Since the year 1968, Coldwater High School has witnessed the graduation of over 5,000 students, not to mention the stays of some 95 foreign exchange students, all under the supervision of three very special Principals, Mr. Kermit Dennis, Mr. C. Lester Luce, and presently the administration of Dr. Stanley Bushouse.

The students and faculty members have watched on as the Vietnam war escalated and fell. They have seen the steps in history as the footprints of the first astronauts were embedded in the stony surface of the moon, the changing role of Blacks in our society, the embarrassment to us as a nation as the Watergate scandal was uncovered, the great oil and gas shortage of the mid 1970's, the celebration of our nation's 200th birthday, the increasing tension in the middle East in the form of American hostages in Iran, the 1980 U.S. boycott of the Olympics, a result of Soviet intervention in Afghanistan, the colossal eruption of the Mt. St. Helen's volcano, the first woman Vice-Presidential candidate of a major parties' ticket, the discovery of the Titanic, once thought to be lost at sea forever, and most recently Coldwater High School students mourned the loss of seven American Lives aboard the space shuttle Challenger only a little more than a minute after lift off, making a total loss of ten American Astronauts since 1968. Indeed, Coldwater High School students have witnessed a lifetime of history in only 18 short years.

The appearance of Coldwater High School has changed radically. Students during this period were the first to park their cars on a paved lot, the first to mix chemicals and check out library books in the new science and library wing, the first to look outside from behind the new windows, the first to place their books in the new lockers and the first to sit on the new bleachers and cheer on their favorite football team. The appearance of students competing on the floor of our gym changed radically, no longer were boys the only students able to compete in a variety of sports related activities, another radical change existed in the form of (gasp!) 9th graders roaming the halls of Coldwater High School, making the transition from the Legg Middle School building to our own High School accompanied by a variety of fine new teachers.

TEACHER RECOGNITION . . .

ANNE HAYES

When one thinks of Coldwater High School another institution comes to mind — that which represents the entity of Anne Hayes. Since she began teaching in 1946, she has provided caring and understanding toward her students. "TEACHER" rarely comes to mind when one refers to Anne Hayes, but the word "FRIEND" seems far more applicable. This friendship has served as a special bond between her and her students. This bond has served to break the traditional student/teacher stereotypical image.

This year marks the 38th year of guidance that Mrs. Hayes has given to literally thousands of students. In the past she has taught courses in journalism, creative writing, expository writing, debate/forensics, civics, independent reading, practical writing, literary philosophy, and all levels of English except advanced placement English. Her guidance has extended itself in the form of extracurricular activities. There is hardly an activity in which Anne Hayes hasn't been involved in some form or another.

Not one of her students will ever be able to forget the reassurance of her smile, the stalwartness of her friendship, or the feeling of genuine love one gets when standing close. When other teachers suffer what is known as "teacher burnout," it's comforting to know that Anne Hayes hasn't changed much over the year's — but has only improved. She could very well be the "Babe Ruth of teaching." If words were merely adequate to describe Anne Hayes, they would be beauty, caring, and understanding.

The words of Anne Hayes speak for themselves:

"For thirty-eight years, next to my family and fishing, teaching has been the most important part of my life. In fact, I find that teaching is very much like a family structured society."

"Every young person that I have had at Coldwater High School has been like my own. Each one has been unique. Each one has made life just a little more pleasant though at times, sad. I have experienced joy, frustration, anger, but underlining all these feelings has been love. Whether that youngster be a rebellious individual, or a quiet subdued one who sits quietly each day absorbed in his own world, I have loved each for his/her individuality and personality.

Teaching is not a mass production industry to me. I have preferred to look at the single product, at what that individual is, not what others have painted him to be — and not whether he/she comes from such and such family.

The pleasure has come from seeing each of these delightful individuals mature into productive active citizens. Having taught in the 40's, 50's, 60's, 70's, and now the 80's, I have seen MANY!

Working with these young people on many other activities and seeing them become responsible young leaders has also been an exciting part of my teaching career.

Although teaching may seem tedious to some, I have found it to be the most exciting career I could ever have. Working with these delightful young people has kept me young and has given me a sense of achievement no other profession could give me. Certainly, it is a great deal of work but it has been worth every bit of the time and effort spent."

We proudly recognize the achievements of Anne Hayes.

