

Oriole 70

*Published by the students of
Quincy High School
Quincy, Michigan*

Quincy enters the Astrology, bell-bottomed pants and mini-skirts. We always managed to keep right along with the times. From our modern new athletic field to our library stocked with the latest books. From the hit songs sung by entertainers at our assemblies to those played by our number one band.

Even though our "sun signs" weren't always in accordance with our "ruling planet," we managed to get by with the good times outnumbering the bad by a notable margin. We always had good times while watching our District Champs play basketball. 1970 was also a good year for building floats, going to parties, bowling, and having fun.

Class Officers

The class of '71 is strung together with Virginia Suevers, President; Jack Foster, Vice President; Freda Cortright, Secretary; Wanda Pifer, Treasurer; and Jim DeLine, Historian.

The sophomore class does all their parking with Robyn Grimes, Treasurer; Karleen Warkoczeski, Secretary; Connie Cox, President; Bev Gallop, Historian; and Randy Taylor, Vice President.

Guess who Jeff Hugget, Treasurer; Terry Topp, Secretary; Dennis Bowen, Vice President; and Steve Worth, President; are hiding from?

ACTIVITIES

*Homecoming festivities enjoyed by many to the theme of
"Nursery Rhymes
and Fairy Tales"*

Cheerleaders lead Football Players in Parade.

Here we see the 7th graders doing their cheer which helped them win the pep can.

Student body shows spirit at Pep Rally.

Jr.'s "show off" their number one posters.

Seniors worked hard and received second place.

Freshmen "Tromp The Trojans"

Jr.'s "sail in to Victory."

*Sophomores receive first place in their entry entitled
"Whip 'em"*

Sue Perry and Phil Warkoczeski reign over the activities

Although we lost, the team tried hard. Here is Roger (49) ahead of Trojans 4 Homer Trojans.

Q.H.S. student body showed a fine example of enthusiasm as they enjoyed participation in the Homecoming activities.

Although we lost our Homecoming game 14-0 to Homer Trojans students of Q.H.S., enjoyed the Homecoming spirit.

Kathy Nut passed the crown over to Sue.

Dorothy Felts: Miss Oriole 1970

Dorothy Felts was crowned Miss Oriole during the half-time of the Quincy-Onstead basketball game with Pam Fenno as first runner up. The student body votes for the girl with the most school spirit during the year.

Miss Oriole looks a little suspicious, huh?

Dorothy and her escort, Jim Deline.

Pam Fenno and her escort for the night, Rick Keith.

After Dorothy was crowned, Mr. Ludlow escorted her off the floor.

A Night in

Quincy students dancing in the dining room of the Sheraton Hotel in Battle Creek.

Jim DeLine served as Master of Ceremonies for the Occasion.

"Candyland"

Seniors end the 1970 Junior and Senior Banquet with their class song and poem.

Chris Osborn feels the beat.

The Rock Candy Band provided the music for the prom. They featured a fantastic 30 minute drum solo.

"It's a Mad Mad World"

Louise Wortz was crowned Melody Queen on the second of two big nights of the 1970 Band Bust to the theme of "It's A Mad Mad World."

The show consisted of skits, a light concert given by the Symphonic Band, three songs by the New Generation (the high school stage band), and many other musical presentations.

RIGHT: Wayne Riley served as Master of Ceremonies for the show.

BELOW, RIGHT: When Sandi McCann can't get out of the splits, other bandsmen came to the rescue.

BELOW: Kathy Miller and Freda Cortright provided some of the fills between acts.

RIGHT: Theresa Blair and Marlene Boley in their skit to "Colonel Bogey."

