Hard Work. . .

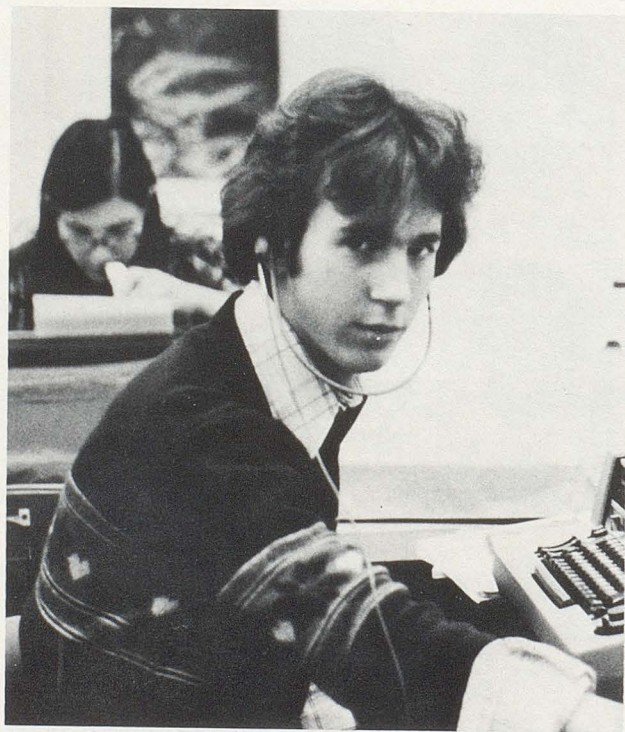

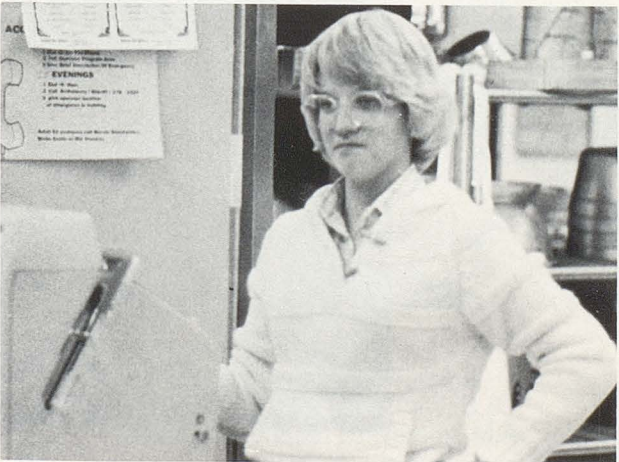

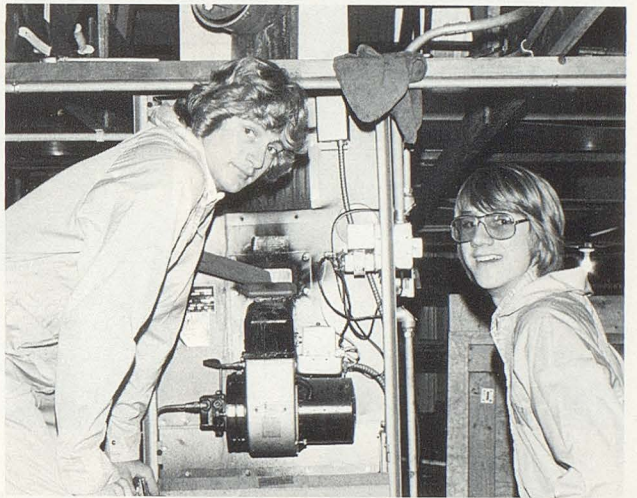

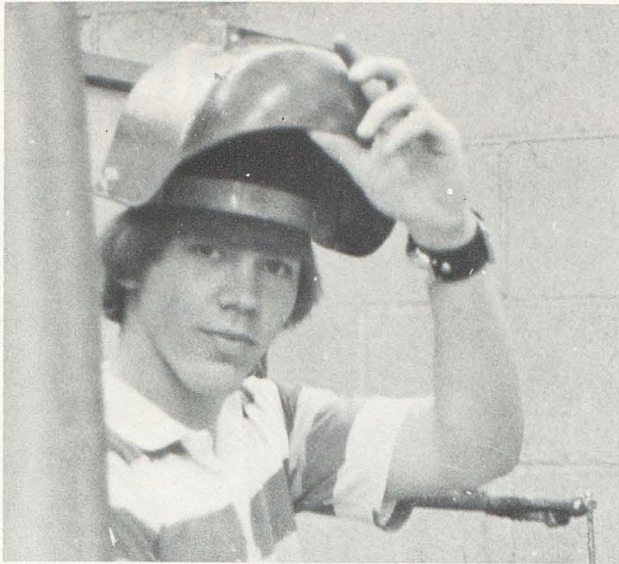

At the BACC

The Branch Area Careers Center is a main thoroughway for students from Quincy, Coldwater and Bronson to learn more and to become qualified in a field of their choice.

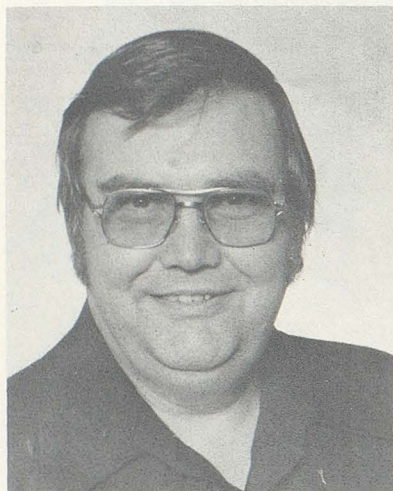

Different fields that students can train in are: distributive education, visual communications, health occupations, cosmetology, child care, office education, food services, electricity, electronics, auto body, auto mechanics, metal working, building trades, power mechanics, mechanical systems, farm management, and ornamental horticulture.

Along with the enjoyable classes, there are various youth clubs which students can participate in. Each club is tied in with the workings of the classes. The clubs are VICA, BOEC and DECA. Quincy students, along with the rest of the careers center student body, have won many high honors through these clubs.

