ACADEMICS

The high standards of Quincy High School academics have been rewarded by the University of Michigan and the North Central Association. Of 409 schools accredited by the NCA, 191 had no deviations from the association's policies and standards, and QHS was one of them. QHS has been accredited by the NCA for 50 consecutive years. It is one of only three schools in the state to maintain this honor.

To continue this excellence, the faculty continually updates curriculum and adjusts to meet the needs of students. School improvement committees work on total school curriculum for overall improvement and growth. Semi-annual parent-teacher conferences are held to communicate and cooperate on continued achievement and improvement of student learning. Several students have been recognized by the Quincy Academic Booster Club and the faculty for their outstanding academic achievement. Jim Howard, Tina Briggs, and Glen Hard were named Student of the Month by the QABC. Missy McMichael was selected as the DAR Good Citizen, while Mike McConnell was named SAR Good Citizen. Jim Howard was the Senate Youth Leadership Scholarship Program winner from Branch County. The National Honor Society honors new members each year by admitting them to the national organization on the basis of teacher recommendation.

Academic excellence is also recognized through a scholarship program for seniors and an awards assembly for underclassmen. Students are also awarded academic letters for a grade point average of 3.0 or better by the QABC. Bronze, silver, and gold medals are given for the second, third, and fourth years respectively of a 3.0 or better average, and any student who earns a 4.0 receives a gold lamp of knowledge pin.

Academics are truly the key to the future, and QHS is proud of all who strive to achieve academically.

ATHLETICS

Athletes at QHS strive to be the best they can be, whether involved in individual or team competition or in boys' or girls' sports. Approximately 60% of the student body participates in athletics although some students are in more than one sport, according to athletic director Lonney Evon.

Competition challenges athletes to set goals for themselves and that carries over into the classroom. Competitors learn mental toughness which can also be used in other aspects of life. Students also participate for enjoyment, recreation, physical activity, and recognition. Pride is another factor affecting competition because athletes are competing not only for the team and themselves, but also for the school.

Coaches contribute greatly to the athletic program.

They enjoy seeing the improvement of the athletes, and they relish the contact with the students outside of the classroom setting. Knowing they've had an impact on students, sometimes more so on the athletic field than in the classroom, is also an important factor to coaches. The thrill of competition and recognition of their efforts are important to coaches and athletes alike.

Whether athletes and coaches experience the "thrill of victory or the agony of defeat," QHS is proud of them all!

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Ignacio (Iggy) Lazaro of Madrid, Spain, finds school at QHS to be very different from that at home. The most obvious differences are that students stay in one class in Spain and the teachers come to them.

Students cannot choose their own subjects, and classes are also more difficult there.

Iggy likes the kids here at QHS. He says that they are nice and he gets along well with them, although he maintains that ways of thinking are different.

Drafting is his favorite class, and speech is the most difficult, but he likes it. He says that he has learned things he never realized before. Mr. Cook, Mr. Veysey, and Mrs. Rice, when she's in a good mood, are his favorite teachers.

Iggy hopes to improve his English during his year-long stay and wishes to know many people who have a different way of life. Also, he thinks he will know more places and cities.

Iggy enjoys people and has the best times when with friends, all of whom he will miss when he returns home.

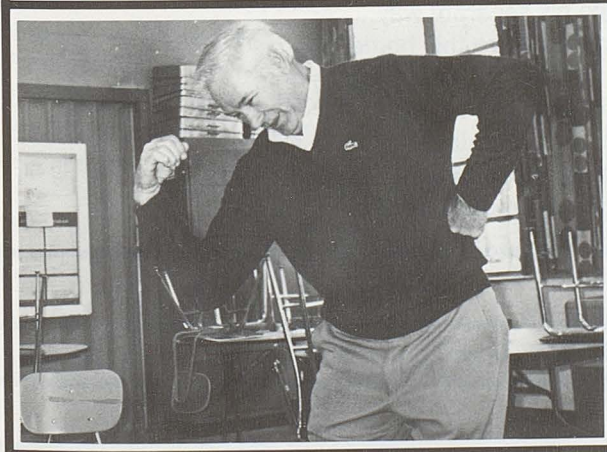

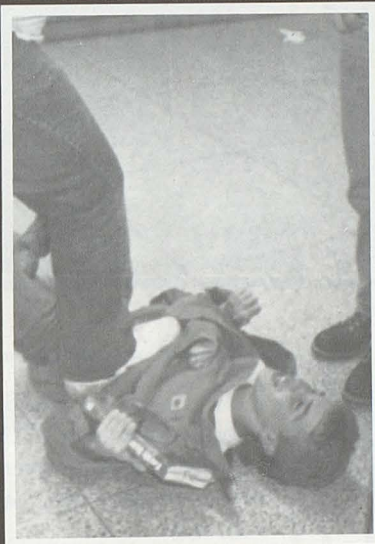

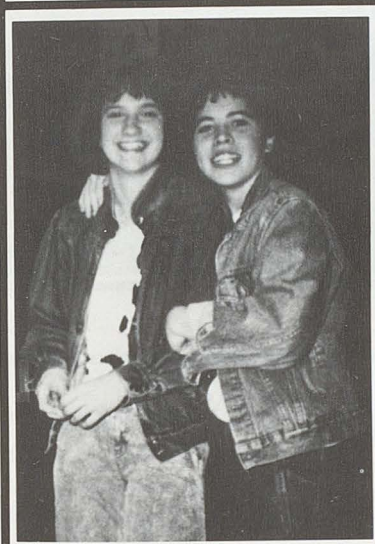

Marie Gimenez, a junior, sees many differences between her school in Santa Fe, Argentina, and Quincy. Her school starts at 7:30 a.m. and gets out at 1:00 p.m. She only spends two days a week in gym. Another aspect that is different is people in her school treat teachers with more respect. Her favorite classes here are speech, typing, and gym, and in her school at home they are history and art.