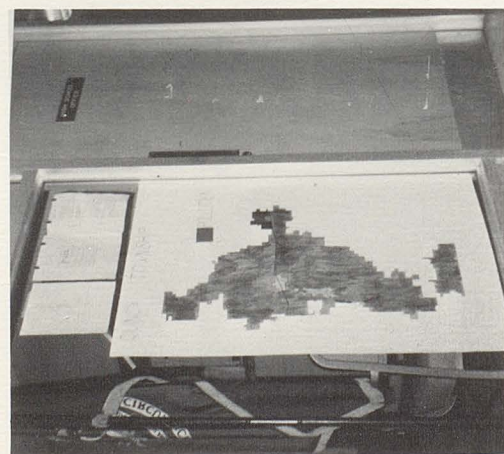

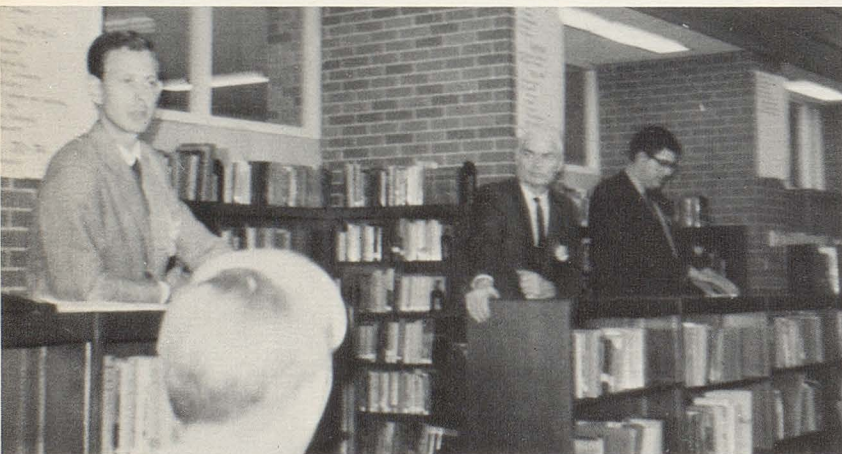

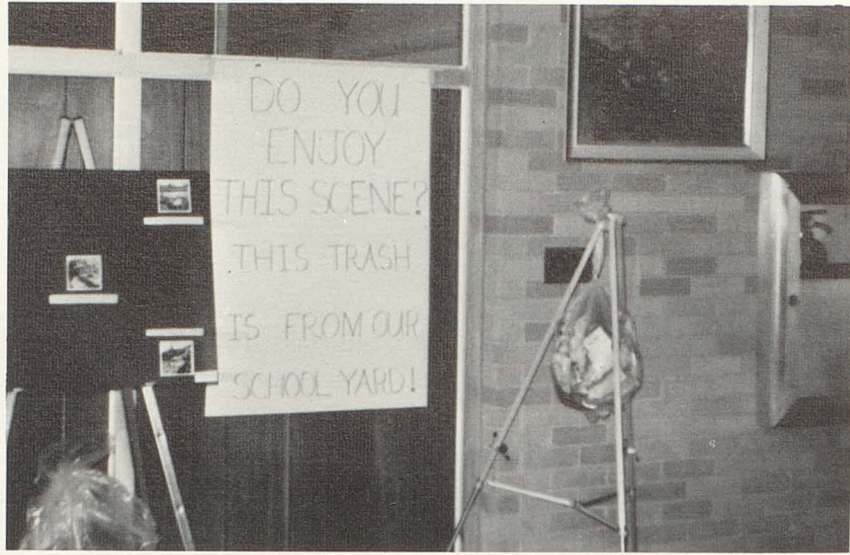

BELOW, RIGHT: Kathe King played "Charade" for a piano solo.

