

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT FOR MAY 2014

Display Case: Our display case for this month is Owl Figurines. These figurines and plates were borrowed from Judy Groholske.

Historical American Farm Windmills:

Windmill enthusiast Jim Koch presented a program on windmills and the MidAmerican Windmill Museum. He discussed the history of windmills and wind power.

Buying and Selling on Ebay: Staff member Curtis Odom gave instructions on using Ebay including Paypal accounts, bidding and selling, payment options, mailing items and more.

Vascular Screening by Allegiance Health: Allegiance Health Vascular Laboratory held a free vascular screening here. Patients were screened and given their results before leaving.

Poetry Contest: 15 entries were received for our National Poetry Month Poetry Contest. Three volunteers judges the poems with Richard Christensen declared the winner. He received a cash prize for his winning poem.

Poetry Contest Winner
Richard Christensen

Gourd Artist Beverly Gerner:

Gourd Artist Beverly Gerner will share her skill and passion for gourd art. Cancelled due to family illness. Will be rescheduled at a later date.

