

Adult Programming Report for September 2014

Display Case: This month's display case features Origami created by Mindy Young. Mindy is also teaching an Origami class for us this month.

eBay Class: Library employee Curtis Odom taught a class on buying and selling on eBay.

Ireland-London Adventure: David Sherfield presented a program on his recent trip to Ireland and London. It featured photos of the trip, souvenirs and tips for traveling to Europe.

Mozart the Feminist: Did Mozart's Masonic beliefs influence his treatment of women? This question, as well as others, were answered by Mozart Scholar Dr. Murl Sickbert at this presentation.

Origami Class: Mandy Young shared her talent of creating intricate origami designs. She also featured some of her creative figures in our display case.