Marie states that people here are more open and friendly with each other. Also, most people in her school do not have girlfriends and boyfriends; they are just friends.

Marie plans on visiting Washington, D.C., New York City, and Chicago during her stay in the United States.

She is living with Michelle McClughen, but when she leaves in July she says she will leave with memories of good friends.

CLASS OF '88 POEM

The time we have left to share
Is growing shorter every day,
And soon each member of the Class of '88

Will go his separate way.
But as we leave this home
And the lives we've shared as one,
We'll carry with us memories
Of all the tears, laughter, and fun.
We suffered some great losses
And lived through despair,

CLASS MOTTO — There is a past which is gone forever;

But because our class stuck together
The pain was easier to bear.
Yet when the time comes,
And we have to say good-bye,
What you'll see is happy tears
In every person's eye,
Because in our hearts we'll remember
The lives we've shared were great,
And there's nothing better than Being a member of the Class of '88.

— Missy McMichael

but there is a future which is still our own.

THE CLASS OF '89

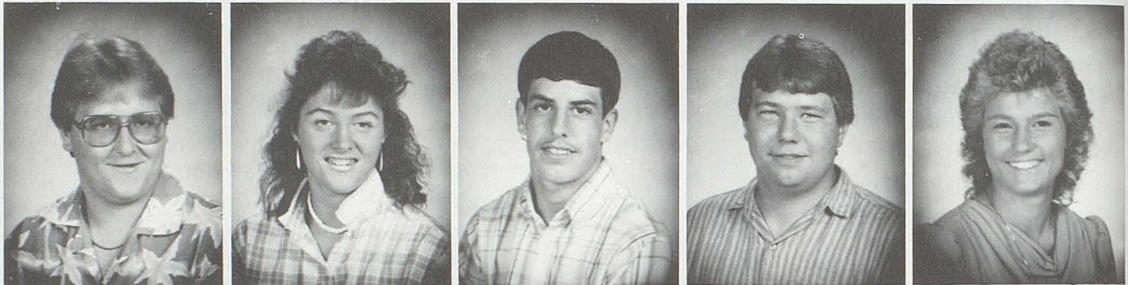

The Class of '89, whose favorite soft drink is Mountain Dew and who loves pizza as its favorite food, will always remember Mrs. Forrister in lit class with her famous line, "See what I'm saying?" or Mr. Anderson, "Gum! Basket!" Favorite TV shows range from "Alf" on the lighter side to "L.A. Law" on a more serious level. Other favorites include "The Cosby Show" and "Growing Pains." "Top Gun" and "Police Academy IV" are the most popular movies with the juniors, but they also favor "Lethal Weapon," "Mannequin," and "Dirty Dancing." "I Think We're Alone Now" is their favorite song, perhaps because in 1988-89 they'll be the top class at QHS!

THE CLASS OF '90

The Class of '90 prefers acid-washed jeans, t-shirts, mini skirts, and sweatshirts while pursuing their favorite activities — partying and sleeping. Mrs. Budd's infamous phrase "Tough Bananas!" is a favorite. Lockers are most often blamed for lack of homework with excuses such as "I left it in my locker," "It's lost in my locker," or "My locker won't open!" "The Cosby Show" and "Night Court" are most-watched TV shows while cinema favorites are "Dirty Dancing" and "Nightmare on Elm Street, Part 3."

CLASS OF '91

The Class of '91 favors Spuds McKenzie t-shirts with acid-washed jeans, especially ones with holes, unlaced shoes, and no socks. They consume Mountain Dew and Coke while eating pizza and watching "Alf" on TV. Favorite movies include "Top Gun" and "Dirty Dancing." FM 103 is their radio choice. Much repeated comments by teachers which stand out in freshman minds are "You people!" (Mr. Dogan) and "I'm about sure, you guys!" (Ms. Snyder).

(4)

Homecoming '87 was the occasion of many victories . . . The Orioles defeated Athens, the junior and senior classes tied for the Pep Jug competition, and LeeAnn Brown was named queen. The senior theme was "Coke . . . Catch the Wave," while the juniors worked with the California raisin commercial. The sophomores used "Avoid the Noid," the Domino's pizza commercial, and the freshmen centered their work on Bonkers with "Bonk the Indians."

"THE MADWOMAN OF CHAILLOT" IS FALL PLAY

In November, Mr. Anderson and extensive cast and crew produced the play "The Madwoman of Chailott," a comic fantasy with a serious message.

