1959

The
Quincy Oriole -
Annual for 1959

Quincy High School Quincy, Michigan

Foreword

This year's Oriole Annual may look changed to some of you. It is back to its original size, 10-1/2" x 7-3/4". After four years of the use of patrons, advertising has returned to the annual. Something new, an index, listing every person in the book and the pages his pictures appears on, has been added. This year, because of lack of money, the elementary has been left out. Because of a spring delivery, baseball, track, tennis, Junior-Senior Banquet, and the J-Hop had to be left out.

I would like to thank all the staff and Mr. Fletcher, Edwards Brothers, printers, Mr. Sutula, photographer, the faculty and administration, and all students, especially Tom Barrett and JoAnn Blue, who helped sell subscriptions and Donna Funk and Kay Zimmerman, who helped with paste ups and typing, for their wonderful co-operation and service.

Quincy's faculty was blessed with a new principal this year in the person of Mr. William Hanichen, formerly, of Mendon High School, replacing Mr. Van Landingham who moved to Forest Hall High School at Cascade, Michigan.

Other replacements in the academic line up were Miss Jane Crider who replaced Mrs. Deal in Home Economics when she left to join her husband in the Army. Mr. Johnson, from Ball State Teachers College replaced Mr. Gerst in Biology who left for Nebraska to work on his masters degree.

Mr. Hubert Hensel, from Taylor University took Mr. Preston's place in Junior High science classes when he left to teach in Indiana.

Mr. Hilborn took Mr. Bard's seventh and eighth grade social science classes.

And finally Mr. Van Ness also of Mendon took over the Band when Mr. Hause left for University High School in Kalamazoo.

Classes

The classes are composed of many different personalities and individuals. The classes even differ from year to year. The Freshmen are shy and quite devoted to getting acquainted with each other. The Sophomores become more bold, they join in committees and organization. The Juniors and Seniors are the leaders of the school, even if some of their examples aren't very good.

An educational program is set up to offer many different subjects. A student can choose a Commercial course, College Preparatory, Agriculture or a General course of study.

The Freshmen held the Bunny Hop in March which is their annual dance.

The Sophomores Sadie Hawkins dance was a treat for the males of the school, with the girls footing the bills.

The J-Hop wasn't held at the time of the publication of this book. But it will be a success as it always is.

Seniors

Five new seniors have been added this year. That makes the senior class a grand total of 64. They are; Jim Taylor from Albion, Dot Rogerson from North Carolina, Velma Lawrence from Coldwater, Charles Waderlow from Ohio, and Virginia Brents from Texas.

Tom Barrett and Roxy Bates were crowned Homecoming King and Queen on October 17, 1958. The whole senior class showed a lot of enthusiasm throughout the entire week and tied for second place for the pep jug with the Juniors.

The Seniors went to Detroit on Nov. 18, 1958 to visit the Federal Reserve Band of Detroit and The Ford Motor Co. The trip was a very interesting and educational one.

On Jan. 7, 1959 the senior class was visited by Senator Smeekens. He gave a very interesting talk on what our Senators and Representatives do for us.

The senior play, "Jane Eyre" by Wall Spence, was quite successful. It had been postponed twice because of bad weather, but in spite of everything it was seen on Feb. 2, 1959. There was a party afterwards that seemed to be a success also.

The Jr.—Senior Banquet on April 10, was a very enjoyable affair. The entertainment and food was excellent.

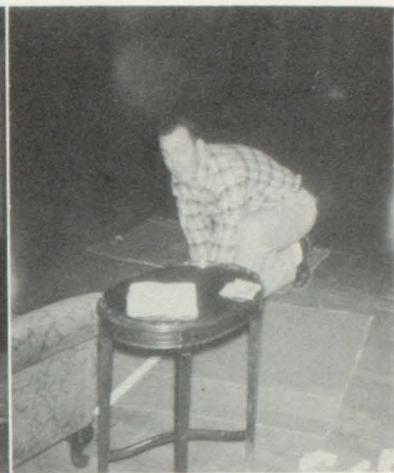

The J-Hop was a beautiful and colorful event. The boys were in their suits and the girls in their formals.

