year the high school student council raised money through the magazine drive to purchase a few new items that were needed in the high school. The student body and faculty enjoyed 2 or 3 assemblies that were set up by the student council. They were in charge of the homecoming dance. The Miss Oriole dance was sponsored by the Council and also by the French Club. The Student Council was also in charge of all of the Oriole Week festivities: The saucer pull, pie eating contest and basketball dribble.

The Middle School Student Council purchased a video tape player for the school. They also helped pay for the Middle School scoreboard. By having a dance, they donated their benefits to the band to buy new uniforms. The student council held a poster contest which would decide the design for the banners that will be put up in the M.S. gymnasium.

Quincy's Foreign Visitors Become Friends

Quincy High School enjoyed two foreign exchange students this year, although Iris Hertlein, from West Germany, had to return home for health reasons during the year. Marja Lehtisalo, from Finland, stayed the year and learned much about American customs, while teaching us about the customs of her country. Iris, who stayed with the Schultz's while she was here, is pictured on the left in the above photograph, and Marja is on the right. She stayed with the Hills of Marble Lake.

The Pep Club sold popcorn this year and donated some of the money to buy the new scoreboard for the Middle School Gym. The cheerleaders not only cheered at basketball games this year, they also cheered at wrestling meets. They donated money to the wrestlers, so they could purchase new uniforms. The Pep Club not only involves cheerleading, it involves getting the girls together to do many things. This year the girls went bowling, swimming, and roller skating.