The cast included Jamie Lemke, Jason Enos, Nick Bowers, Cindy Fillmore, Sean Watson, Tina Meyer, Michelle Hawkins, Resse Blake, Shane Russell, Kelly Garner, Brenda McClellan, Glen Hard, Gaye Coolman, Anjanella Cook, Shawn Milks, Chris Hamaker, and Amber Rodgers. It should be noted that many of these performers played more than one role.

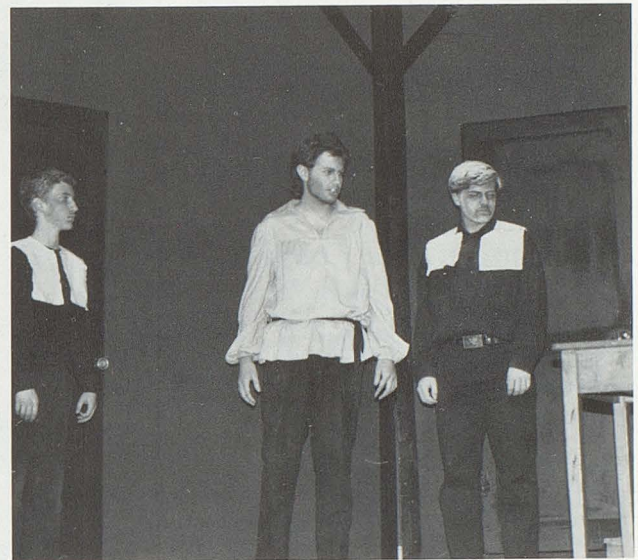

Sets were constructed by Brian Stempien, Dan Mawby, and Joel Asher, while the stage crew included Brian Stempien, Dan Mawby, Joel Asher, Brandon Barrett, Danny Ditton, Eric Lattas, Ryan O'Connell, and the cast members themselves.

The QSPA presented Arthur Miller's play "The Crucible," a two-act drama based on the Salem witch trials, on April 15 and 16. This was the first drama presented at QHS in many years.

QUIZ BOWL BACK AT QHS

For the first time in several years, QHS was able to field two quiz bowl teams to send to Springport in November for Big 8 competition. Both teams had fun while preparing for the competition, even though they gave up their lunch periods for two weeks.

The Teams: Jason Enos, Justin Asher, Doug Tanner, Sarah Enos, Aaron Mainstone, Chris Hamaker, Cindy Fillmore, Tina Briggs, Brenda Manley, Brett Bowers, and Advisor Mrs. Longhini.

SPRINGFLING: HOT, SUNNY, MUDDY!

An expanded line-up of events was enjoyed by participants and spectators alike at the Spring Fling. Trike races, tugs-of-war, obstacle courses, a balloon toss and relay, a wheelbarrow race and mud volleyball were the activities of the day. The weatherman cooperated by providing a warm, sunny afternoon for the senior class which edged out the juniors by only 6 points overall.

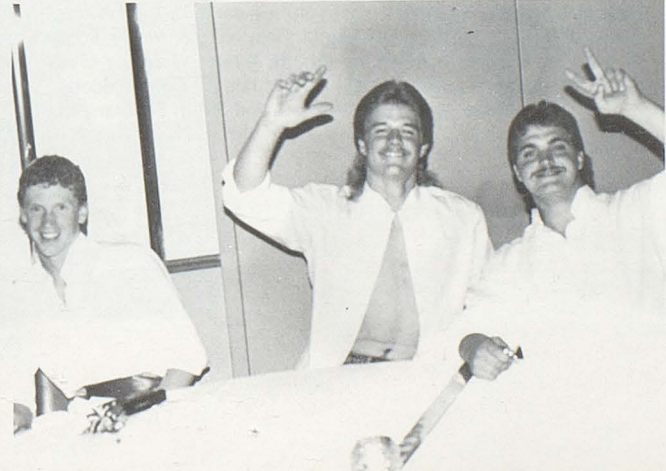

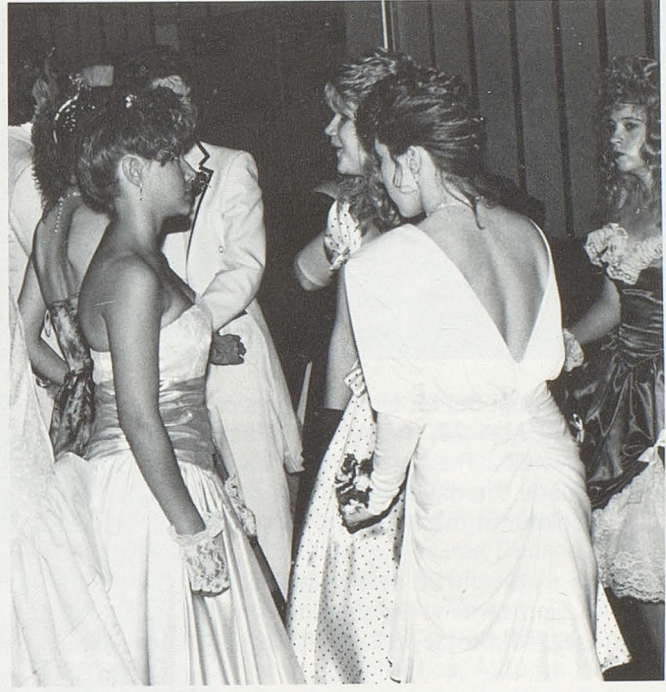

HEAVEN IS A PLACE ON EARTH!

