Bronson High School Bronson, Michigan

LEARNING - page 5

Bronson High School is very fortunate to have a fine educational staff. The courses offered are varied and interesting. To keep abreast of the changing techniques most teachers are taking post-graduate work.

LEAVING - page 27

A diploma, a tassel, and an application blank are remnants of the years gone by and those to come. The seniors are now learning to put to use the accumulated knowledge of their endeavors.

LOYALTY - page 73

This has been a very successful year in every sport our teams have participated in. These sports build character and self-discipline. B,H,S, is proud of its teams.

LOOKING - page 85

The underclassmen look wistfully at the senior hall. Too soon the day will come when they, too, will walk up the aisle and receive their passports to the future.

LEADING - page 47

"Will the meeting please come to order."

This is often heard at the many meetings which help make up the extracurricular activities of

LIVING - page 67

What would schools be without the queens, plays, and dances? These activities are fun and educational.

LIVELIHOOD - page 109

We take our hats off to the local merchants. Through them we secure our goods and services. Through them, this annual is possible.

Foreword

We, the annual staff of the 1964 Viking, are proud to present this annual to the people of Bronson.

This endeavor relates the story of our school years, but it is one book that will never end. We cannot foresee and tell what the seniors will do in their futures. We cannot say what the new classes will be like.

We can, however, say that we have enjoyed compiling and completing this yearbook.

In Memory of Mrs. Tharp

It has been said that a teacher's influence may extend from here to eternity. Margaret Tharp's personal touch with her students in her classroom will forever be worthy of her untiring service in the educational field; it is evident in the lives of her pupils.

She possessed a lofty intellect and an inborn culture nurtured by excellent training, and she always strove toward a higher goal of excellence. This she generously imparted to her students during the daily routine of her teaching duties.

She radiated an atmosphere of prestige seldom found among work-a-day humans. She observed the high moral standards of ethics toward her co-workers. She was a true Christian as observed by her guidance in the classroom while she was teaching. Her teaching methods were always abreast of the times; her students were offered progressive educational materials relative to the fine arts in literature and art which influenced their culture.

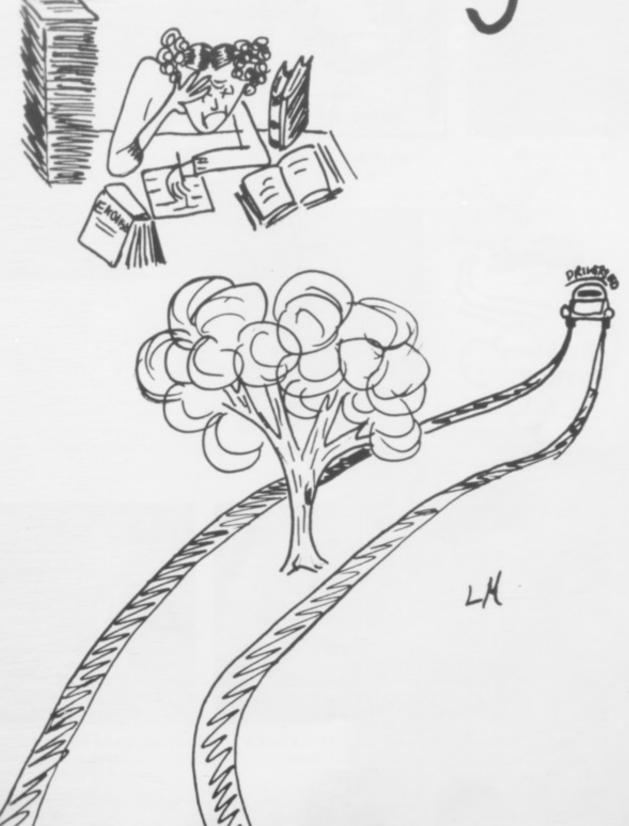

Margaret Tharp possessed a gracious, warm personality; she was friendly and sincere; her manner was charming and well-poised; she was graceful, relaxed, and confident; therefore, she gained the confidence of her pupils.

She had a rich, flexible voice which was charming as she read sketches from the classics - her students will long recall this feature of her daily program,

Bronson High School has been fortunate in securing her services during the past 34 years. She passed this way but once, and the imprint of her passing will long endure among her students and our faculty members.

Her book of life remains unfinished - her reward is a wondrous contribution to humanity and a distinct honor to our Bronson High School.

