TO OUR BOYS

The VIKING

FOREWORD TO OUR ANNUAL

Dear Bill,

To inform you as to our school activities this year, the Viking of 1943 has been published.

Much hard work has been done this year to make the best of the opportunities which parents and teachers have made possible.

The right to free education is one of the many rights which you boys are fighting for, and in showing appreciation for this, efforts will be made to carry out the philosophy of Rudyard Kipling:

If you can fill each unforgiving minute
With sixty second's worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son.

TO ALL OUR BOYS IN SERVICE WHO ARE SO WILLINGLY
GIVING THEIR LIVES SO THAT WE OF BRONSON HIGH SCHOOL AND STUDENTS EVERYWHERE MAY HAVE A BETTER WORLD IN WHICH TO LIVE, WITH SINCERE AP-PRECIATION, WE DEDICATE THIS ANNUAL

—Audrey Brailsford

SCHOOL SONG

When you're marching for old Bronson High,
You had better march like men,
For every mile you march with her,
You'll wish were eight or ten.
When you're marching for old Bronson High,
Your four years won't be long,
And then you'll wish you're back again,
To sing this marching song.

Marching for old Bronson High,
A royal road we tread,
Our hearts are beating higher and our blood runs red,
We're all young together and the best of life's ahead,
When you march for old Bronson High.

Fight for old Bronson; Bronson must win,
Fight to the finish; never give in,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
You do your best, boys, we'll do the rest, boys.
Fight for the victory. Rah! Rah! Rah!
Fight for old Bronson; Bronson must win,
Fight to the finish; never give in,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
You do your best boys, we'll do the rest boys,
Fight for the victory. Rah! Rah! Rah!

—Leona Mynhier.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

A group of capable men comprise the Board of Education for the City of Bronson. The president, Glenn A. Martin, is very much interested in young people and their problems; secretary, C. J. Holmes, a life-long resident of Bronson is both efficient and reliable; treasurer, Robert Ryan, is remembered for his past experience as Postmaster of this city; Richard McMahon and C. Faas Moon, both are doing very fine work.

These men aim to keep our school in harmony with the times in order to prepare Bronson students for adult life.

Military Science, an activity recently added to the curriculum of Bronson High School, proposed and supported by the school board, is one of few such organizations in the high schools of Michigan.

—Eleanor Kolassa.

The year's activities have been most interesting and enjoyable. Keen interest was shown in the war effort throughout the year. Some outstanding projects were achieved. The Junior Scrap Drive, in which the Junior High won an honorary plaque for the work done by the eighth grade commandos and their aides, was a great success.

In the First Aid classes, twenty-eight received their official First Aid cards. A one-hundred per cent membership in the Junior Red Cross was subscribed.

In weaving and knitting, two afghans were made.

The Junior Victory Book campaign was sponsored by an eighth grade assembly, "Thanks to the Yanks." Three hundred books were sent to United States Service Camps.

The Junior High is represented in the following organizations: Student Council, Junior and Senior Bands, AAA Safety Patrol, basketball, softball, 4-H Club, and the Boy and Girl Scouts.

The initial dancing party was enjoyed on November twentieth. A Christmas party followed at which the seventh graders were hosts to the eighth grade, entertaining them with music and amusing plays. Sweetheart Songs and Valentines were the highlights of the February party.

"Help One Another," the slogan for the year, has been faithfully observed in all Junior High activities.

VIKING STAFF

In spite of the conditions of war, the Senior Class of Bronson has done its best in publishing the Yearbook of 1943.

Due to the shortage of paper, metal for engraving, and plastic bindings, we have reduced the size of our Yearbook and used staples in the binding of them.

The larger group pictures were taken by Miss Nina Horton and others by Donald Bodley. The engraving was done by the Fort Wayne Engraving Company and printed by the Bronson Journal Office.

Our sincere thanks and appreciation to business men of th's city for their splendid financial support. Also our grateful thanks to the students who wrote and those who typed the various articles in this book.

