Buildings and Scenes Show

This is Cardinal Land — Coldwater, Michigan — United States of America. On the pages of this book are a few of the buildings and scenes which complete the life of the community in which this high school is located.

Coldwater dates back well over 100 years, with the new high school being completed for occupancy exactly 104 years after the first secondary school was built in the city.

The Coldwater State Home and Training School shown here has been located in the area for many years and is one of the better staffed and equipped schools in the state.

The court house, fire station and city hall are all important in the conducting of all legislative, business and protective divisions of the community. They are good examples of the close cooperation which each individual part exerts.

Seventy years ago excursion boats made trips up and down the Coldwater River from Pilot Knob to the city for the benefit of the people's amusement. Today it carries only the small boat traffic of fishermen and pleasure seekers.

Athletics in Coldwater High School were held for years at the Waterworks Park fields. Football and track events are now held at Cardinal Field opposite the high school, and this will be the last year for the team to use the Waterworks baseball diamond because there will be two playing fields available next year near the football stadium.

South Monroe Street featuring the police department, Western Union and the Fire Department, three of the community's most important services.

THE COLDWATER COURT HOUSE, CENTER OF COUNTY LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITIES.

Coldwater, as the student's city, is as much a part of Cardinal Land as the high school.

The hospital plays an important part in keeping the citizens healthy and bringing into the world new people for Cardinal Land. It also helps them in time of sickness and accident.

Federal-Mogul gives work to many people. It is one of the larger industries that makes the community able to take its place in Cardinal Land. Some other places of employment in Coldwater are the Quality Spring Company, Gamble-Skogmo, and Midwest Foundry.

The Main theatre, the center of entertainment in Coldwater. The movie theater takes people out of their work-a-day world into the land of make-believe.

Through the books at the public library many people are also able to leave the everyday world. The books and magazines in the library are free to anyone who enjoys research work and reading.

The homes are the places where Cardinal Land really begins. It is out of these homes that come the people to make up the staffs of the hospital, library, the Federal-Mogul, and the people that supply the personnel to run the theatre. The residents of the community, and ultimately Cardinal Land, are the products of these homes.

As the present generations learn and mature in high school, they begin to get the foundations of good citizenship to take their places among other members of the community.

New Building Accommodates

Along with all the familiar scenes in "Cardinal Land" a new structure has taken its place in the lives of the people of the entire area. The new Coldwater Senior High School has provided a meeting place for many city groups in addition to being one of the finest schools in the State of Michigan.

The school cafeteria has been a lunch room for more than 400 students on each school day throughout the year and has provided a place for many civic groups to hold dinners. The gymnasium has also been the site of many city programs.

The home economics department is one of the most spacious and up-to-date in this area. The well-lighted rooms are equipped with various appliances found in many homes today.

For the first time the physics and chemistry departments have been separated and in the physics room is found an electrical control panel similar to those found in many colleges.

The large machine and agriculture shop found in the school has given students more space and modern equipment which they have never had before. This section of the building has also been used for adult education classes.

Bowling, Dances, and Display Window Add to Year's Pleasures

The most successful dance for Coldwater High School students in a good many years was the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y sponsored Valentine Formal held at the Masonic Temple on Saturday night, February 16.

More than 90 young couples and 15 faculty members and their wives or husbands danced to the music of Jack Braun's Band from Michigan State University.

The annual Christmas dance was held this year by both freshmen and sophomores in both the recreation room and the gym with a choice of round or square dancing. The Elk's Temple was the scene of a community teen-age dance during Christmas vacation.

More than 80 students took part in the city recreation department's Saturday bowling program for high school people.

Dave Demarest's team topped the league standings at the Coldwater Recreation Center with Jim Curtiss' and Bob Teeter's squads placing second and third, respectively.

Commission Organizes New School Groups

Commissioners Pat Fisk and Craig Curtiss and Mayor Bob Teeter inspecting lockers.

