

Adult Programming Report for March 2014

Display Case: Our display case for this month features a whimsical collection of cow figurines. These cows are representations of the popular “Cows on Parade” art show that has traveled the country.

Carol Hodson has generously shared her collection with us.

American Red Cross: The American Red Cross serving Branch and Calhoun Counties hosted a Disaster Service Overview class. The class is the first step to becoming a member of the American Red Cross Disaster Action Team.

Purple Martins: Penny Briscoe presented a class on purple martins. These members of the swallow family are in need of human assistance for their continued survival. She shared her knowledge of housing, habitat loss and measures she and her husband are taking to protect and preserve this species of bird.

Webinar: Denise Yennie, head of adult programming at the Coldwater Branch, participated in a webinar entitled “Adult Summer Reading: Bringing Adults on Board to Encourage Adult and Family Literacy”. Sponsored by the Library of Michigan, the webinar featured speaker Donna Olson of the Howell Carnegie District Library.