There are twenty-five members in the Junior and Intermediate Bands combined.

The Junior Band members are required to pass seventy tests before they are admitted into the Intermediate Band. To be admitted into the Senior Band they must complete, or nearly complete, a book and also there must be a vacancy in the Senior Band for their particular instrument.

With a group of thirty-six high school students, Mr. Herman Ellis, the music director, assembled an all-girl chorus for the year of 1942-43. The chorus was divided into three groups,— first soprano, second soprano, and alto.

Since this was Mr. Ellis' last appearance here, the band and chorus presented him with a ring as a remembrance of Bronson High School. He resigned to become an instructor in a technical training school for the Air Force.

Mr. Donald VanDoren from White Pigeon, joined the faculty, to take Mr. Ellis' place.

After not having chorus for about a month, the group started out with several new songs with which they put on an assembly for the school on March 9. The songs selected were "I'll See You Again" and "I Love Life." Another chorus and band concert was given in April.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has almost completed its seventh year. The Council teaches students democratic government functions and gives opportunities for real practice in carrying out school projects. The aim of the Student Council is to encourage students to become active in school government and build up a high moral and academic standard.

One value of our Student Council is to introduce new students each fall into a group with the older members; this gives newcomers more knowledge of all the activities of the school. The larger part of the student body participates in council affairs. This year about ninety-five percent of the student body are active members. The Council is financed on a dime-a-week for the first semester, but a large percentage of the students paid in full for the school year and got a discount.

Activities taking place were assemblies, All-Hi parties, a ping pong tournament, Hi-Times paper, noon-hour program, athletic activities, and many other incidentals. One of the most successful features is the noon-hour program which helps the country students pass the noon hour quickly and socially. There are games in the study hall for anyone who cares to play, ping-pong, and dancing. This year the students were privileged to have Mrs. Talitha Reynolds come every Wednesday noon to teach round dancing.

The 1942-43 officers are: "Whit" Cranson, president; Lamar Modert, vice-president; Lowell Rosenau, alderman-at-large; Mary Virginia White, secretary; Gertrude Blaskie, treasurer; and the following aldermen: Charles Kinter, Walter Reed, Geraldine Yesh, Martha Kruszka, Helyn Radford, Mary Jean Henshaw, Robert Keeslar, Barbara Tice, and Doyle Hoopingarner.

SENIOR PLAY

"Spring Fever," a farce by Glenn Hughes, was the play presented by the Class of '43, Friday, April 16, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Tharp.

The cast consisted of Ed. Burns (Frank Printke), a chemistry student; Vic Lewis (Lowell Rosenau), an artist; Vivian George (Shirley Robinson), Vic's "steady"; Howard Brant (Whitcomb Cranson), a student whose diploma depended on his getting his term paper in on time; Anne Purcell (Audrey Brailsford), Howard's "heart-beat"; Mr. and Mrs. Purcell (Lamar Modert and Virginia Nowak), who, upon arriving at the college, find no place to stay; Mrs. Sprangler (Donna Shaw), the landlady; Lou Herron (Eleanor Kolassa), a newspaper girl and girl friend of Ed. Burns; Prof. Bean (Harley Bogart), the prof that flunked Howard; Aunt Maude (Beverly Lawrence), Howard's aunt from California; and Dr. Dixon (Clifford Kibiloski), the president of the college. In the end Aunt Maude persuades Prof. Bean to accept Howard's term paper.

JUNIOR PLAY

"Student Queen" was the title of the clever high school comedy presented by the Junior class on December 18, 1942, under the direction of Miss Isabelle Baker. Chuck Wentworth (Walter Reed), who was allergic to bananas but seemed to have all the answers, with the help of Miss Driscoll (Bernadine Smoker), a cosmetic saleswoman, changed Elizabeth (Marjorie Shook), the least lovely girl in the high school, to the loveliest one.