During the year the Student Commission helped to bring more closely together the parents and the school by helping to organize a parent-teacher-student group to discuss the problems of the school.

Also included in this year's projects was a student handbook and restoration of the hall monitor system. The big money-making event was the variety show, the money from which was used to help furnish the recreation room with various kinds of amusement devices including ping-pong tables, a juke box and new records.

A student court was started to try student discipline cases and mete out punishment according to the severity of the offense. The commission sponsored an exchange assembly with Marshall and Albion.

The Tri-Hi-Y club, under the sponsorship of Miss Donna Dolan and Mrs. Gladys Davis, increased in size to almost 80 members this year and undertook two projects which took up considerable time and effort on the club's part.

The girls opened a cloak room at the basketball games to earn money for the group. Using this money and that earned at two school dances and the Valentine Formal, the organization helped support a Korean orphan.

Officers this year were Pat Mooi, president, Carol Long, vice-president, Judy Hacker, secretary, Kay Nash, treasurer, and Joyce White, program chairman.

Hi-Y Takes On More New Projects

This year has seen the development of an almost brand new Hi-Y Club in Coldwater High School. Under the leadership of President Larry Knight and the other officers, Bob Rice, vice-president, Ty McConnell, secretary, Gary Rittenhouse, treasurer, and Greg Fraser, sargent-at-arms, many new projects were undertaken. A plan for the future has been organized where a substantial amount of money will be left to the coming Hi-Y clubs.

The club bought and erected a Christmas tree in the front lobby of the high school. This will be an annual affair from now on with the decorations being saved from year to year.

The Cardinal Service Club, organized in 1946, is known as the working club of the high school. Having the large parking areas around the building and the hosting of the district basketball tournament by the school added to the duties of the boys as they were responsible for seeing that the people had parking space for their cars.

Membership increased to 22 members this year, and a projection room opposite the recreation room was maintained and operated for various groups by the club. Mr. Dennis, club advisor, and the whole group traveled to Pokagon Park for a picnic as a partial payment for services rendered to the school.

Bob Hutchins was president, and the other officers were Loren Yearling, vice-president and Bill Spade, secretary-treasurer.

The Varsity Club this year increased its revenue considerably by handling the concession stand in the rear lobby of the high school during the district tournament for which Coldwater acted host.

Under the leadership of Bill Robinson, president, Lewis Houstin, vice-president, Paul Douglas, secretary, Gary Brown, treasurer and Joe Van Dosen, sargent-at-arms the club handled such things as the selection of award winners in the various sports, sale of season tickets for football, construction of a Halloween float and soft drinks for officials and visiting teams after games.

'57 Yearbook Portrays Community Life

Under the editorship of Janice Weakly, this year's "Cardinal" staff had as its prime goal, originality and a book different from any of past years. The staff felt that a new color was needed for the cover, and that photographs inside the front and rear covers would add a great deal to the book.

The staff attempted to show how the community of Coldwater works together as a unit, and how each little section is important to the function of the city as a whole. The buildings and scenes portrayed in the production are an attempt to show the progress of the city both down through the years and at the present time.

It is felt that every room, every teacher and every convenience which the pupils of the school enjoy are the direct results of the people of the community having a desire for the best which it can provide.

Both Publications

A good community is an informed community, and it is the job of the publications department to keep adults and students alike supplied with the news and activities of the community members. Moving into the new high school brought about some organizational changes and a need for better links of communication among the various elements of Cardinal Land.

Almost one-tenth of the student body writes for either "Cardinal Chatter" or "The Mirror," and staffs include all grades. The editors of the "Chatter" group this year began writing a column to inform and stimulate people into taking more interest in the school and its activities. Junior high news was handled by the other building.

The newspaper was printed under a new process with the cooperation of Joe Petrosoff, who prints the weekly advertiser for this area. The school purchased a new machine, the Vartyper, which composes all copy for the paper. Editors and staff members were linked more closely to the problems of production by carrying out all the steps in compiling a paper except the actual press printing.