Baccalaureate Service took place on May 24, 1959 and Commencement Night was May 29, 1959. The seniors faces were lighted up with delight as they received their diplomas.

Our advisors this year have been Mrs. Volkert and Mr. Clark.

Co-valedictorian for the year were Bill Taylor, and Sheila Langstaff, with a 3,60 point average. Salutatorian for the year was Janet Grindall with a 3,404 point average.

Juniors

The Junior class is very lucky in having for their advisors this year Mr. Fletcher (head advisor), Mr. Elenbaas, and Mr. Monk for their three homeroom teachers.

The Juniors showed a lot of spirit during Homecoming week. The theme of their float was "The Triangle of Victory". After much rivalry between the Seniors and Juniors, both classes tied for second place for the Pep Jug.

The Juniors were to give a WOWO Record Hop but because of bad weather the regular disc jockey Marvin Hunter, was unable to come. Jim Taylor was a pretty good substitute for him.

The Junior Play, Wedding Spells, which took place on the 31st of March turned out to be very hilarious comedy. The Juniors and Senior Banquet which was the next big item took place on the 10th of April. Everyone enjoyed the meal and entertainment very much. The Juniors worked very hard on it.

The Prom took place in May. Everyone looked real nice dressed in their formals and suits.

The Junior class is very fortunate in having two new additions this year, Ron Price from Wyandotte Detroit, and Beverly Wireman from Marshall.

A record hop was held April 3 and it was enjoyed by all.

Sophomores

The class of "61" left their green years behind them as they started their journey through their sophomore year. Bruce Himebaugh was elected president in the spring of "58" to lead them.

The sophomores started the year with 71 students in their class. Along the way they lost Diane Palmateer and Janit Hall and gained John Mahon from Battle Creek and Robert Chapman and Charles Stempien from Coldwater, St. Charles, which made the total 72.

The first big event for the sophomores was the winning of the pep jug during the Homecoming, October 17, 1958. They took first with their yell which was made up by Judy Hampton and Margaret Cook, and they also took first with their float. The theme for the float was "Key to Victory" on which the class spent about $40.00. They also had candidates on the King's and Queen's court. The two lucky people were Judy Hampton and Doug Sattler.

On November 8, 1958 they sponsored the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance. The music was by the "Progressives," a four piece band from Coldwater. Jackie Smith (a freshman) was crowned "Queen Daisy" while Doug Sattler took the honor of being crowned "King Abner". A profit of about $20.00 was made on the dance.

Because the Juniors were unable to use their date for a WOWO record hop they gave it to the Sophomores. This hop was held January 10, 1959. Marv Hunter one of WOWO's favorite disc jockeys presided at the hop. The high school auditorium where the hop was held was packed with over two hundred people. The profit from this dance was $163.60.

Last but not least they had a dance after the Jonesville game on February 20, 1959. The class made a profit of $43.95.

On March 13, 1959 the Teeryberry Company sent a salesman with an assortment of rings for the class to choose their style. This is the first time in the history of Quincy High that a class has been able to choose their rings during their sophomore year.

The sophomore class would like to sincerely thank Mrs. Adams, Mr. Van Ness, and especially Mr. Fischer, for going along with this projects.

This year the class of "61" made over $250.00. As of March 18, 1959 there was $344.40 in the treasurer.

Freshmen

The freshmen glories started when they won second place in the float contest at Homecoming. They had all worked hard on it, and it was a real thrill.

