Announcements/Program

Announcements

• Jim Gordon reported that reserved show tickets are going well, but general admission is slow - pick up some tickets and get in sales mode!

• Chris Rodesiler announced that the show ad totals were at $24,400 - while several members had not turned their ads in yet.

• Board election will be March 5. Scott Ohm and Chris Pierce are the nominees.

• Jeff Richards from the Chamber of Commerce gave a short pitch for nominations for the Chamber's Award dinner, and handed out nomination forms.

Program

Cindy Myers, the manager of Tractor Supply, spoke about the history of the company from it's beginnings in 1938 with one store in Minot, ND - to the current nationwide company. The recent opening of the Coldwater store in the old Wicks building was store number 1176. Less than 10% of the customers are actual farmers and the merchandise is varied and appeals to do-it-yourself homeowners.

Announcements/Program

Announcements

- The Board accepted the resignation of Scott Rzepka.
- Kevin read a thank you from the Tibbits for helping with the seats.
- Nick read a thank you for the club helping with parking at the color run.

Program

Bob Schaupp - PLS Logistics

Bob gave a presentation on the importance of logistics in our current economy. He noted that trucks consume 13% of all fuel, and projects are underway to make them more fuel efficient. But the technology will add significant costs to transport goods.