Students And Parents With Mystery

Part of the entertainment for any town, large or small, is the high school play. "Home Sweet Homicide," a mystery involving both comedy and romance, was the senior class production on November 8-9.

The play centered around the Carstairs family and the children's efforts to solve the murder of their neighbor. As the story progressed, it was discovered that the murdered woman had been blackmailing several characters about their pasts.

The play cast included: Judy Hacker who played the part of Mrs. Carstairs; Janice Harris, Delores Knowles, and Ty McConnell who portrayed the Carstairs children; Barbara Miller, a knock-out actress; Bob Tuttle, the murdered woman's husband; Ken Furgason, the villain; and Kay Hodgman, his wife; Larry Knight and Bill Frankhouser, the lieutenant and sergeant from the police department; Wayne Laney and Bob Rehm, the mystery men of the play; George Letts, Donna May, Doug Parshall, Bill Robinson, Jerre Miller, Jean Baggerly, Joyce White, and Jan Laing, the gang.

Ty McConnell and Jo Kelsey were student directors and Nancy Gould was the assistant. Faculty advisor was Mrs. Judy Dearbaugh.

Kay Nash is proposing to Steve Gordon as they rehearse for the junior play.

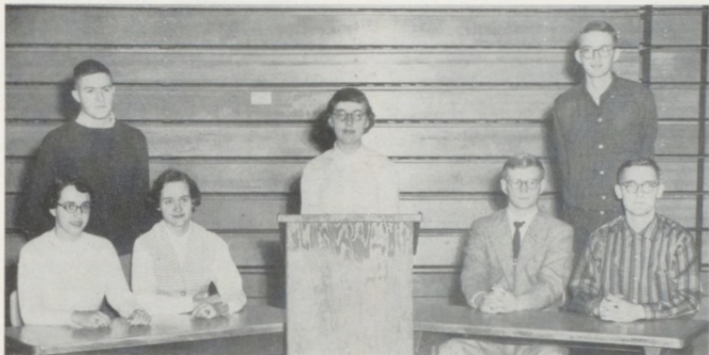

Junior class thespians entertained large audiences this year with the play "Professor, How Could You" directed by Judy Dearbough.

The main theme of the play was the problems that confronted Professor Perry when he tried to fulfill the one requirement for becoming Dean. That requirement was to get married.

With three girls madly in love with him and another bent on making his life miserable, the resulting confusion provided many hilarious incidents.

Debate Squad Captures Four Contests

This year's debate squad participated in 16 debates in both the Twin-Valley and state leagues. During the season, which ran from November to February, the team won four contests.

This year the topic "Resolved: That the Federal government should sustain the prices of major agricultural products at not less than 90 per cent of parity" was debated by De-lores Knowles and Janet Goodhalf, affirmative, and Bob Rice and Steve Gordon, negative. Bob Teeter and Jim Spencer served as negative substitutes.

Mrs. Judy Dearbaugh, in her first year at Coldwater High School as senior English, debate, speech and dramatics teacher, acted as debate coach.

Co-op Plan Has Third Anniversary

A co-op student, Barbara Miller, as she types at her job in the athletic office.

The third anniversary of the Cooperative Training program was this year, and the plan has increased in size considerably from the original group. There were more than 40 members in the group; all working at such jobs as retail, industrial, and secretarial positions.

The main purpose of this plan is to help those students who aren't going to college to adjust from high school to actual working conditions. The firms in the community cooperate with the plan by hiring these students. Each student is graded on the job. They're rated in these things: appearance, promptness, cooperation, dependability, attitude, manner, ability to get along with others and job performance.

Students under this plan attend school half days and work the rest of the day. A "C" or above is required from the students before they are eligible to receive an achievement certificate at the end of their senior year.