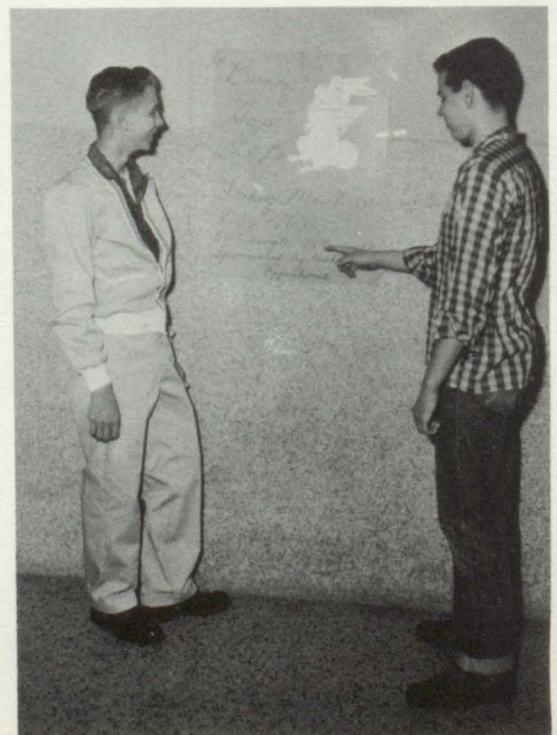

The theme was "Record of Victory".

Le Moyne Dowell and Arden Anthony were chosen to represent the class of "62" on the Homecoming Court.

Tobagging at Pokagon was fun along with the usual face-washings. A lot of kids brought their skates and the party was enjoyed by everyone who attended.

Along in March, the annual Bunny Hop came up and the Freshmen proved competent, as they worked hard to make it a success.

Ending their Freshmen year they are holding many memories and are looking forward to their Sophomore year.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade, even though inexperienced, showed the school they had a good portion of the school spirit. At homecoming they worked harder on their floats. It looked very nice and all their efforts were well rewarded.

Twice again their spirit was shown by topping all other classes and coming in first in the magazine drive and the clothing drive. They were rewarded with a free movie and getting in free to the dance, "Starlight Sonta".

The class' toboggan party was enjoyed by everyone. Everyone returned home cold, and tired but happy.

Helping the class over the rough spots was Mr. Dillion, Mr. Cesler, and Mr. Hansel. Directing the class was Ricky Barrett, president, assisting him was Evelyn Kratzer, vice president, Judy Hutchins, secretary, and Neil Wilcox, treasurer.

A few eighth graders are in the "A" Band. Also many of the boys are on the Junior High basketball team, while several girls are cheerleaders for them.

The class is looking forward to becoming Freshmen and a part of the Senior High. When the class of "63" graduates, they will have one of the largest classes in Quincy's history.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade started the year off right by coming in, in second place in the magazine drive and was allowed to go to the free movie, The Babe Ruth Story, held in the gym.

They also won second place in the clothing drive, but only the first place winners were allowed to attend the Student Council dance.

Mr. Hilborn has been teaching the seventh grade about the world and all the little essentials of good grammar. Mr. Omo has been teaching the fundamentals of math. Mr. Johnson's classes have each had to hand in a scrapbook and a science project. Mr. Hansel's classes have also been doing similar projects in science and math.

The seventh graders have had a wonderful time in their first year of Junior High and are looking forward to their second year.

Organization

The organizations were very busy this year having parties, lunches, and practicing for their various professions.

The F.F.A. delegate for the National F.F.A. Convention was Francis Hard. Francis worked very hard to earn this honor.

The F.H.A. held lunches for the F.F.A. and chili feeds that were very successful.

Girls from the F.T.A. worked at the elementary school throughout the year. The experience helped a few decide on their professions.

The F.N.C. had many girls working at the hospital in Coldwater.

The Student Council was busy as always, governing the student body.

Winning three out of four meets, the debate team had a fairly successful year, coached by Mr. Fletcher.

The ever-faithful journalism staff published an informative paper weekly.

Feeding the Student body was the concessions committee at games.

The bands provided entertainment with their music. As always, they came back from trips with honors. The pep band provided spirited music at the basketball games. In the marching season, the majorettes attractively led the bands down the field.

These clubs are very educational. Through them experience is found. Members interests are aroused in a certain fields of which they might like to choose for their lifes occupation. Whether it is a Future Teacher or Future Homemaker these will be the people and parents of tomorrow.

The Student Council's next activity was the magazine drive. A total of $2436.97 was brought in. The Junior High were awarded with a free movie, "The Babe Ruth Story". The money from the drive was used to purchase a new scoreboard for the gym.

With eight debates scheduled the Quincy Debate Team, at the time of this writing had won three out of four debates.

Quincy does not have a debate team, but interested members of the speech class take turns.

In the debate against Springport Bob Anderson and Charles Vicory lost; but the negatives, Janet Grindall and Bill Taylor, won.