ACTIVITIES

Amy and Tim Are Queen and King

September 18-22 marked the 1978 Homecoming festivities but there was little to cheer about at the end of the week when the Orioles were defeated by the Jonesville Comets 32-6, despite avid support from the fans.

Amy Porter and Tim Taylor were crowned queen and king during the halftime celebration while the courts of each looked on. The courts included Teresa Anderson, Karen Provencal, Kim Rodesiler, Connie Stempien, Andy Doll, Tim Mills, Rege Rupp and Bob Tobolske. As a special attraction, the kings and queens from 1965 to the present were honored before the game.

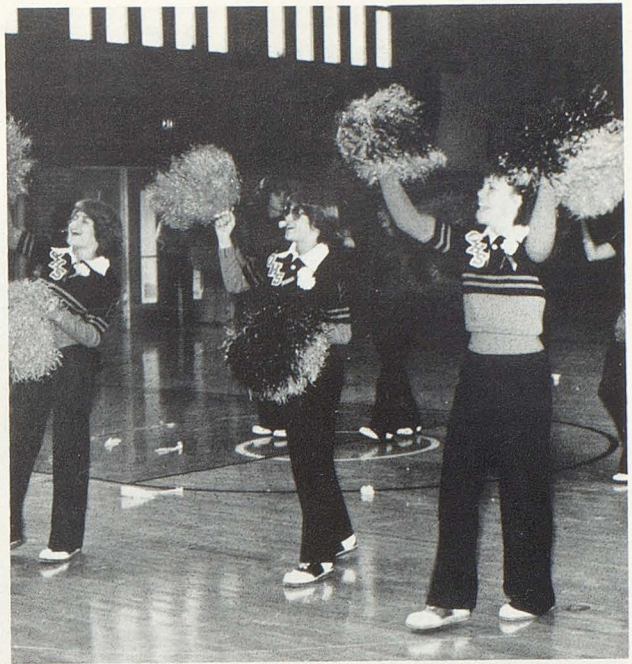

Television commercials was the theme chosen by the Student Council. Tidy Bowl, Dr. Pepper, Charmin Tissue and Orange Crush were used by the classes.

Juniors Win Coveted Pep Jug

The Junior Class was awarded the coveted Pep Jug as a result of winning the mud volleyball game and tying with the sophomores for first place in the float competition.

