

Kids' Place November 2014 Report

The Homeschool Adventure Group completed a family history unit in October. Marcelle Foley presented her experiences as an immigrant from France. Presentations about their family tree were given. The children created artistic representations of their heritage and made a family quilt.

Star Wars Reads Day!

Library patrons of all ages enjoyed our annual Star War Reads Day. The costumes, a Jedi scavenger hunt, the Wookiee bookmarks, making light sabers (and trying them out), and the Yoda Soda and Chewbacca dessert were just a few of the highlights of the day. The force was strong with this one...

Crafts!

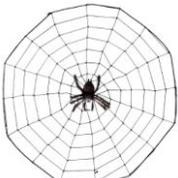

Over fifty children and their parents or caregivers participate weekly in our four separate teaching storytimes for children ages birth to five years. These thematic reading and learning times are enjoyed by all. It's great to watch these children grow in their appreciation of books and their love of the library.