The debate against Union City saw both the affirmatives, Karen Semmelroth, and Susan Zeck, and the negatives, Autumn Lou Dobson and Charon Trall bringing home a victory.

The Climax Scott debate was postponed because of bad weather. After this came the debate with Morenic, with Janet Grindall and Charles Vicory debating affirmative and Bill Taylor and Susan Zeck debating negative.

Meetings are held once a month. Educational reports are heard from members of the club.

A scholarship fund has been discussed but the details are still undecided.

One of the main purposes of the club is to offer members the opportunity to gain actual experience through helping teachers or substituting for them. Each member choose a grade they would like to teach and help the teacher of that grade during their free period. A F. T. A. member may substitute for a teacher who may be absent for a few hours.

Credit is given for each hour of work and an award is handed out to members who have worked.

The club isn't all work, a Christmas party was held at Jo Ann Blue's home, gag gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served.

The girls planned to sell chili at noon and to sell pencils.

The F. F. A. Donkey Basketball game was a big success in more ways than one because the faculty looked funnier than the donkeys.

The party held in honor of the F. H. A. was held at Pokagon State Park. The night was cold and crisp, and even colder when going down the long slippery toboggan run.

The F. F. A. held their initiation for the Freshmen and most of the parents were present to see their sons become F. F. A. members. Cider and doughnuts were served after the meeting.

GUILTS were given to the F. F. A. greenhands in exchange for two pigs out of the litter like what has been done in the past.

We held monthly meetings and discussed the events in the future or old business. For the F. F. A. boys and Mr. Fischer it can be said that this has been quite a successful year.

James Willien was selected captain of the twenty-four Junior High boys in the group. The four lieutenants are; Neil Wilcox, Yale Wentworth, Craig Omo, and Kieth Hayward.

The highlight of the year was a trip to Detroit to see the Tigers in action. The advisor, Mr. Omo, and the boys must be given a hand for their fine job.

The reason why Quincy's safety record is so good is the continuing effort of the safety patrol. Quincy has the distinguished record of being one of the few towns to have a safety patrol for the high school.

Hall Monitors

BOTTOM—Sue Ann Saunders, Phyllis Funk, Janit Hall, Nancy Jaynes, Judy Hampton.

Mr. Hanichen, principal, appointed hall monitors. There are two hall monitors on duty each hour of the day, one in the upper and one in the lower hall.

Each person has his or her duties to carry out.

Each monitor should check to see that the other monitor is on duty, if he is not a report is made to the principal or study hall teacher so a reliable person can be appointed.

Each person coming on duty should be at his station before the last bell.

They are to see that each student passing through the halls has a pass slip or pass board also to make sure students go directly to the room indicated on their pass slips and to see that students passing through the halls conduct themselves in a proper manner.

Another duty is to assist strangers or visitors to our school in getting to their destination.

Offenders are sent to the office for discipline.

Varsity Club

This year's Varsity or Q Club wasn't too active although it had more meetings than in the previous years.

The officers of the Q Club are as follows: Bill Laurell, President; Al Watson, Secretary; Bob Hacker, Treasurer.

In the first meeting of the year the club decided to have a dance, but unfortunately it wasn't possible. Also discussed was the possibility of having a constitution and Coldwater Varsity Club was asked for advice on this matter.

In a later meeting the letters were handed out to all the award winners from the year before and it was found who was to receive pins for the second year lettermen. A game was set up between Faculty and the Q Club boys. The game turned out to be quite a success.

In the spring an honors assembly will be held to give out the awards to the players.

Concessions

The hardest working committee in Quincy High School is Mr. Evans' Concession committee. They are open for business every home game for every sport, football, basketball, and baseball.

The committee has taken in $800.16 as the total amount at the end of March.

The money is used for needed items and expenditures around school. It was used to underwrite last year's annual and this year an opaque projector has been bought.

A much needed project is being undertaken by the Home Ec. girls, the cleaning of the concession room.

Annual Staff

The "58"- "59" annual was sent to Edwards Brothers Publishing Co. on March 19. This means an elimination of pictures taken at the J-Hop, Junior-Senior Banquet, Bunny Hop, style show, baseball, track, and graduation.