FFA Landscapes Part of New School

The Future Farmers Club of Coldwater this year undertook the job of landscaping part of the new high school's grounds. A committee was appointed to help plan the best methods of carrying out the task.

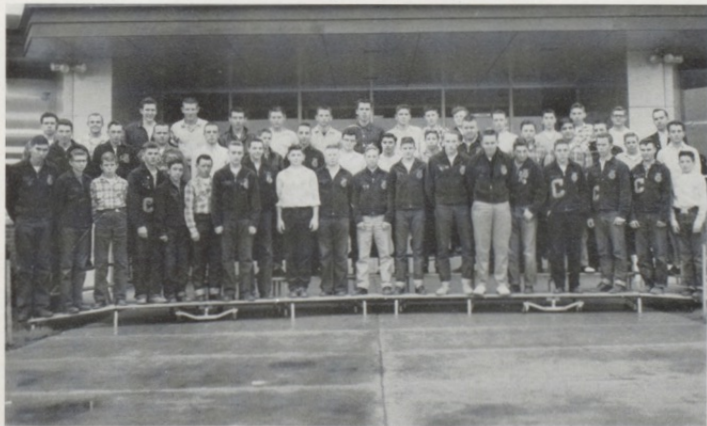

The club also had a magazine sale and a seed sale to bolster the funds in its treasury. The boys conducted an all-day field trip to Michigan State University on January 30, during the Farmer's Week celebration.

Officers for the year were: president, Gordon Porter, vice-president; Jerry Dean, secretary; Bob J. Smith, treasurer; Bill Strong, reporter; Dave Demarest, and sentinel, John George. Clayton Wells, advisor for the past several years, resigned at the end of the first semester to accept a position at Michigan State. His successor for the second semester was William Morrison, who came to Coldwater from Michigan State.

Prospective Teachers Study Vocations

The Future Teachers of America, under the advisorship of Miss Ilda Philips, held meetings monthly this year and discussed problems concerning teaching as a career.

During an early fall meeting, the constitution of the club was reviewed and some amendments were proposed and voted on at the next meeting.

Janice Weakly presided at all of the meetings; Jerre Miller acted as vice president; Barbara Keyes, secretary; Judy Parrish, treasurer; and Janice Harris was the program chairman.

Each of the members had a chance to serve as a substitute teacher and also to aid the teachers during tests or meetings at the local grade schools. This was a device where the students could decide whether or not they wanted to be teachers.

Future Nurses Learn First Aid Methods

Coldwater High School Chapter of the Future Nurses of America combined this year with the St. Charles girls into a larger club than in previous years.

Much of the time was spent studying first aid and the practical use of it under the guidance of Mrs. Lola Nelson. The group spent nine full weeks in the study with two separate first aid classes being held.

Various speakers were present at each meeting and discussed such topics as the responsibilities of a nurse, which colleges or hospitals to attend for preparation for a nursing career and what duties a nurse is expected to perform.

Officers for the year were Laralee Myers, president; Joan Gooch, vice-president and Margaret Hudson, secretary-treasurer. Miss Rose Steffaniak served as advisor.

Small Clubs Active In Community

Social activity and recreation help to make a healthy, happy society. Smaller organizations are often the most active in any city.

Librarians spent many study hall periods and lunch hours to increase the efficiency and service of the school library. Spanish students organized for the first time, a club to interest language students. They presented a play to the public during the first semester.

International Relations Club members highlighted the year with a World Fair Display for the community. Seventy-two nations were represented by pictures and literature. The group also participated in the mock United Nations Assembly at Hillsdale College.

The Hi-C club carried on several projects for Youth for Christ and sponsored a panel of Bible quizzes. Freshman and Sophomore Horizon Clubs collected food, clothing and toys and distributed them to needy families in town.

Coldwater High

The Coldwater marching band, resplendent in their new black and red uniforms and under the direction of band director, Chester Curry, presented four half-time shows at home football games and traveled to Sturgis to take part in the half-time festivities.