"Heaven Is a Place on Earth" was the theme of the Junior Senior Prom, and, indeed, that was the case because the juniors spent hours decorating the Quality Inn in Coldwater with a gate to heaven, balloons, streamers, stars and glitter to make the annual affair truly glamorous.

Holly Moore and Tina Meyer (1) acted as hostesses for the event as they greeted everyone and checked sunglasses which were the tickets.

A salad bar and buffet dinner, followed by cheesecake for dessert, was the menu, and music was provided by a disc jockey.

The annual Senior Honors Convocation was held on Sunday, May 22, the same day as Baccalaureate services. This was a new idea this year so the seniors made the day even fuller by having a hot dog cookout in the teachers' parking lot before the program.

Over 200 awards and scholarships were presented. Ninety-nine scholarship awards represented a total of $169,470 going to the Class of '88.

1) Dorcas Shilling — DeKalb Agriculture Award; 2) Jim Howard — Navy ROTC Scholarship; 3) Mike McConnell and Connie Scott — Army Reserve Scholarship Athlete Award; 4) Senior Male Athlete of the Year — Jason Coolman (Female — Connie Scott); 5) Missy McMichael — LaGrand Smith Scholarship.

108th COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

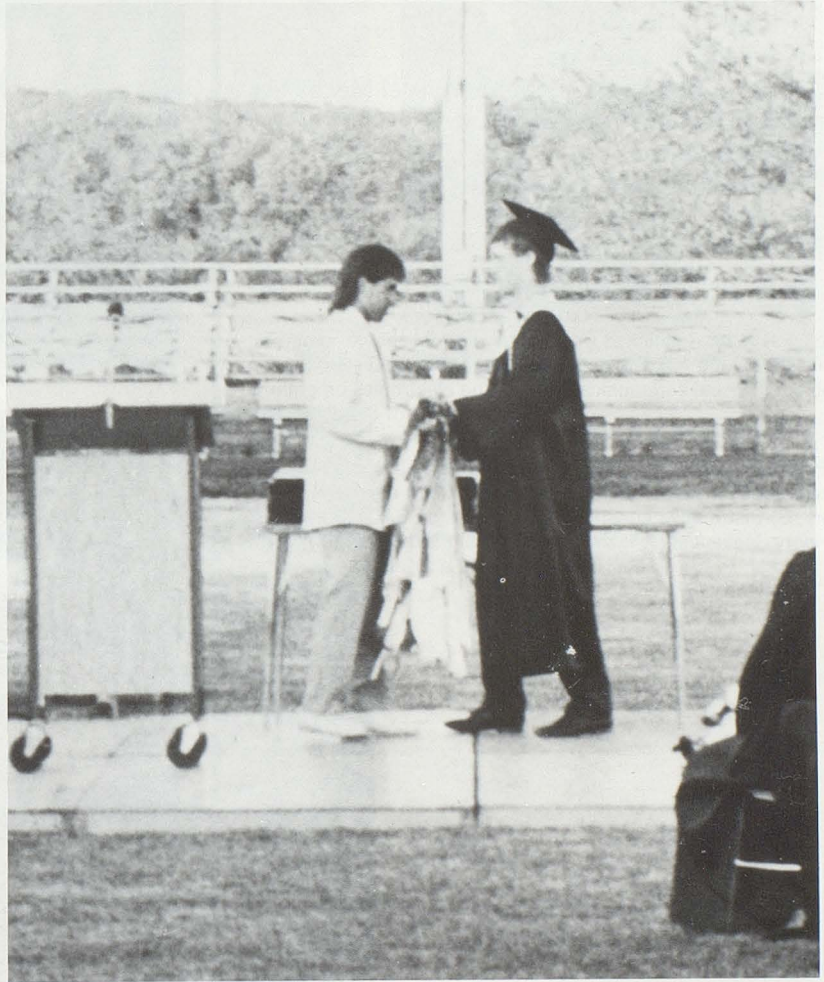

The Class of 1988 was the 108th class to graduate from QHS. Services were held on Thursday, May 26 with the Top Ten students providing the speeches along with Mr. Robert Burpee from Okemos, MI, who spoke about self-confidence during the traditional commencement address.

The Top Ten included: Mike McConnell, Connie

Scott, Tina Briggs, Jodi Lemke, Brian Hall, Sarah Enos, Melissa McMichael, Tracy Ryan, Jim Howard, and Autumn Hardy.

Class President Jeff Craig presented the traditional cane to Brett Allman, President of the Class of 1989 so that they may carry on the traditions of QHS in the future.

BRANCH AREA CAREERS CENTER

THE TRAINING CENTER FOR BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

Fifty-eight percent of the QHS juniors and seniors attend one of the 18 programs at the Branch Area Careers Center, now in its 15th year of operation.

Approximately 95% of these students go on to a two-year college, trade school, or a four-year institution after completing their Center education.

Youth in Government has been in existence for many years at QHS thanks to the dedication of its two advisors, Mr. Veysey and Mr. Male. It has been an extremely successful organization, and this year was no exception. Jim Howard was elected as the Southwestern District's candidate for Governor, Sarah Enos and Cindy Fillmore were chaplains, and Jennifer Richer was Journal Clerk of the Freshman House of Representatives. The organization itself had the largest contingent from the entire state participating in the actual operation of government in Lansing.