The elementary pictures were also omitted because of a shortage of money.

Advertising will be used instead of patrons. This means an extra amount of work, but Jeff Holcomb, advertising editor, and his staff consisting of Virginia Brents, Peg Gerth, Roxy Bates, and Terry Myers did a tremendous job. They brought in a total of $675. in two months.

The drive for the subscriptions was set for November. The whole staff with the help of JoAnn Blue and Tom Barrett, worked constantly. Two hundred fifty seven subscriptions were received. This was the most taken in, in many years.

A blue cover with white lettering was chosen by the class. The book will return to its usual size of 7 3/4" x 10 1/2".

An index will be a new feature in the "59" annual. Each person's name is listed with the organization and the page on which they are found.

Sometimes the deadlines were hard to meet, but it will seem nice to get the annual in May.

The pictures for the annual were taken by R. S. Sutula, school photographer.

Joyce Puckett and Carol Riddle were the annual's Art editors. Virginia Brents was treasurer of the project. Dorothy Rogerson, Peggy Gerth, Barbara Ehl and Donna Funk were the typists.

Mr. Fletcher, advisor, chose Sheila Langstaff for Editor-in-Chief, Sheila selected Sharon Shilling as Business Manager to share the many responsibilities in producing the annual.

Oriole - paper staff Qriole

The Journalism class has done a successful job this year in trying to bring news to the students. It isn't an easy job to dig up all the news and make a report on it. They have worked hard and long hours trying to produce a paper for the students enjoyment. Long hours after school have been kept to make sure the stories were written and the paper was made up.

There is nothing the Journalism student didn't know about what is going on around school. You could have called them nosey and curious people, but they weren't really. They were just doing their job looking for news.

On the resignation of Roxie Bates, editor-in-chief, and Charlene Wright, exchange editor, Donna Brazee was promoted to editor-in-chief, Nancy Ehl was made assistant editor, and Jeff Holcomb and Al Lampman were made exchange editors.

A Band

1958 saw Quincy's A Band traveling to Vicksburg, Ann Arbor, Holland, Coldwater, and Homer.

The first trip of the year was to Ann Arbor for Band Day and to see the game between Michigan and Southern California. Especially enjoyed by everyone was the massed bands playing "Seventy Six Trombones" under the direction of Meredith Wilson with 1,076 trombones carrying the melody.

The band received a first division rating for their performance at Coldwater, Oct. 8, in the Marching Festival, despite the muddy field.

Interested "A" and "B" Band members traveled to Ann Arbor to hear the University of Michigan Concert Band January 8. Several of the numbers on the program were excerpts from Verdi's "Manyoni Requiem", the first movements of "Symphony No. 2 for Band" by Erickson, and "March Hongroise" from "The Damnation of Faust". Guest conductor, Robert Russell Bennett conducted "Symphonic Songs for Band", which he composed. Cornet soloist, Mr. Don Jacoby, was especially enjoyed by the band. He was featured in "Dramatic Essay for Trumpet and Band".

Quincy Band Members also participated in a massed band concert at Homer with bands from Homer, Jonesville, Kellogg Center, and Litchfield. The Bands were under the direction of Mr. George Cavender, assistant conductor at the University of Michigan.

The Band entered the district festival held at Vicksburg and returned home with a first division, allowing them to continue to the state festival.

Many of the bandmen entered the solo and ensemble contest at Kalamazoo. Three of these first ratings, a clarinet solo, a trombone solo and a woodwind quintet.

The band also took pleasure trips. They traveled to Detroit, November 22 to see the ice follies which they all enjoyed. Also they went to Pokagon, but the weather was too warm for good tobogganing, however they had lots of fun having snowball fights.

The trip to Holland was a great success, as were Band Tag Day and the Spring and Fall concerts, all of which helped the band to buy their stroboconn. The stroboconn, by electrical impulses, tells whether an instrument is in tune or not.

The Band Parents helped the band in many ways buy their biggest project was the Fun Festival which netted $350 towards the stroboconn which cost about $700. New tympany were also added to the band this year.