Doris (Bonnie Byers), the little sister of the Loring family, was very "snippy." Her brother Bob (Charles Hilton), was the leader of the gay crowd, Evangeline (Joyce Spornhauer), Patty (Joann Garman), Marlene (Betty Gibbons), Hal (Clyde Williams), and Mac (Maurice Bonnell), all of whom liked to gather at the Loring home.

Elizabeth didn't seem to mix with the crowd nor they with her. Mrs. Loring (Maybelle Washburn) tried to get Elizabeth acquainted with the crowd while working in the Loring home, and John Hawkins (Bill Thurber), Elizabeth's father, whose business was farming, tried to encourage his daughter.

Bob, Doris, Evangeline, Patty, Marlene, Hal, and Mac, were the committee appointed to select a student queen to be a partner for the King (Leonard Hankins). The committee, to spite Diana (Mary Virginia White), elected Elizabeth to be the queen. George Benson (Bruce Rosenau) head of the school board, and Miss Haley (Phyllis Elliott), a teacher, were both determined that George Benson's daughter, Diana, was to be queen.

Elizabeth did become a very beautiful queen with the help of Chuck Wentworth, who seemed to be a very close friend at the close of the play.

For the first time in the history of Freshmen, the Class of '46 can proudly boast of having shown their loyalty and cooperation to the school in being the only class of Junior and Senior High to be paid up one hundred percent in the Student Council dime-a-week plan.

Four members of the class were given special recognition by having their names placed on the honor roll, and fourteen deservingly received honorary mention.

During this school year, the Frosh, with a present membership of fifty-eight, have been a group of very sportsminded students. They, as a whole, have participated in every sport activity presented throughout the school this year.

Six boys and five girls participated in basketball. Ten took archery, twelve chorus, and fourteen took band, with Ruth Meyer and June Crabill being promoted to the Senior band.

The class showed their affection and appreciation to their worthy adviser, Miss Dora Anderson, by presenting her with a birthday gift, for the many hours she spent in helping them through their first year of senior high school work.

HI-TIMES

When the Bronson Hi-Times was first organized in 1935, the members of the staff prepared the articles for publication and the Bronson Journal printed their material. This paper was awarded second honor rating by the National Scholastic Press Association, of which the Hi-Times has always been a member.

In 1938 Mr. Bodley conceived the idea of mimeographing and the staff took over the full responsibility of the publication of the Hi-Times. This resulted in a marked drop in expenses. Of course, this added new responsibilities to the Hi-Times advisor, Mrs. Tharp, as well as the other members of the staff, but through their mistakes and experiences an improved paper has resulted.

Though no time is given in the school schedule for this work and there is no course given in journalism, staff work is a co-curricular activity for which elective credit is given.

Backed by the Student Union, the Hi-Times is given to members, and is sent by the Board of Education to rural schools in the community, and to nearby high schools. Materials for the publication are provided by the Board of Education.

Our Hi-Times, for the past two years has received first honor rating from the National Scholastic Press Association in comparison with schools our size. The Hi-Times was also selected to represent Michigan in a National Competition of papers supporting the Tuberculosis Association Christmas Seal Program.

With our staff of fifty, including two editors and two assistant editors, we have tried to back the War effort by news items, editorials, features and cartoons on different projects in which the school could participate, and have also supported community projects of various types.

Our aim has been to give the public an idea of what we do in school and to uphold the ideals of Bronson High.

SENIOR BAND

At the beginning of the school year, the band, under the direction of Mr. Herman Ellis, got underway. Their first appearance was made at the 4-H fair in Coldwater. After winning a first division rating in concert playing, the band gave a marching exhibition and pageant, called "Uncle Sam in Review," at the Centreville fair.

The band played at the football games this year as usual. Later in the year they gave an evening concert, the last under Mr. Ellis' direction. He left to become an instructor in the Army Air Corps at Madison, Wisconsin. Mr. Ellis, who had been with the band for the last four and one-half years, saw a steady increase and improvement.

At the beginning of the second semester, Mr. Donald VanDoren came as the school band director. Under his direction the band is still going ahead.

The band will have no spring contests this year because of the war.