Jim Howard and Traci Ryan were co-chairman of the group while Julie Roberts was treasurer and Holly Moore served as secretary. Jodi Lemke, Greg Dobson, Lance DeMeritt, Traci Ryan, Julie Roberts, and Michelle Hawkins were youth lawyers.

YEARBOOK WORK: DEMANDING

The yearbook got off to a slow start this year since it was October before Mrs. Longhini and Mrs. Wuori agreed to share the job. Then action was fast and furious as we quickly sold ads, planned the book and sold it to the student body, all of which was completed by November. Then the real work began: planning pages and photos needed, taking the photos, laying out the pages, writing the copy, etc.

Many students were involved at the beginning when ads were sold but the real work was accomplished by those pictured in photo #1: Front: Brenda Manley, Melinda Hagaman, Amy Shook, Gaye Coolman, Yvonne Cekander. Back: Erica Ewers, Amy Newberry, Lori Newberry, and Christa Pifer. 2) One of our first work sessions when we watched a videotape about yearbook layout; 3) Gaye Coolman who joined the staff later in the year but produced many pages; 4) Lori Newberry working on a layout; 5) Brenda and Erica waiting to sell subscriptions.

NHS INDUCTS 23 MEMBERS

The National Honor Society honors students each year who are outstanding in the areas of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Members are obliged to uphold these standards and to perform hours of service to the community. Twenty-three new members were added to the group during the annual tapping ceremony held on March 15. Mr. Bruce Miller, a 1978 graduate of QHS, was the featured speaker.

BOWLING WINNERS

For ten weeks many students traveled to Coldwater Recreation for bowling on the Mondays after school. At the end of the season 1) Michelle Hawkins, Angie Kirt, Amber Rodgers, Don Banker, and Becky Williams were the winning teams members. 3) Dave Stempien had the high game of 175 and high series of 323. Derek Carpenter was most improved, raising his average 33 pins. Becky Williams had high girls' series of 405 and high game of 177.

MATHEMATICIANS SHINE AT TRI-STATE

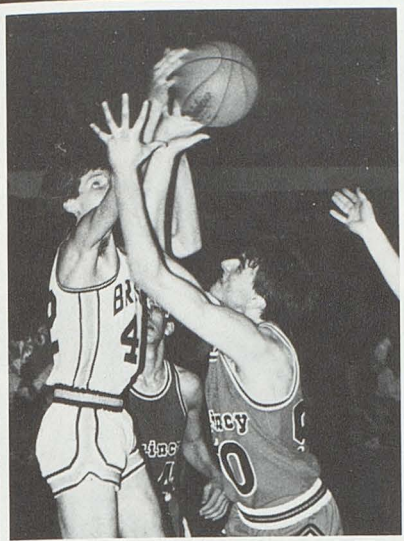

On January 30, two teams from QHS, along with 16 other teams from Michigan and Indiana high schools, participated in the Tri-State University math contest. Each team was made up of two seniors who take the advanced test and two underclassmen who take the lower level test. On Team One, which placed sixth overall, were Brian Hall, Sean Burley, Todd Male, and Aaron Mainstone. Senior Brian Hall tied for fourth place out of 35 students individually on the advanced test. On Team Two, which placed eighth overall, were Traci Ryan, Sarah Enos, Brett Bowers, and Jason Enos. Junior Jason Enos captured first place out of 32 students individually on the underclassmen test.

ARGUBRIGHT BUSINESS OLYMPICS

On March 19, 18 QHS students traveled to Battle Creek to compete in the Argubright Business Olympics. Traci Ryan placed first in spelling and Jim Howard in business math while Eric Lattas was third in the latter. Doug Tanner was sixth in spelling, and Mike McConnell was sixth in accounting, Ryan and Howard took fourth and fifth respectively in accounting. The varsity basketball season was one of ups and downs as the team opened with four losses and then came back with four wins. Although the team finished the season with a 6-8 Big Eight record, they managed to tie for fourth in the league and played their best basketball of the season in the district tournament at Bronson. The Varsity O's throttled Bronson 66-48 and then lost a heartbreaking overtime district championship game to Jonesville.

Jason Coolman was named to the Big Eight All Conference team while Clint Cook and Wade Paul received Honorable Mention. Coolman also received Special Mention honors in the All State balloting.

The Team: Front: Chad McGlothlen, Jason Coolman, Jeff Lutterbeck, Iggy Lazaro, Clint Cook, Kirk Cutler. Back: Jeff Craig, Kevin Longhini, Mike McConnell, Doug Tanner, Wade Paul, Derik Reichhart, and Coach Doug Johnson. Johnson was assisted by Chuck Cook and Doug Riegle.

Wrestling season in 1987-88 was an outstanding success as the Oriole matmen finished second in the Big Eight with a 5-1 league record. Their non-conference record was 4-3, while they took first place in three tournaments.