HOMECOMING

"85"

The 1985 Homecoming theme was "Tropical." The activities preparing for Homecoming '85 began on Friday, September 20th when ten couples were chosen for the court and the floats had been started. During the next week the court was narrowed down to two couples from each class, with the exception of the Sophomores, who had a tie resulting in three couples. Thursday of that week class posters were turned in to be judged. On Saturday the windows in downtown Coldwater were painted by lots of spirited Cardinals. On Monday, September 30th Homecoming week began with "Tropical" dress up day. In the evening were the games which included the wheelbarrow relay races won by the Seniors and the limbo contest with points split up for everyone. Tuesday was dress like your "Favorite Teacher" day or dress like your "Favorite Home Appliance" day. The "Quarter Race," a brainstorm by the Juniors, was held that evening and won by the Seniors. Wednesday was to be your "Favorite Cartoon Character" or wear a "Hat and Tie" day. That evening the Seniors got to strut their stuff with their famous "pie-eating" contest won by, guess who?, the Seniors! Everyone was getting "hyped-up" for Thursday. It was dress like your "Favorite Era in Time" day. After school the Sophomores showed those Freshmen who was best! With a score of one to zero, the Sophomores won the soccer game in the mud. Next the tug-o-war was held. Finally the big event, with the Juniors and Seniors in the Mud Bowl. The Seniors let it be known who could play football! The final score was, again, one to zero. At last Friday had come. It was the only appropriate that it be "Red and White" day. There was a pep assembly, parade, and awesome football game against Hastings. With a score of twenty-one to six, the Cardinals took the victory. During halftime it was announced that Bill Milnes and Linda Buttery were the new King and Queen. The Sophomores won the float contest, the Seniors won Homecoming overall with 2,294 points.

FRESHMEN

1. Dave Martinson and Dawn Ambrose.
2. Tim Stempien and Kathy Dutcher.
3. Float production is hazardous.
4. The whole gang painting windows during Homecoming Week.
5. The completed float.

2. Can I go home now?

SENIORS

3. Tim, get off of me.

4. Kathy's busy at work.

There are many feelings that students have during their senior year. The closeness of friends, which have developed for many years, come together with mixed emotions and more maturity.

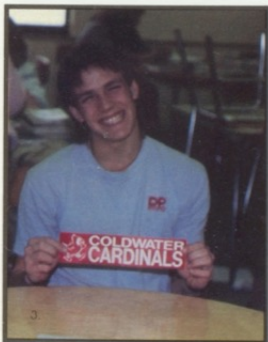

We all feel more confident and intelligent, unafraid to voice our opinions and to stand up for what we feel is right.

We have all become special individuals and will always carry the spirit and strength that we have gained at Coldwater High School.

1. Mommy, Daddy, and Baby??
2. Are you jealous Flip?
3. Am I adorable, or what?

4. Two beautiful brides.

Robina Davis MARI

Our high school years have finally come to an end, and as we don our caps and gowns, we can finally identify with that mysterious malady called "senioritis." But in the frenzied excitement of graduation and its various activities, let's include a few moments of reminiscence on the many experiences we have lived through during these years. We have learned so much and not just academics. We have grown from scared and vulnerable little freshmen into self-assured, independent young adults. We entered high school apprehensive of its "large" size, and now many of us are preparing to attend colleges ten times that size. We used to think "fitting in" with the crowd was the only way to be accepted among our peers, and now most of us recognize the importance of maintaining and expressing our individuality. Our friendships have taught us to compromise without compromising ourselves. I think most of us have also come to realize that nobody is perfect and that we will continue to make mistakes throughout the rest of our lives. The important thing is not to dwell on the shortcomings and mistakes but to focus on what is positive in ourselves.

And now as we get ready to embark on a whole new stage of life, we shouldn't be afraid to look back now and then and gather strength and reassurance from our memories of high school. After all, our memories are part of what makes us who we are.

— Crissy Wu

The Greater Strength

If now the path ahead seems long and steep,
Beset with jagged rock and narrow pass,
Relax and rest a moment; do not weep.
Look bravely upward toward the greener grass
On higher slopes more open to the sun.

Glance backward briefly; note the progress made
From far down where the climbing was begun.
With new perspective, go forth unafraid.

Through untold centuries men sought to win
Their way to power by force; but now we see
That love has greater strength; has ever been
The path of peace and rich fraternity.

The goal of peace on earth, and in our time,
Inspires the strong to choose the upward climb.

— Carrie C. Huhsing

WHAT IS A TEEN-AGER?

"What is a teen-ager?" I was asked one day. I knew what he was, but what should I say?

