

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT OCTOBER 2015

Display Case: This month's display features a life-time assortment of Shirley Temple collectibles from fan Barbara Taylor. Barbara will also be speaking on Shirley Temple in the future.

Quilts Talk To Me: Sue Houchen shared her collection of old and new quilts and her knowledge of quilting past and present.

Make a Bird Silhouette: Due to demand, another bird silhouette class was conducted. This time the silhouettes were placed on wood squares with bird related sheet music as the background. Crafters got to choose which song they preferred “Rockin' Robin” or “His Eye is on the Sparrow”.

The power to heal lives.

Partnering to Save and Improve Lives

Jennifer Tislerics
Special Events & Partnerships Coordinator
jtislerics@giftoflifemichigan.org
734-922-1049 or 800-482-4881, ext. 1048

Michigan Libraries for Life: From October 5th – October 10th a table was set up on the 1st floor with information on becoming an organ/tissue donor. They were also given the opportunity to register as an organ/tissue donor, have questions answered and pick up pamphlets to take with them. We wish to thank Altrusa and other volunteers for their help in manning the table.