ADMINISTRATION

Over twelve and one half years, for sixteen thousand hours, the schools have tried to steer each pupil into what we feel is for the good of the individual and for the good of society. We structure our teaching and curriculum to build wisdom, character and interest. With that amount of input, the schools must claim a share of the responsibility as the successes and failures of a graduate become evident in the years to come. Hopefully, we have done well by them, for we take a great measure of pride in the class of '78.

J. Warren Adair,
Ed.D.
Cornell University

Board of Education

L. to r. Mrs. Linda Ferguson, Trustee; Mr. Robert Welke, Trustee; Mr. Greg. Johnson, Trustee; Mrs. Lucille Snyder, Vice President; Dr. Gary Howe, President; Mrs. Grace Comley, Secretary.

PRINCIPAL

This 1977-78 school year was one of change and transition with a new administration. Just as in 1968-69, when the previous change occurred, the seniors were placed in a difficult role of having to adjust to a different train of thought and way of doing things.

Possibly the members of the Class of '78 will benefit the most from this experience since the pressures of our society and the demands made on its members require the ability to cope in order to survive. They made the change, and now should be better prepared to deal with the changes which confront them as they go through life.

Through experiences like these, people learn and grow into more knowledgeable people. It is hoped that what we encountered this year, one with another, provided some experience which will assist our graduates in achieving success in life and future learning.

Stanley R. Bushouse, Ed.D.
Western Michigan University

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

The close of your senior year marked the end of your high school days. Many of you participated with your fellow students in the various activities of your interest. Many took the opportunity to not only acquire knowledge, but also to practice reliance, tolerance, and cooperation as you meet new responsibilities, ideas, and friends. Probably the most distinctive feature of your high school career and the advent soon adulthood. Adulthood will require you to make many decisions. While high school has shown that at times thinking is difficult, hopefully it has also shown thinking can be both significant and pleasant. In your years at Coldwater High School we hope you have found faith in yourself to think clearly and act courageously.

Mitchell J. Zaleski, Ed.S.
Wayne State University

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Being a member of a Coldwater athletic team is the fulfillment of an early ambition for many students. The attainment of this goal carries with it certain traditions and responsibilities that must be maintained. A great athletic tradition is not built overnight; it takes the hard work of many people over many years. As a member of an interscholastic squad of the Coldwater schools, you have inherited a wonderful tradition — a tradition you are challenged to uphold.

Our tradition has been to win with honor. We desire to win, but only with honor to our athletes, our school and community. Such a tradition is worthy of the best efforts of all concerned. Over many years our squads have achieved their share of conference and tournament championships. Many individuals have set records and won all-conference and even all-state honors.

It will not be easy to contribute to such a great athletic tradition. To compete for your school may mean that you will have to say "no" to pleasures an athlete cannot afford. When you wear the colors of your school, we assume that you not only understand our traditions but are willing to assume the responsibilities that go with them. However, the contributions you make should be a satisfying accomplishment to you and your family.

"PENNY" C.H.S. ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

"PENNY"

C.H.S. put on "Penny" as the all-school play in 1978. The play revolves around a seventeen-year-old girl named Penny, who manages to cause the men and women of an entire town to be at each other's throats. Penny's article on women's rights is the main cause of the disturbance. Finally, the women of the town realize that they can get what they want by making the men think that they are getting things their way — even when they really aren't. The tremendous effort of the entire cast made "Penny" a success.

SWING-OUT

J. W. Keesler and George Huff lead the traditional downtown parade back to CHS.

Bud Blanchette and Jeff Dean, class advisor and class historian address the student body.

Mrs. Ethel Hawley, Teacher Emeritus, par excellence, is recognized by the senior class for her dedication to teaching as a substitute long after retirement.

J. W. Keesler swears in Kris Stokes as CHS's 1978-79 Mayor.

Gordon Swan is recognized for his contributions as commission advisor.