Officers for the band this year are; Dallas Smith, President; Larry Wilcox, Vice-President; Karen Krymis, Secretary; Susan Wible, Treasurer; Roxy Bates, Student conductor.

Roxy worked out with the band and conducted Overature Dramatique by Fernand Andrieu in the Spring Concert.

B Band

The Vicksburg District Festival was the biggest event of the year for the Quincy B Band. This was the first year that Quincy has ever entered their Junior Band in a contest. The band also presented a precision drill this year at Homecoming.

20 ambitious "B" Band students participated in the District Solo and Ensemble Festival at Kalamazoo. Six of these 20 entered as solos, the other 14 composed the seven Jr. High ensembles.

Jackie Ames was chosen by her fellow musicians as president of the band, La Verne McDonald was elected as secretary, and Joyce Hall as treasurer.

The reserve band gained two sousaphone players this year, thus adding to the most important section of any band, the rhythm section.

Pep Band

"We're loyal to you Quincy High", these are the familiar words of Quincy Loyalty played by the pep band at all home games and pep assemblies.

The pep band does not have school time to practice so they get together before games to rehearse. Their enthusiasm helps to boost school spirit and pep. The pep band has been a tradition for many years.

The band plays during the reserve game and the first half of the varsity game, then they are free to watch the rest of the game.

A Band Majorettes

STANDING—Evelyn Spencer, Phyliss Owen, Dallas Smith, Janice Kochendorfer, Pat Hacker.

Our Majorettes took part in a twirling Exhibition along with Majorettes from 186 other bands, at the Ann Arbor Band Day last fall.

They were featured in marching shows between half time at some of the football games here in Quincy.

They give the A Band spirit and moral support while marching. They assist the band director at rehearsals in the marching season and are one of the hardest working groups in the band.

Dallas Smith is one of the highest strutting, Drum Majors that Quincy has ever had.

B Band Majorettes

STANDING: Sharon Johnson, Joyce Hall, Pam Manags.
KNEELING: Sharon Van Hoosier

Our younger majorettes have done an outstanding job this year. They have proven that they can do a good job for the A Band next year.

They have participated in a few high-lights such as marching with the B Band in the Homecoming Football game.

Each of the majorettes are newcomers to this job. The drum majorette is Joyce Hall.

Athletics

The winter sports started with football. Mr. Cesler's football team had a rough time; they lost all of the games. Quincy almost won some but, in the last few minutes of the games they lost.

Quincy basketball team did a little better than the football team. They too lost all but one game. Quincy defeated Jonesville in the last 30 seconds of the game because Quincy scored a foul shot.

But Quincy's Little Orioles had a much better year in as much as they won more games than last year. Quincy should have a better team next year because of the up and coming reserves.

Baseball hasn't started yet but there were quite a number of boys who came back to play on the team this year. Leroy Smith, Tom Barrett, Bud Hagaman, Jerry Todd, Rex Beamer, Duane Crapo, Larry Paul, George Converse, Walter Buel and Fred Watson.

With the experience we have the future looks bright for the Quincy Orioles baseball team.

Quincy is the only school in the conference with a tennis team.

Returning from last year are Dick Davis, Ron Willen, Bob Anderson, and Art Persails.

58 was a rough season for the Oriole gridders as they lost all 9 games they played. But this year's squad was much better than the record indicates as they held Homer to a 13-12 decision. No one will ever forget the Reading game in which the crowd was yelling victory. Quincy was leading 14-13 with less than a minute in the game. But fate took a turn and we lost it 19-14.

The scores game by game were:

Reserve Football

Although the varsity football team suffered another losing season, the reserves fared a little better. They came up with two ties against three defeats.

The reserves met Bronson twice winning one 26-0, and tying the second 13-13. The two encounters with Coldwater saw them tying one 6-6, and losing the next 13-7. The one game played with the Coldwater State Home was lost 12-6.

Even though this was no great season, comparing this record with that of the varsity's the last two years, the future looks a little brighter. According to Coach Cessler, "Quincy should be right in there among the best within two years".

Varsity Basketball

This years' varsity basketball team suffered another black year. They had 15 defeats against 1 win, over Jonesville, during the regular season.