He is noise and confusion; he is silence that's deep. He is sunshine and laughter, or a cloud that will weep. He is swift as an arrow, he's a waster of time; he wants to be rich, but can't save a dime.

He is rude and nasty; he's polite as can be. He wants parental guidance, but fights to be free.

He is aggressive and bossy; he is timid and shy. He knows all the answers, but still will ask "Why?" He is awkward and clumsy; he is graceful and poised. He is ever changing, but don't be annoyed.

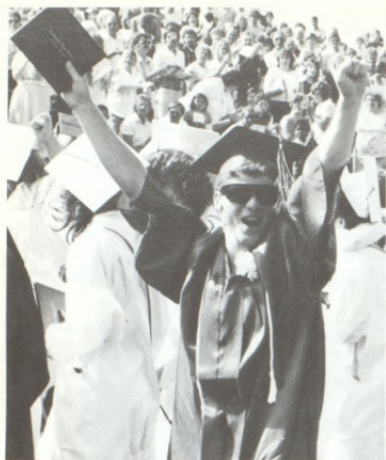

"What is a teen-ager?"

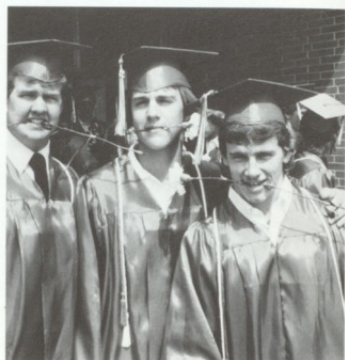

I was asked one day.

He is the Future unfolding — don't stand in his way.
— ELIZABETH LANGSDALE.

CLASS SONG

“LONG TIME”

BY BOSTON

It's been such a long time, I think I should be goin'.
And time doesn't wait for me, it keeps on rollin'.
Sail on, on a distant highway.
I've got to keep on chasin' a dream.
I've gotta be on my way; wish there was something I could say.
Well, I'm takin' my time, I'm just movin' on.
You'll forget about me after I've been gone.
And I take what I find, I don't want no more.
It's just outside of your front door.
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. It's been such a long time.
It's been such a long time.
Well, I get so lonely when I am without you.
But in my mind, deep in my mind, I can't forget about you.
Good times and faces that remind me;
I'm tryin' to forget your name and leave it all behind me.
You're comin' back to find me;
Well, I'm takin' my time, I'm just movin' on.
You'll forget about me after I've been gone.
And I take what I find, I don't want no more.
It's just outside of your front door.
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.
It's been such a long time.
It's been such a long time.
It's been such a long time, I think I should be goin'.
And time doesn't wait for me, it keeps on rollin'.
There's a long road I've gotta stay in time with.
I've got to keep on chasin' that dream.
Though I may never find it, I'm always just behind it.
Well, I'm takin' my time, I'm just movin' on.
Takin' my time, I'm just movin' on.

SOPHOMORES

Pretty,
pretty,
Lisa.

Sing us a song Russ.

According to the Webster's Third International Dictionary, a sophomore is: a student in his second year of high school or college.

This definition is plain, simple, and to the point. In fact, that is about the only recognition that this class of sophomores gets, other than being one of the worst classes to ever pass through CHS as far as absences and suspensions.

Well, if all of you other beautiful people go through what we go through, you wouldn't be so great either!

HELP!!

Coldwater High should be honored to have a class like the class of '88' within the boundaries of their school.

We have proven without a doubt through our spirited showings at pep rallies, window painting, games, and spirit week, that our spirit is clearly the best within the walls of our high school!

The Bobsi twins.

Marching to the Cardinal Beat

Dedicated to the CHS staff from the class of '88'

MAYBE SOMEDAY
Maybe someday —
I'll be able to understand,
That everything you say —
is never what you mean.
Maybe someday —
I'll be able to find out,
Why you expect so much —
but never give us time to do it.
Maybe someday —
I'll be able to figure out,
Why you can't let me —
enjoy my life.
Maybe someday —
I'll be able to discover,
What it is — that you really want from me.
Maybe someday . . .

3. Let's play beautician!!

4. Who me?

There isn't much to say for the Class of 1989, since we haven't done anything yet. We are perhaps the rowdiest and most outgoing class to come into CHS, that could be due to the fact that we are one of the largest classes to enter CHS.

The teachers must admit, however, that although we have our faults, we also have our good points too.

We proved what we have by winning the Pep jug on our first try. (we haven't won it since)!