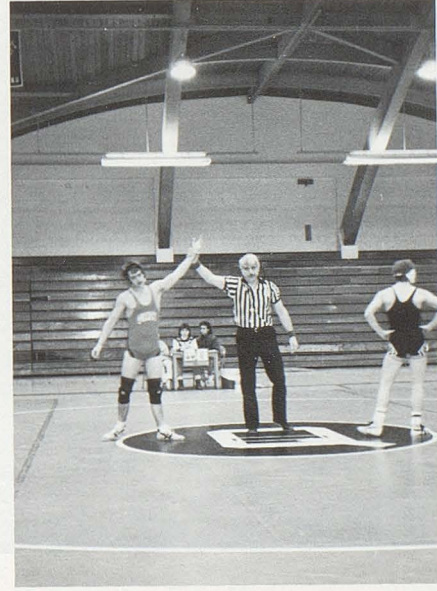

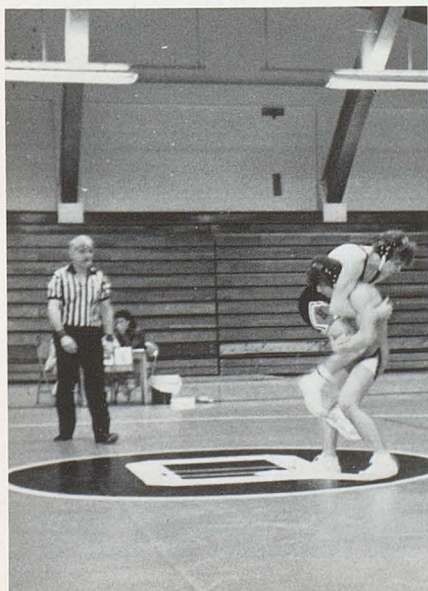

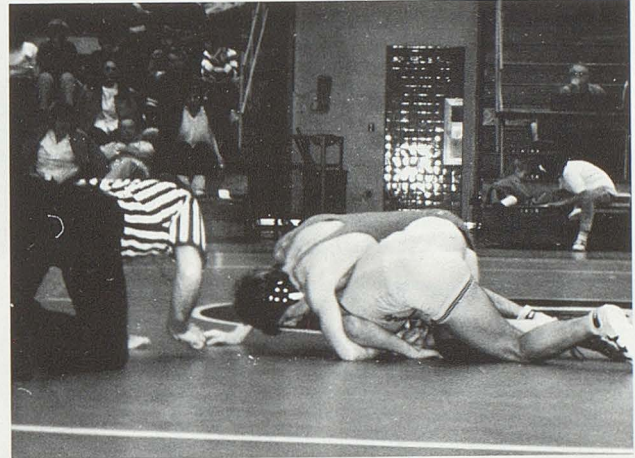

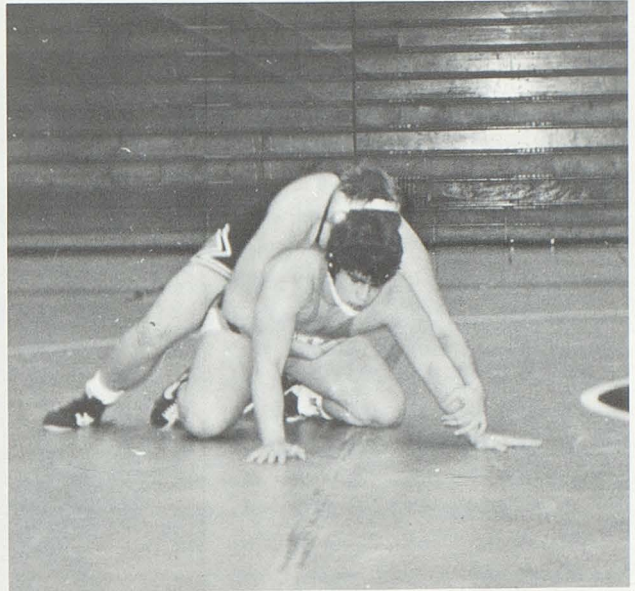

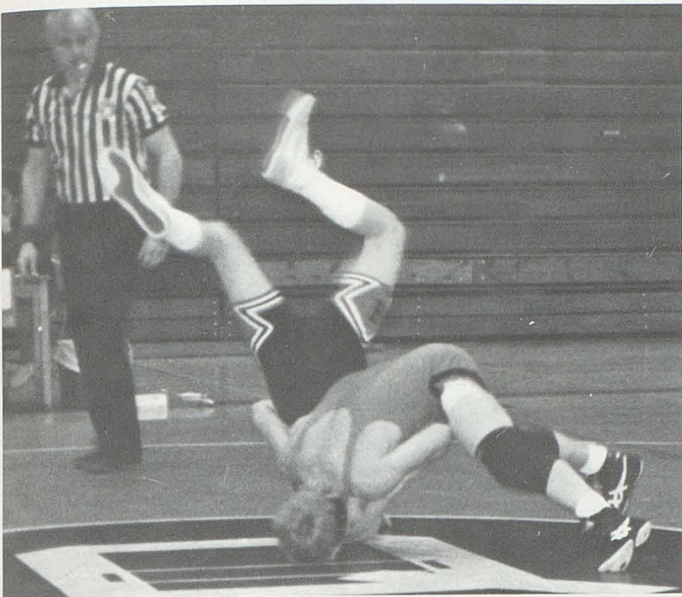

Undefeated wrestlers in the league included Shawn Cockrell and Glen Hard. These two also set Big Eight records and QHS records for fastest pins in their weight classes. Derek Ball, Mike Clemenson, and Gary Woods also established QHS records for fastest pins.