The band and the Band Parents' Association worked for two years to finance the uniforms by sponsoring a chili supper, selling candy bars and presenting the Navy Band.

Following its successful marching season the band plunged into the activity preceding the winter concert.

School Band Begins Year in New Uniforms

Sixty-five members of the Coldwater Band participated in the annual district Solo and Ensemble Contest at Kalamazoo, coming away with an impressive share of the honors. Marilyn Sanford, Royden Swaffield, Doug Miller, and Glenn Barlow received superior ratings and the right to compete in the state contest.

Other activities the band took part in were the Variety Show, Marching Contest, Spring Band and Cardinal Choir Concert and a field trip to Detroit to see "Cinerama" and the "1957 Ice Follies."

Community Hears Four Music Groups

Cardinal Choir began this year with a new conductor, Mrs. Ruth Draear, and quite a large number of members compared with previous years.

The first public performance was held in December as a Christmas Festival and the next performance was in March when three numbers were sung at the Variety Show. Other performances included the Choral Festival which took place in Lansing, Michigan and the Spring Musical Festival.

Mrs. Draear changed the method of classes by having two separate rehearsals and one full rehearsal weekly. In addition to these changes, three new, separate, groups have been added. These are the Four Cards, Terry Eberts, Bill Frankhouser, Gordon Smith, and Doug Miller. They have performed on numerous occasions for the public and students. Another group is the Hi Fi's, a group of ten girls that have also made quite a few public appearances. The third group is the Stereophonics, composed of Judy Smith, Nancy Gould, Ty McConnell, and Jim Hobart.

Football Team Has Best Record Since '48

A football team is always on display to the whole community and displays for the crowd the type of students that are to be found in the school. The 1956 varsity squad had the best record since 1948 and at all times showed good sportsmanship typical of Coldwater High School.

The team finished third in Twin Valley standings and had an overall five won, three lost record. Every win was a shutout for the Cardinals as they used possession type ball and a strong defense.

The season opened with a 19-0 victory over Hillsdale. A rugged Albion team overran the Cards, 32-14, followed by a defeat to a powerful Lakeview aggregation, 34-20. Homecoming saw Coach Jack Finn and the Cardinals bounce back with a 20-0 win over Marshall. Three Rivers was beaten 24-0 before East Lansing took the Cardinals, 19-6.

Coldwater regained the silver football from Sturgis by the Trojans, 19-0, in the final game, with 16 seniors playing the final high school football games of their careers. Seventeen underclassmen and whoever comes up from the reserve squad will comprise next year's roster.

Reserves Feed Material to Varsity

A strong varsity depends on what kind of boys are sent up from the reserve squad. Each sport is a small unit of the school, each with the purpose of developing certain goals of better teams, good sportsmanship, and high moral qualities.

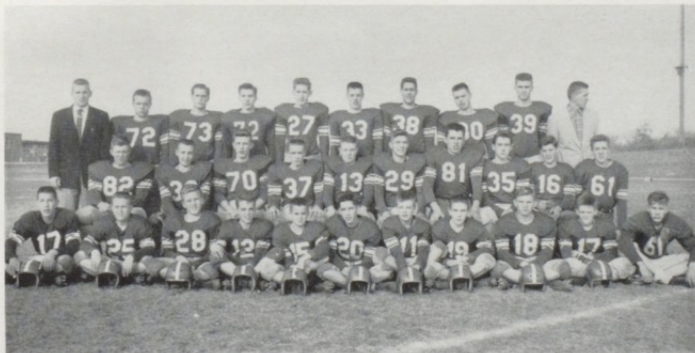

Although the reserves failed to win a game this year, interest was high, and 21 freshmen finished the season with the squad. This was an increase of six over 1955. One junior and 11 sophomores rounded out the roster.