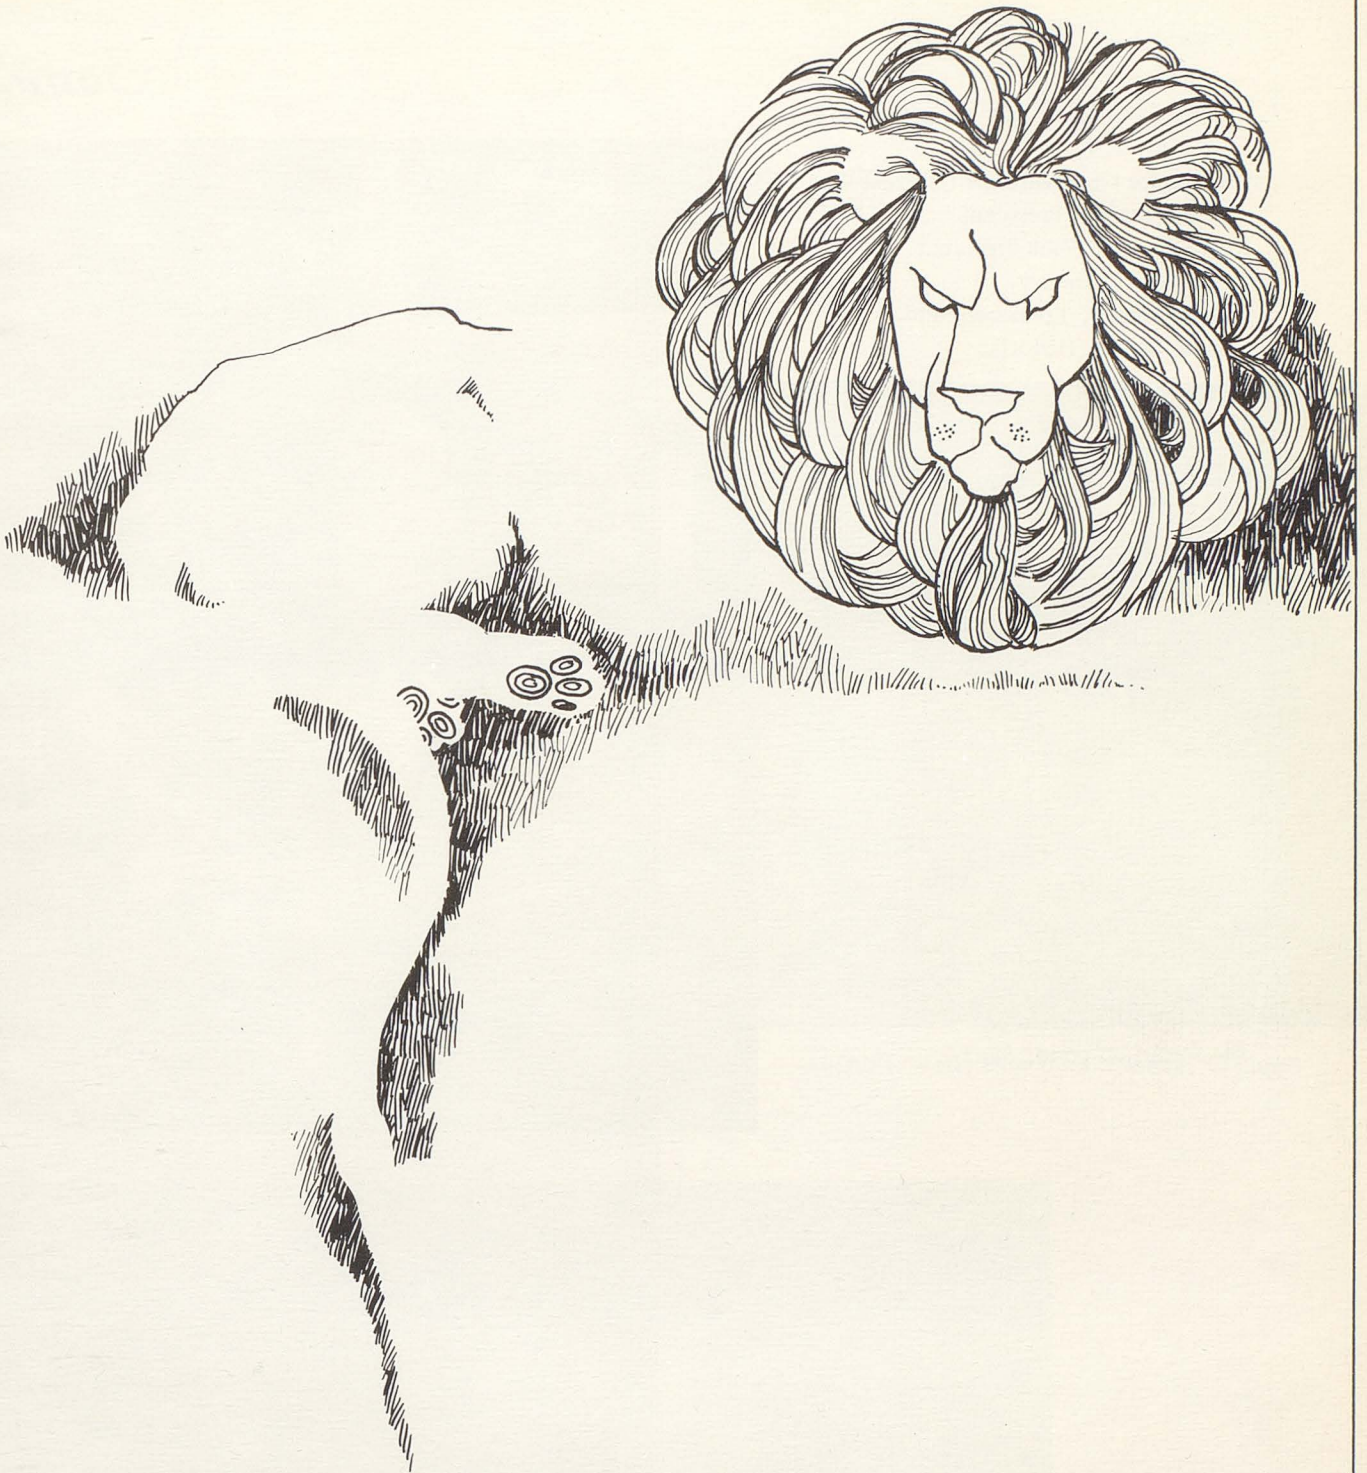

BELOW: "The Surprise Box" was really a surprise.

