We, the last of all, are the first of all. The oldest is always the newest, I see nothing which I have seen before;
A man is never lost, he has only been misled.
Got to move on, got to travel, walk away my blues.

We dedicate this book to the SEARCHER in all of us . . .

English Department

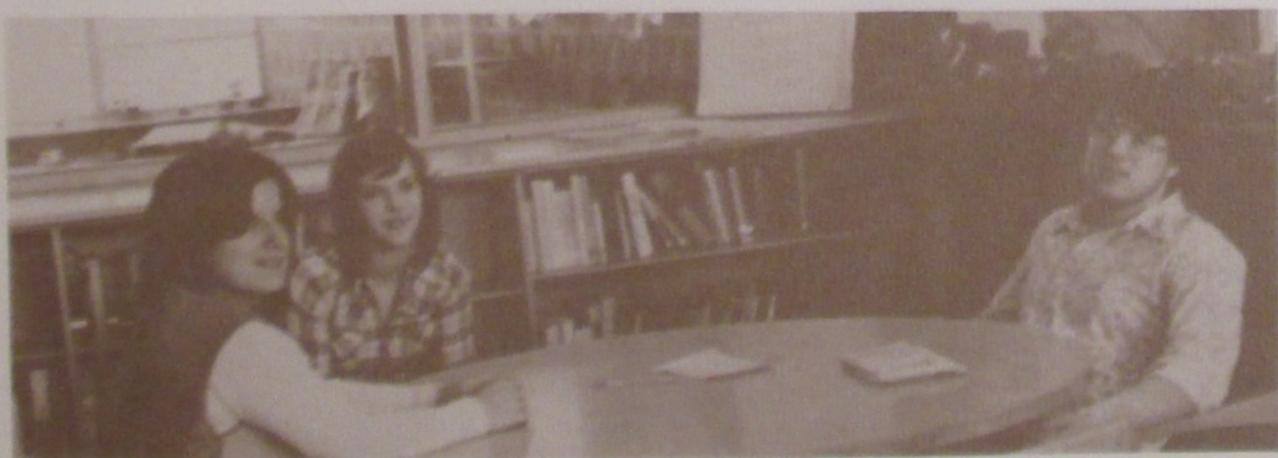

With two of the three R's falling under the responsibilities of the English department, English teachers find themselves busy. Miss Wynn teaches English and Spanish classes. Mrs. Smith and Mr. Kolassa teach various English electives as well as basic English classes. Mrs. McGlashen teaches drama in addition to English classes. Miss Taylor teaches basic English, journalism, and paper staff. Mrs. Sisco heads the reading classes and teaches English and publications.

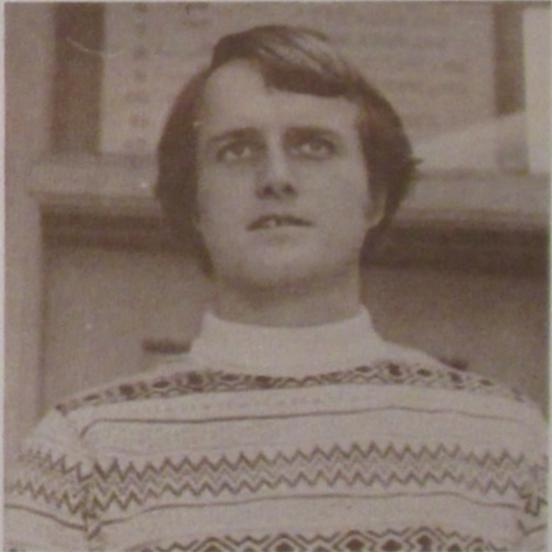

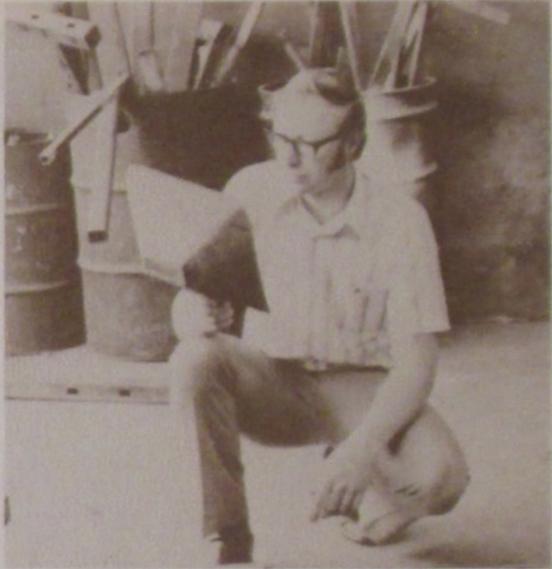

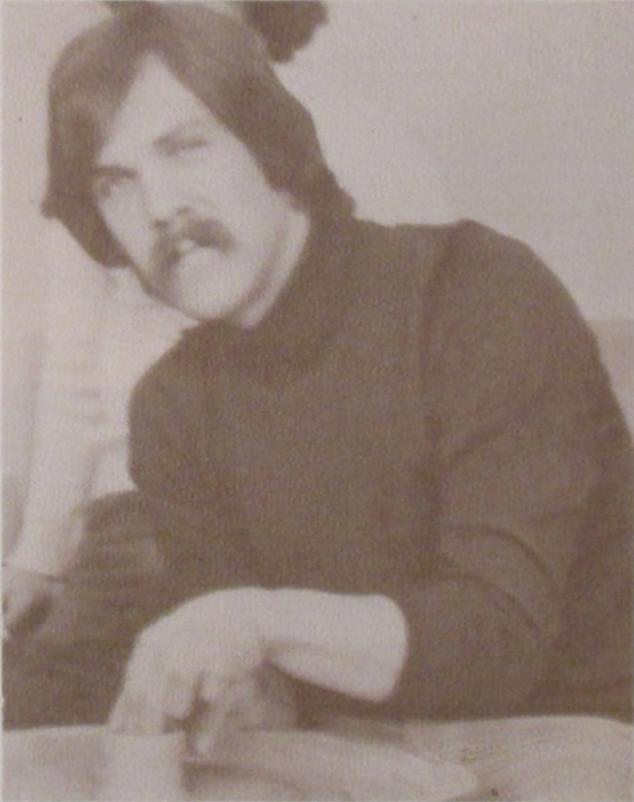

A typical student's daily schedule finds him all over the building from PE class to research in the library. Mrs. Evert and Mrs. Fox are the indispensable duo in the library for helping the students find their reference materials and keeping the whole library operation running smoothly. Besides teaching their regular PE classes and health, Mrs. Mason and Mr. Zacharia initiated an advanced PE class for students who were either involved in sports or who were interested in a future in physical education.

Following the dance, the couples and their friends drove to the Coldwater Recreation Center for a moonlight bowling party. In the wee hours of the morning the surviving night owls gathered at the school cafeteria for a welcome pancake and sausage breakfast sponsored by some very generous, although sleepy-eyed, parents.

Graduation 1977

The Senior Class of 1977 from Union City High School became alumni following the 97th commencement exercises at this school. Theresa Mills and Eugene Taylor were co-valedictorians while Stephen Soncrant claimed the honors for the salutatorian position. Due to inclement weather, the commencement exercises were held in the gymnasium this year. Board of Education President Robert Marsh awarded the diplomas. Nine members of the 95-member class were members of the National Honor Society. Classmate Jeffrey Ames closed the exercises with the benediction.
