

ADULT PROGRAMMING REPORT

December 2015

Display Case: This month's display features Snowman Figurines from the private collection of Judy Groholske.

Processing and Releasing Emotions with Oils: Kayla DePew returned to discuss how to use essential oils to improve your emotional health.

Essential Oils 101: A collection of eleven oils created by Young Living was highlighted. These "Everyday Oils" were discussed. They create an amazing support for our mind, body and emotions every day.

Free Movie Matinee: The movie "Ricki and the Flash" was shown with popcorn and water provided.

Learn to Make a German

Star: Offered again this year, participants were able to create this cute ornament. This craft was presented by former staff member Jeanne Berg.

Iris Folding Craft: The art of Iris Folding was utilized to create a Christmas Greeting Card.

Christmas Craft Contest: For the first time, patrons were asked to enter our Christmas Craft Contest. They were to make a Christmas themed item from old books. There were 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners who received a cash prize.