Shawn Cockrell, who received team awards for most takedowns, most falls, most team points, the Rookie Award, and the Most Valuable Award, was first in the big Eight and third at State. Glen Hard was also first in the league and a state qualifier. Gary Woods was first in the league and at the regional and sixth at State. He also received the Hard Nose Team Award. Tim Wilkins was honored with both the Most Improved and Spark Plug Team Awards.

STANDING SEASON

FUTURE BRIGHT FOR BOYS' TRACK

The Oriole track team placed fifth in the Big Eight meet to give them sixth place overall in the conference. This year's team was very young and inexperienced, but is looking forward to a very bright future. Kirk Henning, Todd Male, Mike McConnell, all weight people, and Clint Cook and Corey McLain, both hurdlers, were the leaders of this year's team. Clint Cook set new school records in the 330 yd. hurdles with a time of 43.5. Kirk Henning took the regional championship in the shot put while both he and Todd Male qualified for the state meet in that event. Male also was the area best champion in both the shot and the discus.

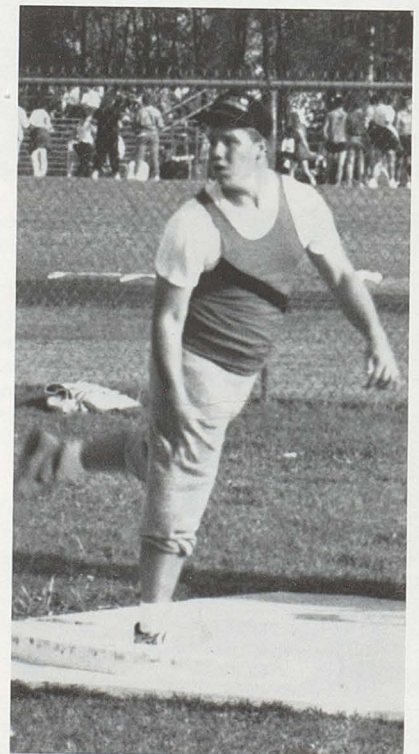

The Team: Front: Jeff Erts, Mark Persails, Iggy Lazaro, Chad McGlothlen, Wes Dove, David Stempfen. JV's Bring Home a Winning Season

The girls were a hard-working, dedicated team. They faced each challenge together and grew together. Their future is very bright, and they form a very fine nucleus for the varsity, according to their coach Larry Moore.

THE TEAM — Front: Melinda Hagaman, Lisha Loveberry, Roni Minton, Melissa Dodd, Kelly Craig, Manager Marci McGlothlen. Back: Jodee Scharp, Rachel Booher, Angie Jeffrey, Tara May, Amy Shook, Tina Lippert, and Coach Larry Moore.

JV'S HAVE WINNING SEASON

The JV Basketball team posted a 12-7 season record and a 9-5 Big Eight record for a winning season. The team included: Front: Travis Tell, Chris Jeffrey, Ed Parshall, Jason Price, Tyler Stewart, Tate Reichhart, Jason Tell. Back: Derek Lytle, Shane Russell, Mike Tanner, Ron Christian, Leon Knirk, Chad Curtis, and Coach Chuck Cook.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Quest Class of Mrs. Victoria Budd held its annual mock wedding on March 24 at 8:30 a.m. at the Union Church. Kelli Michael and Kent Wyatt and Jenni Leosh and Landon Garner exchanged vows.

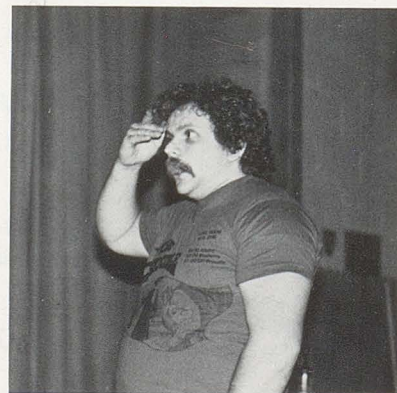

"Phun with Physics" is the title of the mural painted by the physics class: Jim Howard, Jodi Lemke, Tina Briggs, Derek O'Connell, Trent Bair, Mr. Scott Weber (teacher), Mike McConnell, Greg Dobson, Missy McMichael, Connie Scott, Brian Hall, Doug Tanner, and Richard Dobson.

Students participating in the Knowledge Master Open. Really they were all intent on the computer screen until they realized their picture was being taken!

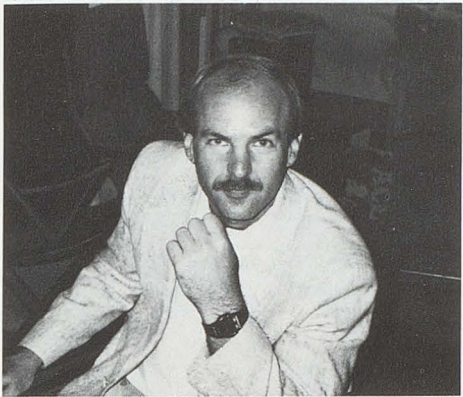

Mr. Anderson produced many fine dramatic productions in his two year tenure at Q.H.S.

