

Adult Programming Report for March 2015

Display Case: This month's Display Case featured a collection of beads and beaded necklaces owned by Diane Hoskins.

Progress of Black Americans: Margie Carrington presented a program on the contributions and progress of Black Americans. She also screened a portion of the movie "Gifted Hands: The Ben Carson Story."

4 Keys to Unlocking Work You Love: Career Coach Justin Gentry presented a workshop on discover and create work they enjoy by discovering their strengths, learning how your values play a role in your career, clarifying your passion to turn it into a vocation, and more.

Gifted Hands: The Ben Carson Story: Attendees enjoyed viewing the movie that tells of Ben Carson's life and career. There were two viewings offered on different days.

Branch County's Participation in the Underground Railroad: Dave Renshaw, who works in the Heritage Room of the library, shared his knowledge of Branch County's participation in the Underground Railroad.

