Girls' Chorus

From the forty-six who tried out in the fall, Mr. Newbury selected 26 girls for the chorus. The girls met three times a week in the new music building. The chorus sang at both the Christmas Concert and Spring Concert.

The double quintet consisted of: Ann Hubbard, Vivian Vujovich, Susie Donovan, Evelyn Sickal, Pat Gash, Dorla Barnes, Avis Lowery, Geneva Knauss, Barbara Roe, Ruth Whittington and Barbara Krick. This group sang before the Tuesday Club, church and business organizations, and various schools.

The mixed chorus was organized for the first time this year. It consists of forty members from grades nine through twelve. It meets once a week in rotating periods. The chorus sang at both the Christmas and Spring Concert.

CO-CHAMPS

The Maroons started the season with nine returning lettermen plus good players from last year's B-team. They got off to a very poor start by losing their first two conference contests, one to Reading (12-6) and the other to Homer (12-7). In between these two games Union City walloped non-conference Colon 28-0.

Fighting uphill for the rest of the season the Maroons won five in a row. They beat a favored Quincy eleven 14-6, and went on to rack up a 20-13 victory over Bronson, a 20-6 win against Jonesville, and a 7-6 decision over Litchfield. The Maroons went into their last game needing a victory over Athens and they came through smashing their rivals by a 20-6 score to bring home the "Little Brown Jug" and be crowned Co-Champs with Bronson.

THE YEAR'S RECORD

		Union City		Union City
Reading	12	6	Bronson	13 20
Colon	0	28	Jonesville	6 20
Homer	12	7	Litchfield	6 7
Quincy	6	14	Athens	6 20

Basketball

Standing: Jerry Shepard, George Finlay, Ralph Woodruff, Jim Touhey, Larry Walterspaugh, David Johnson, Mr. Wheeler.

Kneeling: Dale Rice, Earl Rice, John Heator, Dave Cheklich, La Vern Rumsey, Ross Worden.

The Maroons had an up and down year. They started it strong and remained on top for the early part of the season, but then lost two games to drop lower in the basketball standings. They ended the season in 4th place winning 8 and losing 6. The games were played hard as the following record indicates:

Union City		Union City
Colon	32	46	Quincy	64	45
Quincy	36	38	Reading	41	44
Athens	34	54	Jonesville	60	58