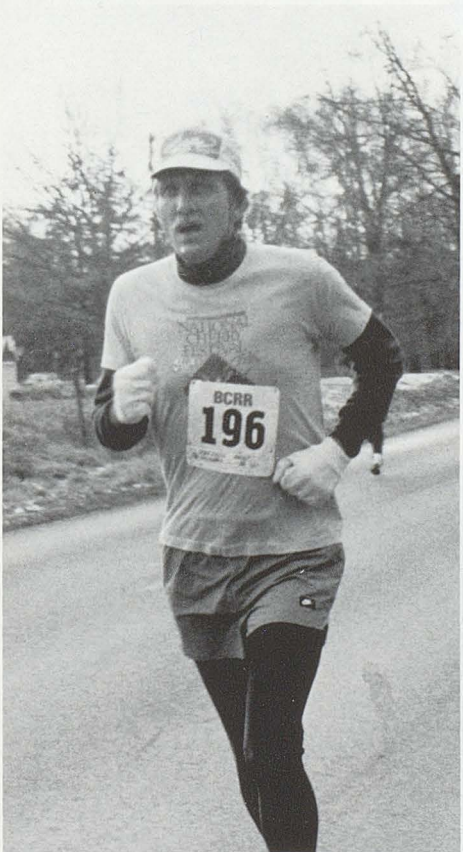

Mr. Spalding always finds something to do, whether it's hanging out with gorillas (actually this was taken the day of his 50th birthday) or swabbing the gym floor (during the Oriole Week games).

Mr. Evon in "before" and "after" shots. Does acquiring a full head of hair make one tired?!

Which Mr. Parzych is the "serious" runner?

REMEMBER THE GOOD TIMES . . .

1) Mrs. Lois Ingraham came to QHS in 1974 in the position of secretary for the guidance office. She leaves us this year to move to Reed City with her husband. Many students will always remember her as "Mom" because she always had a smile and time for the students and their problems. 2) Mr.

Marty Chard, girls' track coach for 21 seasons, stepped down from his post at the end of the 1988 season after piling up a 130-17-0 record which included a 65-dual meet win streak. The Lady O's earned seven conference titles, 32 invitational titles and six regional titles under his tutelage.

3) Mr. Dan Ludlow, former QHS athletic director, receives an award from current A.D., Mr. Lonney Evon, for all the years of his dedication to athletics at QHS.

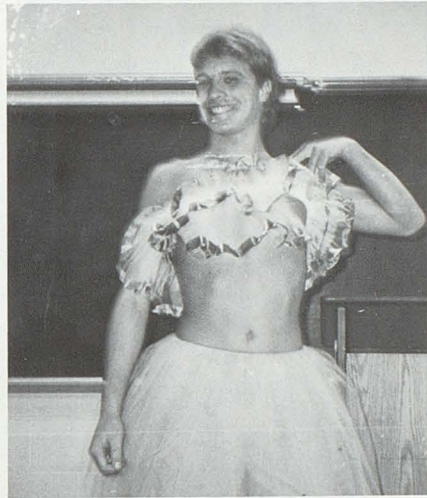

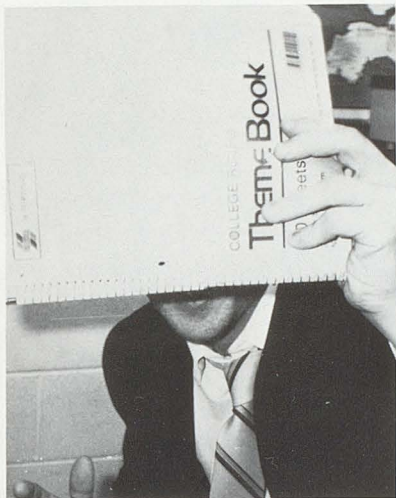

4) Coach Doug Johnson, fondly known as "GIP" to athletes and students, celebrates the boys' basketball victory over Bronson during the district tournament. Coach Johnson retired from coaching this year after nine seasons at the helm of varsity basketball.

MORE GOOD TIMES!

1) Seniors autograph the senior bench which was a gift from the Class of '88 to all succeeding senior classes. At the end of the year the bench couldn't be found. Did you guys take it with you? 2) The senior A.P. class on its Chicago trip. 3) Richard Dobson avoided photographs all year — something about his spirit being captured in the camera! 4) Greg Dobson, however is not in the least bit camera-shy. 4) We believe Michelle Jeffrey to be praying for deliverance from all this nonsense. 6) Some of the seniors in their favorite morning hangout — the commons.

The Oriole staff extends thank yous and appreciation to the many people who helped us in one way or another: the faculty for tolerating interruptions in their classes for group photo shots, Mr. Spalding for his support, Mrs. Natuschi for her help in financial matters, our parents for allowing us to attend work sessions, the custodians for letting us into the building and cleaning up after us, coaches and advisors who contributed statistics and/or information, Mr. Lee Zimmerman of Taylor Publishing Company for his help, Mr. Ron Philbrick of the Carousel for his never ending hours of work taking and developing photos, area businesses for their financial support, and the many others who helped us out.

Special thanks are extended to Mrs. Cindy Moore who provided us with photos to fill in when our pictures didn't turn out.

We hope you enjoyed our efforts!

The 1988 Oriole Staff
