COLDWATER IN HISTORY

UST WHO were the earliest inhabitants of this locality no one assumes to say, although there appears to be evidence that the Mound Builders, perhaps descendants of the Aztecs, preceded the "noble red man." Be that as it may, it seems certain that the fierce and warlike Pottowattomie Indians were, as early as 1721, undisputed lords of the St. Joseph Valley, which included Branch County and Coldwater Prairie.

Previous to that, Fr. Marquette, the zealous French priest, had discovered the mouth of the St. Joseph River, in 1673; and in 1679 LaSalle built a fort there—only 75 miles from Coldwater, as the crow flies.

Until 1763 France held nominal rule over all the region from Quebec to New Orleans; but in that year, when a treaty of peace terminated a war between that country and England, the latter was given Canada and Michigan. It was in this year that the Pottowattomies massacred the garrison at St. Joseph.

At the close of the Revolutionary war England yielded Michigan to the United States, and in 1787 it became part of the Northwest Territory, which extended from the Ohio River to the St. Lawrence and from the Mississippi to Pennsylvania.

In 1796 the British surrendered Detroit and other posts to the United States, and Gov. St. Clair proclaimed the County of Wayne, which extended from the Cuyahoga River in Ohio to the Mississippi and northwest to Lake Superior, including of course the present County of Branch (then called the Township of Green) and the entire St. Joseph Valley. In 1800 this locality became a part of Indiana, but in 1805 the Territory of Michigan was formed, with Gen. Wm. Hull as governor.

In 1812 England again came into control of Michigan and secured the help of the Pottowattomies, who massacred the garrison at Fort Dearborn (now Chicago) and killed every American possible, helped by Tecumseh and his Shawnee braves, but at the close of the war the British of course abdicated.

Our predecessors here, the Pottowattomies, lost heart after the death of Tecumseh in 1813, concluding that it was a hopeless task to attempt to stem the tide of the coming whites, and never again gave serious trouble, though their presence here retarded settlement and caused pioneers to hasten on to localities less populous with Indians.

A very old geography, published in 1814, in possession of the publisher of this Directory, gives the white population of the entire state of Michigan as 4,762 at that time, 165 years ago; it is now about three millions.

It was in 1821 that Chief Topinabee and his people sold to the whites what is now Branch County and a vast area besides, though they still continued to occupy it as before, on reservations, one of which was six miles square, called Mikesawbee, in Coldwater and Quincy Townships. However, they roamed everywhere, to hunt and fish as they chose, in a veritable red man's paradise; the woods abounded in deer, wild turkeys, pigeons, squirrels and other game, while the lakes and streams swarmed with fish. The deed conveying this land to the government was signed by Topinabee, followed by Wawenickemack, Mayonehemon, Aichwemuckquee, and many others.

The present city of Coldwater occupies part of what was then a beautiful prairie, some three miles long from east to west and a mile or so wide. It was dotted with oaks, with an occasional elm, while bordering it were magnificent forests of beech, maple, walnut, whitewood, elm, oak and other trees, interspersed with many streams and some sixty or more lakes, large and small, in what is now Branch County.

The following abstract of the noteworthy events of the past ninety-six years will be found valuable as a matter of reference:

1822—Joseph Godfrey established a trading post to barter with the Coldwater Prairie Indians. A little later one Marantette conducted another where Oak Grove Cemetery is now located.

1825—The government ordered a 100-foot highway made from Detroit to Chicago, but it proved far too expensive and was abandoned in favor of the old Indian trail through Coldwater (the present Chicago road), which explains the tortuous windings of that thoroughfare today, even though it has been considerably straightened during the ninety-three years that have passed.

1829—Branch County was laid out and so named by the Territorial Legislature; it was first attached to Lenawee County and later to St. Joseph. During this year A. F. Bolton bought a tract of land where Masonville was afterward located, east of the present cemetery bridge.

A POTTOWATTOMIE

1830—Hugh Campbell erected the first (log) house on the present site of the Masonic Temple. The county had 50 whites at this time. Stages began running between Detroit and Chicago, supplanting the horseback mail service. Entire county tax, $7.36.

1831—Allen Tibbits and Joseph Hanchett platted a village here, calling it Lyons; according to present streets it ran from Jefferson to Monroe and from Church to Washington. In July Mr. Tibbits preached the first sermon here. A. F. Bolton erected the first frame building in the county, a hotel at Masonville; landlord, Harvey Warner. Branch was made the county seat in place of Masonville, which held that honor a few weeks; Branch then had one log house. Coldwater postoffice was at Masonville.

1832—Chicago road built. Oriental Hotel erected by John Morse. Peter Martin built a sawmill at the junction of Division and Clay Streets. Cynthia Gloyd taught the first school, with nine pupils. Silas A. Holbrook established the first store. M. E. Church founded by Rev. E. H. Pilcher, circuit rider, with five members: Allen Tibbits and wife, Joseph Hanchett and wife, and Amelia Harrison.

1833—The name of the town was changed to Coldwater, from the Indian "chuck-sey-ya-bish" or cold water. Branch County, as such, began its separate existence, March 1; it had previously been attached to St. Joseph County. First sheriff, Wm. McCarty; clerk, Wales Adams; treasurer and register of deeds, Seth Dunham; probate judge, Peter Martin.

1834—The "old red schoolhouse" was erected at the corner of Pearl and Hudson Streets.

