COLDWATER IN HISTORY

IN 1796 the British, who had won this Great Lakes region from the original French explorers of 1615 and later, surrendered to the United States Detroit and other posts in the west, and Gov. St. Clair proclaimed the County of Wayne, which extended from the Cuyahoga River in Ohio to the Mississippi and northward to Lake Superior, including of course the present County of Branch and the entire St. Joseph valley, the primeval home of the fierce and warlike Pottowattomies. In 1800 this locality became a part of Indiana, but in 1805 the Territory of Michigan was formed, with Gen. Wm. Hull as governor.

In 1812 the British again came into control of Michigan and secured the help of the Pottowattomies, who massacred the garrison at Fort Dearborn (now Chicago) and killed every American possible, helped by Tecumseh and his Shawnee braves, but in 1821 the Indians sold to the whites what is now Branch County and a vast area besides, though they still continued to occupy it as before, on reservations, one of which was six miles square, called Mikkesawbee, in Coldwater and Quincy Townships. However, they roamed everywhere, to hunt and fish as they chose, in a veritable red man's paradise; the woods abounded in deer, wild turkeys, pigeons, squirrels and other game, while the lakes and streams swarmed with fish.

The present city of Coldwater occupies part of what was then a beautiful prairie, some three miles long from east to west and a mile or more wide. It was dotted with oaks, with an occasional elm, while bordering it were magnificent forests of beech, maple, walnut, whitewood, elm, oak and other trees.

So much for this locality previous to the coming of the white man.

The following abstract is by no means intended as a history of Coldwater, but merely a list of the noteworthy events of the past ninety years. It will be found valuable as a matter of reference.

1822—Joseph Godfrey established a trading post to barter with the Coldwater Prairie Indians; a little later one Marantette conducted another where Oak Grove Cemetery is now located.

1829—Oct. 29, Branch County was laid out and so named by the Territorial Legislature: it was first attached to Lenawee County and later to St. Joseph.

1830—Hugh Campbell erected the first (log) house, on the present site of the Y. M. C. A. The county had 50 whites at this time. Two-horse stages began running over the Indian trail, between Chicago and Detroit, later made the Chicago road. Entire county tax, $7.36.

1831—Allen Tibbits and Joseph Hanchett platted a village here, calling it Lyons. In July Mr. Tibbits preached the first sermon here. A. F. Bolton built the first frame building in the county, a hotel at Masonville, near the present cemetery bridge; landlord, Harvey Warner. Branch was made the county seat in place of Masonville, which held that honor a few weeks; Branch then had one log hut.

1832—Chicago road built through here, following the old Indian trail. Oriental Hotel built. Peter Martin built a sawmill at the junction of Division and Clay Streets. Cynthia Gloyd taught the first school, with 9 pupils; Silas A. Holbrook established the first store here, and became first postmaster in 1833. M. E. Church founded by Rev. E. H. Pilcher, circuit rider, with five members—Allen Tibbits and wife, Joseph Hanchett and wife and Amelia Harrison.

1833—The name of the town was changed to Coldwater, from the Indian "chuck-sey-ya-bish" or cold water. Branch County, as such, began its separate existence, March 1; it had previously been attached to St. Joseph County. First Sheriff, Wm. McCarty; clerk, Wales Adams; treasurer and register of deeds, Seth Dunham; probate judge, Peter Martin.

COLDWATER IN 1830

1834—The "old red schoolhouse" was erected near the corner of Pearl and Hudson Streets.

1835—The village of Masonville was platted on the east bank of the Coldwater River and aspired to be the county seat again.

1836—Methodists built a church.

1837—The village was incorporated; population of entire township, 960. Branch County then had 4,016 people. Francis Smith, Thos. Daugherty and Wm. B. Sprague erected a mill on the present site of the "A" mill; it was burned in 1858 and rebuilt in 1859. Dr. Alger at this time found 37 taverns between Quincy and Sturgis. A terrible year for malarial troubles. One historian says that 32 out of 140 people of the little village died that fall. The cause was said to be the Clay Street milldam built in 1832. A body of angry citizens destroyed it. July 18, Coldwater's first newspaper, the Observer, was issued. This became the News, then the Democrat, whose existence ended when as the outcome of a row among the owners the office was "pied." Presbyterian Church organized with sixteen members.

1839—Schoolhouse erected at the corner of Pearl and Clay Streets. A county poor-farm was purchased.

1840—The last of the Pottowattomie Indians, except a few stragglers, were removed to the far west.

1841—Albert Chandler founded the Coldwater Sentinel.

1842—Coldwater became the permanent county seat, supplanting the village of Branch and blasting Masonville's hopes.

1844—The Baptists and Presbyterians built churches, the former where the Old Bank building now stands; the latter is now the Lutheran Church, the other is the Gage building on South Monroe Street. Benj. H. Parker of Batavia was killed by John White, who mistook him for a deer, those animals, with wolves, bears, etc., being still plentiful. Methodist conference held here.

OUR FIRST COURT HOUSE, ERECTED IN 1848

1845—Robinson Robinson was robbed of $1,500 in silver and gold in a Coldwater tavern.

In this year (1847) a Masonic lodge was established here. The "old white schoolhouse" was erected, on present site of Washington school, also a steam flouring-mill on the corner of Jefferson and Pearl Streets.

THE OLD SWIMMIN' HOLE

A Wise Western Merchant

Used to say "I would rather see a woman go out of my store empty handed, but smiling, than to see her leave with a purchase in her hands, but a frown on her face."

You see, that man has learned that in the long run it's satisfaction that counts, and not the immediate sale.

We aim to, and hope we will, always be able to meet your wants when you come to us. But, if in any particular we cannot suit you, we'd prefer to keep our merchandise and retain your good will.

Please feel free to tell us frankly whenever we fail, and to bring back any unsatisfactory purchase. Your money will be returned gladly, and with all possible dispatch.

Depend upon finding at this store everything that's wanted in Dry Goods, Carpets, Rugs, Curtains, Wall Papers, as well as complete wardrobes for Women's, Misses' and Children's wear.

THE best dressed women have their Corsets, like their gowns, fitted to their measure. The

are fitted to you in your own home by a trained corsetiere. They will give you all the support you desire, yet all the grace of uncorseted freedom, and absolute comfort in every form of activity. The boning used exclusively in Spirella Corsets is

The Perfect Stay.

It bends freely in any direction, yet retains the beauty lines of the corset as long as the best material lasts. It is

Guaranteed Not to Rust or Break in one Year of corset wear. Let me call at your home, at your convenience, and demonstrate how much a Spirella Corset can do toward giving you lines of beauty with constant comfort. You incur no obligation to purchase. A telephone call or post card will bring me to your home.