Coldwater Lacks Height, But Not Fight

Coldwater High School's Varsity Basketball squad, one of the shortest teams in the Twin Valley for the 1956-57 season, won only five out of 16 regularly scheduled games but had the highest scorer in the conference in Paul Douglas, who scored 277 points.

Douglas also was honorary co-captain of the all-league team. Gary Brown received honorable mention in the same balloting. Douglas, Brown, Doug Baysinger, LeVon Densel, Bill Robinson, Doug Parshall and DeWayne Cox completed their high school basketball days with the end of the season.

The Cardinals opened with a 68-53 loss to Three Rivers on the Wildcats home court but bounced back with a 61-57 win over Marshall in Coldwater's gym. The next two games were split the same way, with a 69-57 loss to East Lansing away and a victory over Albion at home, 66-51.

Following this Sturgis beat Coldwater at Sturgis, 71-50, and Hillsdale won its first of three victories for the year, 61-57. The Hornets seemed to have a jinx over the Cards as all three wins were by four point margins with the last one in the District Tournament held in Coldwater.

The Ebymen then took their next win over Lakeview in the Cardinal gym, 59-54. Adrian then defeated the Cards, 74-56; Three Rivers repeated the earlier win, 66-59; Marshall turned the tables, 60-44; and Albion won, 72-64. Sturgis again took the Cardinals, 67-60, and Coldwater won two in a row over Lakeview, 60-46, and Adrian, 55-46.

East Lansing rounded out the season by defeating the locals on their home court, 59-46, with Paul Douglas and Art Brandstatter, the conference's second place scorer, battling each other.

Reserves:

The Coldwater High School wrestling squad, in its second season of competition, won five of eight meets and Gerald Hepler, a senior, won the right to compete in the state meet held in Lansing on March 15-16.

At the state competition Hepler pinned Spencer of Flint Northern in the first round and lost to Volcanoff of Lansing Eastern in a 3-0 decision in the second bout on his way toward the finals.

Coach Wayne Kellogg, in his first year at the helm of the squad, listed 13 members on the team. Team scores for the year were: Cards 34, Portage 11; Cards 25, Sturgis 24; Cards 16, Adrian 27; Cards 30, Portage 23; Cards 36, Charlotte 16; Cards 16, Sturgis 30; Cards 21, Adrian 29; and Cards 24, Howe 22.

Varsity Nine Hopes for Good Season

Cardinal baseball hopes were high as this season began with ten lettermen returning from last year's squad which shared first place in the Twin-Valley and had a good record of 11 wins and four losses.

The schedule consisted of one game each with the other seven members of the conference and one game with Bronson and one with Hillsdale. Returning veterans were Gary Brown, Doug Parshall, Darryl Gottschalk, Louis Houston, Pete Inde, Don Sowle, Chuck Harvey, Ron Wilcox, and Jerry Brown.

The varsity was again under the direction of head coach Frank Lowe and assistant coach Gerald Weaver, while James Vincent guided the reserves.

Gary Brown bats against Three Rivers.

Golf Has Five Returning Lettermen

Paul Douglas and Tom Adams practicing their drives.

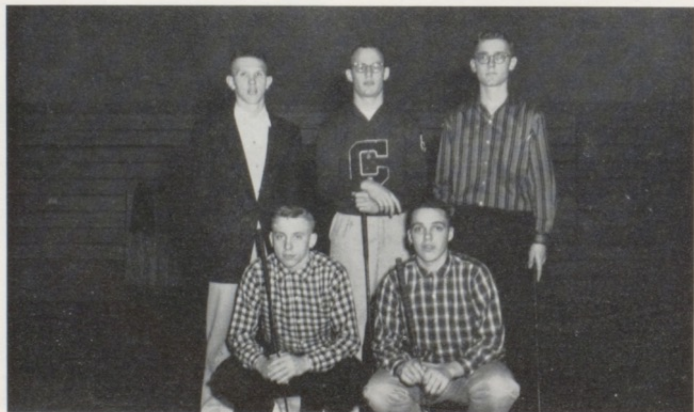

The golf team was bolstered this year by five returning lettermen. These lettermen were Tom Adams, Paul Douglas, Dave Nealy, Dave Petty and Steve Gordon.

