Announcements/Program

Announcements

- Dan Taylor read a letter from the District Governor which complimented us on the show, and donated $100 toward our fund raising.
- Chuck Wood is improving and is home.
- Dick Moore is in the hospital.

Program

Rolla Frisinger gave an update on the status of Foudation Golf. After leaving the Golf Club of Coldwater, he has partnered with Marshall Country Club and Island Hills Public Course in Centerville. He also brought new clubs and devices to measure loft of drives. He said current thinking is that a higher launch with less spin is better than the low line drives.

Announcements

- A Thank you was read for the $500 donation toward camping equipment, for the west coast student trip.

Program

Nathan Ekola - Boy Scouts of America

Membership has grown 10% last year, with 21 Eagle Scouts in the Nottawa Trails Council. Last summer there were 410 cub and boy scouts from this area that attended camp.

To raise money for 1,000 scouts this year, the organization is holding a Leadership Breakfast on June 26th at the CHC Conf center and calling it the "Branch County Service Club Challenge".
