My reading pile keeps getting bigger and bigger and BIGGER. So thankful tho' for my library Branch District Library - Coldwater Branch who promptly ordered a book that was of interest to me. I know how hard their staff works to keep us all happy and stay within budget. So, I thought it worth saying thanks out loud! I'm thankful for our library and all they do to serve our community, including many homeschoolers (and me)!

I like the new policy for children on the computers

Now something should be done about the kids hanging out with their friends talking by the computers. Maybe they could be sent up to the teen lounge area to wait. There is too much talking in the computer area.