The annual Homecoming dance, featuring "Gabriel," finalized the week of activities.

It Began With the Romans . . .

Oriole Week concluded with the crowning of Linda Aiken as Miss Oriole. Other candidates included Kim Rodesiler, Nancy Bowerman, Chris Toth, Gina Massey, Karice Loveberry, JoAnn McClellan and Sherri Knisely.

Oriole Week enthusiasm came to a real peak this year with many students participating in the various dress-up days including Early Roman Day, Gangster Day, Old West Day, Depression Day and Masquerade Day. The winners of each category were Nancy Bowerman, Scott Smith, Martha Jones, Maria Carpenter and Karice Loveberry respectively.

After all the snow had settled down after the blistering saucer pull races, the sophomores came out on top. The juniors finished close behind in second and the freshmen and seniors finished third and fourth respectively.

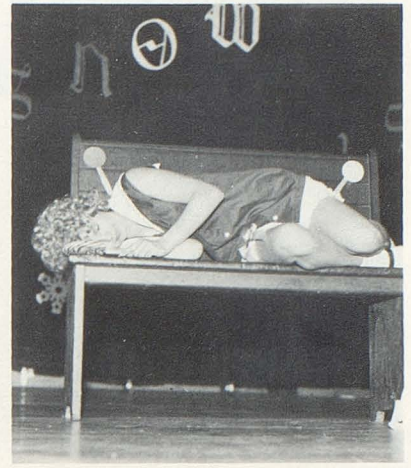

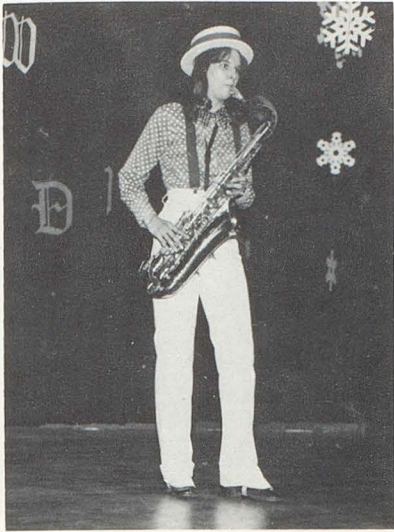

and Ended With the '50's!

Dawn Dances to Win Snow Disco

Tip-Up participants: Karen Provencal, Teresa Herman, Candy Smith, Kathy Cottman, Karen Andrews, Lena Arnett, Sarah Kaufman, Cindi Baranouski, Shari Ingraham, Kathy Provencal, Nan Rupp, Dawn Howell and Kathy Wilkinson.

Dawn Howell smiles as she is chosen to be the 1979 Tip-Up Queen by a panel of eight judges. Other contestants who became winners in the contest named "Snow Disco" are Teresa Herman, first runner-up, Kathy Cottman, second runner-up, and Sarah Kaufman who was named as Miss Congeniality by the girls.

The weather was a contributing factor to a successful Tip-up as it was cold and there was plenty of snow and many inches of ice on the lake.

Higbea Sets New Record . . .

Phil Higbea helped lead the sophomore class to a dazzling victory in the annual trike race by setting a new record of 22.0 in the 100-yd. drag. Phil also joined teammates Guy Bassage, Dave Burlew, Mike Kanouse, C. J. Bundy, Bill Hawes, Tom Marshall and Tyler Badwin to win the 880 Relay. The title was clinched for the class of 1981 when LaJeana Coan won the girls' 100-yd. drag.

Seniors Maria Carpenter, Brenda Osborne, Amy Porter, Tammi Walters, Connie Stempfen, Sue Sattler, Kim Strother and Maria Scherer combined to win the girls' 880 relay.

Calvin Shilling, Brent Whitney, Steve Hinds, Wes Horney, Roy Rodgers, Brad Freeburn, Bill Poole, Keith Pohl, Andy Richards and DeWaine DeCaire won the tug of war easily and later defeated seniors Brenda Marowelli, Dawn Finley, Jackie Wood, Rita Beemer, Cindy Horney, Renee Pierson, Maria Scherer, Julie Paul, Lori Hughes and Kathy Cottman in the same event in an effort to prolong the outdoor activities.