FRESHMEN HAVE SPIRIT. . .

Along with the conversion of entering a new school, the freshman class also contributed to the excitement of Homecoming events. For example: the pie eating contest, limbo, wheelbarrow race, and the ever popular Mud Bowl . . . As for things like float making and window painting, the freshman class did a pretty good job!!

FRESHMAN SPIRIT

LET'S HEAR IT!

The freshmen also showed their Cardinal pride at the beginning of the year. These are some action shots of a game, Homecoming, and a pep assembly.

OUR FIRST YEAR . . .

Our first year,
has come and gone;
Though it doesn't seem,
like its been that long.

Did we really —
live up to our name?
"The dumb little freshman,
lives again!"

We'll listen all you beautiful people
you were freshmen once yourselves;
Full of dumb and stupid questions.
and no cuter than Santa's elves.

But through it all —
we can remember,
We have three more years —
and we're gonna get better!

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

This year's foreign exchange students were (l-r): Antje Koehler, Nina Westermann, Fatima El Shibli, and Susanne Peters. Miss Koehler is from Soltau, West Germany and resided during the 1986 school year with Norbert and Barbara Strobel. Nina was also from Soltau and stayed with John and Lois Swanson. Fatima traveled all the way from Berlin, West Germany to spend the year with William and Jean Sisco. Susanne spent most of the year with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Legg and resides in West Germany.

We hope their stay was as rewarding and as enjoyable for them as their stay was for us. We wish them the best of luck.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE PARTICIPANTS

Back row: Jim Barnes, Eric Watterson, Joe Massey, Marty Edwards, Joe Lavelline Front row: Elizabeth Lake, Tami Morrison, Kris Cizas, Jessica Doerr, Cheryl Ensberger

Delegates to the 1986 American Legion Wolverine Boys' State to be held June 12-18 at Michigan State University have been chosen from Coldwater High School juniors. This year's selections are Joe Massey, son of Joan Massey; Eric Watterson, son of Phillip Watterson and Georgiana Watterson; Marty Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards; James Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Massey; and Joseph Lavelline, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lavelline.

Chosen as alternates are Jeffrey Schorffhaar, Craig Yope, Tim Kellogg, Rod Bytwerk, and Dan Lockwood.

Delegates are sponsored by the Coldwater American Legion Post No. 52, 40 and 8 Voiture No. 396, and Coldwater Education Association.

The Boys' State Program is attended by nearly 1,000 high school students. They will have an opportunity to learn how politics and city, county, and state government functions. They learn the best way possible by actually setting up their own state with all its governmental bodies, problems, and opportunities. They will meet their life counterparts and will be sworn into office by G. Mennon Williams, chief justice of the Michigan Supreme Court.

Nearly 500 high school juniors will be attending the 1986 American Legion Auxiliary Girls' State to be held June 14-22 at Central Michigan University. Chosen as delegates are Elizabeth Lake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lake; Jessica Doerr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pieter Doerr; Tammi Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison; Kris Cizas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Knauss, and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Cizas; and Cheryl Ensberger, daughter of Mrs. Virginia Ensberger and the late John Ensberger.

Delegates are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 52, Coldwater Business and Professional Women's Club, Coldwater Altrusa Club, and 40 and 8 Voiture No. 396. Girls' State is actual participation in the political and governmental process. Each delegate may participate in the electoral process, have an opportunity to hold public office, and share in the formulation of public policy. They will also learn about the State Supreme Court, Legislative and other divisions of government.

Cleason Reynolds is serving as Boys' State chairman and Grace Reynolds is Girls' State chairman.

Principal Stanley Bushouse announced the Top Ten of the Coldwater graduating class of 1986. These students have received the highest grade point averages of their class and are listed alphabetically as follows:

Tim Bettinger has achieved many awards including Boy Scouts of America Eagle Scout Award, American Legion Boys' State, National Honor Society, Rotary Club Camp Emory Scholarship, "I Dare You" award, Who's Who among American High School Students, Student Council President for two years, sophomore class treasurer, co-chairman and treasurer for Youth in Government. Student Council member for four years, Close-Up project in Washington, Model United Nations, and varsity tennis. He is the son of Dick and Marie Bettinger. Tim plans on attending the University of Notre Dame and majoring in business and engineering.