An assembly program was presented this spring by both band and chorus. The size of the band at present is 35 members.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

With a membership of about 36 girls, the Home Economics Club organized with Mrs. Louise Decker as adviser. It was decided to continue with the purpose of developing friendship, cooperation, and understanding among the girls; to promote interest in Home Economics; and to be of service to the school and community. This year the Home Economics Club girls have participated in the War effort by making things for the Junior Red Cross.

The girls elected Frances Seiler, president; Bonnie Byers, vice-president; Helen Mae Smoker, treasurer; and Louise Criswell, secretary.

The club had an initiation party for the new members; also a banquet and formal initiation to which the girls invited their mothers.

Several members attended the group meeting in Kalamazoo; Frances Seiler as official delegate; Bonnie Byers, representative of the club.

The club, together with the Future Farmers, continued the annual Community Fair. Hot lunches were continued, from which the club makes its money. A successful spring party was held to which Union City, Reading, Quincy, and Coldwater Future Farmers and Home Economics Clubs were invited.

Regular bi-weekly meetings consist of round-table discussion, movies, parties, and refreshments.

Frances Seiler.

SCOUTS

The Boy Scout meetings were held during the summer of 1942 under the supervision of their new Scoutmaster, Charles Hilton. The boys were organized as messengers for "blackouts" and they have also been studying First Aid, which will help them very much if any accident should occur while they are present.

—Carlton Rifenburgh.

The Girl Scouts, under the direction of Doris Lane, have been very active in doing their part in the War effort.

At the beginning of the year they sold Cadet Cards to earn money which was used to buy two flags, a Girl Scout flag and an American flag.

They are now working on Junior Red Cross projects, making slippers, scrapbooks, and afghans.

Waste fats and grease are being collected by them and turned over to the government.

The girls are sponsored by the P. T. A. of the Bronson High School.

COL. ORAL E. CLARK

MILITARY SCIENCE

Early in the school year of 1902-03, a group of male students in the Bronson High School organized themselves into a cadet military company. To this organization they gave the resounding name: "Bronson Public School Military Company."

Mr. Oral E. Clark, Class of 1903, whose only qualifications were his interest in military history and his once having taken a candidacy examination for a cadetship at the United States Military Academy, was appointed Captain and instructor.

The present World War II has brought upon us the necessity of a more serious preparation to overcome our enemies. Therefore, in the fall of 1942, acting under the advice of the Board of Education, Supt. Bodley reactivated "The Bronson Public School Military Company" under the name, "Company A, First Battalion of Cadets, Bronson Public School" and the following rules were made to govern the conduct of the course. It is to be elective for male students of the high school, but the course, having been entered, must be continued to completion. Parents' or guardian's consent must be presented. Junior High students must also have Mr. Bodley's consent. The members must be physically fit. It is not necessary, but it is best to buy a text book. No aliens will be permitted to pursue the course.

Colonel Oral E. Clark, United States Army, retired, formerly the Cadet Captain Clark referred to above, had offered his services, which were accepted. Principal Charles R. Hilton is assistant instructor of the course.

When the company was organized, the officers were as follows:— Captain Lowell Rosénau commanding the company; Charles E. Kinter, First Lieutenant, executive office; First Sergeant Clifford Kibiloski, foreman; Frank J. Printke, First Lieutenant, commanding the first platoon, with Sergeant Carlton Rifenburgh as the platoon sergeant and Sergeant Forest Shumway as the platoon guide; Donald E. Frederick, Second Lieutenant, commanding the second platoon, with Sergeant Glenn M. Shumway as platoon sergeant, and Sergeant Richard C. Shafer as the platoon guide. The following men were sergeants in charge of squads: first platoon, first squad, Hugh W. Cranson; second squad, Harley R. Bogart; third squad, LaVon W. Rigg; second platoon, first squad, Edson L. Post. The corporals of the squads were Clyde H. Williams, Myron Larimer, William Guzy, Gordon L. Jones, Maurice Bonnell, and David A. Badder, respectively.

