

Adult Programming Report for August/September 2013

Display Case: The library has a new display case on the first floor. The first display was a private collection of items from the Kuna Indians of Panama. The second display contained items from a one-room schoolhouse on loan from the Heritage Room and the private collection of Larry Hoffman.

August – Panamanian Display

September – One-Room Schoolhouse Display

Adult Summer Reading Program: The library offered a Summer Reading Program for adults. Each adult that finished a book during the summer filled out a critique of the book and entered a drawing for a prize.

Other programs offered in July and August:

Visiting authors: Memoirs of a Country Schoolteacher – Beverly Haskins Reyner

What Nightmares are Made Of – Vicky Burlew

Saving for College – Edward Jones Investment Company

Know the Ten Signs of Alzheimers – Alzheimer's Association

Upcoming programs for September:

Book Discussion – An Invisible Thread

Home Buying/Selling Basics

Visiting Author s – Dr. Annette Perkins and Jonathan Perkins

Watercolor for Beginners I & II

Bones of the Garden

Chronic Fatigue and Fibromyalgia