MR. ROY BLOOM President

MR. ROBERT GEORGE Vice President

Providing the backbone of Bronson's school system, the school board is a much-respected unit. Hard work, initiative, and determination are necessary to keep a school up to date and operating efficiently.

MR. DEAN CARY Treasurer

DR. GEORGE JEFFERY Secretary

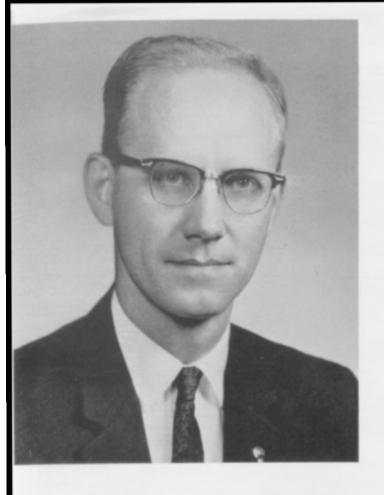

MR. SCOTT CARY Trustee

MR. PAUL WILLISON Trustee

MR. LaMAR MODERT Trustee

Efficiency is the key word of Mr. Gareth Heisler's work as he keeps the community schools operating smoothly.

Mr. Heisler came to Bronson in 1946 to teach social studies. After two years of classroom teaching, he became principal and served this capacity for nine years. Then he was promoted to superintendent, the position which he presently holds.

Mr. Heisler graduated from North Manchester College, Indiana, and he received his Master's Degree from the University of Michigan.

Busy All the Time

Mr. Heisler and his secretary, Mrs. Tracy, confer over some important school materials.

Action Every Day!

Assistant principal, Mr. George Brusak, acts as counselor for students. Advising students about their futures involves much time and patience.

Mrs. Smith, secretary in the principal's office, and Mr. French work together to keep accurate records of all students.

Speech Department

MISS PATRICIA CHISHOLM B. A., W. M. U. Speech and Social Studies

The thought-provoking topics used in Speech Class have helped many students to increase their selfconfidence and improve their selfexpression before others.

Art Department

MRS. LOIS CARPENTER B. S., W. M. U. Art

The art department promotes creativity, use of imagination and self-expression through its uses of free-lance drawing.

English Teachers Stress

MR. WILLIAM LIGGETT B.S. Kalamazoo College English

Alertness is the keyword during one of Mr. Liggett's lectures. Here we see an example of some.

Physical Fitness Is the Goal

MRS. PATRICIA McKEE W. M. U., B. S. Literature, Phys. Ed.

The Physical Education Department at Bronson offers the students a well-balanced course in exercises, sports, and physical games. Every student is required to take a minimum of one year of high school physical education. Mrs. McKee and Mr. Atkocunis are the physical education instructors.

Mr. Atkocunis's physical education class runs through one test that measures their physical fitness. The test measures speed, coordination, and agility.

A few of this year's senior girls were able to ease the drudgery of the office by doing some of the menial tasks. While doing this, they were able to receive practical application of their studies.

The girls were very helpful in preparing the bulletins, answering the telephone, and stenciling numerous tests for our too busy teachers. Besides the daily routine, the office help was constantly being bombarded with requests from others. These are only part of the many tasks performed by the girls under the very able direction of Mrs. Smith.

G.A.A. Has Busy Year

The Girl's Athletic Association was more active this year than ever before. They sponsored record hops and play days.

Weekly meetings were held during the school year. A these meetings, the girls played competitive sports. GAA encourages sportsmanship and leadership.

The Bronson High School GAA is affiliated with the Michigan GAA.

Officers were: Sharon Horsley, President; Joan Diffenbaugh, Secretary; and Pam Weiss, Treasurer.

Another Strike?!?

Pep Club Boosts the Vikings

The Pep Club co-sponsored the Homecoming Dance with the GAA. Record hops and a Sports Nite were other activities of this active organization. The cheerleaders team up with the members to promote better school spirit and representation at games.

Varsity cheerleaders, top to bottom: Shirley Welch, Linda Blasi, Sandy Kain, Del Alger, and Lila Fair (captain).

The reserve and varsity cheerleaders were present at all football and basketball games. Their lively cheers influenced school spirit and patriotism. The cheerleaders sponsored record hops and entered a float in the Homecoming and Halloween parades. The girls attended cheerleading camp last summer to learn new cheers and actions.

"Gr-rr-reat!!"