A Day on Pollution —

The Environmental Awareness Day was a good chance for the community to share viewpoints of the pollution problems around them. An assembly was held and proceeding it were sessions with outside people speaking of our problems. An addition to the outside speakers, there was a session held by the News Focus class dealing with Quincy's problems.

SENIORS

The Senior Class Officers this year are:
Ann Bowerman, President
Keith Preston, Vice President
Sue Perry, Secretary

English Department

There is a lot more to English than the eight parts of speech. Our English Department proved that. All of the teachers in this department were creative in thinking of something new to do each day. A trip to Ft. Wayne to see the play Macbeth was just one of many interesting activities sponsored by our English Department.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Yearbook Staff

A very small number of dedicated students compiled the 1970 Oriole. Despite the usual chaotic rush to meet deadlines, the club managed to fit in several chuckles during the year. Through the assistance of Miss JoAnne Bergamo, a student teacher from Hillsdale College, the club managed to solve many of its constant uprising problems. Mr. Eich was the staff advisor.

Editor Jim Deline: Need we say more?

Our hard-working Co-Editor, Virginia Suever.

Bev occasionally helps the yearbook staff.

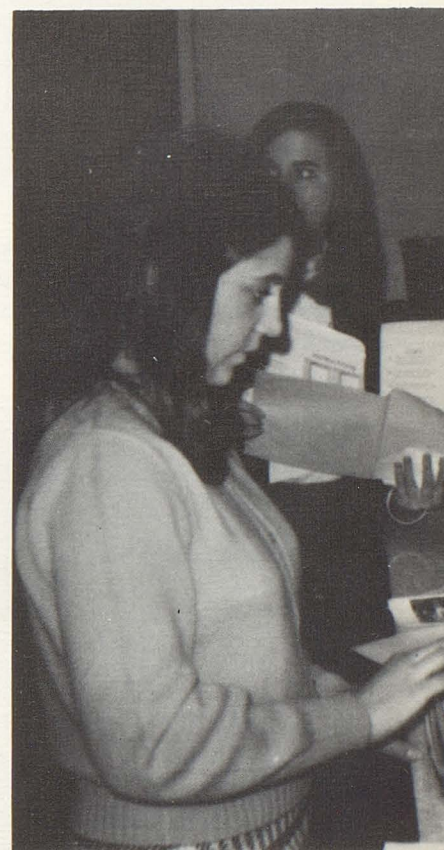

The girls are trying to think of yearbook selling ideas for their posters.

Now kiddies ...

ABOVE: Our staff was very fortunate to have JoAnne Bergamo, a student and teacher from Hillsdale College, help out this year.

LEFT: After a hard day's work of looking for his keys, Mr. Eich finally decides to correct our year-book layouts.

The High School Student Council helps to govern the school and to supply funds for many things. With the money from the magazine drive the Jr. and Sr. High Councils bought a very nice stereo outfit to supply everlasting music for our school dances. Many interesting assemblies were also made possible by the student council's funds.