Jo Borden plans on attending Michigan State University's College of Natural Science where she will major in mathematics and minor in computer science. She was a member of J.V. golf, J.V. and varsity cheerleading, a co-captain of the cheerleaders, marching band for two years, Quiz Bowl, Junior class secretary, Senior class treasurer, student council, National Honor Society, homecoming court for three years, and member of the First Baptist Church. She was awarded the Kiwanis Student of the Month, Coldwater Exchange Club Youth of the Month, and an Academic Excellence Award from MSU. Borden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Borden.

Kristen Bushouse is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Bushouse. Kristen will be attending Western Michigan University. She was a cheerleader for four years including a co-captain for three years, second runner up in the Junior Miss Program and recipient of a tuition award. Kristen was a member of the National Honor Society, Youth in Gov't., Project Close-up, newspaper staff and student council.

Cynthia Grupp was a co-captain of the track and cross-country team for a year and was a member of track for four years and cross-country for three years. She was a member of the student council for three years, National Honor Society, Who's Who among American High School Students, T.A.G. Conference, Model of U.N., and last summer went to the Soviet Union with the Russian and Soviet Union history class. Cynthia is enrolled at Eastern Michigan University and plans on majoring in nursing or physical therapy. She is the daughter of Lynne Cranson and Scott Grupp.

Carol Gulsinger is the Daughter of Richard and Helen Gulsinger and plans on attending the University of Michigan with a minor in music. Activities include National Honor Society secretary, student council, yearbook staff, Model of U.N., Youth in Gov't., Prom committee, varsity tennis, Quiz Bowl, and Who's Who Among American High School Students. She was awarded a Scholarship Achievement Award and tied for the creative and performing arts award in the Junior Miss Scholarship Program.

J. C. Irvine is the son of Ned and Linda Himes. He has participated in tennis for two years, Operation Bentley Program, Model of U.N. for three years, student council, T.A.G. Conferences, Quiz Bowl, and Youth in Government. He served as president of the National Honor Society and was chosen as Kiwanis Student of the Month. He plans to major in computer science at the University of Michigan.

Vicki Miller has attended the graphics communications program at the Branch Area Careers Center where she is a member of V.I.C.A. She placed first in local and regional competitions in graphics communications and also has placed first and won a scholarship in the Marty Competition. Miller plans to advance her printing training through on the job experience and later attend college to become certified. She is the daughter of Lynwood Miller.

Jenny Semmelroth participated in Model U.N., Youth in Government, intramural volleyball, competitive gymnastics for five years and coached for three years, T.A.G. Conference, and German competition awards. Jenny is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Semmelroth and will be attending the University of Michigan and is thinking about majoring in a science related field.

Kyle Shoop is the son of Bill and Julie Shoop. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Who's Who Among American High School Students, and the tennis team. Kyle has participated in Model United Nations, Quiz Bowl, and 4-H. He has received awards in English, science, math and history. Kyle will be attending Michigan Technological University in the fall to study engineering.

Crispy Wu is the daughter of Dr. C. C. Wu and Ann Wu. She participated in varsity tennis for two years, varsity cheerleading for one year, track for one year, Youth in Government for one year, Model United Nations for two years, and Student Council. She was a ten year participant in state competition for piano and was a semi-finalist in the Young Keyboard Artists Piano competition and was third place in Michigan on the National German Test. Crissy plans on attending either Northwestern University or Cornell University and will major in either journalism or pre-medicine.

Youth in Government is a state-wide conference sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. In the spring, Coldwater sends students to Lansing where they serve as members of the State Senate and State House of Representatives. 1986, is special for C.H.S., because one of our members is serving as Lieutenant Governor. Joe Massey will preside over the State Senate in this capacity. 1986 is Coldwater High School's 57th year of involvement in this program whose motto is, "Democracy Must be Learned by the Young." For the first time, we will work on the Model Judiciary Program as well as the Model Legislature.

"The student council has been emerging from its shell over the past few years and with the change that took place in the 1985-86 school year we hope to see a unit of student government that will have a visible position within CHS. We hope to see a greater impact of the council in being able to listen to the student body's concern and with that listening process in place, there could then be an avenue to greater understanding and reduction of misinformation to the student body."

Playing football is hard work.

4. Willie enjoys practice.

Sports play an important role at CHS. Boys and girls have equal opportunities to show sportsmanship, Cardinal Pride, and keep in shape.

The student body shows their spirit by attending the events and cheering on the teams to victory. The parents also get plenty of opportunities to give their support, through Boosters, parents' nights, and attending the weekly games.

The enthusiasm of the team members and cheerleaders really comes out during pep assemblies. Spirit Weeks help to build up the moral of the whole student body.