Dave Garman, Don Kehoe, and Tom Ellis formed the Bronson delegation at Boys' State. The boys aided in setting up a model state government which assumed control of the state government for one day.

Representing Bronson at Girls' State for an educational two weeks of governmental study was Karen Falk. Karen was chosen by the faculty, classmates, and the American Legion Auxiliary.

A Busy Summer!

Pam Wagner, Connie Lane, and Jeanne Woods attended Communication Arts Institute at MSU for a two week course in journalism.

The Rotary Club sponsored Phil Wotta as Bronson's Representative to Camp Emery. He was chosen on the basis of leadership, scholastic standing, and athletic abhity.

This year's Homecoming was highlighted by the Vikings winning their game over Jonesville, 37-18. Tom Ellis led the Vikings through "The Victory Door" and on to a winning game.

"Blue Velvet" was the theme of the 1963 Homecoming Dance. Many couples enjoyed the music and will long remember the evening.

"Green Valley" Is Success

Amazing Green Valley was the scene for the first all-school play presented November 14 and 15. Eldon, Prim, and the settlers fought against the city slicker, Everheel, to keep fertile Green Valley's secret.

"Where else, but in the great state of California, could you find such beauty and greatness?" This was part of the defense during Eldon's trial.

"Look at the size of that there vegetable!" Settlers and the court look on as Grannie brings forth her evidence, a huge carrot.

"Oh Eldon, I love you." This scene suitably ended the play with Green Valley safe and sound.

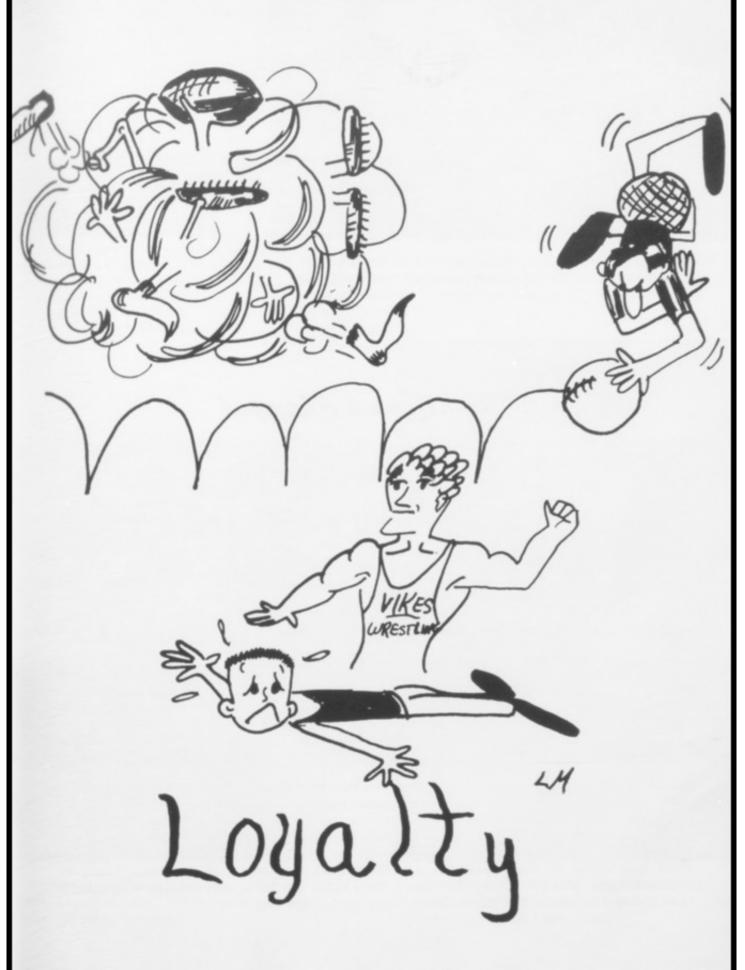

Sno-Ball candidates, chosen by the junior class, were Joyce Bopp, Elizabeth Mayer, Pam Wagner, Joanne Crum, and Linda Blasi.

Joanne Crum Reigns as Zueen

"Yuletide Fantasy," the annual Sno-Ball dance sponsored by the junior class, was held just before Christmas. Decorations of candy canes, chandeliers of colored glass, and a big Santa Claus with reindeer and sleigh brightened the gym for the affair.

Joanne Crum was chosen queen of the event by the high school students. She was crowned by Del Alger, queen of last year's Sno-Ball.

