

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT FOR AUGUST 2014

Putting Depression and Grief in Their Place: Licensed Psychologist Carl Semmelroth led a discussion on what depression and grief is, why it happens and paths to recovery. He also answered questions at the end of the discussion.

Making Paper Bead Bracelets: Visitors to this craft class learned to make a colorful bracelet out of cut and wrapped paper strips.

T-Shirt Fabric Flowers: This upcycling class showed participants how to use old t-shirts to create beautiful flowers for headbands, pins, and other embellishment.

Adult Summer Reading Program: Participants in the Adult Summer Reading Program this year read a book, gave a narrative of the book and entered a drawing for prizes. Four prizes were given out to the lucky winners.

Tarzan Slept Here: Local author Michael A. Hatt discussed his new book that chronicles the over two decades that famous author Edgar Rice Burroughs spent in the Coldwater area. He also had copies of the book to sign and sell.