Football Fever . . . Catch It!

The Varsity team has done a terrific job during their season this year. They defeated our arch rival, Sturgis, in a spine-tingling game. They also placed third in the Twin Valley Conference. Congratulations, team!

THE TEAM THAT UPSET SO MANY . . .

AND PLEASED MANY MORE!

WHAT'S ALL THIS ABOUT CARDINAL SPIRIT? THE 1986 BASKETBALL TEAM

Cardinal Spirit is somewhere between patriotism and love

In fact, Cardinal Spirit approaches faith — the faith of Seth Strout, Jeff Rodgers, and Matt Eppler to work hard in practice every day knowing that they will play only if Coldwater is far ahead but feeling it is important to be part of something bigger than just themselves.

the faith of four Sophomores, only recently allowed to don the Varsity Red and White, patiently awaiting their turn another time, yet to be.

the faith of Craig Winbigler, who made his mark and has assured himself a place in Cardinal history.

the faith and determination of Jeff Schorffhaar and Tim Kellogg who made a commitment as little boys to be Champions and made it happen as young men.

the faith of Brian Marteen in himself and his team as he twists and turns like a ballerina to scorch the nets and the other team.

the faith of Dick Strong to come as a stranger to Coldwater High only to electrify it with a stunning shot that stopped mighty Sturgis.

the faith of Tom Shiery who dreamed of now as he sat in 9th grade Civics. His dreams are now a Red and White reality.

the faith of John Borer, tough, constant, dependable and a mighty force to be reckoned with, a bigger man than thought to be bigger than he.

the faith of Tom Foley who launched two comets that carried 2,000 silent prayers as they carried Coldwater to it's greatest victory in memory.

the faith of 1,000 kids who suddenly felt something that thousands before them have felt — this is our team, this is our school, this is our town and we are proud to be a part — because of this faith and this feeling, we know we will win no matter what the score . . .

BECAUSE WE ARE THE CARDINAL SPIRIT!!!

The 1985 Lady Cards finished the season with a 14-9 record, and winning the District Championship for the second year in a row. The team was led by the Tri-Captains: Tina Payne, Christie Swan, and Dawn Boester. The Most Improved Player for the season was Cindy Briggs, who ended up second in rebounding and became one of the leading scorers at the end of the season. The Most Valuable Player for the year Christie Swan who led in rebounding and points scored.

With the returning of eight players from last year's team, the 1986 Lady Cards should do very well.

As the year comes to a close, and I look back in retrospect, I realize that the 1986 Cardinal Yearbook could not have been completed without help from the following sources. I would like to thank Stan Clayton of Classic Portraits for both the taking and processing of pictures. For the facilitative guidance, friendship, and genuine caring, a special thanks goes to our 1986 Advisor, Ken Hamlet. It was through him that I gained a better understanding of what qualities a leader possesses and an understanding of how to bring those qualities out in me. A special thanks is also in order for the Coldwater Daily Reporter for supplying both copy and pictures. The same thanks goes to Craig Gunn and Anne Hayes for supplying additional photographs. Without the help of Dee Sherry, Lisa Brewer, and Laurie Carless neither our yearbook nor our school could have possibly survived. Finally, I would like to thank local merchants for their contributions in the form of advertisements and thank all yearbook subscribers.

Intrinsic in creating a good yearbook are outstanding and dedicated individuals willing to devote much of their time and energy into making copy and designing layouts. Kristy Byrwerk spent her second year on the staff and completed the entire Sports section. Kristy possesses a special kind of energy enabling her to be both constructive and vivacious. Robin Sebalj possesses this same kind of energy, making her an important and necessary asset to the staff.

Dedication and endurance are also important to yearbook Production. If there was an award for these two qualifications, Pam Garman would certainly be a recipient. Beverly Rollins was undoubtedly our best newcoming freshman to the staff. It was a great pleasure to work with her. Recognition is also in order for Lisa Tomson. Lisa had worked on the staff for several years and displayed the kind of effort seldom seen. A very special thanks goes to Cheryl Ernsberger, without whose help there would have been no yearbook. Cheryl is a special human being and is truly a friend. I know she will go far. Good Luck, Cheryl. Thanks also goes to those who helped sell popcorn at basketball games, enabling five persons to attend a yearbook institute and will help to ensure the quality of yearbook C.H.S. has come to expect.

Lee Zimmerman and Taylor Publishing Company deserve special recognition for their wonderful efforts.

Without Regret,
Joe Massey
