

Adult Programming Report for November 2014

Display Case: The display case for November continues to be turtles. The next display will be a collection of Nut Crackers.

Loom Knitting with Heidi: Staff member Heidi Rawson taught participants how to knit using a small, round loom at this well attended program. Those in attendance were able to make and take home a water bottle cozy.

It's A Girl Movie: The documentary “It's a Girl” was the feature film at this program. The movie focuses on the devaluation of females in other countries and the practice of “gendercide”.

Meet the Authors: 80/20 Landlording: This program featured co-authors of the book “80/20 Landlording” Sheamus Clarke and Scott Stellhorn. The book covers property management, tenant predators and more.