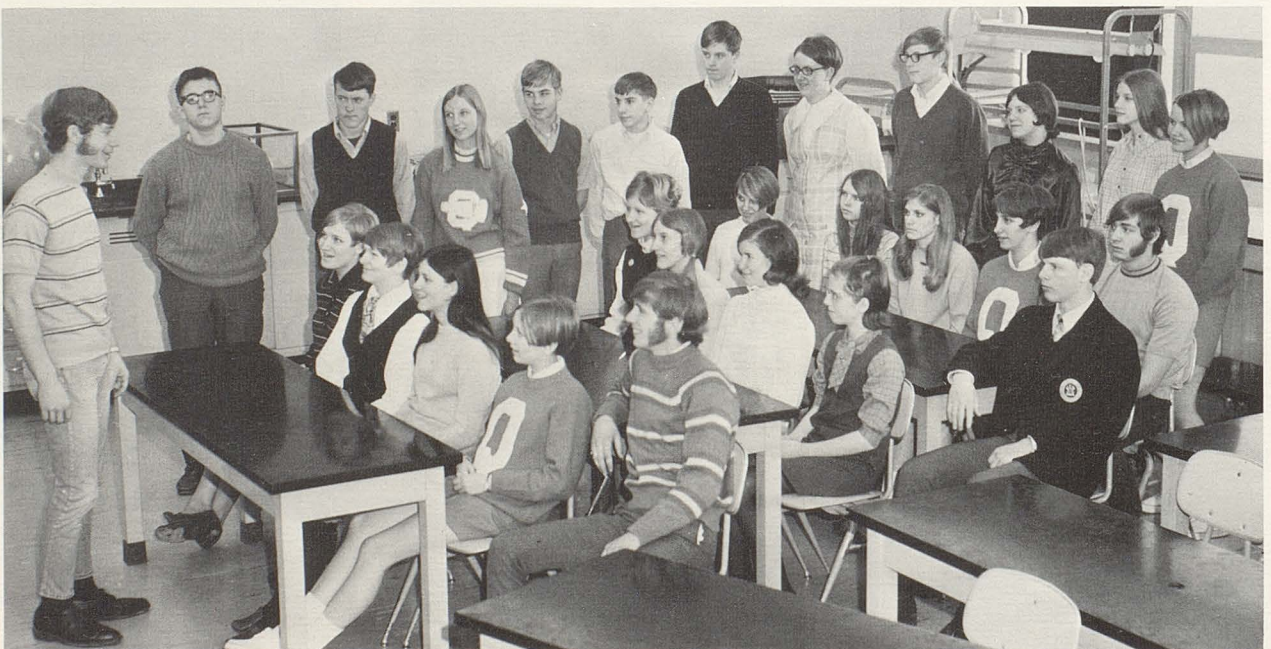

A group of council members along with the faculty completely revised the homecoming rules that will become effective in the next new school year.

The Caldwell's presented about the best assembly that the school had seen.

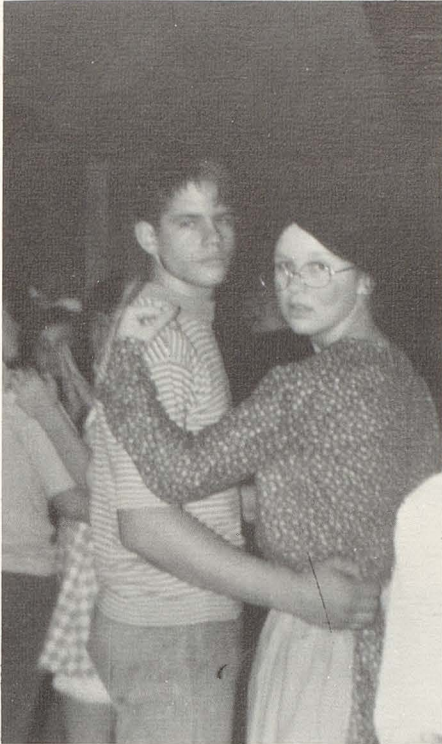

Officers were Danelle Olney, Treasurer; Roy Krymis, Parliamentarian; JoAnn Alexander, Secretary; Bernie Friend, President; Jim DeLine, Vice President.

Council

The Junior High Student Council was introduced to the concept of helping to run school functions. This will prove most beneficial when they will be in the High School Student Council in future years.

Junior high students enjoyed a Halloween Dance sponsored by the student council.

Cheerleaders help to keep the faith.

Even when most spirits were down, the cheerleaders kept their faith in the team, whether it be football, basketball or wrestling. About the only time they weren't cheering was when they got too interested in the game along with everyone else.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were: FRONT: Bev Gallop, Debbie Cosier, and Karen Morell. BACK: Sandy McCann, Pam Lovell, and Sally Fosdick.

Spirit is brought out

The Varsity Cheerleaders weren't the only ones keeping the teams going. Junior High and Reserve Cheerleaders made locker stickers and cheered for their teams just as hard.

Varsity Orioles for 1969

The Varsity football team started the season out right this year by beating Addison, but they didn't do quite as well the rest of the season. They won only one more game which was a 14-6 decision over Union City.

This Year's J.V.'s

J. V. team against Reading.

The J. V. 's got off to a good start this year under the leadership of Coach Nofz. They won their first game and continued to win throughout the first half of the season. The second half was a little different though; they lost most of those games.

Football

1969

The 1969 Oriole football squad was very optimistic and displayed fine team effort this season. Score-wise, the season was that of defeat, but Oriole power is team cooperation. That makes our football team stand out from the rest. The coaches should also be congratulated for their faithful determination and dedication.

Here is a fine example of Oriole Power in action.

Reserve and varsity cheerleaders distribute spirit, rain or shine. Here they are pictured cheering during Homecoming game. Despite the fans' and cheerleaders' spirit and the team's effort, Quincy lost the game to Homer, 14-0.