1957 is the fifth year that the Coldwater High School varsity golf squad has competed in Twin-Valley conference play.

The golf team concentrated on driving and putting and the other basic fundamentals under the direction of Coach Wayne Kellogg.

Their schedule was as follows: April 8, Hillsdale, here; April 15, Hillsdale, there; April 22, Albion, here; April 29, Hillsdale, here; May 4, Twin Valley, Adrian; May 6, Marshall, there; May 9, Sturgis, here; May 13, Albion, there.

New Mentor Coaches Tennis

Aided by seven returning lettermen, the varsity tennis team this year was under the direction of a new coach, Peter Sangalli. The seven veterans were seniors Bill Aitchison, Dick Green, Bob Rice and Bill Robinson, and juniors Rollie Schiedler, Bob Weaver and Chuck Young.

The squad opened its season against the visiting Marshall team on April 8, and during the following weeks they had matches with Lakeview, Hillsdale, Three Rivers, and Albion. On May 11, the squad traveled to Albion for the annual Twin-Valley meet. They completed the season by competing in the regional tournaments at Stowe Stadium in Kalamazoo on May 18-19.

Doty, L. Densel, L. Buys, G. Porter, R. Sanford, F. Snow.

Head Coach William Fairman and his assistant, Jack Finn, began the track season with 15 returning lettermen and quite a few prospective first year men. Several events were considered weak, but the lettermen were expected to be improved in their events.

Veterans were Jack Doty, Dean Parks, Joe VanDosen, and Gerald Hepler in the sprints;

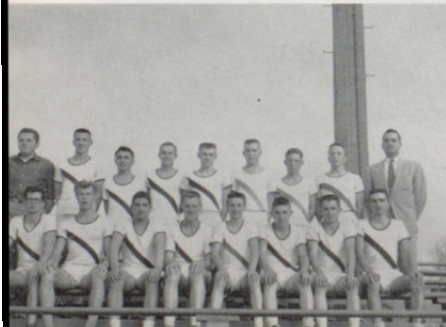

DeWayne Cox, Larry Buys and Forrest Snow, pole vault; Paul Douglas, LaVon Densel and Larry Knight, hurdles and high jump; Gordon Porter, Jerry McLaughlin and Roger Sanford, distance runners and Roger Curtiss and Mike Quick, 440 yard dash.

For the fourth straight year Coldwater hosted the annual Twin-Valley Conference Meet at Cardinal Field, on May 6.

Cheerleaders Adopt New Policies

L to R: Y. Woods, D. May, N. Robson, D. Knowles, J. Dillon and J. Berry.

This year the cheerleaders put into effect some new policies. The cheerleaders are now chosen on ability by the GAA advisor as coaches choose their players. Another new rule is that each varsity squad member must have had a year's experience on the reserve squad and no senior may be a reserve cheerleader.

The varsity squad for the year included

Jackie Berry, Judie Dillon, Delores Knowles, Donna May, Neil Robson, and Yvonne Woods. Reserve cheerleaders were Pat Bennett, Janet Burlew, Linda Iffland, Judy McBride, Gail Quick, Ellen Rittenhouse and Carol Silvers.

The squads sold megaphones at basketball games and sponsored a dance to pay for new uniforms. They also made signs before each game to create student enthusiasm.

GAA Changes Award Point System

The Girls' Athletic Association had a total of 69 members in the school year of 1956-57.

The system of giving points for the different sports was changed this year. Instead of giving 50 points for each sport they decided to give 40 points, therefore getting a greater amount of girls playing in each sport. The points still had to end up a total of 200 at the end of the year in order for the girls to receive awards.

