Class Motto: I am not afraid tomorrow for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

THE CLASS OF NINETEEN EIGHTY-FIVE

Our past years have left us memories Of hopes and dreams and fun.

All our lives we will remember
The days when we were young.

We think of all our teachers, Of homework and of rules.

Staying out till wee late hours, Then getting up for school.

Time will pass, as it always does, And each will go his way,

But deep inside we'll always enjoy The memories of our high school days.

These past years we've envisioned our many dreams,

And pray that they came true.

But now we're faced with reality As we start our lives anew.

We've turned our backs on childhood, To leave it all behind,

Never to relive those days again, We, the class of Nineteen Eighty-Five!
