BDLS Board Minutes
Aug. 19, 1996

3. Penal fines chart: noted with question on annual amount going to county law library.

PENDING BUSINESS

1. Report on Bronson meeting noted.

2. Liaison Reports:
   a. Coldwater Public Library: No August meeting.
   b. Bronson: In need of carpet.
   c. Quincy: Status quo.
   d. Union: The big voting machines have been removed; children's author, Patricia Polocco, took part in the Summer Reading Program.
   e. Sherwood: Given an unused dehumidifier from Central.
   f. Algansee: Status quo.

3. Brown reported that another meeting of the reserve circulation committee is needed before a policy recommendation can be given.

4. Director's report:
   a. Branch County Community Foundation grant of $1,000 given for new books on grieving and dying.
   b. Ballot proposal to delete City of Coldwater library millage is pending.
   c. 15% tax abatements are being studied by the Coldwater City Council.
   d. Success of Summer Reading Program at Central was great with 22% higher than last year. Also a 34% increase in circulation due to giving out "book bucks" and the 6-8 year old story time. Computerized circulation really had made a difference in service.
   e. Good cooperation from Rumsey & Watkins in our change over in bookkeeping.
   f. Mary Cook is doing a good job.
   g. There was a bat in Kids Place due to work in the attic.
   h. Had a false fire alarm due to possible overheating of elevator which triggered a necessary all day inspection ($800.) by library contracted Alltronics Security Co. in compliance with the state.
   i. Painting of building is coming along.
   j. Bruce, Christie and Mary go to a MLA sponsored meeting in Lansing on August 23, dealing with intellectual freedoms and censorship issues. Barb Burkhardt will be on duty.

-con'd.
k. Contacted Unique Management Services, a collection agency which specializes in library delinquent accounts.

l. Bruce has barcoded the computers at the three larger branches and now is the time to talk to the insurance agency regarding question of inventory coverage of automation.

m. The monthly Statistics Report will be fine tuned.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Proposal on heating/air conditioning contract: Brown moved, Swanson seconded to accept Aker, Inc. heating/air conditioning contract for one year. Carried.

2. President Sharland appointed Berg, Brown and Sharland as the negotiating team to work with BDLHEA.

3. Service club membership policy:
   a. Ashdown moved, Brown seconded, to adopt proposed policy. Motion withdrawn after discussion of policy motion.
   b. Ashdown moved, Brown seconded, to adopt proposed policy as amended. Carried. (See proposed policy.)

   a. After much discussion, Swanson moved, Ashdown seconded, to approve "frame relay project" at total cost of $10,721.30, as presented. Carried. Majority of funds have already been budgeted.
   b. Internet renewals and new accounts are coming along very nicely. Some $6,000 in August so far has been added to the Special Revenue Fund.
   c. Recent installation of modems went out within two weeks and were completely replaced under the Merit Maintenance Agreement.