Besides volleyball, basketball, softball, badminton, ping pong, bowling, tennis and officiating, something new was added. The trampoline was introduced for the first time to the GAA. The girls were given a few instructions and learned to do a few simple tricks.

The officers were Donna May, president; Jackie Berry, vice-president; Mary McConnell, secretary, and Judy Worden, treasurer.

School Board Faces Many New

The Coldwater Board of Education, with Dr. Harold Weidner as president; Albin Obed as vice-president; Edward Holtz, secretary; and James Snyder, treasurer; faced many increasingly large problems this year with the opening of the new high school and work on two new elementary schools. Other board members were Mariette Mooi and Charles Kingsley. Mrs. Wigent was elected by the board to serve as assistant secretary and treasurer.

A dedication for the new high school was held last fall by the board. Many people of the community attended the ceremony and toured the school; a handbook with the program and a building plan was given to each person who attended. Next fall the two new elementary schools will be opened.

Most of the problems facing the board have at their roots the question of sufficient finances to perform the school services that people want. Landscaping and maintenance of school property is a large problem, but an even larger problem is increased enrollment which means larger facilities.

With an enrollment increase from 1,500 students 10 years ago to 2,500 now, the faculty has been increased from 60 to over 100. Although Longfellow School has been abandoned and Franklin soon will be, Edison, the new high school, and two other new elementary schools are taking their places. The annexing of seven rural districts to the Coldwater City School System in recent years has also increased the size of the board and the number of board members.

Superintendent . . .

E. BYRON THOMAS, who has been in the Coldwater City School system since 1944, served as principal in Vicksburg, Michigan before coming here. From 1944-1948 he served as senior high principal and since then has been Superintendent of Schools.

Business Manager . . .

AXNER OLSON, a member of the C.H.S. staff for fourteen years, this year became the new Business Manager for the Coldwater City Schools. In his fourteen years in the system, Mr. Olson has been junior high science and mathematics teacher, baseball coach, and junior high principal.

Principal . . .

KERMIT DENNIS, present senior high principal, has held that position since 1948. Before that he had served as science and mathematics teacher in both junior and senior high and was junior high principal for four years.

Seniors First Class From New School

This year's graduating class is the first of many to attend classes in the new high school. During the years at Roosevelt, the class worked hard to boost themselves to the position of seniors.

As juniors, the class sponsored a paper drive, a Swiss steak supper, and the play, "Lost Horizon" to raise funds for the Jr.-Sr. Banquet and Prom that they gave in honor of the seniors. Gail Spoon and Jan Weakly represented the class on the homecoming court.

After a summer of working in the park concession stand, they entered school, seniors at last! Bob Teeter led the school as mayor and Ken Furgason was elected class president. Jan Weakly, and senior court members, Pat Mooi and Gail Spoon reigned over the homecoming dance. Kay Hodgman and Larry Knight tied for top scholastic spot in the class as co-valedictorians; Bob Rice was salutatorian. The students and faculty chose Jan Weakly DAR girl and the faculty chose Doug Parshall and Delores Knowles Ideal Boy and Girl. Senior thespians presented "Home Sweet Homicide."

After their trip to New York and Washington, D. C., the class concluded their high school days with baccalaureate, class day, and commencement.

Co-Valedictorians, sitting: Kay Ann Hodgman, Larry Knight. Salutatorian, standing: Bob Rice.

1957 Class Has Co-Valedictorians

Seven boys and three girls make up the scholastic group for the Top Ten of the senior class for 1957. Larry Knight and Kay Ann Hodgman share the honor of co-valedictorians and Bob Rice was selected salutatorian.

From many candidates, Delores Knowles and Doug Parshall were chosen 1957's Ideal Boy and Girl by the teachers at a special faculty meeting.

Janice Weakly was selected by the students and teachers as D.A.R. representative for CHS.
