

Adult Programming Report for April 2014

One Book One Community: Our title for this year's "One Book One Community" was Hannah Coulter by Wendell Berry. We were fortunate in that Roland Story was quite familiar with Wendell Berry and his works and agreed to be the speaker at each of the branch's Book Discussions.

Vacationing with All Seasons

Travel: Participants in this program were treated to the many trips, past and future, enjoyed by local travel agent Carrie Welch. She also discussed the many benefits of planning your trips by using a travel agency and welcomed questions at the end of the program.

Learn about Long Distance Cycling:

Kelli Nantz shared her travels through photos, and her paths to Wisconsin, Maine and Florida. She also gave valuable information to novices on equipment, packing and more.

American

Citizen CPR: The Red Cross instructed citizens on "Hands-Only CPR". This class had no prerequisite training or minimum age to learn this life-saving technique.
