

Adult Programming Report for November 2013

Display Case: Our display case for November features photographs taken by SURA Arts Academy middle school students from Dearborn.

November - SURA Arts Academy student photos

Up-cycled boxes from greeting cards craft

Up-cycled Bows and Boxes:

Several turned out to make Christmas boxes from old gift cards and bows from newspaper.

Teabag Folding Greeting

Card Craft: Teabag folding is the art of folding squares of patterned paper and gluing them onto hand-made greeting cards. This craft was well received and we had many attend.

Tea bag folding greeting cards craft

Denim bracelet craft

Denim Bracelet

Craft: Participants of all ages enjoyed making their own bracelets from scrap denim and beads.

Getting to Know You: Muslim and Yemeni

Americans in Coldwater: On Saturday, November 9, the Branch District Library and the Arab American National Museum (AANM) of Dearborn, celebrated our neighbors whose culture includes the Muslim faith and tradition, and family ties to Yemen. There was regional food and a display of books and videos that were obtained by a grant from the National Endowment of the Humanities. A traditional Yemeni dance performance and henna art tattoos also entertained the large group from the community. In addition, a video was shown entitled Yemeni Voices in America: Dr. Rashid Abdu.