1835—The village of Masonville was platted on the east bank of the Coldwater River and aspired to be the county seat again. Here Roland Root and Wabskokee Marsh bartered with the Indians. Coldwater Baptist Church organized with sixteen members.

1836—Methodists built a church.

1837—The village was incorporated; population of entire township, 900. Branch County had 4,016 people, about as many as the entire state 23 years earlier. Francis Smith, Thos. Daugherty and Wm. B. Sprague erected a mill on the present site of the "A" mill; it was burned in 1858 and rebuilt in 1859. Dr. I. P. Alger at this time found 33 taverns between Quincy and Sturgis, indicating the tremendous westward emigration through here at that time. A terrible year for malarial troubles; one historian declares that 32 out of 140 people of the little village died that fall. The cause was said to be the Clay Street milldam, built in 1832. A body of angry citizens destroyed it. July 18, Coldwater's first newspaper, the Observer, was issued. It became the News, then the Democrat, whose existence ended when as the outcome of a row among the owners the office was "pied." Presbyterian Church organized with sixteen members. Log court-house and jail (30 feet square) built at Branch, the county seat. Michigan was admitted to the Union as a state.

1838—Extremely hard times, caused by "wildcat" inflation. Bounty on wolves, $5 each.

1839—Schoolhouse erected at the corner of Pearl and Clay Streets. A county poor-farm was purchased at Branch; present county farm purchased April 1, 1861. Kakotomo murdered Sauauquett, the Pottowattomie chief.

1840—The last of the Pottowattomie Indians, except a few stragglers, were removed to the far west.

1841—Albert Chandler founded the Coldwater Sentinel. Total county vote, 1,015.

1842—March 1, Coldwater became the permanent county seat, supplanting the village of Branch and blasting Masonville's hopes. July 4, Grand double celebration, Sunday-school and "old way."

1844—Prof. Sweet organized Coldwater's first band. The Baptists built a church where the Old Bank building now stands; it is the present Gage building, 30-32 South Monroe Street. The Presbyterians also erected a house of worship, where the Farmers' Mutual building is now located; it was sold in 1868 to the Lutherans and moved to its present location on South Jefferson Street. Benjamin H. Parker of Batavia was killed by John White, who mistook him for a deer, those animals, with wolves, bears, etc., being still plentiful.

1845—One Robinson was robbed of $1,500 in gold and silver in a Coldwater tavern.

Crippen president, Wm. B. Sprague vice-president, F. V. Smith secretary, and Geo. A. Coe treasurer. The "old white schoolhouse" was erected on the present site of the Washington school, also a steam flouring-mill on the corner of Jefferson and Pearl Streets.

Ebenezer Butterworth and 145 of his Zouave Cadets left for war; the Coldwater Light Artillery (afterward called Loomis' Battery) left April 30 with six brass cannon and 120 men, only 49 of whom returned three years later. May 1, Many Coldwater men enlisted

THE CITY HALL

In use, practically unchanged, for more than fifty years, the need of an adequate Municipal Building is felt. Two very desirable sites are mentioned: opposite the Postoffice, and opposite the Methodist Church—the McLane lot.

Recent business changes: E. A. Bidelman sells the Southern Michigan Garage to McNaughton & Warner; J. E. Pelkie sells his restaurant to Gar McOmber; the Coldwater Plumbing Co. moves from 70 West Chicago to 14 South Monroe Street. Dr. J. Wesley Hoverter of Ewart locates here for the practice of medicine.

There were 154 deaths in the city during 1918, which exceeds all former records, at least of recent years.

There Is No Substitute For Butter

Butter is the most nourishing and most necessary fat we have, especially essential to the growth of children.

It is one of the cheapest foods, considering food value, and nothing can take its place.

 "ECONOMY IS WEALTH"

Why pay the present-day exorbitant prices for Butter when you can save one-third the price and get a perfect substitute in

CHURNGOLD

It looks like Butter, tastes like Butter, and to all intents and purposes IS a perfect Butter. It is used in hundreds of Coldwater's best homes.

When You Buy a Furnace You Buy for a Lifetime of Saving and Satisfaction if You Buy the Right One

THE HOLLAND FURNACE is not like other makes; it has many points superior to any furnace on the market. It is built upon honor and there are several reasons why the HOLLAND Furnace will give out more heat than any other furnace made, and at a minimum cost of fuel.

The Holland Cone Grate and the Holland Air-Admitting FirePot are two important features that you should investigate

THE HOLLAND FURNACE WILL HEAT MORE SPACE with less fuel than any stove and you will have your home nicely heated. It will cost you nothing for our proposition

DO YOU KNOW

That it requires $32,500.00 at 4% net interest to produce $25.00 per week income?

That if you are earning $25.00 per week, YOUR earning ability or TIME is worth $32,500.00 CASH to YOU?

If YOU have bonds or mortgages, YOU keep them locked in a safe place. YOU keep your buildings insured because they produce an income.

How about YOUR time and earning ability? Have YOU capitalized that, so that if you are disabled by sickness or accident, it will continue to pay dividends?

How many of your friends have been disabled or killed during the past year? ARE YOU SURE THAT YOU WILL NOT BE THE NEXT ONE?

Let us show YOU what only a few cents a day will do for YOU and YOUR family. It will cost you nothing to learn how to best protect your BEST asset. Address