At tournament time they drew Bronson, Conference Champs, for the first game. To add to the troubles, 4 of the team members were suspended for disciplinary reasons.

This year 6 members of the team will graduate. They are Jim Taylor, Larry Rogers, Tom Barrett, Dallas Smith, Coy Woodard, and Terry Myers, leaving Juniors Ron Quimby, Tom Copeland, and Duane Crapo, and Sophomores Bob Anderson, and Doug Sattler.

Reserve Basketball

The reserve team showed a lot of spirit this year, and most of the games were close, even though only two games were won. Lack of experience was the main weak point.

Arden Anthony, Dick Davis, Bob Wilson, and Everett Wineland were new to the team this year.

The most exciting game was the one at Litchfield. It was close and even went into overtime, however it was lost.

The reserves lost two players, Willie Kaiser and Duane Crapo. Willie was injured late in the season, and Duane was moved up to varsity.

Junior High Basketball

Quincy's Junior High team, which is composed of seventh and eighth graders, had a total of 14 recorded games, but played more than that.

Eighth graders, Billy Adams and Terry Thatcher, were the high point men in all the games for the eighth grade team, and Keith Hayward and Jimmy Rodgers were high point men for the seventh grade team.

Mr. Dillon said, "That it was a successful year for the team and should be better next year."

All the boys were full of hope and played hard even when they were being beaten.

The usual starting five for the eighth grade were Billy Adams, James Willen, Neil Wilcox, Richard Hartley, and Terry Thatcher. For the seventh grade team it was Jimmy Rodgers, Herb Johnson, Don Daniels, Mike Smith, and Kieth Hayward.

Quincy's team traveled to 7 of their games and played 7 at home.

At the end of the season the seventh grade team traveled to Tekonsha to play in a two game elimination tournament. First team they played was with Litchfield. They beat Quincy 32 to 22. The second game with St. Charles was lost by 4 points but the score was unknown at the time of printing.

The team was awarded two trophies. One was for sportsmanship and the other was for consolation.

Queens

Miss Jane Crider was the Queen's coach this year. Donna Funk and Kay Zimmerman were chosen as managers to assist Miss Crider in her many duties.

Due to a late start and a lack of teams in this area, only three games were played.

The two games with Reading were won 28-23 and 27-22, but the game with Camden was lost 16-23.

It was a successful year, as many new girls went out for basketball and gained experience for next year. The girls games were very exciting. Many times the team was behind by a large margin but came through and brought home a victory.

Roxy Bates and Sharon Shilling served as co-captains. Both girls have played four years and will receive their trophies.

The Queen's are well noted for their records in the past, their orange and black basketball uniforms, and their juicy oranges and sour lemons they eat at time out.

At the last game the team gave Miss Crider a red corsage to show their appreciation for being such a wonderful coach. She gave parties after the games which were enjoyed by all.

"Best of Luck" to the future Quincy Queens and may they hold their reputation as being one of the best in this area.

Reserve Basketball Cheerleaders

Susan Wibel, Denise Vogel, Carolyn Locke, and Judy Fisher have led the Reserve fans for the past year in their yells.

It was rough going, for the boys didn't have a good year, as far as winning goes, but the team and their cheerleaders will be remembered a long time for their spirit.

Susan Wibel was chosen captain of the squad, and it was her first year. It was also Denise Vogel's and Carolyn Locke's first year. Judy Fisher is the most experienced, with three years to her credit.

Queens' Cheerleaders

Pat Scott, Allen Watson, Ken Stempion, and Phil Wilson were the boys cheering the Quincy Queens to victory this year. The boys introduced tumbling with their cheers and really attracted everyone's eye.

These boys have been active in other school activities throughout their high school career also. All four of the boys are in the Varsity Club and Ken, Al, and Phil played on the Varsity football team. Allen was a member of the track team two years ago. Pat has been an active member of the Quincy Chapter of the Future Farmers of America and this year was elected president of the group. Phil has been a Quincy bandsman for three years.

Pat and Allen have been on the cheerleading squad for two years.

Three of the boys Pat, Allen, and Phil, are seniors this year and plan to travel out of Michigan after graduation and get jobs, Pat and Al in California and Phil in Kentucky.