The uniforms for the group are blue washable suits with the insignia designating their rank.

FOOTBALL

The end of the 1942 football season brought a new champion to the Little "C" Conference. After holding the championship consecutively from 1937 through 1941, Bronson was forced to relinquish its hold on first place to Jonesville. Bronson began its reign as champion by sharing the title with Jonesville in 1937, and then winning it undisputed for the next four years.

With a nucleus of five Seniors, one Junior, and one Sophomore letter winners in 1941, Coach Hilton had a hard job ahead of him when the season opened. But with his fine planning and coaching he was able to put a team on the field that, though they lost the championship, never lost a game.

Those boys that played their last year of football for Bronson in the line were Charlie Rifenburgh, Lowell Rosenau and Clifford Kibiloski; in the back field, Whitcomb Cranson, Charles Kinter, and Frank Printke. Clifford Kibiloski was elected honorary captain for the season.

Since Coach Hilton came to Bronson in 1932, Bronson has held the championship five years, Athens two, Union City one, Quincy one, and Jonesville one. The latter also shared one year with Bronson.

With the exception of two years out of the eleven, Bronson has never been lower than second place.

The season's schedule follows: Bronson 18, Athens 0; Bronson 20, Litchfield 0; Bronson 18, Union City 6; Bronson 6, Jonesville 6; Bronson 39, Reading 0; Bronson 7, Homer 0; Bronson 0, Quincy 0. Bronson totalled 108 points in the seven games, and the opponents, 12 points.

BASKETBALL

The Little "C" league decided last fall not to play basketball on Championship basis.

Each school was given permission to make up a schedule with nearby schools in order to eliminate long driving and save tires and gasoline.

As a result, Bronson played two games each with Colon, Union City, Quincy and Burr Oak. This resulted in Bronson's winning two games and losing six.

Bronson took part in the district tournament at Sturgis and were eliminated by Colon. The score was: Colon, 36; Bronson, 16.

Those receiving major awards were: Whitcomb Cranson, Frank Printke, and Chas. Kinter, seniors; Charles Hilton and Clyde Williams, juniors; Wendell Brenner, Perry Davis and Robert Doll, sophomores.

Those playing on the second team squad were: John Williams, Dick Belote, John Hardy, Keith Frederick, Rex Foglesong, David Rifenburg, Eugene Johnson, Harry Piatt, Joe Supianoski, Frank Bekoski, Robert Byers, and Robert Kibiloski.

Scores were as follows: Colon 29, Bronson 18; Burr Oak 20, Bronson 22; Union City 17, Bronson 26; Quincy 23, Bronson 20; Colon 21, Bronson 19; Burr Oak 20, Bronson 22; Quincy 27, Bronson 12; Union City 26, Bronson 14.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Under the coaching of Mrs. Nova Hamilton, the girls' basketball season started September 29. They had only two practices a week until the middle of December, when they began daily practice.

Because of the gas rationing, the girls participated only in intramural games this year. They played four games on the local floor, preliminary to the boys' games. Two teams were selected, known as the "Blues" and the "Whites."

The "Whites" were the following: Beverly Lawrence, captain; Mary Ellen Piatt, Donna Leatherberry, Barbara Burley, Yolanda Austin, Marjorie Shook, Dora Piatt, and Grace Wilson.

The following made up the "Blues": Gene Green, captain; Georgia Green, Mary Hurley, Nadine Kinter, Joyce Lane, Betty Doll, Thelma Piatt, and Eileen Heimert.

The girls wish to express their appreciation to Mrs. Hamilton for her patience and untiring effort in working with them. They extend to her their heartiest thanks.

BASEBALL

In line with the plans of the Little "C" Conference, Bronson has decided to discontinue baseball as a championship sport for the duration.

Bronson has not planned on any games as yet, but, due to the fact that Coach Hilton feels the opportunity should be given the boys for some spring sport, he has started baseball practice.

The practicing is done during the noon hour so as to give the boys a chance to work after school in places where they can help their country.