Before the season began, Coach Liggett introduced the varsity squad at the pep assembly. He explained that any record achieved would belong to the senior class. The seniors have reason to be proud of their record.

Coach Liggett had special reasons to be pleased with the achievements of the squad, for this was his first year as head football coach.

Undefeated Champs!

Don Kehoe (35) and Gordon Moeller, partially hidden, prepare to throw ball carrier to the ground during homecoming game.

Future Varsity

Fifty eager candidates greeted Bronson's new reserve football coaches last fall. Mr. Woodcox and Mr. Helmer were well pleased with the enthusiasm displayed as the boys were introduced to the game of football. The reserves posted a record of three wins - three losses and one tie.

"Pass the cream, please." Coaches Woodcox and Helmer relax before practice session.

Coach Zabonick guided the Vikings to their fifth conference title in his nine years at Bronson. This year's squad possessed speed, alertness and a great deal of poise. Their conduct on and off the court won the admiration not only of the Bronson fans but of the fans from opposing schools.

Varsity in Action

The squad hustles through a limbering-up drill during practice.

Russ Cary scores two for the Vikings.

Phil Wotta lays in a basket as Randy Crabtree (42) comes in for possible rebound.

Don Kehoe (14), John Mayer (54) and Randy Crabtree (right) try to get position for a rebound.

Tim Wilson grabs a rebound as Gary Kirtley (10), Harry Laws (30) and Russ Cary (12) close in.

Two more for Phil on a jumper from the side.

The Junior Vikes hustled their way to a fine 11-5 record for all games. Their conference mark of 11-3 was good for a first place tie in the Little "C" reserve standings. Coach Zabonick has help on the way to replace this year's senior squad.

Jeff gets tip as Wayne (52), Steve (34), and Mike (22) move in to recover it.

The action stops briefly as the boys take time to look for one of George's contacts.

The success enjoyed by the wrestling team has begun to generate a great deal of interest in the sport. The squad collected a growing number of loyal fans during the course of the season. Their record of 11 wins and 2 losses (to class A Sturgis) gave their fans reason to be proud.

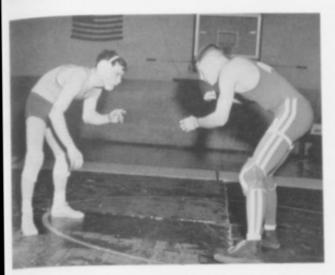

Coach Atkocunis, who has started a strong wrestling tradition at Bronson, looks with satisfaction as he puts the boys through another of his "tough" workouts.

Regional Champs

Co-captains Dick Cummings and Carl Moss won individual Regional Championships.

Others who placed were (L-R) Ollen Alger, Clark Walker, Richard Swift, Dan Ludwick, Dan Hand, and Lloyd Miller.

In addition to their fine dual meet record, the wrestlers won the White Pigeon wrestling tournament and the Class B Regional Tournament. The regional tournament included teams from fifteen schools and was an exceptionally fine victory.

Wrestlers warm up before a big win over Coldwater.

Terry Younce wrapped up in his work.

This year the Jaycees originated a most valuable back and lineman trophy. The first recipients were Don Kehoe (back) and Dennis Redmond (lineman).

Ron Matile (25) turns the corner as Terry Piatt (41) moves over to throw a block.

The basketball team received support from our fine pep band.

The reserve team huddles before running through a new play.

Carl Moss posts top individual record.

Coach Zabonick listens patiently as referee discusses a play.

Varsity Club — Active

The Varsity Club kept very busy raising money to help support the athletic program. They started a score board fund, bought a camera, and furnished other important equipment necessary for a well-equipped athletic system.

All-Star Band Spectacular

The 1964 All-Star Band Concert was held at Bronson on March 14. The 107 piece band consisted of top bandsmen from AA, A, and B schools in Southwestern Michigan.

Dr. Ronald D. Gregory, director of bands at Indiana University, served as guest conductor for the All-Star Band Concert. Here he is shown speaking at the banquet, prepared by the Band Parents Club, before the Concert.

Dr. Gregory warms the band up before the concert which attracted a huge audience.

"Hansel and Gretel" Attracts Children

"Hansel and Gretel" the first all-hi children's play was presented April 24 and 25 in the high school gym. A very colorful and active play, it aroused the attention of all the children and even adults. After the performances, the cast held autograph parties where the children could talk to the cast and get their autographs.

Princess Olga drinks from the magic cup as Ilega and Helga watch.

Miss Chisholm, play director, applies the witch's nose.

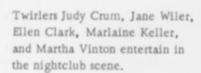

Ole gives Hansel and Gretel a dream while they are lost in the forest.

Astrid, Maida, Johan, Sonje, Vigo, Gretel, and Hansel wait for Father to give them gingerbread cakes.

The Ladies Glee Club opened the follies with a variety of well-known songs and choruses,

The country scene featured Wayne Hoard singing "Tom Dooley" accompanied by Jerry Smith, Ken Norton, Larry Ellis, Brian Roberts, Bruce Ellis, and Paul Runyon.

The "Bronson Hillbillies," Pat Cossairt, Jeanne Woods, and Janet Widener, sing and act "The Martins and the Coys."

Band and Chorus Present "1964 Follies"

Bronson's Bugs, Norbert Rubley, Harry Laws, and Jim Voss, really livened the place with swinging tunes,

The "Jack Pear Show"

The senior boys presented a very colorful hula dance.

Harry Laws reads the script of "The Jack Pear Show. " He acted as Jack Pear.

The senior class presented a very interesting and amusing Class Day. The theme was the Jack Pear Show. Harry Laws, acting as Jack Pear, introduced many different and entertaining skits. The entire program was very well-planned and presented.

This was one of the many beautiful scenes of Chicago's skyline as viewed by the seniors.

The seniors got a close-up view of the Chicago skyscrapers. Behind them is the Chicago Board of Trade Building.

Seniors Have First Skip Day

This year the senior class took a chaperoned trip to Chicago for their Skip Day. They toured Chinatown, Maxwell Street, Board of Trade, Museums, and McCormack Place.

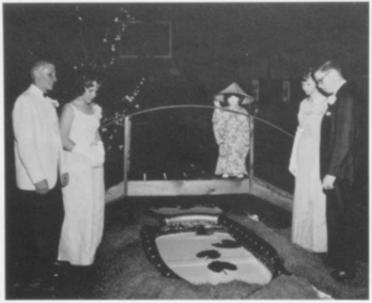

Walking down Maxwell Street open-air market, the seniors kept in a close group,

The tour of Maxwell Street proved to be a valuable experience.

Charles Nevereske and Ken Watters stop to examine souvenirs at the shop in the Natural History Museum,

Juniors Present "Oriental Fantasy"

Mark Painter, Betty Hawley, Ellen Clark, and Jim Voss gaze into the starlit pool,

Joyce Bopp and Dan Hand pose in a Chinese rickshaw.

Couples enjoy the Oriental atmosphere while relaxing between dances.

"Oriental Fantasy" was the theme of the annual junior-senior prom. A delicious banquet was served at the Union Hall preceding the dance. The gym was beautifully decorated with a full-length mural along one wall. In the center of the gym was a pool covered by a wooden bridge with an Oriental doll standing on the bridge. A huge colorful dragon covered the entire stage. After the dance, post prom activities were offered free of charge by the merchants and service clubs of Bronson.

Everyone enjoyed the traditional Grand March.

The Norsemen sang a variety of numbers during intermission,

Baccalaureate, 1964

"Life's Perspective" was the theme of the 1964 Baccalaureate message given by the Rev. Robert Brien. Rev. Brien stressed taking a long range look at life when making decisions. He recommended to the Seniors that they further their education if possible.

Marching into the gymnasium on Baccalaureate night were 113 Seniors; 113 Seniors who were anxiously awaiting the conclusion of their high school careers.

"My Country, 'tis of thee" was one of the hymns which were sung at Baccalaureate. The hymns represented deep feelings for this country and for God.

With their motto" What We Are To Be, We Are Now Becoming" behind them, the 1964 Seniors of Bronson High School left the gymnasium, thinking of their future endeavors along life's pathway.

Senior Class President, Sharon Kolassa and Vice-President, Stewart Gillette led the processional as junior class members lined the aisle with lighted candles.

Commencement — 1964

The seniors stood at attention as the final couple approached the stage closing the processional.

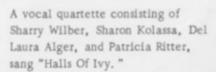

The students waited in anticipation as Dr. C. R. St. Clair Jr. prepared to deliver his message, "A Two Edged Sword."

Harry Laws, valedictorian, held the audience's attention as he presented his speech "The Die Is Cast."

Salutatorian Carolyn Losinski presented her speech "Your Future As A Citizen" using a pictorial house made of the factors of a genuine citizen.
